Called to Serve – Join Our Parish Ministries

Our parish is a family, & every member has something valuable to offer. We invite you to consider sharing your time, gifts & talents by volunteering for one of our parish ministries. Whether it is proclaiming God's Word as a Reader, assisting as a Minister of the Eucharist, helping to keep our church beautiful through the Altar Society & cleaning, sharing your gift of music in the Choir, arranging flowers, spending time in Adoration, being a server at Mass, or helping with the preparation of the church for special celebrations & parish events, your contribution can make a real difference. We are also looking for parishioners who would be willing to serve on the Parish Pastoral Council, helping us to listen, plan & work together for the life & future of our parish.

You do not need to have previous experience, just a willing heart & a desire to serve. Even a small commitment of your time can be a beautiful way of putting our faith into action & helping our parish community grow stronger together.

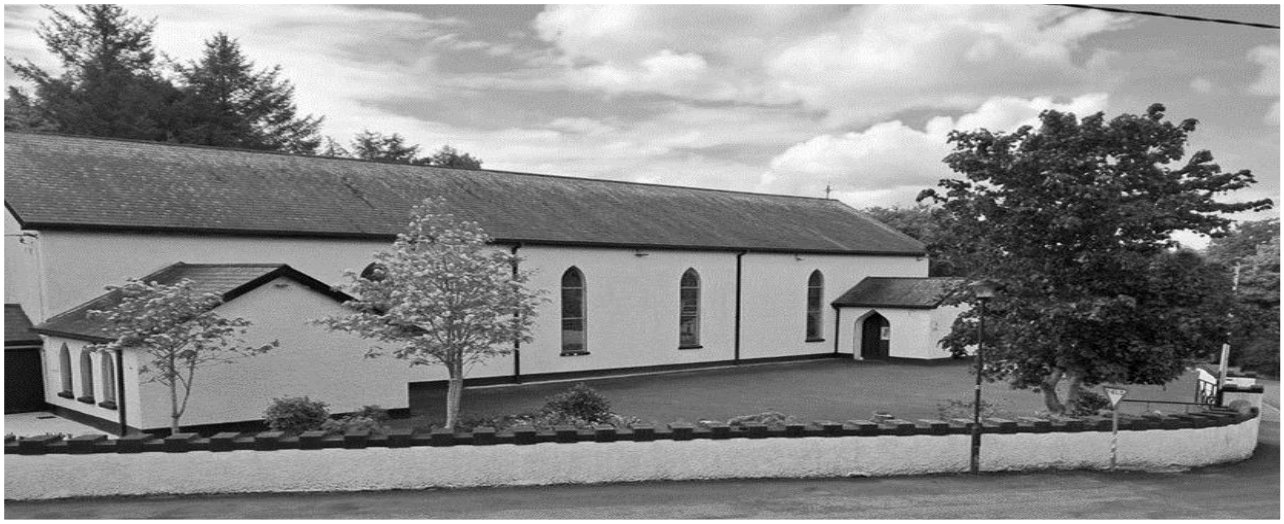

Please write your name & phone number on the leaflet provided & tick the box(es) beside the ministry or ministries you would be willing to volunteer for. Please return the completed leaflet to Fr Peter or any member of the Parish Pastoral Council.

Thanks to all who are already involved in the various ministries, thank you for your generosity, your willingness to serve, & for helping to make our parish a welcoming & vibrant community for everyone.

Offertory Boxes for 2027; are available at Church doors. Like all parishes, we are dependent on the support of our congregation to enable us to continue ministering to the Parish by maintaining our churches and supporting our day to day running and utility costs. With falling attendances in recent years, this is more important than ever, and I really appreciate your contributions and thank you most sincerely for your generous support, it is not taken for granted. If anyone else requires an offertory box please contact Fr. Peter.

