Thought for today:

What we believe about God matters. More than anything else in the world. And there is no more important time to wrestle with this than right now.

In the midst of all that is going on today throughout the world we must confess our faith and trust in Jesus believing with all our heart, soul mind and strength, that He is the saviour of our world, the Son of the living God.

Who promises to calm every storm, who offers us a peace that surpasses understanding, who is eager to hear our every prayer, and who assures us that He will be with us always, even to the end of time.

Nothing but Jesus

We all need some statements like Peter's that give a rock and a meaning to life, it gives us a clue of where we belong at deeper levels. We all need statements that express our faith in God. For Peter it was his faith in Jesus, the son of God. This would keep him going all of his life, even at times of unfaithfulness and danger. He could never forget that he had said, 'you are the Christ, the son of the living God'.

We might wonder who or what is a living God for us? Where we might put our basic trust? What is it that, if taken away, we would be lost without? We can give our lives to family, country, a political party, money. Some of these are worth our trust and some not so much.

We need the rock that Peter found in Jesus and Jesus in Peter. He was called rock only because of his relationship with Jesus Christ, the one who calls forth our faith and love and gives our lives a huge meaning.

It is not that we have nothing but Jesus - it is that we can integrate all that is important in life within our trust in him. It is God who reveals Jesus to us.

We want to give this to our younger people ~ a rock they can stand on in life, which nothing can demolish. This is Jesus, and in him all is created.

Recall strong convictions in your life.

Ask that they may be strengthened.

Lord, be my rock, my strong hold, my safety.
