Safeguarding Sunday 22nd February 2026

Testimonials from Young People who engage in youth activities in our Diocese.

I am a leader in the parish youth group and in the Faith Friends programme. I really enjoy being part of the Church in this way because I am able to understand and deepen my own faith.

It makes me feel part of the Community.

I would like to be a part of their Confirmation journey and beyond

I enjoy helping with the Confirmation kids, because I remember what it is like to make my Confirmation.

I hope that I can encourage the young people to take their faith seriously.

Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse

Friday February 20th 2026 (1st Friday of Lent 2026) - Our annual Holy Hour for Survivors of Abuse was held in the Cathedral Parish in Carlow. Thanks to all who attended and participated in the service.

Candle of Atonement Prayer

Lord, forgive us our many sins.

We grieve and repent with all our hearts for having offended you, for our great failings and neglect of the young and vulnerable.

We place all of those who have been hurt by the Church in any way into your loving hands and under the protection of Our Blessed Mother.

Lord, bring peace to their broken lives and show us all the way out of darkness and into the light of your Word.

May we as the people of God be more fully human, more fully Christ-like and more fully your people, that we may see the errors of the past and go forward with renewed hope and faith in Christ and in our Church.

Amen.

Message from Bishop Denis Nulty

Sunday, February 22, is Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday. It is the first Sunday of Lent and appropriately so, as we enter the Penitential Season and seek forgiveness for past failings. In his address at the January Consistory Pope Leo XIV reminded all that "abuse itself causes a deep wound, which may last a lifetime; but often the scandal in the Church is that the door was closed and victims were not welcomed or accompanied with the closeness of authentic pastors". This year we have intentionally linked the 'Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse' on Friday, February 20 with 'Safeguarding Sunday' two days later.

The National Child Safeguarding Policy for our Church is called 'A Safe and Welcoming Church' and that is what our diocese is and our parishes are, a safe and welcoming Church. The fact that 'Safeguarding Sunday' has become such a regular part of our Diocesan and Parish life, demonstrates how the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults has been so well embedded into every area of the life of our diocese, its 56 parishes and 117 faith communities.

Safeguarding Sunday is once again an opportunity to acknowledge and recognise the years of dedication and work by so many to ensure that Kildare & Leighlin Diocese is a safe place for children and all who work with them. It's an opportunity to thank all who today ensure safeguarding is so well embedded in our diocesan culture, Ailish Higgins, our Director of Safeguarding, currently on maternity leave, Michele Hughes, our Acting Designated Liaison Person, the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee, our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, our priests, our deacons and our people, particularly the many who volunteer at parish level, ensuring the life and vitality of their faith community.

As ever, on my parish visits, I encourage ministry with children and young people, this is an essential part of the mission of the Church. Where altar serving, youth choirs, Sunday School have returned I welcome them warmly; where they haven't for whatever reason, once again I encourage their early return. The life of a parish is often defined by the active engagement of young people in that parish. Safeguarding Sunday is a reassurance to all that being involved in the parish is governed by best practices in safeguarding.

Every blessing & thanks,

+Denis Nulty

First Reading

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, 'Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.' Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel.

After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, 'Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words, 'Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.'

One of the elders then spoke, and asked me, 'Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from?' I answered him, 'You can tell me, my lord.' Then he said, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.'

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Response: Such are the men who seek your face, O Lord.

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St. John

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us. My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is. Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify himself, must try to be as pure as Christ.

The Word of the Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened and I will give you rest, says the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them: 'How happy are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage. Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted. Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied. Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them. Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God. Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God. Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.' The Gospel of the Lord

A Time to Remember

Our Departed Loved Ones

"For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life" (Jn. 3:16)

Over these next few weeks, we take time to remember our departed family members, loved ones, neighbours and friends. As we do so we reawaken precious memories—happy times spent together. For some of us, and particularly those who are recently bereaved, such an activity can be painful and evoke feelings of great sadness and loss. In such moments the Lord is close to us. He is at our side to gently bless us and reassure us that our loved ones are at peace and rest in the company of the saints in heaven.

If you are in the habit of visiting the resting place of your loved ones during the next month, this old Irish blessing prayer may be suitable for such an occasion.

Prayer When Visiting a Cemetery

May God bless all the company of souls here, may God and Mary bless you.

You too spent awhile here just as we are now and we too will join you soon.

May we all be adorned in the beauty of the bright King of Heaven.

Mary McHugh's mother Martha McHugh (nee McDonald) was born and reared in Grange Road, Maganey. Martha's mother Marcella and father Patrick, her brothers Michael, Harry and Patrick all have their resting place in Killeen Grave Yard as are many close relatives.

Mary is donating two Icons , 'The Annunciation' and 'Mother and Child' to Killeen Church and has considered it a most profound honour that the Parish is accepting these for permanent display in Killeen.

Mary has lived in Switzerland for over 50 years and has trained in Iconography under a Russian expert in Lausanne. Mary created theses Icons using the same type materials, paints and gold leaf as was used during the creation of the original Icons. It is hoped that the generations to follow will enjoy these 'creations' long into the future.

Autumn is over the long leaves that love us,

Yellow the leaves of the rowan above us,

CALENDAR

27th October:

St Otteran, a descendant of Conall Gulban, is usually identified with Odhran who preceded Colum Cille in Iona. His death is recorded in 548 and his grave was greatly revered in Iona. He was chosen by the Vikings as patron of the City of Waterford in 1096 and later patron of the diocese.