REMEMBERING OUR LOVED ONES

The writer George Eliot once stated that 'Our dead are never dead to us until we have forgotten them.' We may not need a particular day or month to bring our deceased loved ones to mind and yet praying for the dead during November is more than just remembering, it is an act of love and faith. The Church sets aside this month, beginning with All Saints' and All Souls' Days, to remember all the faithful departed, a practice rooted in the belief in the Communion of Saints, the spiritual union of all believers, on earth, in purgatory, and in heaven. Praying for the dead is also for Catholics a spiritual work of mercy as well as an act of love offered for them. It acknowledges our belief in Purgatory, a state of final purification for those who die in God's grace but are not yet perfectly cleansed. Our presence and our prayers, especially at Mass, assist souls on this journey towards the ultimate Christian vision of seeing God face to face where there is complete happiness and lasting peace. Inevitably too our prayer for the dead is also a reminder of our own mortality. As we pray for those gone before us, we are humbled and sometimes haunted by the realisation that our time on earth is short and to examine our priorities. The Beatles put it well many years ago 'Life is very short and there's no time for fussing and fighting my friends'. Last December Pope Leo encouraged Christians to reflect upon the reality of death because above all he reminded those listening, 'it teaches us to choose what we really want to make of our existence.' So this November, let us embrace this life affirming tradition, offering our prayers as a gift of love to all of our brothers and sisters awaiting the fullness of God's presence.

(Paul Clayton-Lea, Intercom, Nov 2026)

BEATIFICATION PRAYER

Dear Jesus, the Venerable Patrick Peyton devoted his priestly life to strengthening the families of the world by calling them to pray together everyday, especially the Rosary. His message is as important for us now as it was during his life on earth. We beg you, therefore, to hasten the day of his beatification, so that your faithful people everywhere will remember his message that the family that prays together stays together, will imitate him in his devotion to your Mother and ours, and will be inspired by his holy life to draw ever closer to you with childlike confidence and love. Amen

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Readings at Mass

First reading

A reading from Apocalypse7: 4, 9-14

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, 'Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.' Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel. After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, 'Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words, 'Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.' One of the elders then spoke, and asked me, 'Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from?' I answered him, 'You can tell me, my lord.' Then he said, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.'

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Response: Such are the men who seek your face, O Lord.

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness, the world and all its peoples. It is he who set it on the seas; on the waters he made it firm. R

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord? Who shall stand in his holy place? The man with clean hands and pure heart, who desires not worthless things. R

He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him. Such are the men who seek him, seek the face of the God of Jacob. R

Second reading

A reading from: 1John 3: 1-3

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us. My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is. Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify himself, must try to be as pure as Christ.

The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Open our heart, O Lord, to accept the words of your Son. Alleluia!

A reading from the Holy Gospel according Matthew 1:1-12a

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them: 'How happy are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage. Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted. Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied. Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them. Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God. Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God. Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Profession of Faith

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

Blessing

The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

Bow your heads for God's blessing. May the Lord bless you and keep you.

R. Amen

May he let his face shine upon you and show you his mercy.

R. Amen

May almighty God bless you,

the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

R. Amen

The Solemnity of All Saints

1st November 2026

Sometimes the Beatitudes seem like ideals which are just too hard, or we may think we know better. But today's feast calls to mind men and women – some who are known to us perhaps – who really embody these ideals, and who are taught by the Spirit to learn from the Wisdom of Christ.

This great multitude of Christians are strengthened each day to seek the face of Christ; strengthened by the Holy Spirit. Some do so despite persecution, and great tribulation.

Many of our brothers and sisters in various parts of the world are still being killed and unjustly treated for their faith. And the witness of these saints gives us hope, and courage.

But there are also the little sacrifices offered each day for Christ; for truth, goodness, and love. Think, for example, of how often you might have had to be a peacemaker, or be merciful at home, or at work.

The path to holiness begins with an acknowledgement that we are sinners, and a longing for God's mercy and salvation. But the path winds through our kitchens and gardens, across our cars and schools, by our offices and homes, and into our hearts.

For it is ordinarily in these places that we hunger and thirst for righteousness… that we can seek God with a pure and undivided heart. And God's response is always to fill us with his blessing, giving us a share in the very life of the Blessed One, so that – if we persevere in friendship with God – we might ourselves become Blessed, and join the company of his saints.

