PRAYER OF THE DAY

Lord Jesus, you gave yourself fully to spread the message of your Good News, but even the best of your disciples were slow to understand the meaning of it all. Increase our faith and hope that your word of love will always live on through us.

Thought for the Week

“We must speak to God as a friend, now asking some favour, now acknowledging our faults and communicating to him all that concerns us, our thoughts, our fears, our projects, our desires, and in all things seek his counsel.”

St Ignatius of Loyola

Farewell

Dear Parishioners,

As the saying goes I hate long goodbyes and it seems a long time since I was told by Bishop Alan I was retiring and leaving Antrim Parish.

I have enjoyed my 16 years here, due mainly to the people of the Parish. I have always found a warm welcome, a generous spirit and willingness to forgive.

I will always keep the Parish of Antrim and the parishioners in my prayers. I wish you God's blessings and commend you to the excellent care of your new Parish Priest, Fr. Patsy Mulholland.

Go raibh maith agat agus bennacht Dia libh

16th AUGUST 2026
20th SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

Priest: Heavenly Father, you love us without distinction. Help us to see you in everyone we meet, for all are your children, and you are the Father of us all. With child-like trust we bring our prayers to you.

For the Church: that our faith communities may always be a ‘house of prayer’ and a welcoming home for all people

Let us pray to the Lord

For our parish community: that nourished by the Eucharist, we may recognise the gifts God has given us and joyfully reach out to support those in need around us.

Let us pray to the Lord.

For all seeking refuge from war, conflict, exploitation, poverty, famine or trafficking. May God protect them in their exile, keep them safe from harm, and lead them to a place of peace.

Let us pray to the Lord

Give courage and strength to the young as they prepare for college, employment or apprenticeships. Help them to choose their work and make the right decisions for their way of life.

Let us pray to the Lord

Give patient tolerance to those who are no longer young. Open the hearts of the young to accept from them understanding and love.

Let us pray to the Lord

We pray for all those who are suffering. May they, like the woman in the gospel, experience Christ’s power to heal them and their loved ones.

Let us pray to the Lord

For those who have died:

Recently Deceased: John Hughes, Elizabeth Hannon

1st Anniv.: Ann McShane

All those named in the bulletin.

that they may rest in peace and rise in glory

Lord. Let us pray to the Lord

Priest: : O God, listen to the prayers of your people. ‘Let your face shed its light upon us’, that we may know ‘your saving help’. We make these prayers through Christ our Lord. Amen.