28th October:

Saints Simon and Jude. The teaching of the apostles is the living Gospel for all to hear. Their authority comes from their fidelity to Christ and his message. We pray today that they continue to watch over the Church and give protection against error. St Jude is Patron of hopeless causes.

29th October:

St Colman hailed from Kilmacduagh, Co. Galway, in the 7th century after studying in Aran, where he founded two churches on Inis Mhór, he returned to make a foundation at Kilmacduagh.

31st October

Blessed Dominic Collins was born around 1566 in Youghall Co. Cork. In 1598, after a military career, he entered the Society of Jesus as a Brother. He returned to Ireland in 1601, but on 17 June 1601 he was captured by the English who tried in vain to make him renounce his faith. He was hanged in his native city on 31 October 1602.

Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse

Friday February 20th 2026 (1st Friday of Lent 2026) - Our annual Holy Hour for Survivors of Abuse was held in the Cathedral Parish in Carlow. Thanks to all who attended and participated in the service.

Candle of Atonement Prayer

Lord, forgive us our many sins.

We grieve and repent with all our hearts for having offended you, for our great failings and neglect of the young and vulnerable.

We place all of those who have been hurt by the Church in any way into your loving hands and under the protection of Our Blessed Mother.

Lord, bring peace to their broken lives and show us all the way out of darkness and into the light of your Word.

May we as the people of God be more fully human, more fully Christ-like and more fully your people, that we may see the errors of the past and go forward with renewed hope and faith in Christ and in our Church.

Amen.

Message from Bishop Denis Nulty

Sunday, February 22, is Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday. It is the first Sunday of Lent and appropriately so, as we enter the Penitential Season and seek forgiveness for past failings. In his address at the January Consistory Pope Leo XIV reminded all that "abuse itself causes a deep wound, which may last a lifetime; but often the scandal in the Church is that the door was closed and victims were not welcomed or accompanied with the closeness of authentic pastors". This year we have intentionally linked the 'Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse' on Friday, February 20 with 'Safeguarding Sunday' two days later.

The National Child Safeguarding Policy for our Church is called 'A Safe and Welcoming Church' and that is what our diocese is and our parishes are, a safe and welcoming Church. The fact that 'Safeguarding Sunday' has become such a regular part of our Diocesan and Parish life, demonstrates how the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults has been so well embedded into every area of the life of our diocese, its 56 parishes and 117 faith communities.

Safeguarding Sunday is once again an opportunity to acknowledge and recognise the years of dedication and work by so many to ensure that Kildare & Leighlin Diocese is a safe place for children and all who work with them. It's an opportunity to thank all who today ensure safeguarding is so well embedded in our diocesan culture, Ailish Higgins, our Director of Safeguarding, currently on maternity leave, Michele Hughes, our Acting Designated Liaison Person, the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee, our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, our priests, our deacons and our people, particularly the many who volunteer at parish level, ensuring the life and vitality of their faith community.

As ever, on my parish visits, I encourage ministry with children and young people, this is an essential part of the mission of the Church. Where altar serving, youth choirs, Sunday School have returned I welcome them warmly; where they haven't for whatever reason, once again I encourage their early return. The life of a parish is often defined by the active engagement of young people in that parish. Safeguarding Sunday is a reassurance to all that being involved in the parish is governed by best practices in safeguarding.

Every blessing & thanks,

+Denis Nulty

Message from Bishop Denis Nulty

Sunday, February 22, is Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday. It is the first Sunday of Lent and appropriately so, as we enter the Penitential Season and seek forgiveness for past failings. In his address at the January Consistory Pope Leo XIV reminded all that "abuse itself causes a deep wound, which may last a lifetime; but often the scandal in the Church is that the door was closed and victims were not welcomed or accompanied with the closeness of authentic pastors". This year we have intentionally linked the 'Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse' on Friday, February 20 with 'Safeguarding Sunday' two days later.

The National Child Safeguarding Policy for our Church is called 'A Safe and Welcoming Church' and that is what our diocese is and our parishes are, a safe and welcoming Church. The fact that 'Safeguarding Sunday' has become such a regular part of our Diocesan and Parish life, demonstrates how the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults has been so well embedded into every area of the life of our diocese, its 56 parishes and 117 faith communities.

Safeguarding Sunday is once again an opportunity to acknowledge and recognise the years of dedication and work by so many to ensure that Kildare & Leighlin Diocese is a safe place for children and all who work with them. It's an opportunity to thank all who today ensure safeguarding is so well embedded in our diocesan culture, Ailish Higgins, our Director of Safeguarding, currently on maternity leave, Michele Hughes, our Acting Designated Liaison Person, the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee, our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, our priests, our deacons and our people, particularly the many who volunteer at parish level, ensuring the life and vitality of their faith community.

As ever, on my parish visits, I encourage ministry with children and young people, this is an essential part of the mission of the Church. Where altar serving, youth choirs, Sunday School have returned I welcome them warmly; where they haven't for whatever reason, once again I encourage their early return. The life of a parish is often defined by the active engagement of young people in that parish. Safeguarding Sunday is a reassurance to all that being involved in the parish is governed by best practices in safeguarding.

