MINISTRY OF WELCOME

Booking Masses, Baptisms and Weddings As parish office opening hours have been reduced slightly, we are returning to our previous practice of booking Masses, baptisms and weddings in person, in the sacristy after Masses.

Masses can be booked well in advance to ensure your preferred dates are available.

Baptisms can only be booked by the child's parent or legal guardian. At least one month's notice is required. To book a baptism parents must present the child's long birth certificate, complete the baptism request form, meet with one of our Baptism team and attend weekly Mass during the month prior to the date of the Baptism

Weddings can be booked by the couple themselves. Couples are required to give at least six months' notice of marriage to ensure the preferred date is available and that there is adequate time to complete all Civil and Church paperwork.

PRAYING WITH (AND FOR) THE POPE

This week Pope Leo is much in our thoughts. The Holy Father has asked us to pray this October for those dealing with mental health problems, their families and those who care for them. In a video he made a few weeks ago the Pope prayed that those who are affected by mental health issues will get the help and support they need, that their dignity will be upheld and that the Church will be a place of welcome and hope for them.

But as well as praying with Pope Leo for this intention, we should also pray for him at this time. During the last week he has undergone surgery for what has been announced as lung cancer. We ask the Lord to watch over the Holy Father, to give him strength during his treatment and to help him make a full recovery.

HYMNS FOR MASS

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope
Where there is darkness, only light
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

O, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console
To be understood as to understand
To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned
In giving to all men that we receive
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices, who wondrous things has done,
in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms has blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us,
to keep us in his grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills of this world in the next.

St Comgall's Men's Friendship Group

Across the parish, there are many men who are living on their own or have retired or are just at a loose end. Mindful that no specific activity is organised for men in the parish, the plan is to set up a Men's Friendship Group, a bit like the men's shed concept, but more focused on broader activities such as sports, hobbies/crafts, cooking skills, healthcare, wellbeing, benefits entitlement, quiz competitions, board games, visits to tourist attractions, day trips to interesting venues such as heritage/religious sites, or simply just meeting up for a chat and banter over tea or coffee. Once the level of interest is determined, it is hoped to develop a calendar of events.

An information meeting will take place in the Parish Centre on Wednesday 28th October at 4.00 pm to gauge the level of interest. So please if you are interested or you know a man who may be interested, you and they are encouraged to come along and see what is on offer. Also tell us what you think could be offered, as there are many people out there with talent, skills and experiences we could all benefit from. ## PRAYERS AT HOLY COMMUNION

Spiritual Holy Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you have already come,
and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.
composed by Saint Alphonsus Liguori

ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.

Within your wounds hide me.

We Celebrate 100 Years of World Mission Sunday!
This World Mission Sunday marks the 100th anniversary of its establishment by Pope Pius XI in 1926. This centenary is an opportunity to celebrate with renewed missionary zeal.

Last year, Pope Leo XIV made an appeal to us in a personal video for World Mission Sunday. His request echoed around the world: "Please help me help missionaries everywhere."

That's what World Mission Sunday does: it helps Pope Leo care for the 1,130 missionary dioceses and territories under his supervision through the Dicastery for Evangelisation.

We are all called to be a part of this missionary work and we have a singular means to do so: World Mission Sunday.

The second collection we take up today helps extend the Church's evangelisation work to missionary lands where the Gospel is being proclaimed for the first time, as well as to places where the Church barely exists, or is too young, too persecuted, or too poor to sustain herself. Thank you for responding to Pope Leo's call to help him help missionaries everywhere!

Hello children! Today we hear how some people tried to trick Jesus but he was too clever for them. Through the story, Jesus is reminding us that we have two main responsibilities. One is to love God and to try to live our lives the way God wants us to. The other responsibility is to care for each other and to make sure that everyone gets their fair share of the good things that God has given us. Let's try this week to show that you love God through being kind and caring to others.
Loving God, be with us as we try to care for one another, help one another, share with one another and work together to make the world a fairer place for everyone to live. Amen.

NAME……

ADDRESS……..

For World Mission Day 2026, which marks the centenary of a celebration established by Pius XI that is very dear to the Church, I have chosen the theme 'One in Christ, united in mission'. Following the Jubilee Year, I wish to encourage the whole Church to continue its missionary journey with joy and zeal in the Holy Spirit. This requires hearts united in Christ, reconciled communities and, in everyone, a willingness to cooperate with generosity and trust.

