Thought for the week

August is slowly coming to an end, and already we are aware that the days are getting shorter, and there is a hint of Autumn creeping in. The All-Ireland camogie, hurling and football finals and the Rose of Tralee are now over for this year. And in conversations you will hear talk about "back to school" and how quickly the summer is going! Our gardens have reached their peak of summer colour and lots of other endings are all around us. While this is true, we can also redirect our thoughts to search for new beginnings. The most immediate beginning is the gift of today, and it is our blank canvas to add what colours we want. We ask for God's guidance as we continue our earthly journey towards him, we ask for God's direction and many blessings on each of us today. We look forward to the rest of this month of August, and for the chance to embrace every new beginning.

This week's bulletin has been sponsored in memory of the Woods family, Mullaghmakervy.

Pastoral Policy for visitation of the sick: The question has often been raised about visitation of the sick. The priest will only visit a sick person at the request of that person's family. This is out of respect for those who are ill and are recovering or undergoing long term treatment. Fr Kieran or Fr Michael are happy to visit an ill person in their home. We will not arrive on a doorstep uninvited.

For the above reasons it is advisable to only book anniversary Masses for a weekend Mass Saturday at 7pm or 9.30am on a Sunday.

NOTICE: From September 1st 2026 ALL WEEKEND ANNIVERSARY MASSES are to be booked only through the Parish Office in writing by either texting Parish mobile on 087 6455 729 or emailing magheracloone@clogherparishes.ie for both Churches.