Parish Eucharistic Adoration:

Monday morning at 10.30am until Friday night at 10.00pm

Today's Scripture Readings from Universalis

Entrance Antiphon

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honour of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

Readings at Mass

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse 7:2-4,9-14

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, 'Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.' Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel.
After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, 'Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words, 'Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.'
One of the elders then spoke, and asked me, 'Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from?' I answered him, 'You can tell me, my lord.' Then he said, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.'

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

R. Such are the men who seek your face, O Lord.

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness,
the world and all its peoples.
It is he who set it on the seas;
on the waters he made it firm. R

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things. R

He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the men who seek him,
seek the face of the God of Jacob. R

A reading from the first letter of St. John 1:5-10.

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, 'Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.' Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Open our heart, O Lord,
to accept the words of your Son.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to St. Matthew 22:34-40

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:
'How happy are the poor in spirit;
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy the gentle:
they shall have the earth for their heritage.
Happy those who mourn:
they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:
they shall be satisfied.
Happy the merciful:
they shall have mercy shown them.
Happy the pure in heart:
they shall see God.
Happy the peacemakers:
they shall be called sons of God.
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.

The Gospel of the Lord

Profession of Faith

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

"All the Saints of God are there to protect me, to sustain me and to carry me. And your prayers, my dear friends, your indulgence, your love, your faith and your hope accompany me."

Novena Prayer to St. Martin de Porres

Most humble St. Martin whose burning charity embraces all, but especially the sick, afflicted or in need, we turn to you for help in our present difficulties and we implore you to obtain for us from God health of soul and body, and in particular the favour we now ask.
May we, by imitating your charity and humility, find quiet and contentment all our days, and cheerful sub-mission to God's holy will in all the trials and difficulties of life. St. Martin, pray for us that we may be worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.
O God who exalts the humble and who made St. Martin your confessor to enter into the heavenly Kingdom, grant through his merits and intercession that we may so follow the example of his humility on earth as to deserve to be exalted with him in Heaven. Through Christ Our Lord Amen.

Charity Tax Rebate Scheme – the parish hopes to submit a claim to Revenue in Jan. 2027 for the 2026 financial year. The scheme allows all registered and regulated charities (including parishes) to reclaim the tax component of charitable donations made in a given year. If you pay tax and have contributed €250 or more, then your donations will already have been taxed. Revenue will refund the parish a standard 45 cents for every €1 donated. More information located at exit doors. Please take a copy of the green flyer home and, if you can help, fill in the minimal details and return.

Church Rotas – many thanks to all who are involved in the various ministries, especially at the weekend Masses – Readers, Ministers of Holy Communion, Basket Collectors etc., etc. Just a reminder ….. if someone on a rota can't make it, it would be appreciated if others could stand in for them on that occasion.

Offertory Envelopes for 2027 – are available at St. Joseph's altar. First and foremost, a big thank you for your ongoing very generous support of the church. It is much appreciated. The weekly figures published in the Newsletter speak for themselves. The percentage of people who use the weekly offertory envelope to donate to the church in preference to "loose plate" contributions is very high in this parish. This is to be commended, as it indicates a great ongoing commitment by parishioners to their local church. The envelope system also allows the parish to claim back the tax that has already been paid on donations. If you can help in this respect, please do. Early next year there will be a summary of church accounts for 2026 made available to parishioners. Again, many thanks for your support.

Revised Traffic Plans for outside Rockfield Church – No updates.

Letter from Bishop Kevin Doran
To: The people of Keash Parish.

'Dear Parishioners of Keash Parish,

I am writing to let you know that I have asked Fr. Gabriel Murphy to take on an additional assignment, while remaining Parish Priest of Keash. He has kindly agreed.
The background to my request is that, five years ago, I asked Deacon Damien Kearns to accept an appointment as Administrator of the Parish of Aughanagh (Elphin Diocese), with the support of Fr. Larry Behan as Sacramental Minister. Both men exercised their ministry on a purely voluntary basis, accepting only expenses personally incurred in the exercise of their ministry. I take this opportunity to thank them on your behalf for their very generous commitment.

