Domhnach na Misean

Inniu Domhnach Domhanda na Misean. Ón bhliain 1926 ar aghaidh tá an Eaglais ag comóradh agus ag cuimhneamh ar a misean uilíoch. Is lá ar leith é atá eagraithe ag Craobhscaoileadh an Chreidimh chun deis a thabhairt do Chaitlicigh ar fud an domhain iad féin a ath-thiomnú d'obair mhisinéireachta na hEaglaise trí ghuí agus trí ghníomh. Déantar an ceiliúradh seo ar an lá céanna i ngach paróiste ar fud an domhain. Nuair a baisteadh sinn tugadh misean dúinn maireachtáil mar dhaoine de chlann an tsolais agus mar thoradh ar sin tá dualgas orainn solas Chríost a chraobhscaoileadh go himill chríocha na cruinne. Ar an lá speisialta seo tugtar deis dúinn athnuachan a dhéanamh ar an misean a thug Dia dúinn agus cabhrú le Misean na hEaglaise lenár n-urnaithe agus ár n-íobairtí chomh maith le hairgead a chur ar fáil dár misinéirí.

Mission Sunday

Today is World Mission Sunday. Since 1926, the Church has remembered its universal mission. It is a special day set aside by Propagation of the Faith so that Catholics worldwide can rededicate themselves to the missionary work of the Church by prayer and action. Every parish in the world celebrates this day on the same date. When we were baptised we were given the mission to live as members of the family of light and as a result we have an obligation to spread the light of Christ to the whole world. On this special day we get the opportunity to renew our commitment to the mission given to us by God and to assist the mission of the Church by our prayers and sacrifices as well as providing financial help for missionaries.

Mission Sunday: World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. It takes place on the weekend 17th / 18th October. The theme for this year is "One in Christ, United in Mission". World Mission Sunday collections take place in every single parish where the Church is present. This includes not only Ireland and Europe, but also in poorer parishes in developing countries. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church family, regardless of location or background, play their part in supporting each other.

Safeguarding Month: Creating a Safe Parish A safe parish is one where children and young people are cherished, listened to and protected. Our safeguarding policies, training and procedures help us to provide safe environments for everyone involved in parish activities. We are grateful to our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, clergy, staff and volunteers for their continued commitment to this important work.

A place we can all be proud of.

Pastoral Councils: A very sincere thanks to all the members of Pastoral Council who joined with us in Scariff on Wednesday last as we reflected on the story of our Inis Cealtra Pastoral Area guided by Fr. Michael Collins.

Reflection

Life and religion

Who can separate his faith from his actions, or his belief from his occupations?
Who can spread his hours before him, saying:
'This for God and this for myself;
This for my soul and this other for my body?'
He who wears his morality but as his best garment were better naked.
Your daily life is your temple and your religion.
Whenever you enter into it take with you your all.
Take the plough and the forge and the mallet and the lute,
the things you have fashioned in necessity or for delight.
And take with you all men.
And if you would know God . . . look about you and you will see him playing with your children.

The Popes Intentions – October For mental health ministry
Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

Many thanks to Bishop Fintan, members of St. Vincent de Paul, members of the joint choirs, our Pastoral Council and all others involved, for enriching our beautiful Mass last Sunday and for the wonderful community gathering afterwards in the Parish Hall.

Money Matters Offertory collection €1,535. Many thanks for your on-going generosity.

Ahane Church Choir Recital On Thurs, 5th Nov @ 7.30pm the choir will present an evening of song with the themes of Remembrance, Peace and Kindness in St. Patrick's Church, Ahane. Those who have passed away in the Ahane area in the last year will be remembered on the night. Admission is free with donations gratefully accepted for the Church Organ restoration fund. All are welcome.

World Mission Sunday is the one Sunday of the year when the entire global Church comes together in support of mission. It is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. Mission Sunday

- Provides Church-centred infrastructure by helping communities build churches, schools and clinics;
- Prepares the future leaders and carers of the Church by supporting the training of sisters, priests, religious brothers and catechists;
- Supports missionary programmes that protect and care for children's well-being by offering safe shelter, healthcare, education and hope for the future.