One in Christ – Missionary disciples united in him and with our brothers and sisters

The mystery of union with Christ lies at the heart of mission. Before his Passion, Jesus prayed to the Father, 'that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us' (John 17:21). These words reveal Jesus' deepest desire, as well as the identity of the Church as a community of his disciples. That is, a communion that flows from the Trinity, and continues to be sustained by the Trinity. A communion at the service of fraternity among all human beings and harmony with all creation. Being a Christian is not primarily about practices or ideas; it is a life in union with Christ, in which we share in his filial relationship with the Father in the Holy Spirit. It means abiding in Christ, like branches on the vine (cf. John 15:4), immersed in the life of the Trinity. This union gives rise to mutual communion among believers and is the source of all missionary fruitfulness. Indeed, just as Saint John Paul II taught, 'communion represents both the source and the fruit of mission' (Apostolic Exhortation Christifideles Laici, 32).

Being 'one in Christ' calls us to keep our gaze fixed on the Lord, so that he may truly be at the centre of our lives and communities, the centre of every word, action and interpersonal relationship, leading us to say with amazement: 'It is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me'

Holy Father, make us one in Christ, rooted in his love that unites and renews. May all members of the Church be united in mission, docile to the Holy Spirit, courageous in bearing witness to the Gospel, proclaiming and daily embodying your faithful love for all creatures. Bless all missionary men and women, support them in their efforts, and watch over them in hope!

Mary, Queen of Missions, accompany our work of evangelisation in every corner of the earth: make us instruments of peace, and grant that the whole world may recognise in Christ the light that saves. Amen.

Pope Leo XIV

A place for everything!

My mother used always say - put things where they belong. Newspapers, food, the bicycle not in the hall, and other such homely advice. Jesus says the same here - give what belongs to where it belongs and to whom.

So Jesus is being asked about taxes and politics. He knows he is being trapped about money. He moves on to higher questions. Something about the answer of Jesus asks us — where do we belong?

Belonging can sound heavy - as if we are being control ed, or our money belongs to us and we can do what we like with it. But for Jesus it's the belonging of love, not of power and control.

Much is not in our control. We are born and die at God's time. This reminds us that we are not the masters of our lives, we come from God and go to God. This belonging is the centre of our human family and community. God doesn't want to control us but to love us.

But there's an addition: belonging to God means belonging to each other. We have rights and duties of love.

To give to others what belongs to others; give to the poor what belongs to the poor. Everyone has a right to the food of the earth and the food of the mind, and shelter for the body.

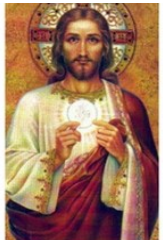

It's not charity when people are given food, education, a home, freedom of religion, freedom of speech - it is justice. To give to God what belongs to God is to share the goods of the earth!

Today is World Mission Sunday. The Opening Prayer of the Mass today which is taken from the Mass for the Evangelisation of Peoples states "O God you have willed that your Church be the sacrament of salvation for all nations…" The Church exists for mission, just as a fire exists for burning. Today's Gospel (Matthew 22:15-21)) Jesus calls us to "to give back to God what belongs to God" (Matthew 22:21). What belongs to God? He created all things -everything belongs to Him. What carries God's face as the coin carried Caesar's face? What does God expect us to give? Not merely endless prayers - even though that is good! But what God wants us to give is a well-organised human life for all. As long as there are starving children and refugees, poor people who have no means to be educated, where there is war, famine, and indifference to the plight of our planet - then our tax to God has not yet been paid. Paul's first letter to the people of Thessalonica (1:1-5) is today's second reading. This letter is among the earliest of all Christian writings and the two letters that Paul wrote to these new Christians give us an invaluable insight into the young and joyful faith of this emerging Christian community. Thessalonica, which is modern day Salonika in Greece, was part of Macedonia, the land of Alexander the Great who conquered the known world in his time. This town was the main link between Rome and the East, and the coming of Christianity to Thessalonica was crucial in making Christianity a world religion. We are told of Paul's visit to that town in Acts 17:1-10. We know that he preached in their synagogue on three weekends and was hustled out of the town by some who disagreed with his teaching about Jesus. However Paul, who now was in Corinth, was worried about his new converts and sent his fellow worker Timothy back to them to see how they were getting on. Timothy returned to tell Paul that all was well with his new fledging Christian converts. Paul was delighted with the news that their faith in Jesus not only survived but was flourishing in his absence. He wrote them this letter. In the first reading from Isaiah 45:4-6 we hear how God called Cyrus, King of Persia (559-530 BC) who conquered Babylon to allow his people to go back home from exile to Jerusalem and rebuild the temple. God's power is at work even in the unbeliever. Today the task of spreading the Good News about Jesus is still the Church's calling. We are called to bring people to the awareness of all that God is doing for them in His Son, Jesus Christ. Collections are taking place today in every single parish across Europe to help support this work. The needs of the Church in mission dioceses, of which there are over 1,100 continues to grow. These dioceses are often in remote areas devastated by war and natural disasters. Our offerings help their men, women and children survive and ultimately flourish through the action and work of missionaries. This is our moment of universal solidarity, when each member of our Church family, regardless of location or background can play their part in supporting each other. This collection is a lifeline, not only to missionaries, but also the future of the Church. There are envelopes at the back of the church that can be used to place your contribution for the support of the oversea missions. We are all conscious that we are all living in financially stringent times. In the light of that reality your generosity is remarkable. Thank you.

