Reflection on the Gospel for the 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Open your heart to God's daily grace.
Choose peace over worry.
Trust His timing in every season.
Overcome fear with faith.
Bless others with kindness.
Embrace His Word as your anchor.
Rest in His unfailing love.

This Sunday's Gospel invites us into the story of a landowner who lovingly prepares a vineyard and entrusts it to tenants. It is a picture of generosity: everything is given, everything is ready, and the tenants are simply asked to work with what they have received. Yet when the landowner sends his servants to collect the harvest, the tenants respond with resentment and violence. They reject every messenger, and finally even the son himself.

It is easy to dismiss them as villains, but Jesus tells this parable to hold up a mirror. The vineyard is our own lives: our families, our parish, our gifts, our opportunities, even our world. God entrusts these things to us not as owners, but as tenants—caretakers who are meant to collaborate with His grace. When we forget that life is a gift, we begin to cling to it as a possession. We defend our time, our comfort, our plans, and we resist anything that challenges them.

Yet God continues to send "messengers" into our lives. They may come as people who need our patience, situations that stretch us, or truths we would rather avoid. Sometimes the messenger is simply reality itself—a setback, a disappointment, a moment of honesty. We can be tempted to reject these messengers, but they are often the very means through which God shapes us. The Gospel ends with a promise: the stone rejected by the builders becomes the cornerstone. God builds His kingdom not on what we proudly present, but on the very places we resist or fear. The question for us this week is simple: Are we living as owners... or as tenants? Tenants receive, collaborate, and give back.

May we welcome God's messengers and bear fruit worthy of the vineyard entrusted to us.

Every Little Bit Helps

As many of you know, we are hoping to undertake the restoration of our tower and bell, a project that is close to all our hearts and one that will help preserve an important part of our parish heritage for future generations. In the weeks ahead, we would love to hear from parishioners who might have ideas for fundraising. No event is too small. Sometimes the simplest ideas can bring people together and make a real difference. Whether it's a

Lord, make me

It is about our community coming together and sharing gifts and talents. If you have an idea, however modest it may seem, please don't keep it to yourself. We'd be delighted to hear from you. Paddy McGuire RIP

It is with immense sadness that we in the Ballycogley Players Drama Group learned of the passing of our dear friend and much loved group member, Paddy McGuire recently. For many many years, Paddy represented the very best of Ballycogley Players, being an integral part of the success of our group. On stage as an actor, he certainly played his part and behind the scenes, his work and his sleeves rolled up approach embodied all that's good about amateur drama. He was always proud to say that he was one of us, his commitment to our drama family was one to be admired. We will miss him dearly but what great memories and stories we have of Paddy. We extend our deepest sympathies to Denise, Damien and all his family at this very difficult time, our thoughts and prayers are with you. May you rest peacefully Paddy; see you in the next scene.

Write by the Sea – Congratulations

Tea and Talk for Pieta Wexford

Kilmore SCOPE Group would love to bring everyone in Kilmore Parish and the surrounding areas together for a morning of tea, conversation and company at the AOH Hall, Bridgetown, on Friday 9th October, 10am-12pm. Sometimes it's the simple things — a cuppa, a friendly face and a good chat — that can mean so much. We're raising funds for Pieta Wexford, whose work is right here in our own county, providing support to people and families affected by suicide and self-harm when they need it most. We hope you'll come along, take some time to sit, chat and enjoy being together, while helping us support a cause that is so important to our communities here in Wexford. Everyone is very welcome, and we'd love to see you there.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Isaiah 25: 6 - 10
A reading from the prophet of Isaiah.
On this mountain,
the Lord of hosts will prepare for all people
a banquet of rich food, a banquet of fine wines, of food rich and juicy, of fine strained wines.
On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations,
he will destroy Death for ever.
The Lord will wipe away
the tears from every cheek;
he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth,
for the Lord has said so.
That day, it will be said:
"See, this is our God
whom we hoped for salvation;
the Lord is the one in whom we hoped.

We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us; for the hand of the Lord rests on this mountain.
The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps.22
R. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

1. The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit. [R]
2. He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort. [R]
3. You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing. [R] 4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. [R]

SECOND READING
Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20
A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

I know how to be poor and I know how to be rich too. I have been through my initiation and now I am ready for anything anywhere: full stomach or empty stomach, poverty or plenty. There is nothing I cannot master with the help of the One who gives me strength. All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships. In return my God will fulfil all your needs, in Christ Jesus, as lavishly as only God can. Glory to God, our Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION
Alleluia, alleluia!
The Word was made flesh and lived among us; to all who did accept him he gave power to become children of God. Alleluia!

GOSPEL *Matthew 22: 1-14 (shorter form 22:1-10)
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited" he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fatted cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding."*

*But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He despatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants,
"The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the crossroads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding."*
*So these servants went out on to the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests.
When the king came in to look at the guests he noticed one man who was not wearing a wedding garment, and said to him, "How did you get in here, my friend, without a wedding garment?" And the man was silent. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth."
For many are called, but few are chosen.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED
I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
All bow for following three lines:

and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Pray brothers and sisters, May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Prisoners' Sunday

God is generous to his people; his is the gift of life and love, of reconciliation and of justice. He expects us to be generous in return so that others may know his generosity.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Accept, O Lord, the prayers of your faithful with the sacrificial offerings, that, through these acts of devotedness,
we may pass over to the glory of heaven.
Through Christ our Lord.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right and just.

SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

AFTER THE CONSECRATION

The mystery of faith.
We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Behold the Lamb of God, Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

The rich suffer want and go hungry, but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

We entreat your majesty most humbly, O Lord, that, as you feed us with the nourishment which comes from the most holy Body and Blood of your Son, so you may make us sharers of his divine nature.
Who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

CONCLUDING RITE

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.

May the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, ✠ and the Holy Spirit, come down on you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Go in peace, glorifying the Lord
by your life. Thanks be to God.

Today is prisoner Sunday and the Church asks us to reflect on this most marginalised and often despised section of our population. Many accept, without reflection, that our prisons are full of dangerous, violent criminals. While there are certainly some dangerous people in prison, 80% of those convicted are sentenced to 12 months or less, suggesting that their crimes are less serious (accepting that even less serious crimes can be upsetting or even traumatic for the victim). 70% of prisoners have an addiction but our addiction services have long waiting lists. The Government plan to provide 1,500 extra prison places to combat the overcrowding in our prisons, but it might actually be more effective to provide 1,500 extra drug treatment places. 70% have mental health issues and our mental health services are generally recognised as very inadequate. Our prisons are overcrowded, full of drugs and increasingly violent places, making rehabilitation almost impossible.
Some are on remand with bail set at €50 or €100, but they haven't got it, so they remain in prison simply because they are poor. Others have bail, but because they cannot provide an address, they remain in prison because they are homeless. Most people who commit crime grow out of it. Many tell me that they gave up crime because they fell in love, or had a child, or found employment, and that now they have a reason, for the first time in their lives, not to go to jail. Perhaps it is the system, just as much as prisoners, which needs rehabilitation!

History Notes - Part 144:
THE HOLY FAMILY CONFRATERNITY

The rings on the outside of the seats in the main aisle in our Parish church are a relic of the days of the Holy Family Confraternity. This weekly ceremony was for the women of the parish at 7.30pm on Monday evenings and for the men on Tuesday. Parishioners avoided appearing in public during Confraternity times if they were not attending. The ceremony consisted of rosary and a short sermon followed by Benediction. The congregation was divided into sections, more or less by street, and each section had a banner held in position by the rings. Our section was St. Aidan's, Michael Street, and our leader was Pete Brothers, whose job it was to mark the attendance book which no doubt was examined by the clergy now and again to note non-attenders. The final hymn was always "Happy we who thus united....." which was sung with gusto. The second half of the first line was "..... joined in cheerful melody". Pete used to delight in singing "joined in fearful melody". Courtesy of Jim Sutton

The Working Document for the Irish National Synodal Assembly, taking place in Gormanston, Co Meath on the 17th of October, brings together the fruits of five years of prayer, listening and discernment and will guide delegates as they consider and vote on suggested actions to be presented to the bishops of Ireland. While the Assembly marks an important moment in the journey, the Synodal Pathway is now moving towards a new phase of implementation. Everyone is invited to read, pray with, and reflect on the Working Document and the question: "What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?" Brethren (Brothers and sisters), let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

Lord Jesus, you have shown us the way to the Father:

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you have given us the consolation of the truth:

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you are the Good Shepherd, leading us into everlasting life:

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

4th October 2026

The absolution by the Priest follows:

May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins
 and bring us to everlasting life.
Amen.

 and on earth peace to people of good will.
 We praise you,
 we bless you,
 we adore you,
 we glorify you,
 we give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King,
 O God, almighty Father.
 Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 you take away the sins of the world,
 have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;
 you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.
 For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High,
 Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit,
 in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

COLLECT

Almighty ever-living God, who in the abundance of your kindness surpass the merits and the desires of those who entreat you, pour out your mercy upon us to pardon what conscience dreads and to give what prayer does not dare to ask. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

5:1-7

A Reading from the prophet Isaiah

Let me sing to my friend
 the song of his love for his vineyard.

My friend had a vineyard
 on a fertile hillside.
 He dug the soil, cleared it of stones,
 and planted choice vines in it.
 In the middle he built a tower,
 he dug a press there too.
 He expected it to yield grapes, but sour grapes were all that it gave.

And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem
 and men of Judah,
 I ask you to judge
 between my vineyard and me.
 What could I have done for my vineyard that I have not done?
 I expected it to yield grapes.
 Why did it yield sour grapes instead?

Very well, I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard:
 I will take away its hedge for it to be grazed on,
 and knock down its wall for it to be trampled on.
 I will lay it waste, unpruned, undug;
 overgrown by the briar and the thorn.
 I will command the clouds
 to rain no rain on it.
 Yes, the vineyard of the Lord of hosts
 is the House of Israel, and the men of Judah that chosen plant.
 He expected justice, but found bloodshed, integrity, but only a cry of distress.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