Every blessing & thanks,

+Denis Nulty

National Board for Safeguarding Children in the Catholic Church in Ireland – Biannual conference

The NBSCCCI held their biannual conference from 3rd – 5th September 2025 titled: Towards a Restorative and Transitional Justice model of engaging with victims and survivors in the Catholic Church in Ireland.

The event aimed to enhance the understanding we all have of how we must engage in a just and restorative way with those who have suffered harm in the Catholic Church in Ireland.

Our diocesan director of safeguarding and DLP attended the event and shared valuable feedback with our diocesan safeguarding committee. The learning from the conference will help guide our practice going forward.

Special thanks to the National Board for organising and hosting the event.

Following the 2024 launch of the Church's Child Safeguarding Policy, Ailish Higgins, our Diocesan Director of Safeguarding met with young people from the diocese to ask them "What does a Safe & Welcoming Church mean to you?"

Thanks to all the children and young people who took part in these sessions and were open and honest about their experience of parish life. Thanks too to their parents, the group leaders and parish priests who supported the facilitation of these groups.

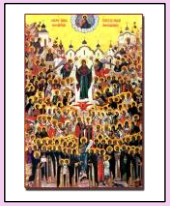
The Solemnity of All Saints – Year A – 1st November 2026

ALL SAINTS – 1st November



What makes a saint? Not fame or extraordinary achievements, but a life shaped by God's love. On the Solemnity of All Saints, we celebrate holy women and men whose lives reveal that love —and remember that we share their calling.

St John reminds us that we are God's children. This is where holiness begins: not in proving ourselves worthy, but in receiving the Father's love and allowing it to change how we live.

The saints let Christ's love shape their choices, relationships and prayer. We are invited to do the same. Holiness takes root in ordinary moments: speaking kindly to someone who has hurt us, making time for a lonely neighbour, welcoming someone others overlook, or standing beside a person being bullied.

The Beatitudes show us the way. Jesus calls us to be gentle, merciful and peacemakers; to hunger for what is right; and to put others before our pride. These are not ideals reserved for a few exceptional people. They are a daily invitation to every Christian.

Choosing love can be costly, especially when blame or indifference seems easier. Yet we do not walk this path alone. The Holy Spirit helps us live in Christ and reminds us that God is our Father.

All Saints points us towards heaven, where we shall see God face to face. Each loving choice offers a glimpse of that joy now. The saints' invitation is ours too: let God's love become visible through you.

The Church of Our Lady and St Joseph in Caragh, Co. Kildare, will host a special celebration at 6.30pm on Thursday, 19 November 2026, for the enshrinement of the first-class relics of St Carlo Acutis. Joe McDermott, PE CC Caragh, to retrieve the relics and accompany them on their journey home to Ireland. Their pilgrimage marks a significant moment for the local faith community, bringing a tangible connection with the life and witness of one of the Catholic Church's most inspiring modern saints. All welcome.

Readings for…
Feast of All Saints
1st November 2026

First Reading

A reading from the Book of Revelation.

I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God, and he called with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to damage earth and sea, saying, "Do not damage the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have marked the servants of our God with a seal on their foreheads." And I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the people of Israel.

After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands.

They cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows."

Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Response: Lord, these are the people that longs to see your face

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness,
the world, and those who dwell in it.
It is he who set it on the seas;
on the rivers he made it firm.

Response: Lord, these are the people that longs to see your face

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The clean of hands and pure of heart,
whose soul is not set on vain things.
Response: Lord, these are the people that longs to see your face

Blessings from the Lord shall they receive,
and right reward from the God who saves them.
Such are the people who seek him,
who seek the face of the God of Jacob.
Response: Lord, these are the people that longs to see your face

Second Reading

A reading from the first letter of St. John.

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

The word of the Lord.

Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse

Friday February 20th 2026 (1st Friday of Lent 2026) - Our annual Holy Hour for Survivors of Abuse was held in the Cathedral Parish in Carlow. Thanks to all who attended and participated in the service.

Candle of Atonement Prayer

Lord, forgive us our many sins.

We grieve and repent with all our hearts for having offended you, for our great failings and neglect of the young and vulnerable.

We place all of those who have been hurt by the Church in any way into your loving hands and under the protection of Our Blessed Mother.

Lord, bring peace to their broken lives and show us all the way out of darkness and into the light of your Word.

May we as the people of God be more fully human, more fully Christ-like and more fully your people, that we may see the errors of the past and go forward with renewed hope and faith in Christ and in our Church.

Amen.

Message from Bishop Denis Nulty

Sunday, February 22, is Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday. It is the first Sunday of Lent and appropriately so, as we enter the Penitential Season and seek forgiveness for past failings. In his address at the January Consistory Pope Leo XIV reminded all that "abuse itself causes a deep wound, which may last a lifetime; but often the scandal in the Church is that the door was closed and victims were not welcomed or accompanied with the closeness of authentic pastors". This year we have intentionally linked the 'Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse' on Friday, February 20 with 'Safeguarding Sunday' two days later.

The National Child Safeguarding Policy for our Church is called 'A Safe and Welcoming Church' and that is what our diocese is and our parishes are, a safe and welcoming Church. The fact that 'Safeguarding Sunday' has become such a regular part of our Diocesan and Parish life, demonstrates how the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults has been so well embedded into every area of the life of our diocese, its 56 parishes and 117 faith communities.

