Booking Masses, Baptisms and Weddings As parish office opening hours have been reduced slightly, we are returning to our previous practice of booking Masses, baptisms and weddings in person, in the sacristy after Masses.

Masses can be booked well in advance to ensure your preferred dates are available.

Baptisms can only be booked by the child's parent or legal guardian. At least one month's notice is required. To book a baptism parents must present the child's long birth certificate, complete the baptism request form, meet with one of our Baptism team and attend weekly Mass during the month prior to the date of the Baptism

Weddings can be booked by the couple themselves. Couples are required to give at least six months' notice of marriage to ensure the preferred date is available and that there is adequate time to complete all Civil and Church paperwork.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Lord Jesus, you gave yourself fully to spread the message of your Good News, but even the best of your disciples were slow to understand the meaning of it all. Increase our faith and hope that your word of love will always live on through us.

Thought for the Week

“We must speak to God as a friend, now asking some favour, now acknowledging our faults and communicating to him all that concerns us, our thoughts, our fears, our projects, our desires, and in all things seek his counsel.”

Farewell

Dear Parishioners,

As the saying goes I hate long goodbyes and it seems a long time since I was told by Bishop Alan I was retiring and leaving Antrim Parish.

I have enjoyed my 16 years here, due mainly to the people of the Parish. I have always found a warm welcome, a generous spirit and willingness to forgive.

I will always keep the Parish of Antrim and the parishioners in my prayers. I wish you God's blessings and commend you to the excellent care of your new Parish Priest, Fr. Patsy Mulholland.

Go raibh maith agat agus bennacht Dia libh

16th AUGUST 2026
20th SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

Priest: Heavenly Father, you love us without distinction. Help us to see you in everyone we meet, for all are your children, and you are the Father of us all. With child-like trust we bring our prayers to you.

For the Church: that our faith communities may always be a ‘house of prayer’ and a welcoming home for all people

Let us pray to the Lord

For our parish community: that nourished by the Eucharist, we may recognise the gifts God has given us and joyfully reach out to support those in need around us.

Let us pray to the Lord.

For all seeking refuge from war, conflict, exploitation, poverty, famine or trafficking. May God protect them in their exile, keep them safe from harm, and lead them to a place of peace.

Let us pray to the Lord

Give courage and strength to the young as they prepare for college, employment or apprenticeships. Help them to choose their work and make the right decisions for their way of life.

Let us pray to the Lord

Give patient tolerance to those who are no longer young. Open the hearts of the young to accept from them understanding and love.

Let us pray to the Lord

We pray for all those who are suffering. May they, like the woman in the gospel, experience Christ’s power to heal them and their loved ones.

Let us pray to the Lord

For those who have died:

Recently Deceased: John Hughes, Elizabeth Hannon

Why Our Lady of Knock is celebrated on two different days in Ireland

‘The anniversary of the apparition at Knock is on August 21, but most of Ireland honours Our Lady on August 17 in the liturgy.

Our Lady appeared in Knock on the night of August 21, 1879. Though she never said a word, her appearance comforted many and gave a renewed vigour to the faith of the people of Ireland, and encouraged many to turn to the Virgin Mary.

The anniversary of this apparition is remembered each year at the Knock Shrine on August 21 with a special liturgy offered at the site of Mary's appearance.

However, the rest of Ireland celebrates Our Lady of Knock on August 17. It is classified as a "memorial," and parishes around Ireland may celebrate Our Lady's apparition on that day.

Currently this celebration is only on select calendars, primarily in Ireland, and not on the universal Roman calendar.

Knock Shrine social media explains that, "Although the Anniversary of the Apparition takes place on the 21st August, the 17th August was chosen as the Feast day of our Lady of Knock, as the 21st August is already assigned to St. Pius X, the Pope of the Eucharist."

For the rest of Ireland (and most of the Roman Catholic world), August 21 remains dedicated to St. Pius X. The rationale behind the switching of liturgical days is to give more focus to a particular feast day, instead of supplanting one that is already being widely celebrated.’
(By Philip Kosloski)

Our Lady of Knock, pray for us!

