Collection

Last weeks' Offertory Collection came to €1468. Thank you for your gift to God and His Church.

It is a crunch question in our time for each of us. Who do I say Jesus is for me? More basically, who is Jesus for me? How I see Jesus is a basic ingredient in how I see myself and others. Do I see myself as a child of God, a sibling of Jesus, and see others as siblings too?

It is fine to admire Peter's faith, but admiration on its own is barren. It must be imitated and replicated. It is unlikely that Peter blurted out the very exact theological answer that is attributed to him in this Gospel reading, but it is clear that he had a memory of the Transfiguration and glimpsed the truth about Jesus' relationship with the Father and had the courage to acknowledge that publicly, at least in the company of friends. Of course, Jesus had nourished that seedling of faith during their time together and this moment was a critical climax in the work of Jesus.

Peter's insight into who Jesus really was, was a pure gift from the Father, a gift that Peter responded to with customary enthusiasm, embracing all its implications including martyrdom.

By God's choice, a similar gift is offered to many of us. Our responses vary. Some settle for a traditional style of life, inspired by Christian values and supported by religious practice and live worthwhile and fulfilled lives without ever knowing Jesus. So far so good, but there is more on offer. This is what inspired and challenged Peter. He accepted the invitation to climb the mountain with Jesus, to walk the road of life with him, to listen to him and live accordingly, to wince at the horror of the Passion, to run searching for Jesus after his Resurrection, to wait for and accept the fullest coming of the Holy Spirit and so to experience the deeper friendship of Jesus, Son of God.

Am I open to accept such a gift and to live accordingly? Maybe God will surprise me in this Eucharist and in the days ahead. Come, Lord Jesus, come.

Prayers of the Angel

"My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You! I ask pardon of You for all those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You!"

"Most Holy Trinity; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."