Safeguarding Sunday is once again an opportunity to acknowledge and recognise the years of dedication and work by so many to ensure that Kildare & Leighlin Diocese is a safe place for children and all who work with them. It's an opportunity to thank all who today ensure safeguarding is so well embedded in our diocesan culture, Ailish Higgins, our Director of Safeguarding, currently on maternity leave, Michele Hughes, our Acting Designated Liaison Person, the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee, our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, our priests, our deacons and our people, particularly the many who volunteer at parish level, ensuring the life and vitality of their faith community.

As ever, on my parish visits, I encourage ministry with children and young people, this is an essential part of the mission of the Church. Where altar serving, youth choirs, Sunday School have returned I welcome them warmly; where they haven't for whatever reason, once again I encourage their early return. The life of a parish is often defined by the active engagement of young people in that parish. Safeguarding Sunday is a reassurance to all that being involved in the parish is governed by best practices in safeguarding.

Every blessing & thanks,

+Denis Nulty

National Board for Safeguarding Children in the Catholic Church in Ireland – Biannual conference

The NBSCCCI held their biannual conference from 3rd – 5th September 2025 titled: Towards a Restorative and Transitional Justice model of engaging with victims and survivors in the Catholic Church in Ireland.

The event aimed to enhance the understanding we all have of how we must engage in a just and restorative way with those who have suffered harm in the Catholic Church in Ireland.

Our diocesan director of safeguarding and DLP attended the event and shared valuable feedback with our diocesan safeguarding committee. The learning from the conference will help guide our practice going forward.

Special thanks to the National Board for organising and hosting the event.

Following the 2024 launch of the Church's Child Safeguarding Policy, Ailish Higgins, our Diocesan Director of Safeguarding met with young people from the diocese to ask them "What does a Safe & Welcoming Church mean to you?"

Thanks to all the children and young people who took part in these sessions and were open and honest about their experience of parish life. Thanks too to their parents, the group leaders and parish priests who supported the facilitation of these groups.

Safeguarding Sunday 22nd February 2026

Testimonials from Young People who engage in youth activities in our Diocese.

I am a leader in the parish youth group and in the Faith Friends programme. I really enjoy being part of the Church in this way because I am able to understand and deepen my own faith.

It makes me feel part of the Community.

I would like to be a part of their Confirmation journey and beyond

I enjoy helping with the Confirmation kids, because I remember what it is like to make my Confirmation.

I hope that I can encourage the young people to take their faith seriously.

Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse

Friday February 20th 2026 (1st Friday of Lent 2026) - Our annual Holy Hour for Survivors of Abuse was held in the Cathedral Parish in Carlow. Thanks to all who attended and participated in the service.

Candle of Atonement Prayer

Lord, forgive us our many sins.

We grieve and repent with all our hearts for having offended you, for our great failings and neglect of the young and vulnerable.

We place all of those who have been hurt by the Church in any way into your loving hands and under the protection of Our Blessed Mother.

Lord, bring peace to their broken lives and show us all the way out of darkness and into the light of your Word.

May we as the people of God be more fully human, more fully Christ-like and more fully your people, that we may see the errors of the past and go forward with renewed hope and faith in Christ and in our Church.

Amen.

Message from Bishop Denis Nulty

Sunday, February 22, is Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday. It is the first Sunday of Lent and appropriately so, as we enter the Penitential Season and seek forgiveness for past failings. In his address at the January Consistory Pope Leo XIV reminded all that "abuse itself causes a deep wound, which may last a lifetime; but often the scandal in the Church is that the door was closed and victims were not welcomed or accompanied with the closeness of authentic pastors". This year we have intentionally linked the 'Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse' on Friday, February 20 with 'Safeguarding Sunday' two days later.

The National Child Safeguarding Policy for our Church is called 'A Safe and Welcoming Church' and that is what our diocese is and our parishes are, a safe and welcoming Church. The fact that 'Safeguarding Sunday' has become such a regular part of our Diocesan and Parish life, demonstrates how the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults has been so well embedded into every area of the life of our diocese, its 56 parishes and 117 faith communities.

Safeguarding Sunday is once again an opportunity to acknowledge and recognise the years of dedication and work by so many to ensure that Kildare & Leighlin Diocese is a safe place for children and all who work with them. It's an opportunity to thank all who today ensure safeguarding is so well embedded in our diocesan culture, Ailish Higgins, our Director of Safeguarding, currently on maternity leave, Michele Hughes, our Acting Designated Liaison Person, the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee, our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, our priests, our deacons and our people, particularly the many who volunteer at parish level, ensuring the life and vitality of their faith community.

As ever, on my parish visits, I encourage ministry with children and young people, this is an essential part of the mission of the Church. Where altar serving, youth choirs, Sunday School have returned I welcome them warmly; where they haven't for whatever reason, once again I encourage their early return. The life of a parish is often defined by the active engagement of young people in that parish. Safeguarding Sunday is a reassurance to all that being involved in the parish is governed by best practices in safeguarding.