Some months ago, Deacon Damien informed me that he needed to step back from his role in the parish and to focus his energy on his role as Chaplain at ATU St. Angela's, which he provides on a voluntary basis, alongside his professional employment at the University. Fr. Larry Behan has indicated his availability to continue as Sacramental Minister in Aughanagh, and I am very grateful to him for that. The Canon Law of the Church requires that the administration of the parish is overseen by a Priest. For reasons as of health, Fr. Larry is not in a position to take on that responsibility, and I fully respect that.

For some months now, I have been exploring various possibilities for the future of Aughanagh parish, including the possibility of joining the parish with a neighbouring parish. Having considered various options, I came to the conclusion that the best partnership would be between Aughanagh and Keash. What this means, in practice, is that Fr Gabriel will be Parish Priest of both Parishes and will take responsibility for administration. Fr. Gabriel and Fr. Larry will work together as a team to celebrate Mass and the Sacraments across the two parishes. The new arrangement will become effective from the weekend of Saturday 14th and Sunday 15th November. Our hope is that, in the coming weeks, we will be able to appoint a shared Parish Secretary on a part-time basis.

There is something rather unique in this arrangement, because it involves a new kind of relationship between two parishes, one of which is in Achonry and one of which is in Elphin. This reflects the new relationship between the two Dioceses, which are joined "in persona episcopi" and is made possible by the work that has been done over the last two years, in bringing the two Dioceses into a closer practical and pastoral relationship.

The two parishes of Aughanagh and Keash will remain distinct, each having its own Parish Pastoral Council and its own Parish Finance Council. It is my hope, however, that the parishioners, working in partnership with their priests, will recognise and embrace the opportunity to draw closer and to share pastoral initiatives, both within each parish and between the two parishes. This will not just avoid unnecessary duplication but will also allow for a richer sharing of spiritual and pastoral gifts.

Yours Sincerely,
✠ Kevin Doran
Bishop of Achonry and of Elphin

Knockbrack Cemetery – Update.

The donations towards the upkeep and grass cutting of the cemetery amounted to €2,770 this year. The cost for this work amounted to €3,000.
The contractor carrying out this work reluctantly charged €3000 this year as his overheads has increased considerably due to the cost of fuel etc. He will not be in a position to continue this work for the coming year unless the necessary funds are available to cover the cost.
Donations can still be given in to Cathal O'Gara, Anne Shepard, Sean Gallagher or Fr Gabriel.

Eastern Harps AGM.

Eastern Harps GAA Club wishes to advise that our AGM will take place on Thursday, 26th of November at 8:00 pm in our clubhouse in Keash.

Annual Special Remembrance Masses for the Dead.

Our Annual Special Remembrance Masses for the dead will take place on the weekend of the 28th/29th of November at both Masses. A member of each family will be invited to come forward to light a candle for their loved ones who have died. The names of those who have died during the past year will be recalled.

