Mercy to every person “Lord”, the woman said, “help me.” Human life is too big and too complex for any of us to live it on our own. We have all kinds of people and relationships to help us to wholeness. The most important one of all has to be the presence of Christ with us. The intimate relationships of marriage and family life, for example, change so often and so deeply that we cannot manage them on our own. Christ is with us to help us see the opportunities for ever greater loving and to give us the strength to grow in our love. Relationships within the faith community are also so complex that we cannot possibly build our unity with one another except through the power of Christ. When we depend on our own efforts, we set very low limits and settle for mediocrity. When we call on the power of Christ, and live by his power, we are set free to reach for the stars.

We look forward to welcoming the parishioners from the Three Patrons, Derry, to our church this Tuesday evening. The Three Patrons are undertaking a Marian pilgrimage, visiting the parishes of Ardmore, Feeny, Dungiven, Maghera, and Lavey.

The Famine Bell

We have recently acquired, through the good auspices of the Late Father Liam Donnelly, a very old church bell. This bell was cast during the famine years.

It is hoped to place the bell in the old cemetery near the old church ruin in memory of the victims of the Great Famine, many of whom are buried here. It is also a memorial to all victims of conflict in the years since the building of the Church in 1803.

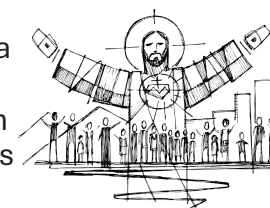

The bell also reminds us that the law of the land forbade Church bells when the old church was built. This was one of the Penal Laws.

Going further back, it also links us to the Great St. Patrick's Bell, which was for many years concealed in Mayogall for safety.

Prayer for Vocations

That the men called to priesthood will "...have a care for justice [and] act with integrity.." as they preach the message of God's salvation for everyone, the Good News that the Church is "...a house of prayer for all the peoples."