Fighting for her child

She was a woman like many. She would fight for her child, so she took on Jesus, the best-known religious figure around. Like someone taking on the minister for health or children over a medical card for a chronically ill child and not letting them off the hook. Jesus was testing her. He saw faith, but he wanted everyone else to see it. So, he told her she didn't fit into the local religious sphere because she was foreigner, like an asylum seeker or a refugee. She knew she fitted into the heart of Jesus simply because she was the mother of a sick child and believed he could help.

Even if he would cure everyone, maybe he would come back to her at the end. Jesus went further - he cured her child and praised her faith.

She is another of the unnamed people of the gospel. Like the woman of Samaria, the rich young man, the thief on Calvary - she is herself, and she is all of us. She is everyone, man and woman, of faith.

Faith in a surprising God who, in Jesus, his Son, never says no to goodness. Faith that keeps us energetic and alive, not tired, in soul as well as body.

*Remember your feeling of gratitude for the children of your family.
Lord, I believe. Strengthen my faith.*

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP—2026 DIOCESAN PILGRIMAGE TO LOURDES Many thanks to the parishioners of Glenavy & Killead for their generous donation of £1,355 in support of the Diocesan Pilgrimage. The donation will help provide the equipment and supplies needed to care for the sick and vulnerable pilgrims who are at the heart of the pilgrimage. They also support our staff with subsidized fares. Please be assured that all our associate pilgrims are remembered each day during the pilgrimage in Lourdes.

Liturgical 'Sign of Peace' The Sign of Peace remains an integral part of the celebration of the Eucharist and has been reintroduced as a normal practice across the Diocese. The customary expression of the Sign of Peace in Ireland is a handshake. However, other non-contact forms of the sign of peace such as a nod, a bow or a smile are also legitimate expressions of the Sign of Peace. No offence should be taken if someone prefers to express a non-contact Sign of Peace. The Diocese encourages all to continue to exercise good hygienic practices, and if you exhibit flu-like symptoms, you are encouraged to remain at home.

Church Webcam The church webcam for live stream of Masses can be accessed via the Parish Website www.glenavyandkilleadparish.com Go to the top line and click on webcams and pick either Mater Dei or Glenavy. It can also be accessed at www.churchmedia.tv. Select Antrim & search for St Joseph's, Glenavy or Mater Dei, Crumlin and the churches will appear. Click on the play button to view live stream. The webcams enable us to attend Mass, however they do not allow us to receive the Eucharist, The Body of Christ. When possible, we should attend Mass in the Church whenever our circumstances permit in order to receive Holy Communion.

MUSIC AT ST JOSEPH'S There is an urgent need to recruit an organist or guitarist or pianist, if you or someone you know would be interested in this position please contact Canon McBride as soon as possible.

Making your offering to the church Parishioners are encouraged to make donations to the parish either by using the parish envelopes or by means of bank transfer. It is of great benefit to the parish when we can record donations so that gift aid can be claimed, if applicable. If you would like to donate using envelopes and don't already do so, please contact the parish office. Alternatively, if you are able, you are encouraged to make a monthly offering to the Church by means of a Bank Transfer to: Parish of Glenavy and Killead Sort Code 98 04 60, Account 10654677. The relevant forms are available at the back of the Churches. Both forms need to be completed with one sent to your Bank and the other to the parish office. If you have any queries, please contact the Parish Support Officer in confidence. Please note that there is a separate account number for the Parish Draw and this should not be used when making a weekly donation.

THE NATIONAL NOVENA TO OUR LADY OF KNOCK. Takes place from 13th August to 21st August. A full programme of events is available at www.knockshrine.ie. For those wishing to pray the novena at home, you can join online for the 3pm & 8pm ceremonies. A prayer leaflet is also available in both churches.