We thank everyone for their great generosity and kindness.

Mission Prayer

Loving God, inspire us to 'go and invite everyone to the banquet.'
Nourished from gathering around your table,
may our communities reflect your unconditional love,
so that all are welcomed with open arms,
and the most vulnerable find refuge, care, and compassion.
May our prayers and generosity bring strength to missionaries, enabling them to share the joy that faith brings,
so that everyone, everywhere,
may experience your hope and love, renewing and healing our world.
We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Mission Sunday: The Annual Collection for the work of missionaries abroad will be taken up this weekend 17th and 18th October. The monies collected go directly to those on the mission fields. Many missionaries work in dangerous and difficult situations throughout the world. 17 Catholic missionaries died tragically in 2025, 10 of them in Africa. Of that 10, 6 were priests, 2 seminarians and 2 catechists. On December 26th a priest and a pharmacist were killed in Nigeria. Your contribution to this collection will be very much appreciated. Please use an envelope in your yearly pack to make a contribution or use one of the envelopes at the church door to make your donation.

World Mission Sunday 18th October

Today we celebrate the 100th World Mission Day, Pope Leo XIV has chosen the beautiful theme: "One in Christ, United in Mission." Jesus prayed that his disciples might be one, so that the world might believe. Our unity itself becomes a witness to the Gospel. When people see Christians loving, forgiving and supporting one another, they can experience something of God's love. Mission belongs to every baptized person. We may not travel to distant countries, but we can be missionaries wherever we are: in our homes, parish, workplaces and communities.

Gathering as a Community to Pray.

An Invitation to Lead.

We are the People of God and united in baptism in our Christian calling. The blessing of being able to gather and pray together is a wonderful gift. All through the centuries people led and were led in prayer by fellow parishioners. Today, this invitation is as strong as ever. With the opportunities that are now present we in Imeall Boirne Pastoral Area have a great gift before us. We have nine churches that have served our communities over the centuries as places of prayer. We are being asked to continue to gather in our communities to pray as is happening with Liturgy of the Word with Holy Communion, Rosary groups, Prayer Groups, Pray and Play groups, Eucharistic Adoration and School based groups are just some of the groups that are currently being led by fellow parishioners. To support and encourage leaders we are inviting all involved and also any person who would like to get involved to a gathering in Ruan Hall on Wednesday Oct. 21st @ 8pm.

If we do not gather we will be scattered!!!

Let's have an honest conversation about Synodality !

Killaloe Diocese Adult Faith Formation Team invites you to a gathering on Saturday October 24th 10am-1pm Parish Centre, Ennis Cathedral. A Dialogue among Clergy & Laity on how we can journey together as Church. Guided by Fr Eamonn Fitzgibbons.

World Mission Sunday 2026 One in Christ, United in Mission

World Mission Day 2026 –
This year we celebrate the 100th World Mission Day, a celebration begun by Pope Pius XI one hundred years ago. Pope Leo XIV has chosen the beautiful theme: "One in Christ, United in Mission." He invites us to "renew in ourselves the fire of our missionary vocation."

One in Christ
Our Christian life begins with Jesus. Being a Christian is not only about following rules, practices or ideas. It is about living in a deep friendship with Christ. Jesus tells us to remain in him like branches joined to the vine. When we are united with Christ, we are also united with one another as brothers and sisters.
Our families and parish communities should therefore be places of unity, forgiveness and peace. We do not preach ourselves or seek our own importance. As Saint Paul reminds us, "We do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord" (2 Cor 4:5).

United in Mission

Jesus prayed that his disciples might be one, so that the world might believe. Our unity itself becomes a witness to the Gospel. When people see Christians loving, forgiving and supporting one another, they can experience something of God's love.

Mission belongs to every baptized person. We may not travel to distant countries, but we can be missionaries wherever we are: in our homes, parish, workplaces and communities.