Every blessing & thanks,

+Denis Nulty

Hay & Oats Collection

(Annual collection for Priest of the Parish)

We have come to that time of year again for our Hay and Oats collection. First of all, I would like to thank you sincerely for your continued and generous support of our parish. As you may know we have two accounts in our Parish: 1. Parish account; 2. Clergy Account. Thanks to your continued support our Parish account is in relatively good standing. Our Clergy account has understandably bottomed out and we have had to borrow money from our Parish account to keep the Clergy account solvent. All the contributions that come in from the Hay and Oats will be lodged into the Clergy Account. Representatives in your area will drop in an envelope into your house over the next week or two. It would be greatly appreciated if you could place your donation into the envelope and drop it back to your representative or, into the Parish office, or into mass at the weekend. We would be grateful if you could put your correct address and Eircode on the front of the envelope. Once again, a sincere "Thank You" for your continued support. We also appreciate the hard work of our Parish Representatives who voluntarily give of their time to distribute the envelopes and collect them. Stay safe everyone. God bless and thank you. Fr. John O'Brien.

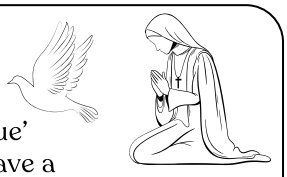
Would we really want to be a saint?



Would we really want to be one of those 'too good to be true' sort of people? When something seems too difficult, we have a tendency to 'switch off'. If something is seemingly beyond our reach, we don't even try. Following in the footsteps of the saints, for most of us is like attempting rocket science or brain surgery .... it's just simply not for us. But following in the footsteps of the saints is not about becoming a saint overnight. Saints are just real people who have struggled through crisis and frustration to live their faith. Like the concert pianist who began his career with simple scales, so following God's blueprint for discipleship is about starting out with small steps. Take one element from the Beatitudes and practice it. You might choose to be more patient with your relatives, gossip less at work, or heal a family rift. Today, take one small step towards making the Beatitudes your way of life.

30th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus does not pluck his summary teaching from the air-he quotes from the Shema Yisrael, the great prayer of Judaism found in Deuteronomy 6. The second part about the love of neighbour is taken from the Levicticus 18. This mission statement stands as a resounding appeal to us today. We are asked not just to believe that there is a God, but to love God. We are asked not just to respect our neighbour, but to love our neighbour. Love is not only the truth about human beings but also the truth about God, who is love itself.

The greatest and first commandment - You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul and mind.

The second resembles it - You must love your neighbour as yourself.

Entrance Antiphon: Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

Responsorial Psalm: I love you, Lord, my strength.

HISTORY TALK

Boyhoods Fire : Na Fianna at War

They were Ireland's young warriors – during the revolutionary period 1916 – 1923, nearly 50 teenage activists lost their lives fighting against the British Empire and the Irish Provisional Government.

Historian and author, James Durney, will give a talk on his latest book in St. Coca's Church on Thur, 5th Nov. at 8pm. All welcome.

Stop blaming others.
See yourself as the cause of what happens to you.
Do things you like to do, don't stay in a job you don't like.
Participate in life at the highest level you can.
Watch what you say; avoid self-put-downs.
Stop being critical of yourself and others.
Take care of your body. Give it exercise and good food.
Be willing to create a lifestyle that generates and nourishes self-esteem.
Associate with others with high esteem.
Stop trying to change others – focus your attention on being the way you want others to be.

"May they rest in peace"

During the Month of November, we pray for all our departed brothers and sisters. We hope to give special emphasis to those who have died in the parish during the past year.

Our November Masses will be celebrated in the Parish Church on the 4 Wednesdays (4th , 11th, 18th, 25th .) of the month at 7.30pm.

At each of the Masses we propose to read out the names of some of those who have died during the past year, and a candle will be available for a loved one to light in the Sacred Space in the church during the Mass and take home afterwards.

If you wish the name of your loved one to be called out at one of these masses and their names' be printed on a candle, please contact the Parish Office on 045 521352.
Or email: kildareparish@gmail.com

You are also invited to place the name of your loved one on the Tree of Life in the November Sacred Space.

Prayer to St. Brigid

You were a woman of peace,
You brought harmony
where there was conflict.
You brought light to the darkness.
You brought hope to the downcast.
May the mantle of your peace cover those who are troubled and anxious, and may peace be firmly rooted in our hearts and in our world.
Inspire us to act justly
and to reverence all God has made.
Brigid you were a voice
for the wounded and the weary.
Strengthen what is weak within us.
Calm us into a quietness
that heals and listens.
May we grow each day into greater wholeness in mind
body and spirit.
Amen

Let's talk about Parenting

Building Parenting Capacity and Confidence (4-12 years)
Thursday 22nd
October, 6.30pm – Presented by Connected Childhood
Fostering understanding to build confidence and reassure parents. Developing an awareness of your own needs and capacity helps parents respond to their child rather than react. When parents understand what may be happening beneath their child's behaviour, they can respond with greater curiosity, compassion and confidence. Building awareness of our own emotions, triggers and nervous system helps us recognise what we need to stay grounded when parenting feels challenging. Small moments of connection and repair can make a meaningful difference—parents do not need to get it right all the time. Greater understanding brings greater confidence, helping parents trust themselves and strengthen their connection with their child. Book here - https://www.tickettailor.com/events/letstalkaboutparenting/2375987

Irish Cancer Society Volunteer Drivers

The Irish Cancer Society is expanding the volunteer driver service in the Carlow and Laois area, and we are seeking compassionate volunteer drivers to join our pool of drivers. We are specifically looking for drivers who can take patients to Naas Hospital, as well as St James' Hospital and the Mater Hospital in Dublin. Gifting your time means that cancer patients will have comfortable (one on one) transport to attend appointments for their lifesaving treatment.