Our Lady of Knock, Queen of Ireland, you gave hope to your people in a time of distress, and comforted them in sorrow. You have inspired countless pilgrims to pray with confidence to your divine Son, remembering his promise, “Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find”.

CONGRATULATIONS to the young people of our parish, on your recent exam achievements. May the Holy Spirit guide you in your choices for the future.

PRAYER FOR STUDENTS WHO WILL RECEIVE EXAM RESULTS IN THE COMING WEEKS. Lord, remind me that You hold me safe, You understand me, and you cherish me. I lay down my fears before You. I leave them at the foot of the cross, for You have overcome the world. I choose to give You all my concerns, worries and fears of failure. I trust that Your loving hand will hold me through these exam results, and lead into a bright future. Amen.

Jubilee Year of Saint Francis

“Blessed is the servant who loves those who are sick and useless, as much as those who are well, and can be of service. And blessed is the servant who loves those as well when they are far away, as when they are near, and who would speak as lovingly behind another’s back, as before that person’s face”.

(St Francis)

Farewell by Fr Henry McCann. This Sunday 9th August will mark the last Sunday Mass celebrated by me in the parish of St Anthony, as its parish priest. I thank God for 12 fond and fulfilling years I have spent working with parishioners here. I have been privileged to help parishioners to come to a deeper knowledge of the faith that has sustained many in this parish and church of St Anthony, since its opening in 1938, and its subsequent formation as a parish outright in 1955. I have acknowledged the various previous parish priests who have supported the faith community. I have seen the pride with which parishioners have supported this parish and church remembering its difficult years during the Troubles. I have acknowledged the deep faith of the remnant of those parishioners, and the Polish community who has also found it a home, fostering their language, customs and traditions which are witnesses to their deep faith as well. I have witnessed the many other nationals who have come to find it their home, from Eastern European nationals, Philippino, Indian, Goan, African, Chinese, Portugese, and many others besides. We have witnessed together the 80th Anniversary of the Opening of St Anthony's in 1918 by Bishop Noel Treanor and the commissioning of the then Pastoral Council. We have coped with the recent Covid-19 Pandemic, which has led to the broadcasting of mass on Facebook Live. I have found the support of parishioners and visitors to the parish as something alive and faith-filled, encouraging my ministry and vocation. And hopefully in the guidance of parishioners and visitors to St Anthony's they have found in me a loyal and faithful shepherd after the heart of Jesus the Good Shepherd. I continue to be the Chaplain to the Ulster Hospital, Dundonald, as I move to the parish of St Malachy, in the city centre, on the weekend of 15th August, but I hope not to be stranger, as we as clergy continue to work in the family of Parishes of St Anthony's, St Malachy's, St Matthew's, St Colmcille's (Ballyhackamore) and St Colmcille's (Holywood).
I pray that the parish can cope with the absence of a resident priest, and give support to Fr Peter Carlin, parish priest of St Matthew's as he prepares to take up the pastoral leadership of what was its daughter parish. I am certain that you will welcome and give Fr Carlin the same support and prayers as you have given to me. I wish you every blessing from God as we mark a further stage along the history of the parish of St Anthony's and in the life of the diocese. May the of parishioners and visitors continue to be strengthened and nourished into the future. God bless you all. Fr Henry.

A Brief history of St Malachy's Church, Kilclief

The first Church dedicated to St Malachy was erected in 1785 when the Parish Priest was Fr John Fitzsimons. It replaced several small Chapels in the area. Mass was also held in houses and fields. It cost £200 and was paid for by subscription. Over the altar there was a painting of the Crucifixion. The Church was capable of seating 280 people and there was a sundial on the walls.

A school was held in the Chapel then.

A gallery was added to increase its capacity in 1830.

The ruins of the original Church are still accessible through the Cemetery.

In 1925 a porch was built but was later replaced by a geometrical tower which housed the bell which was blessed by Fr Crossin on 15th August 1952 and was rung for the first time. Fr Crossin christened the new bell "Joseph".

Unfortunately the bell cracked and a new bell was fitted and blessed on 10th May 1956.

