Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel

The target audience of this allegorical parable are the Jewish chief priests and elders portrayed here as rejecting Jesus and his teaching and, as a consequence, losing out on what God was offering them. It is a story of opportunity for life presented and rejected, and they lose out in the process. How important have you found it to recognise and accept opportunities for growth, development, and new life when these were presented to you?

The parable is also a cautionary tale about the destructive effects of greed – doing violence to the rights of others which eventually destroys the greedy themselves. What attitude towards possessions has helped you to be at peace with yourself and at peace with others?

The vineyard of the Lord is an image for God's people. As we look at the vineyard we have been given, we can ask ourselves 'are we good tenants?' Recall times when you have been a good tenant and reached out caringly for those around you.

'It was the stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone. This was the Lord's doing and it was wonderful to see.' Sometimes a person not highly regarded plays a key role in a project, and it is wonderful to see. Can you recall examples of this? John Byrne OSA

The annual October Rosary Procession will take place in Galway Cathedral each Sunday of October at 8.00pm. All are welcome.

Fr. Martin is delighted to announce that the Pastoral Council have set up a Baptismal Team for St. Columba's, Castlegar and St. Peter and Pauls in Coolough. There is now a Baptismal team in each of the Parishes in the East Galway Faith Community. This will mean that parents wishing to have their child baptised will have a brief meeting with the Baptism Team. These meetings have proved very beneficial for the parents and will help to enrich their understanding of the Sacrament of Baptism.

Sunday 4th October 2026 (27th Sunday in Ordinary time)

In today's Gospel, Jesus once again speaks to the priests and elders with a parable. In this parable, the landowner leases his vineyard to tenants and sends his servants to collect the portion of the harvest that the tenants owe to him. Several times the servants are sent to collect payment, and each time they are beaten and killed by the tenants. Finally, the landowner sends his son to collect his rent. The tenants, believing that they will inherit the vineyard if the landowner dies without an heir, plot together and kill the landowner's son.

After telling the parable, Jesus questions the chief priests and elders about what the landowner will do to the wicked tenants. They all agree that the landowner will kill the wicked tenants and give the land to new tenants who will pay the rent.

In telling the parable, Jesus is clearly drawing upon Isaiah 5:1-7, which is today's first reading and one that the priests and elders would have known well. Jesus doesn't, therefore, have to explain the symbolism of the parable; the Pharisees would have understood that the vineyard represented Israel, the landowner represented God, the servants represented the prophets, and the bad tenants represented the religious leaders. Yet Jesus nonetheless explains the meaning of the parable for his audience: the Kingdom of God will be taken from the unbelieving and given to the faithful. The chief priests and elders have condemned themselves with their answer to Jesus' question.

Today's Gospel has a parallel in Mark 12:1-12. There are some notable differences, however. In Matthew's version, the religious leaders condemn themselves; in Mark's Gospel, Jesus answers his own question. Matthew names the religious leaders as Pharisees and chief priests. Clearly this Gospel shows the tension that was mounting between Jesus and the Jewish religious leaders who thought that his message was dangerous. Matthew's Gospel was written about 70 years after Jesus' death and reflects the conflicts and tensions found in the Christian community for whom Matthew was writing. Many biblical scholars believe that the tension between Matthew's community and their Jewish neighbours can also be heard in today's reading.

Down through history, more committed groups have challenged the established Church—they can attract by more exciting worship and by a closer living of the Gospel. The hard words of St Paul to the Gentile

Christians in Rome may help to shake us up: For if

God did not spare the natural branches, perhaps he will not spare you (Rm 11:21)

LIFE'S SEASONS

Life is like the seasons

each one its changes bring,

a fertile seed takes root and grows

thus youth is like the Spring.

Maturity comes in Summer

as we work and play and sing,

in the Fall we gather harvest

from the deeds we sowed, and then,

alas too soon it's Winter

and our eyes have grown quite dim,

have faith no need to worry

'tis not the end of everything

for our souls will be returned again

to Heaven, where God is King.

Prayer for Vocations

O Lord our God, we pray that the Lord of the Harvest may open the hearts of our young people to the possibility of a life in priesthood or religious life.
Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