If you can spare 2 days per month, have a valid driving license, and a safe, reliable vehicle, you are the perfect candidate to make a significant difference. Your generosity not only eases the journey for many during a challenging time but also offers comfort and support when it's needed most.

For more information and to become a volunteer driver, please contact Monica or Emily at volunteer@irishcancer.ie.

A message from an Garda Siochana

An Garda Siochana wish to warn people of a doorstep fraud and theft offence which has become prevalent over the last number of weeks.

Elderly People are being targeted at their homes by Criminals who are impersonating Gardaí. The offenders are fraudulently pretending to be plain clothes Gardaí who are checking for dud money. They have duped people all around the country and stolen their cash on the pretence of checking to see if it is genuine money. They are producing false identification to assist the process.

Advice:

- An Garda Siochana will never ask people about their finances on the doorstep of their homes and will never ask to check money
- Always ask for Identification and do not be afraid to question it. If in doubt politely tell the caller that you want to verify their true identity. If necessary contact your local Garda Station who will be able to establish quickly if the caller is a member of An Garda Siochana.
- Report any such activity to your local Garda Station even if you have not been the victim of a theft. That report could save a neighbour or someone else close by.
- Please check on elderly neighbours, family and friends and advise and reassure them

Pope Leo XIV

The untold story of new elected Pope Robert Prevost:

In 1975 Robert Prevost was at the top of his game. Chicago math teacher. Devout Catholic. Accepted into Harvard Law. He had everything a young man could dream of, But then—he made a decision that no one saw coming. He said no to Harvard

No to a six-figure future. No to fame. No to comfort

And yes—to something few dare to choose: A life of complete surrender. He joined a missionary group and moved to Peru. Not to the cities. Not to the tourist spots .

But to the most remote villages—where children die from treatable diseases. And families walk miles just for clean water. There were no roads. No running water. No WiFi

Just mountains. Silence And poverty. But he embraced it like home

Robert didn't just live among the people. He became one of them

• Learned Quechua—the sacred language of the Incas

• Carried food on foot for days

• Slept on dirt floors with the villagers

• Prayed under the stars

When he wasn't building shelters. He taught math to barefoot kids under broken rooftops. When he wasn't teaching. He carried the sick on donkeys to get help. When he wasn't healing. He listened—truly listened—to stories no one else cared to hear.

While his friends from back home became lawyers and doctors. He became something else entirely.

A shepherd

A brother

A quiet warrior of faith

And slowly—his legend grew. His acts weren't broadcasted. But they echoed through the Andes

Bishops noticed

Priests noticed

And eventually—the Vatican noticed

They called him back to lead his entire Augustinian order. From serving a village. To overseeing 2,800 brothers in over 40 countries.

Still—he kept his same sandals

Still—he walked with the poor

Still—he rejected luxury

Then came the call that changed everything:

Rome wanted him closer. In 2020 He was appointed Archbishop and assigned to govern other bishops globally. It was rare. But Robert had never chased tradition. He wasn't just fluent in Latin or Canon Law.

He was fluent in compassion

In humility

In listening

In presence

The Vatican didn't just see a priest. They saw a leader with soul. On September 30, 2023. Pope Francis made it official:

Robert Prevost was named a Cardinal. Just one step below the Pope

And then… in 2025

History was made. For the first time ever

An American

A former math teacher

A missionary to the forgotten

Was elevated as the 267th Pope of the Catholic Church

And he didn't forget the people who shaped him. To this day [the day he became Pope] Robert still returns to the same villages.

Still prays in Quechua

Still sits on dirt floors

Still holds the hands of the elderly in silence

Because leadership he believes:

Is about presence not position

The world is obsessed with power.

But Robert Prevost proves:

• Titles mean nothing without service

• Knowledge is useless without love

• And faith—without sacrifice—is noise

He turned down the world. And changed it instead.

Message to Priests & People on the death of Pope Francis

It is with great sadness that we learned of the news of the death of Pope Francis. While we knew he was very ill, seeing him on Easter Sunday in St. Peter's Square, greeting the faithful, brought great comfort. The announcement of his death on Easter Monday morning was all the more a shock and sad, at the suddenness of his passing.

Pope Francis came from the periphery, as the first Pope from the Americas, and those at the periphery - the poor, the migrant, the prisoner, the refugee, the outcast – were always at the centre of his pontificate. Only last Holy Thursday, despite his own frailty, he took time to visit Rome's Regina Coeli prison and his first visit outside Rome as Pope was to the tiny island of Lampedusa to remember the many drowned at sea, in search of refuge and a new beginning on mainland Europe.

Pope Francis will be remembered for many things and there will be much commentary over the next while, but for me, his message of inclusion and mercy was key. "The name of God is mercy" he reminded us. And now we commend him to the mercy of God.

I ask every parish to celebrate a Requiem Mass for the happy repose of the soul of Pope Francis on a date and time that is convenient for you. You may ring your Church Bells 88 times, if you wish, at the end of that Mass (once for every year of his life). We should include Pope Francis in our intercessory prayers for the dead at all Masses over the coming days.

I will celebrate a Requiem Mass in the Cathedral on Thursday 24 April at 10am for the repose of his soul.