Father Charles Cross C.P.

World Mission Sunday 18th October 2026: There will be a collection for Mission Sunday this weekend, envelopes will be at the back of the Church and at Our Lady's entrance. Envelopes can be put in the collection boxes around the Church or handed in at the Parish office in the Houben Centre.

have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,

All: Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Congregation Sits

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus 35:12-14. 16-19

The Lord is a judge who is no respecter of personages.
He shows no respect of personages to the detriment of a poor man, he listens to the plea of the injured party.
He does not ignore the orphan's supplication, nor the widow's as she pours out her story.
The man who with his whole heart serves God will be accepted, his petitions will carry to the clouds.
The humble man's prayer pierces the clouds, until it arrives he is inconsolable, nor will he desist until the Most High takes notice of him, acquits the virtuous and delivers judgement.
And the Lord will not be slow,
nor will he be dilatory on their behalf.

The word of the Lord
All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 32:2-3. 17-19. 23. R v.7

(R) This poor man called; the Lord heard him.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad. (R)

2. The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth.
The just call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress. (R)

3. The Lord is close to the broken-hearted; those whose spirit is crushed he will save.
The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.
Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. (R)

SECOND READING

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy 4:6-8. 16-18

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing.

The first time I had to present my defence, there was not a single witness to support me. Every one of them deserted me – may they not be held accountable for it. But the Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

Congregation stands

ACCLAMATION Cf. Mt 11:25

All: Alleluia, alleluia!
Blessed are you, Father,
Lord of heaven and earth,
for revealing the mysteries of the kingdom
to mere children.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.
Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 18:9-14
All: Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus spoke the following parable to some people who prided themselves on being virtuous and despised everyone else. 'Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood there and said this prayer to himself. "I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like the rest of mankind, and particularly that I am not like this tax collector here. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get." The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." This man, I tell you, went home again at rights with God; the other did not. For everyone who exalts himself, will be humbled, but the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Congregation sits

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Procession

The gifts of bread and wine which will become the Lord's body and blood are brought to the altar.
The celebrant raises the host on the paten saying:

Priest: Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation,
for through your goodness we have received
the bread we offer you:
fruit of the earth and work of human hands,
it will become for us the bread of life.

All: Blessed be God for ever.

The celebrant pours wine and a little water into the chalice, saying quietly:

Priest: By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity.

The celebrant then raises the chalice above the altar and says:

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation,
for through your goodness we have received
the wine we offer you:
fruit of the vine and work of human hands,
it will become our spiritual drink.

All: Blessed be God for ever.

Bowing, the celebrant says quietly:

Priest: With humble spirit and contrite heart may we be accepted by you, O Lord, and may our sacrifice in your sight this day be pleasing to you, Lord God.

Then the celebrant washes his hands, saying quietly:

Wash me, O Lord, from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

All: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Priest: Look, we pray, O Lord, on the offerings we make to your majesty, that whatever is done by us in your service may be directed above all to your glory.
Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

Congregation stands

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER II

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.
All: We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All: It is right and just.

PREFACE (III in Ordinary Time)

Priest: It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks,
Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

For we know it belongs to your boundless glory, that you came to the aid of mortal beings with your divinity and even fashioned for us a remedy out of mortality itself, that the cause of our downfall might become the means of our salvation, through Christ our Lord.

Through him the host of Angels adores your majesty and rejoices in your presence for ever.
May our voices, we pray, join with theirs
in one chorus of exultant praise, as we acclaim:

ACCLAMATION

All: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Congregation kneels

Priest: You are indeed Holy, O Lord, the fount of all holiness.

Make holy, therefore, these gifts, we pray, by sending down your Spirit upon them like the dewfall, so that they may become for us the Body and + Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

At the time he was betrayed and entered willingly into his Passion, he took bread and, giving thanks, broke it,
and gave it to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND EAT OF IT,
FOR THIS IS MY BODY
WHICH WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR YOU.