Sunday 15th November	10.30am	People of the Parish

PRAY for Evelyn Deegan, nee Byrne, formerly Canbrack whose funeral took place in Raheny, Dublin last week.
32ND SUNDAY: Often we light candles as a sign of remembering and as we light the candle we say a prayer for that person that they may be enjoying the marvellous light of heaven. The candle light reminds us that we too have the opportunity to share the light of hope that we carry, with others. When you are in a dark place, the warmth of a smile or a kind word can mean a lot. It may feel that our own light is very small and insignificant in times of much darkness but each time it is shared, it is not halved but doubled. Together we really can make a difference. (artofdyingwell.org)
NOV 09: The Basilica of Saint John Lateran in Rome is the Cathedral church of the Pope in his role as Bishop of the Diocese of Rome. It is called 'Saint John' after the two monasteries once attached, dedicated to Saint John the apostle and Saint John the Baptist. As the Cathedral Church of the Pope it has the title 'Mother and Head of all the churches of the City and of the World'. It is dedicated to the Most Holy Saviour NOV 10: St Leo the Great, pope and doctor of the Church (400-461). He was a layman when chosen for the office; was able to keep the invaders, Huns and Vandals at bay; was a focus for unity in the Church and the dignity of all Christians who believe in the incarnation of Jesus, truly God and truly human.
NOV 11: St Martin of Tours, bishop (316 – 397). A catechumen who was in conscience unable to continue with military service, was baptised at the age of eighteen, for a time became a hermit, worked to establish monasticism in the West and Bishop of Tours for twenty-five years. Widely remembered for his legendary generosity to the poor, for arguing against the persecution of heretics, and especially for his active evangelisation and pastoral care of rural areas.
NOV 12: St Josaphat, bishop, martyr, was born in Ukraine in 1580, and died in Belarus on this day in 1623. A Basilian monk who became archbishop of Polotsk, worked for reunion of Ukrainian Catholics. His martyrdom brought about many conversions.
GROW IN LOVE preparation for First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion continues this weekend at 10.30am Mass.
MASS OF REMEMBRANCE for all who died in our Parish since last November will be celebrated in Kiltimagh Church on Friday November 27th at 7.30pm. CHILDREN'S CORNER: (Loyola Press) It's important that we do all the things we need to do to get ready in the morning, isn't it? We don't want to forget something important, like our schoolbooks. Today's Gospel reading is about being ready for something different. We learn about being ready to receive Jesus. Read today's Gospel, Matthew 25:1–13. Were the wise women in Jesus' parable able to attend the wedding? Why? (Yes, they were prepared.) Were the women who were unprepared able to attend the wedding feast? (No.) Just like the wise women in this story, we need to be ready to receive Jesus. When we live as Jesus has taught us to live, we are ready to receive him. What are some things Jesus has taught us to do? (love God and one another, share, follow the Commandments, pray.) Pray that Jesus will continue to help us be ready to receive him. Our Father… Our Father…

FAMILY PRAYER TIME: (Loyola Press) Gather together as a family and talk about some of the things our faith calls us to do every day and every week to keep God first in our lives. (Mass, daily Prayer, reading Scripture) Talk about what might happen if we don't do these things regularly. Explain to your family that Jesus taught us that it is important to keep ourselves ready to receive him when he comes again. Tell them to listen as you read the parable that Jesus tells in today's Gospel. Read aloud Matthew 25:1-13. Talk with your family about why Jesus says that it is so important to remain ready to receive the Kingdom of Heaven. Pray together that your family will always keep God first in your lives so that you will all be prepared to receive Jesus when he comes. Pray together the Act of Hope.

12 NOVEMBER ST JOSAPHAT: PATRON OF UKRAINE - PRAYER FOR THE PEOPLE OF UKRAINE Saint Josaphat, you stood on the side of justice and right, While showing kindness to friend and foe alike. Your death was a saintly martyrdom. Your enemy in the shape of an angry mob beat you with sticks, and weighed down your body with stones in deep water. We ask you to intercede on behalf of your Ukrainian people, who today face martyrdom and suffering. Bombs, bullets, and deprivation are the sticks and stones that inflict terror and death on innocent people. We join our prayers to yours Oh Holy Martyr for your people. May we from whose skies only rain and hail fall look with compassion and goodwill towards your people in Ukraine. Inspire us to assist in whatever way is within our means. We ask you with God's help to make us doves of peace and not hawks of war or hatred in this conflict, and in our lives. Saint Josaphat, intercede for Ukraine and bring peace, only peace. Amen (Killaloediocese.ie)

Wisdom 6:12-16

Wisdom is found by those who look for her

Wisdom is bright, and does not grow dim.
By those who love her she is readily seen,
and found by those who look for her.
Quick to anticipate those who desire her, she makes herself known to them.
Watch for her early and you will have no trouble;
you will find her sitting at your gates.
Even to think about her is understanding fully grown;

be on the alert for her and anxiety will quickly leave you.
She herself walks about looking for those who are worthy of her and graciously shows herself to them as they go,
in every thought of theirs coming to meet them.
The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 62(63):2-8

For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

O God, you are my God, for you I long;
for you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you
like a dry, weary land without water.

For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

So I gaze on you in the sanctuary to see your strength and your glory.
For your love is better than life,
my lips will speak your praise.

