STAR OF THE SEA, DESERTEGNEY Masses streamed on www.youtube.com/@BuncranaParish Sunday 23 Aug - Mass at 9:45am		ROSARY The Rosary is said in the Oratory at 9.30am before Mass Monday to Thursday.		READINGS FOR 20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME First Reading: Is 56:1, 6-7. This passage from Isaiah serves to introduce today’s much-loved gospel passage. The time of writing was probably after 500 BC. The Lord will welcome those Gentiles who come to ‘observe and who cling to my (Mosaic) Covenant.’ God’s house will become for all people a house of heartfelt prayer. Second Reading: Rom. 11:13-15, 29-32. It had been the definitive rejection of Christ by the Jews that had driven the Apostles out of Jerusalem to bring salvation to the Gentiles, i.e., people like the Romans and the Greeks. Yet Paul continues to long that God’s mercy may somehow triumph in achieving the conversion of his countrymen. Their choice by God as the Chosen People was permanent and will never be revoked. Gospel: Mt. 15:21-28. Leaving the argumentative Pharisees and scribes behind, Jesus had moved to southern Lebanon. There he encounters a pagan woman who addresses him with an ardent plea. His initially harsh attitude towards her alters mid-stream. He uses the incident to show his disciples how the Lord will always listen to the pleas, made in humble faith, even of pagans