In a similar way, when supper was ended,
he took the chalice
and, once more giving thanks, he gave it to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND DRINK FROM IT,
FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD,
THE BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL COVENANT, WHICH WILL BE POURED OUT FOR YOU AND FOR MANY FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.

DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

Priest: The mystery of faith.

All: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection
until you come again.

Priest: Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his Death and Resurrection, we offer you, Lord,
the Bread of life and the Chalice of salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you.

Humbly we pray that, partaking of the Body and Blood of Christ, we may be gathered into one by the Holy Spirit.

Remember, Lord, your Church, spread throughout the world,
and bring her to the fullness of charity, together with Leo our Pope and N our Bishop and all the clergy.

Remember also our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection, and all who have died in your mercy:
welcome them into the light of your face.
Have mercy on us all, we pray, that with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with blessed Joseph, her spouse,
with the blessed Apostles, and all the Saints who have pleased you throughout the ages, we may merit to be coheirs to eternal life, and may praise and glorify you through your Son, Jesus Christ.

Priest: Through him, and with him, and in him,
O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honour is yours,
for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

Congregation stands

THE COMMUNION RITE

Priest: At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching,
we dare to say:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Priest: Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days,
that, by the help of your mercy,
we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

All: For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

Priest: Lord Jesus Christ,
who said to your Apostles:
Peace I leave you, my peace I give you,
look not on our sins,
but on the faith of your Church,
and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will.
Who live and reign for ever and ever.
All: Amen.

Priest: The peace of the Lord be with you always.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it.

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Congregation kneels
The celebrant says quietly:
Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who, by the will of the Father and the work of the Holy Spirit, through your Death gave life to the world,
free me by this, your most holy Body and Blood,
from all my sins and from every evil;
keep me always faithful to your commandments,
and never let me be parted from you.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

All: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

Priest: May the Body of Christ
keep me safe for eternal life.

Priest: May the Blood of Christ
keep me safe for eternal life.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON Cf. Ps 19:6

All: We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

Purifying the chalice the celebrant says quietly:
What has passed our lips as food, O Lord,
may we possess in purity of heart, that what has been given to us in time may be our healing for eternity.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Congregation kneels

Priest: Let us pray.
May your Sacraments, O Lord, we pray, perfect in us what lies within them, that what we now celebrate in signs
we may one day possess in truth.
Through Christ our Lord.
All: Amen

THE CONCLUDING RITES

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: May the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding,
keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.
All: Amen

Priest: And may the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, + and the Holy Spirit,
come down on you and remain with you for ever.
All: Amen

Then the celebrant, with hands joined and facing the people, says:

Priest: Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord
All: Thanks be to God.

WORLD MISSIONS SUNDAY-18th October

This weekend we celebrate the 100th Anniversary of World Missions Sunday, an opportunity to grow in awareness of the crucial importance of the Church's work on the mission fields.

Many missionaries work in difficult and dangerous situations. 17 Catholic missionaries died tragically in 2025, 10 of them in Africa. The missionaries who were killed included 6 priests and 2 catechists. Missionaries carry out their important work in obedience to the commission given by Our Lord: "Go and baptize all the nations…. know that I am with you, yes, until the end of time."(Mt 28)

In his message for Mission Sunday this year, Pope Leo XIV states: On World Mission Day 2026, which marks the centenary of a celebration established by Pius XI that is very dear to the Church, I have chosen the theme "One in Christ, united in mission." Following the Jubilee Year, I wish to encourage the whole Church to continue its missionary journey with joy and zeal in the Holy Spirit. This requires hearts united in Christ, reconciled communities and, in everyone, a willingness to cooperate with generosity and trust. As we reflect on being one in Christ and united in mission, let us allow ourselves to be guided and inspired by divine grace, "to renew in ourselves the fire of our missionary vocation" and advance together in the commitment to evangelization, in this "new missionary age" in the history of the Church (Homily, Jubilee of the Missionary World and of Migrants, 5 October 2025).

MONTHLY EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

The monthly Eucharistic Adoration will take place in St Patrick's Church this coming Wednesday, beginning after the 9.30am Mass and continuing until 4pm when Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. You are encouraged to spend an half hour in adoration, praying for your intentions, your families, parish, and the needs of the Church and the world. Ideally, a miniuum of three adorers should be present in the church at any given time. This will help to preserve reverence and safety. Please sign up in advance; this will help in the planning for the time of adoration. Sign-up sheets are available on the display stand at the back of the Church.