For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

So I will bless you all my life,
in your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet,
my mouth shall praise you with joy.

For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

On my bed I remember you.
On you I muse through the night
for you have been my help;
in the shadow of your wings I rejoice.

For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

Do not grieve about those who have died in Jesus

We want you to be quite certain, brothers, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with him. We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching, that any of us who are left alive until the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have died. At the trumpet of God, the voice of the archangel will call out the command and the Lord himself will come down from heaven; those who have died in Christ will be the first to rise, and then those of us who are still alive will be taken up in the clouds, together with them; to meet the Lord in the air. So we shall stay with the Lord for ever. With such thoughts as these you should comfort one another.

Gospel Acclamation

Mt24:42 44

Alleluia, alleluia!
Stay awake and stand ready,
because you do not know the hour
when the Son of Man is coming.

Gospel

Matthew 25:1-13

The wise and foolish virgins

Jesus told this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven will be like this: Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were sensible: the foolish ones did take their lamps, but they brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps. The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. But at midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is here! Go out and meet him." At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, "Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out." But they replied, "There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves." They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed. The other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said "open the door for us." But he replied, "I tell you solemnly, I do not know you." So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Reflections for the week: Where is God "breaking in" on daily life while we are distracted by frenetic activity? Is faith being relegated to a specific "time slot" on Sunday morning or Saturday evening rather than informing every decision? Are we taking time to look seriously at our priorities and whether we are growing spiritually, or are we closing our eyes to the needs of others?

Actions for the week: View every small, everyday decision as directly related to spiritual readiness and the "opening of the door". Move from passive waiting to an active search for Wisdom in current circumstances. Reject the impulse to prepare at the last minute. Spiritual "oil" must be gathered throughout a lifetime, as it cannot be acquired when the bridegroom arrives.

Parish Pastoral Council

The Parish Pastoral Council met for the monthly meeting on Monday 21st Oct. The special evening celebrating the Feast of Our Lady of Banada was reviewed and positive feedback was noted by those attending. A proposed Pastoral Letter on the Eucharist by Bishop Kevin was discussed. It will be published at the beginning of November. In discussing the letter, we also looked at our need to revitalise our Parish. We reaffirmed a commitment to making the churches welcoming for young families. We discussed the importance of music in our liturgies and to encourage parishioners to participate in responses and hymns. Identifying people for leading prayer services and Eucharistic ministers also came up. Bishop Kevin's Pastoral letter raised some discussion about the number of Masses possible in the near future. We had a short report on the National Synod and on the various proposals that were voted on last weekend. It was noted that the council is approaching the end of its four year term. We discussed the protocol for selecting a new council. It was noted that the criteria for selecting candidates is that they should have the time to give to the council. They should be able to think in terms of the whole parish (some find it hard to see beyond a particular area of interest) They should be team players, able to work well with others, good listeners, interested in other views and perspectives; they need to see beyond their own preoccupations. They should be open of new ways of doing things, with an energy and passion about the future of the parish. They should be able to work by way of meetings—planning, discussing, reviewing. (Many people who are "doers" find meetings intolerable). Attention will also be given to having a council that is representative of the church areas of the parish, of gender equality, particular skills needed by the council, and age profile.

National Synod

The Irish Synodal Pathway began in 2021 when the Bishops of Ireland invited the Church to embark on a process of renewal inviting people throughout the Church to engage in prayer, listening and reflection, and to reflect on important questions about the identity and mission of the Church in Ireland, including its pastoral life, structures, relationships, ministry and place in society. Through this process, Baptism emerged as a foundational lens for understanding the identity and mission of the Church, leading to seven priorities: belonging; co-responsibility and lay ministry; family; formation and catechesis; healing; women; and youth.

Following the Pre-Synodal Assembly in Kilkenny in October 2025, working groups were established to deepen this discernment and develop practical proposals. These 35 proposals were subsequently grouped under five pathways and presented in the Working Document – Is not this what God asks of you? :

– The Church that Proclaims the Gospel
– The Church as a Community of Belonging
– The Church as a Place of Healing
– The Church that Accompanies,
– The Church that Empowers for Ministry and Co-responsibility.