At the heart of Pope Francis' message of hope in this Jubilee Year was the reality of the life, death and resurrection of Christ and in this Easter Octave, Pope Francis is welcomed into the eternal embrace of the resurrection. Ar dheis Dé go raibh a anam.

Every blessing and good wish to all of you during this Easter Octave,

22 April 2025 + Denis

We Remember Together

During the month of November,
we reflect on two Church feasts.
The Feast of All Saints and the Feast of All Souls.
All Saints, All Souls Remember
those who keep the faith,
Who always turned up to pray.
Who showed the love of Jesus in their lives
from day to day.
Remember those this special time
who live with God above.
All Saints, All Souls And all our own,
Who live with God in love.

ALL SAINTS

Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God.

ALL SAINTS

Today's feast is an occasion for great thanksgiving, honouring all the saints, both known and unknown, who offer us memories and models of holiness. We, too, are called to holiness; to be saints. The Communion of Saints prays for us, willing us on to join them. We can try to do this by following the message and example of Jesus, as portrayed in today's Gospel. Here Jesus teaches the disciples God's law in a new way. His values and attitudes, summed up in the Beatitudes, are a map comprised of eight different paths. By following them, we align our lives with the heart of God and 'holiness'.

All Saints Day Prayer

Dear holy saints of God,
we join our prayers of praise to yours this day,
with you we sing of God's goodness, rejoice in God's mercy and celebrate Gods incredible love.
Teach us to live as you lived – always thinking of others, always recognising our weaknesses, always rejoicing in God's gifts, always closely following Jesus.
Blessed are you, happy are you, all you holy saints of God.
Pray for us that we, too, may someday be among God's Holy Ones. Amen.

November ....
A Month to Remember ....

November is a special time in our parish calendar as we pause to remember and pray for our loved ones who have gone before us. While we feel the sadness of their absence, we do not grieve without hope.
As people of faith, we are sustained by a powerful promise of the Resurrection. The belief that Jesus shares in our human nature, for he lived as we live, he died as we will die. And, in his dying the hope and promise of Resurrection. Cornerstone of our Christian faith.
We carry in our hearts a promise, a belief that life is changed, not ended, and that one day we will be reunited in love.
Throughout this month, all our loved ones will be remembered in our prayers and our Masses.
These are the names written upon the 'November List of the Dead' and placed in reverence before the Altar of God.
In November we pray for the Holy Souls in Purgatory.
We visit the graves, the resting place of our loved ones, and we light candles in remembrance.
These are all beautiful traditions of our faith and they offer fitting testament to the memory of our loved ones. May they Rest in Peace.

May the Lord support us all the day long,
Till the shades lengthen and the evening comes,
and the busy world is hushed,
and the fever of life is over, and our work is done.
Then in his mercy may he give us a safe lodging,
and holy rest, and peace at the last.
Amen. (St. John Henry Newman)

A Brighter Future for Our Parish

Work on installing 84 solar panels on the roof of our parish church is almost complete, and the new system will be up and running during the coming week.

By generating clean, renewable electricity, we will reduce our carbon footprint and help care for our common home, in the spirit of Laudato Si'.

Over time, lower electricity bills will also make sound financial sense for the parish.

Care for our common home

LAUDATO SI'

CLEAN ENERGY
A healthier planet for future generations.

LOWER BILLS
Greater financial stability for our parish.

A GREENER CHURCH
Living our faith in action.

All we need now is sunshine!

Time to Think...

The Law Of Karma / Our Deepest Fear

Faith and instinct both give us a sense of what Hindus and Buddhists call the law of karma. Simply put, we have a gut-feeling that our actions, good and bad, have consequences that come back to either bless or haunt us. But is this true? Do we really have to way pay for everything we do? Mary Jo Leddy, in her wonderful book on gratitude, claims that one of the great principles innate within reality itself is this: "The air you breathe into the universe is the air that it will breathe back and if your energy is right, it will renew itself even as you give it away." In essence, that's the law of karma, a mystery expressed in different ways in all the great religions of the world.

Jesus, for instance, puts it this way: "The measure you measure out is the measure you will be given." The air you breathe out is the air you will re-inhale. If that's true, and it is, it explains a lot of things (though not necessarily to our liking). Why, perennially, are we caught up in situations of pettiness, jealousy, and non-forgiveness? Why are we inhaling so much bitter air? Perhaps it has to do with the air we're breathing out. What are we breathing out? We'd like, of course, to think that we're breathing out the air of gratitude, generosity, forgiveness, honesty, blessing, self-effacement, joy, delight. We'd also like to believe that we are breathing out the air of concern for the poor, the suffering, the unattractive, the bothersome. And we'd like to believe too that we're big-hearted people, breathing out understanding and reconciliation. Would it be so. Too often we're blind to what's really going on inside us and are unconsciously breathing out the air of arrogance, self- interest, pettiness, jealousy, competition, fear, paranoia, dishonesty, interest in others only when it's convenient, and are emitting signals that others are a threat to us as we seek attention and popularity.

We can learn something from watching toddlers play. There's a disarming, brutal honesty in them. They simply rip what they want from each other's hands and try to shout louder than the rest to gain attention. We do the same thing, except in more subtle and less honest ways. Beneath the surface of our everyday politeness and decorum, in ways we don't often have the courage to look at or acknowledge, we're still toddlers trying to snatch the toys from each other and trying to shout louder than others to get attention.