ST. COOEY'S CAMINO 2026

Following the enjoyment of last year's event, the Parish hopes to hold a St. Cooey's Camino on Saturday 7th November around what is known locally as "round by the Wells'; in other words, a walk leaving The Lourdes Grotto at St Patrick's Church at 10.00am and proceeding by the Ballyfounder Road to St. Cooey's Wells and onto Bankmore and Cook St and returning to St. Patrick's. En route there would be stops near Ballytrustan Graveyard, at St. Cooey's Wells, near the Mass Rock at Ballyedock and back to The Lourdes Grotto. At each stop the participants could pray for the Holy Souls, if they wish. Everything would be done from the public road apart from a visit to the Wells where toilets will be available. To avoid a large bunch of people, the walkers would set off in small groups of 4 or 5 at five-minute intervals from St. Patrick's. This will not be a large procession of pilgrims but, as stated, small groups of 4 or 5 friends.

Permission has been sought from The Parades Commission. We need people who do not intend to go on the walk to act as stewards at road junctions; without stewards we cannot proceed. If you helped in any way last year and could help again, or if you feel that you would like to help this year, please phone 07542530006 as soon as possible.

Parishioners, please give serious thought to participating as pilgrims in this unique event. Families are encouraged to participate but children must be accompanied by an adult. Dog owners should keep their dogs on a leash. For further details text Camino to 07542530006.

Friday Eucharistic Adoration in St Cooey's Oratory, 11.00am - 6.00pm.
Unfortunately, numbers have been declining. Could you try and spend some time in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, believing that Jesus Christ is truly present—body, blood, soul, and divinity—under the appearance of the consecrated host.

Portaferry GAC Deceased Members Mass: Wednesday 18th November at 7.30pm in St Cooey's Oratory.

FROM THE HEAD TO THE HEART - A JOURNEY THROUGH LUKE'S GOSPEL

How well do you know the stories of Jesus? This autumn, the Parish of Ardkeen is offering a unique 8-week introduction to the Gospel of Luke. Together, we will trace the narrative backwards—from the joy of the empty tomb, through the life and ministry of Jesus, to the stable in Bethlehem as Advent begins. This course will give you the historical context to understand the text, insights to love the stories, and the spiritual tools to turn scripture reading into deep personal prayer. No prior Bible study experience needed! The course begins on Sunday, 11th October, 7.45-8.45 pm (after the 7 pm Solemn Rosary) in the Nunsquarter Room, St Mary Star of the Sea.

Many of you will be aware of the problem we have with rock, which is a lot more extensive that we first hoped.
We will dig out 2 rows of graves each year and fill them with soil so that the digging will be so much easier when they are required.
We spent £4,000 during the summer and as a result the Finance Committee agreed with me that to recoup this money being spent we are keeping the price of graves for Parishioners (those who live within the Parish boundaries or those who live outside the Parish boundaries that contribute via weekly envelope or standing order) at £300 but increasing the price for those living outside the Parish to £1,000 in line with many of our neighbouring Parishes.
Thank you for your continued support.

Fr Aidan

Let us pray that mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

A place for everything!

My mother used always say - put things where they belong. Newspapers, food, the bicycle not in the hall, and other such homely advice. Jesus says the same here - give what belongs to where it belongs and to whom.
So Jesus is being asked about taxes and politics. He knows he is being trapped about money. He moves on to higher questions. Something about the answer of Jesus asks us — where do we belong?
Belonging can sound heavy - as if we are being controlled, or our money belongs to us and we can do what we like with it. But for Jesus it's the belonging of love, not of power and control.
Much is not in our control. We are born and die at God's time. This reminds us that we are not the masters of our lives, we come from God and go to God. This belonging is the centre of our human family and community. God doesn't want to control us but to love us.

But there's an addition: belonging to God means belonging to each other. We have rights and duties of love.
To give to others what belongs to others; give to the poor what belongs to the poor. Everyone has a right to the food of the earth and the food of the mind, and shelter for the body.

18 October 2026 Twenty Ninth Sunday of Ordinary Time, Mission Sunday, Year A .

Sunday Gospel This year's theme, chosen by Pope Leo, is 'One in Christ, united in mission.' Being 'one in Christ' calls us to keep Our Lord at the centre of our lives and communities, and our mission is lived by witnessing to God's love through our words and deeds. In his message for World Mission Sunday, Pope Leo XIV shared: 'Your prayers and practical support, particularly on World Mission Sunday, will be a great help in bringing the Gospel of God's love to everyone, especially the poorest and those most in need. Every gift, no matter how small, becomes a meaningful act of missionary communion.' This year's celebration encourages every Catholic in the world to bring to life the mission given to them through baptism – to share the love of God with everyone, everywhere – by supporting missionaries who live alongside and serve communities in greatest need, wherever they are. Missionaries' work is rooted in peace, dignity and hope, and offers help to everyone, regardless of their background or belief.
