Weekly Reflection.

God's investment in us.

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus speaks of a stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone. The reference is probably to an irregularly shaped stone that builders found unsuitable for use on a wall they were building. However, it was discovered, perhaps by other builders, who realised that its irregular shape served it well as the keystone for an arch or a corner. Jesus was really speaking of himself there. He was the stone rejected by the builders, put to death on a cross. Yet he went on to become the keystone, the cornerstone, of a new spiritual building, the community of faith, which we call Church.

In today's second reading, Paul makes reference to everything that is true, that is noble, that is good and pure, everything that can be thought virtuous or worthy of praise. These are the fruits that God looks for in response to God's faithfulness to us. These are the fruits that God's abounding grace in our lives makes possible. This is what we are capable of because of God's investment in us.

Fr. Owen Joe.

Safeguarding Sunday

This weekend, we warmly welcome members of our Safeguarding Committee, who will be with us to present a report on safeguarding within our parishes and across the Diocese. Safeguarding is a responsibility that belongs to all of us, and we are grateful to those who give generously of their time, care and expertise in helping to ensure that our parishes remain safe and welcoming communities for everyone, especially children and vulnerable adults.

We thank the members of the Safeguarding Committee for their generous service and commitment, and we warmly welcome them among us this weekend.

Dear God,

Help us to be a church that:

Loves, welcomes, protects.

Listens, learns, serves.

Repents, restores, transforms.

Values, cares, believes.

God of Justice and compassion, hear our prayer.

Help us, heal us, guide us, we pray.

In Jesus name. Amen

PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY

Our Lady of the Rosary!

With all my heart I adore You and the wonderful prayer of the Rosary which You commanded all the faithful to recite.

Know that love for You and Your Son will burn forever in my heart.

I am begging you, surround me with your care.

Queen of the Holy Rosary!

Please fill me with all your faith, hope and love.

Let the prayer of the rosary bring true peace into my life, straighten my paths, and help me solve difficult matters.

I am begging you, let the rosary, prayed humbly and devoutly, bring me God's blessing and protect me from every evil.

Amen.

Morning Reflection Prayer for Self-Confidence

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for the gift of a new day.

As I begin this morning, help me to remember that my worth is found in You and not in the opinions of others or in my own doubts. Fill my heart with confidence, not pride, but the quiet assurance that I am created with purpose and loved without condition. Help me to recognise the gifts You have placed within me and give me the courage to use them wisely.

When fear or insecurity tries to take hold, remind me that I do not walk alone. Strengthen my mind, guide my words, and help me face each challenge with faith rather than worry.

Teach me to believe in the person You are shaping me to become. May I carry myself with kindness, speak with confidence, and trust that Your plans for me are good.

Today, let me walk with peace, knowing that I am enough because I am Yours. Amen.

Points to Ponder

Today's parable is a powerful message about God's patience, our responsibility, and the consequences of rejecting Him.

1. God Entrusts Us with His Blessings: Just as the landowner provided everything for the vineyard to thrive, God has given us all we need – His Word, His Spirit, and His grace. He calls us to be faithful stewards of His blessings. Are we using what God has given us for His glory? Do we honour Him with our time, talents, and resources?

2. God Is Patient, But There Are Consequences for Rejection: God's patience is great, but it is not limitless. When people continuously turn away from Him, they face the consequences of their choices. Jesus warned that the kingdom would be taken from those who rejected Him and given to those who bear its fruit.

3. Jesus, the Cornerstone We Must Build Our Lives On: We must ask ourselves: Is Jesus the cornerstone of our lives? Do we build our decisions, actions, and purpose on Him? Or are we trying to build on our own understanding? Only when Christ is our foundation can we truly bear fruit for God's kingdom.

4. A Call to Repentance and Fruitfulness: The religious leaders understood that Jesus was speaking about them, but instead of repenting, they sought to kill Him. God desires that we bear fruit, that is, to live lives filled with faith, love, and obedience. He calls us to humility and repentance, turning from self-centeredness to Him.

May we embrace Christ as our foundation, live faithfully, and bear the fruit that glorifies God. Peoplaid.com

'Being Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction.' Pope Benedict XVI (DCE 1)

'It is no use walking somewhere to preach unless our walking is our preaching.' Saint Francis of Assisi

An evangeliser must never look like someone who has just come back from a funeral. 'Pope Francis

The Season of Creation Sept 1st - Oct 14th “is the annual Christian celebration to pray and respond together to the cry of Creation: the ecumenical family around the world unites to contemplate and care for our common home. This year, we will unite around the theme “Living Water”, inspired by Ezekiel 47:9 - a powerful biblical vision of hope and ecological healing. Set amid exile and loss, the image of living water flowing from God’s sanctuary reveals divine healing that renews land, water, biodiversity, and human responsibility towards the whole creation. The Season of Creation continues until 4th October. For further information, including prayers and reflections, visit Season of Creation 2026 | Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference

Church re- opening Fr Martin & Fr. Michael welcomes back our parishioners to the weekday & Sunday Masses. It's great having a live congregation back in the church after the long lockdown. All those attending are reminded that face covering are a necessary part of life still if we are to ensure the safety and health of each other while in the church and in the grounds. It is most important that people who are vulnerable or unwell, and especially those with any symptoms that might suggest Covid-19 infection, should stay at home and, if possible, participate, via webcam. The same applies to those who have been in recent contact with someone who has the virus, in accordance with public health advice. We look forward to welcoming you back.

Anniversary Masses

People are encouraged to have these Masses on a Friday evening as well as the Sunday Mass. This will ensure that there is no overcrowding in the church during any Mass Meeting of Ushers. After the Wednesday evening Mass there will be a short meeting to organise ushers over the next few months. Present ushers and new members are invited to attend.

Church cleaning Thanks to all those that have helped in keeping the inside of the church and the grounds clean and tidy. The work of both groups is greatly appreciated.

WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY is celebrated throughout the Catholic Church. The theme this year is "Come and See" (Jn 1:46). Communicating by Encountering People Where and as They Are. Pope Francis tells us that 'the Gospel comes alive in our own day, whenever we accept the compelling witness of people whose lives have been changed by their encounter with Jesus... The challenge that awaits us today, is to communicate by encountering people, where they are and as they are.'

Ordained a priest in 1971, Fr Halton gave fifty-five years of generous service to the people of the various parishes in which he served, and to many others also. He served from 1976 to 1983 in our 'Parish of Magheracloone' Commenting on Fr Halton's death, the bishop said: 'Once again the priests and people of the Diocese of Clogher mourn the sudden passing of a priest who has given great service to people. Sometimes we discover what a community is when something happens that asks something of us. Over these past days, following the death of Father Halton, many people quietly did what needed to be done. People prayed. People prepared the church. People welcomed and organised. People provided music and hospitality. People looked after practical things that others hardly noticed. No one person could have carried everything. And perhaps that is worth noticing. A parish is not simply a place from which we receive things: Mass, the sacraments, schools, funerals, pastoral care. A parish is something to which we belong. And belonging asks something of us. It asks us to notice what is needed, to recognise what we can contribute, and sometimes simply to be there for one another. These past days have been sad days for our parish. But within the sadness, something good has also been revealed: when something needed to be carried, there were people willing to carry it. That is something for which to be grateful. And it is something upon which we can build.