The real air we're breathing out is fraught with self-interest, jealousy, competitiveness, pettiness, fear, and less than full honesty. In subtle, and not-so-subtle, ways we're saying to each other:

"Who do you think you are!" "I'm more important than you." "I'm brighter and more successful than you." "I'm better looking than you." "I've had more life-experience than you." "I'm sophisticated beyond your naivete." "I'm the person here who's the most knowledgeable, everyone should be listening to me." "My sufferings are deeper and more important than yours." "I'm more interesting than others and my story is more important." "I hate you for your good looks and good luck, none of which you deserve." "I really don't like you, but I'll be nice to you until I find a way to free myself of this relationship that circumstance has dictated." We would never admit that we feel these things, but, too often, that's the air we're breathing out.

Is it any mystery then that our lives are full of competition, jealousy, bitterness, anger, accusation, and false judgement? Is it a mystery why so often, beneath a polite surface, there is so much thinly disguised competition, jealousy, and non-forgiveness around? We're breathing these things into the world, should we be surprised that we're re-inhaling them? The measure we're measuring out is the measure that we're receiving. And Jesus takes this even further. He adds: "To those who have much, even more will be given; and from those who have little, even what they have will be taken away." That sounds so unfair, the innate cruelty of nature, the survival of the fittest applied to the gospels, Jesus as Darwin. Isn't Jesus' message supposed to be about the survival of the weakest? It is, but a certain law of karma still applies:

To the big of heart, who breathe out what's large and honest and full of blessing, the world will return a hundredfold in kind, honesty and blessing that swells the heart even more. Conversely to the miserly of heart and dishonest of spirit, the world will give back too in kind, pettiness and lies that shrink the heart still further.

That's the deep mystery at the centre of the universe: The air we breathe out into the world is the air we will re-inhale.

The poet Marianne Williamson captures this in her poem Our Deepest Fear:

Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate.
Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure.
It is our light, not our darkness
That most frightens us.
We ask ourselves
Who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous?
Actually, who are you not to be?
You are a child of God.
Your playing small
Does not serve the world.
There's nothing enlightened about shrinking
So that other people won't feel insecure around you.
We are all meant to shine,
As children do.
We were born to make manifest
The glory of God that is within us.
It's not just in some of us;
It's in everyone.
And as we let our own light shine,
We unconsciously give other people permission to do the same.
As we're liberated from our own fear,
Our presence automatically liberates others.
This is not exactly a sadness, but it is indeed an irritated melancholy that makes us aware of just how much light there's inside us.

Our Prayers are asked for those who recently died

Feast of All Saints Deacon: Rev. Liam Dunne

Matthew 5:1-12 What makes a saint

In 1987, Dr Paul Farmer founded Partners in Health in Haiti. Its mission was to provide high-quality healthcare to patients from impoverished backgrounds and those who lived far from healthcare facilities. Over the following thirty years, the organization expanded across Africa, Latin America, Russia and the Navajo Nation in the US. Dr Farmer's goal was to make the latest sophisticated treatments, which were available only in wealthy regions, available to all people. He was instrumental in bringing lifesaving HIV drugs to the people of Haiti in the early 2000s and was later involved in founding a medical school in Rwanda, where he had been teaching before he passed away unexpectedly in February 2022. Described as a 'global health champion', Dr Farmer's driving forces were equality, solidarity and love. His central philosophy could be summed up in his own words: 'The idea that some lives matter less is the root of all that is wrong with the world.' Dr Farmer was a social justice campaigner, what some might call a modern saint. Aware of the disparities around the world, he set about finding creative ways to narrow the gap.

Saints are all around us, teaching us about God through their actions. They persevere in all they do for their communities and those on the margins. They are the blessed ones. The Paul Farmers of this world inspire us to strive to live the Beatitudes of Jesus in our daily lives. The Beatitudes are an urgent call to honour the dignity of all people, especially those whose suffer. The most pressing need of our time is to bridge the gap between the haves and the haves-nots. When we hear of the disparity between the income and lifestyles of the super-rich and the poorest people in the world, it can be hard to stomach. Becoming aware of our privilege is the first step towards solidarity. The Beatitudes call us to put our hunger for justice into action. Perhaps that is the making of all saints. Copyright © Triona Doherty & Jane Mellett. The Deep End: A Journey with the Sunday Gospels in the Year of Matthew (Dublin: Messenger Publications, 2022).

"[Saints] make our hypocrisy so apparent that we want to change our lives – not because of guilt but because we want to be alive, we want to be more like Jesus. . . [they] leave us the scent of God, the aroma of Christ. God occasionally drops a handkerchief – and these handkerchiefs are called saints. - Shane Claiborne

I know a lot of saints, I do!
So let me mention just a few:
I know someone who runs a team
And teaches kids to play and dream,
Who stands in cold and wind and rain
On days they play and night they train;
Someone who's there when we are said,
The best and gentlest friend we've had,
Someone who say, 'Just do your best;
When I am scared to take a test:
A friend who takes the time to show
How things are done when I don't know
A teacher who just always knows
Where that comma always goes;
And others who are kind and good,
Who try to act as Jesus would,
Who show God's love in all they do
I know a lot of saints, don't you?

This poem, by Brendan Kennelly, gives us an insight into the saints we meet on our daily path.