My wife Maura and I visited Lourdes, France, on 30 August 2026. While waiting for the baths to open, we spent the entire day with a group of Irish women who were also on pilgrimage.

They were kind, faith-filled, and quickly became friends with Maura. They wanted to stay in touch and shared their email addresses. Those addresses and their full surnames were lost when we packed for the airport.

Maura is fighting stage 4 ovarian cancer. After chemotherapy, she cannot recall exactly where they live. She would dearly like to find these ladies again—for friendship and for the religious support they offered one another that day.

Who we are looking for Maureen, Angela, and Rose — Friends who travelled together. We do not remember where in Ireland they live in.

Florentina — travelling on her own and from the Dublin area.

How you can help

If you recognize these first names, these photographs, a Lourdes group from late August /early September 2026, or anyone who might know them, please forward this letter—or simply pass our contact details along. Permission is gladly given to share this with parish newsletters, pilgrimage organizers, and local community groups. We are not sure whether they traveled with a pilgrimage or alone.

Defib Fundraising

We are currently replacing all the outdoor cabinets in which the Defibs are placed because of issues with dampness & temperature control. Because of this, like before, we will be reaching out to the parish community in the new year to form a fundraising committee & help with raising funds to continue this vital programme in our parish. An account of spending since the last fundraiser along with a list of all those trained in CPR AED in our parish will be available towards the end of year. Looking forward to seeing ye all at our training in the coming weeks.

Our policy regarding children in our parish churches?

If your kids are loud, please still come to church.

If you're running late because getting everyone out the door was a battle, please still come to church.

If your toddler won't sit still, please still come to church.

If your baby needs to eat, please still come to church.

If your child asks questions at the least convenient time, please still come to church.

If someone cries, drops a toy, needs a snack, or has to make their third trip to the bathroom, please still come to church.

If your child doesn't know all the words, all the prayers, or exactly when to sit and stand, please still come to church

If you feel like you spent the entire mass managing your children and heard approximately 12% of the sermon, please still come to church.

If Sunday morning feels messy instead of peaceful, please still come to church

If you're worried about, if you're worried your children are distracting the people around you, please still come to church.

Because children do not learn how to be part of the church by staying home until they can sit quietly.

They learn by being here.

They learn the singing by hearing us sing.

They learn the prayers by hearing us pray.

They learn to worship by watching us worship.

They learn that church is home because we make room for them here.

The wiggles, whispers, dropped crayons, crying babies, and little voices are not interruptions to the life of the church.

They are evidence that the church is alive.

So bring the babies, bring the toddlers, bring the big kids, come late, sit at the back, sit in the front, step out where you need to. and come right back in.

Just come.

Children are not simply the future of the church, they are part of the church right now. If we don't make room for the next generation in the church, we risk becoming a generation that leaves behind empty churches. The children in our pews today are the church leaders, worshippers, and servants of tomorrow.

And in our parish churches, there is a place for everyone.

The Catholic Steps

Introducing The Catholic Steps (www.catholicsteps.com) — a free online fellowship for Catholics who are working through a twelve-step program rooted in the sacraments. The site offers a structured workspace where members work through all twelve steps with reflection questions drawn from Scripture and Catholic tradition. Each member is paired with a sponsor — a fellow Catholic who has completed the steps — who guides them privately through the process. Members can also connect with a daily prayer wall and access resources. It is open to any Catholic who recognises an attachment — whether to a substance, a behaviour, or a pattern of thought — that is keeping them from God. It offers a structured, sacramentally grounded path for parishioners who need more than a weekly meeting but are not yet ready for formal counselling.

All Souls

Commemoration of the faithful departed.

Belief in the resurrection of the dead is an essential part of Christian revelation. It implies a particular understanding of the ineluctable mystery of death.