Mission to Love
Pope Leo reminds us that love is at the heart of mission. Saint Francis of Assisi said, "Love is not loved." Saint Thérèse also desired "to love Jesus and to make him loved."
On this World Mission Day, may we renew our missionary spirit. Through our prayer, kindness, generosity and care for those in need, may we make Jesus known and loved.

May Christ make us one in him, unite us in mission, and send us out to share God's love with everyone.

Tax Back Scheme for Eligible Charities

Our Parish is an Eligible Charity within above Scheme. All donations of €250 and over from both PAYE Tax Payers and Self -employed Persons qualify for a Tax Refund of 31%. This Tax Refund can now only be claimed by a qualifying Charity. A Tax claim form was completed by many eligible Parishioners and this form extends for a five year period.

We have now sent out a Tax Claim form to all parishioners who are eligible this year or may not have returned the completed form in previous years. We would urge you to return it before the 30th October deadline.

We sincerely thank all of you, our Parishioners, for your continued generous donations to our Parish and your diligent completion of the necessary forms to enable us reclaim this Tax which now forms a very important part of our annual income.

Entrance Antiphon
To you I call;
for you will surely heed me, O God;
Turn your ear to me; hear my words.
Guard me as the apple of your eye;
In the shadow of your wings protect me.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord
C. For we have sinned against you.
P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
C. And grant us your salvation.
P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to ever lasting life.
C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, God,
almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.
Is 45:1.4-6

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he has taken by his right hand to subdue nations before him and strip the loins of kings, to force gateways before him that their gates be closed no more:

It is for the sake of my servant Jacob,
of Israel my chosen one, that I have called you by your name, conferring a title though
you do not know me.
I am the Lord, unrivalled;
there is no other God besides me.
Though you do not know me, I arm you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that, apart from me, all is nothing.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm
R: Give the Lord glory and power.

O sing a new song to the Lord,
Sing to the Lord all the earth.
Tell among the nations his glory
And his wonders among all the peoples.
R.
The Lord is great and worthy of praise,
To be feared above all gods;
The gods of the heathens are naught.
It was the Lord who made the heavens.
R.
Give the Lord, you families of peoples,
Give the Lord glory and power,
Give the Lord the glory of his name.
Bring an offering and enter his courts.
R.
Worship the Lord in his temple
Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.'
He will judge the peoples in fairness.
R.

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians.
1Th 1:1-5

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ.
We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation
Alleluia, alleluia!
You will shine in the world like bright stars Because you are offering it the word of life. Alleluia!

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew. Mt 22:15-21

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. Tell us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.'

They handed him a denarius, and he said, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar - and to God what belongs to God.'

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day In accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon
Behold, the eyes of the Lord
are on those who fear him,
Who hope in his merciful love
to rescue their souls from death,
To keep them alive in famine

Mission Sunday

This year we celebrate 100th World Mission Day, a celebration begun by Pope Pius XI one hundred years ago. Pope Leo XIV has chosen the beautiful theme "One in Christ, United in Mission". He invites us to "renew in ourselves the fire of our missionary vocation". Today in every Catholic Church in the world, a second collection will take place to support the work of missionaries. Please be generous to this appeal.

Blessing of New Life & Expectant Parents

Blessing of New Life & Expectant Parents in SS Peter & Paul Church, Clarecastle on Tuesday October 20th at 7pm for the Abbey Pastoral Area. All welcome.

Cathedral Renovation Appeal

In the past week Fr. Tom wishes to acknowledge donations of €500 & €300. We thank the many people who have made once off contributions to this appeal.

Ennis National School Knitting Club would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to everyone who generously donated wool and knitting needles to our school knitting club. Thanks to your kindness, children from 3rd to 6th class can learn a valuable lifelong skill, develop their creativity and enjoy the satisfaction of making something with their own hands. Our free knitting club brings children together and helps keep a wonderful traditional skill alive.
Every donation is truly valued and appreciated.

Clare Macra– New members welcome! Are you aged 17–40 and interested in meeting new people, making friends and getting involved in your local community? Clare Macra offers a wide range of social activities, nights out, sports, competitions, training and travel opportunities. You don't need a farming background to join – Macra welcomes young people from all walks of life! There are three clubs in County Clare: Ennis, Sixmilebridge/ Kilmurry and West Clare. Follow @claremacra on Instagram to find out more!