In 1968/69 an assessment was carried out on the Church which stated the roof and walls were in an advanced state of decay and it was decided the Church should be replaced. The site for the new Church was given to the Parish by Mrs Cultra of Ballywooden. The last Mass was celebrated in the old Church on 5th January 1969.

Mass was first celebrated in the new Church on 4th April 1971.

The Church was dedicated to St Malachy, blessed and officially opened by the Most Rev Dr Philbin on 16th May 1971.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day
he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Loving and Generous God,
it is You who call us by name and ask us to follow you.
Help us to grow in the Love and service of our Church
as we experience it today.
Give us the energy and courage of Your Spirit to shape its future.
Grant us faith-filled leaders who will embrace Christ's Mission of love and justice.
Bless the Church by raising up dedicated and generous leaders from our families and friends who will serve Your people as Sisters, Priests, Brothers, Permanent Deacons and Lay Ministers.
Inspire us to know You better and open our hearts to hear Your call.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Anam Cara is very pleased to announce our first Bereavement Information Evening especially dedicated to supporting surviving siblings this autumn. As part of our commitment to supporting everyone following the death of a child, we are exploring opportunities to further support the entire family. This event is the first, hopefully of many, of that commitment. This event is open to all parents whose child or children have died, regardless of the age of their child, circumstances of their death, or time since bereavement. We are also opening this Bereavement Information Evening to bereaved adult siblings over 18. This event will take place online on Tuesday 15 September at 7pm. We are joined by an exceptional panel of local organisations and experts in sibling bereavement. Michelle Hartnett is a senior play therapist, systemic practitioner, and bereavement specialist currently working with LauraLynn, Ireland's Children's Hospice, with over 15 years' experience supporting families through serious illness, grief, and loss.
Michelle holds an MSc in Systemic Therapy and an MSc in Bereavement Studies, and is a Grief Consultant with Middlesex University. She also holds a postgraduate certificate and diploma in Play Therapy from NUI Galway. Anna May is founder of The Student Grief
Network and Executive Head of Grief Programmes at Kaplan International. She lost her brother as a child and her dad as a young adult, and is passionate about improving the support that people get following a bereavement. Anna is also a writer and artist, interested in how creativity can help us explore difficult human experiences and build more connected ways of living. We are also joined by Childhood Cancer Ireland, Jacinta's Smile, and Rainbows. In the world of grief and loss, siblings, especially adult siblings, are often called 'forgotten mourners.' Siblings face not only their own loss, but often the loss of their parents and families as they knew them, the loss of the only person who was present of their whole life, and often the loss of a close friend.
We believe this is why it is essential to begin forming an all-island bereavement support for adult siblings facing all kinds of sibling loss.

MEDICAL MISSIONARIES OF MARY: The Medical Missionaries of Mary have been invited to visit us this year and will be in Downpatrick Parish on the weekend of 22nd and 23rd August 2026. They will speak of their work, mainly in Africa and South America, and their mission to bring Christ's healing love to those most in need. Our parish and our diocese have supported MMM generously in the past, both in finance and in prayer, and MMM wishes to express gratitude for that support and to emphasise that we here at home are the body of mission, and those who are sent to far away places are the hands and the feet. When they speak to us and share their story they serve as a connection between us and those whom they serve.

Sunday Gospel Take heart; it is I. Do not be afraid. In the readings this week, we witness the full range of the earth's natural order: the mountains, the wind, the sea, an earthquake and fire. Through all the upheaval and suffering that life may bring, we are reminded of God's ever-loving presence. In the First Reading, a solitary Elijah is invited to go to the mountain to pray. God reveals himself to Elijah not in the dramatic events he witnesses, but in a gentle, low whisper. The Gospel retells another dramatic encounter with the earth's elements: this time the disciples are caught aboard their boat in a storm. Consumed by fear, it takes some time for them to recognise Jesus and accept his saving help. May we be confident of the enduring presence of our Lord as we navigate our own stormy waters. We need only reach out to him.