Death is the end of earthly life, but "not of our existence" (St Ambrose) since the soul is immortal. "Our lives are measured by time, in the course of which we change, grow old, and, as with all living beings on earth, death seems like the normal end of life.(CCC 1007) Seen from the perspective of the faith, "death is the end of man's earthly pilgrimage, of the time of grace and mercy which God offers him so as to work out his earthly life in keeping with the divine plan, and to decide his ultimate destiny (CCC 1013)

In one light, death can seem natural, in another it can be seen as "the wages of sin" (Rm 6.23). Authentically interpreting the meaning of Scripture (cf Jn 2:17 , 3;3 , 3:19; Wis 1:13, Rm 5:12, 6:23), the Church teaches that "death entered the world on account of man's sin" (CCC 1008)

Jesus, the Son of God. "born of a woman and subject to the Law" (Gal 4:4) underwent death which is part of the human condition; despite his anguish in the face of death (Mk 14:33-34, Heb 5:7-8), "he accepted it in an act of complete and free submission to his Father's will. The obedience of Jesus has transformed the curse of death into a blessing" (CCC 1009)

Death is the passage to the fullness of true life. The church, subverting the logic of this world, calls the christian's day of deaths his dies natalis, the day of his heavenly birth, where 'there will be no more death, and no more mourning or sadness {for} the world of the past has gone' (Apos 21:4). Death is the prolongation , in a new way of life as the liturgy says 'For your faithful, O Lord life has changed not ended; while our earthly dwelling is destroyed, a new and eternal dwelling is prepared for us in Heaven' (Missal Preface).

The death of a Christian is an event of grace, having, as it does, a positive value and significance in Christ and through Christ. Scripture teaches that 'Life to me, of course, life is Christ, but death would bring me something more' (Phil 1:21); here is a saying you can rely on: 'if we have died with him, then we shall live with him' (2Tm 2:11).

According to the faith of the church, 'to die in Christ' begins at Baptism. In Baptism, the Lord's disciples sacramentally die in Christ so as to live a new life. If the disciples die in the grace Christ, physical death seals that 'dying with Christ', and consummates it by incorporating them fully and definitively into Christ the Redeemer.

The Church's prayer of suffrage for the souls of the faithful departed implores eternal life not only for the disciples of Christ who have died in his peace, but for the dead whose faith is known to God (see Eucharistic prayer IV).

The just encounter God in death. He calls them to himself so as to share eternal life with them. No one, however, can be received into God's friendship and intimacy without having been purified of the consequences of personal sin. 'The Church gives the name purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned. The Church formulated her doctrine of faith on Purgatory especially at the Councils of Florence and Trent' (CCC,1 031).

Hence derives the pious custom of suffrage for the souls of the faithful departed, which is an urgent supplication of God to have mercy on the souls of the dead, to purify them by the fire of His charity, and to bring to His kingdom of light and life. This suffrage is a cultic expression of faith in the communion of saints.

Indeed, the Church in its pilgrim members, from the earliest days of Christian religion, has honoured with great respect the memory of the dead; and 'because it is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins'(2 Mac 12:46) she offers her suffrages for them. These consist primarily, in the celebration of the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, and in other pious exercises, such as prayers for the dead, alms deeds, works of mercy, and the application of indulgences to the souls of the faithful departed.

A PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

Lord, watch over our parish, encouraging us to watch with one another as we seek to know your will.
Make us gentle in word,
kind in spirit,
strong in hope
and guide us,
ever gently
along that road of peace
that leads to your door;
a door that will always open to the knock of faithful people.
Amen.

A SIMPLE LIFE BUT CLOSE TO GOD

(Peig Sayers reflecting on her life on the Great Blasket Island)

It is a simple life we lived here, but nobody could say that it was comfortable.
Often during life I have known God's holy help, because I was often in the grip of a sorrow
from which I could not escape.
When the need was greatest, God would lay his merciful eye upon me,
and the clouds of sorrow would be gone without trace.
In their place would be a spiritual joy whose sweetness I cannot describe here.
There are people who think this island is a lonely place, but the peace of the Lord is here.
We helped each other, and lived in the shelter of each other.
But my life is now spent, like a candle, and my hope is rising every day that I'll be called into the eternal kingdom.
May God guide me on this long road I have not travelled before.
I think that everything is folly except for loving God.

(Translated by Seamus Ennis.