October—Safeguarding Month

Safeguarding KILLALOE

Being attentive to the wellbeing and safety of children and young people is an important part of safeguarding. If you have a concern about the safety or welfare of a child or vulnerable person, please ensure that you know who to speak to and how report your concern to our Parish Safeguarding representatives can provide information and guidance on safeguarding procedures.

Cemetery Sunday
Sunday 1st November, All Saints' Day

Columbarium Cathedral after 11.30am Mass
Corrovorrin Cemetery 2pm
Drumcliffe Cemetery 3pm

Mass for all who have died in the past year on Monday 2nd November; All Souls' Day at 7.30pm in the Cathedral.

November Masses for the Holy Souls

During the month of November mass will be offered each day for all on our November dead list of the parish. Envelopes containing the lists are now available in the porches of our churches. Completed lists should be returned by November 2nd All Souls' Day.

Cathedral Works Update

We are delighted to report that our new heating system is now operative. Allowing for some initial teething problems in the early days, we look forward to a warm and comfortable Cathedral this winter.

The paving in front of the Cathedral will begin this week as the drainage works are near completion.
The final phase of the works will be the resurfacing of the whole grounds. The estimated completion date will be the early days of December.
We apologise for the inconvenience the works are causing but we look forward to a beautiful and welcoming Cathedral in the heart of our town.
Our thanks to all who are contributing to the appeal to help pay for the works. All contributions are very much appreciated. Our Cathedral has served the people of Ennis and our Diocese for the past 184 years and will continue to do so for many years to come.

There will be four entrances to the Cathedral open each day:

- Grotto Door;
- Columbarium Door;
- Both Side Doors.
- Funerals will enter and exit by the Columbarium Door.
- We ask for your understanding and patience as the work progresses.
- Please park responsibly at all times and do not block entrances.
- The Parish Office is open and entrance is from Station Road.
- Our thanks to all who are contributing to the Renovation Appeal that make this work possible.

Heal the Nations
through faith and love

Prayer for the Healing of Nations

Lord Jesus, we beseech You to unite the people of the earth
in Your love.
Break down walls of division,
prejudice, and misunderstanding.

Inspire nations to act with fairness,
generosity, and integrity.
May Your Spirit teach us to see one another as brothers and sisters,
valuing each life as precious.

Guide diplomats, leaders, and citizens to embrace dialogue and seek solutions rooted in justice and mercy

Teach us to forgive, reconcile,
and serve one another with humility.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon
To you I call;
for you will surely heed me, O God;
Turn your ear to me; hear my words.
Guard me as the apple of your eye;
In the shadow of your wings protect me.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord
C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.
C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.
Is 45:1.4-6

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he has taken by his right hand to subdue nations before him
and strip the loins of kings, to force gateways before him
that their gates be closed no more:

It is for the sake of my servant Jacob,
of Israel my chosen one,
that I have called you by your name,
conferring a title though you do not know me.
I am the Lord, unrivalled;
there is no other God besides me.
Though you do not know me, I arm you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that, apart from me, all is nothing.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm
R: Give the Lord glory and power.

O sing a new song to the Lord,
Sing to the Lord all the earth.
Tell among the nations his glory
And his wonders among all the peoples.
R.
The Lord is great and worthy of praise,
To be feared above all gods;
The gods of the heathens are naught.
It was the Lord who made the heavens.
R.
Give the Lord, you families of peoples,
Give the Lord glory and power,
Give the Lord the glory of his name.
Bring an offering and enter his courts.
R.
Worship the Lord in his temple.
O earth, tremble before him.
Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.'
He will judge the peoples in fairness.
R.

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians. 1Th 1:1-5

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ

We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation
Alleluia, alleluia!
You will shine in the world like bright stars
Because you are offering it the word of life.
Alleluia!

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew. Mt 22:15-21

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. Tell us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius, and he said, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar - and to God what belongs to God.'

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day In accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon
Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him,
Who hope in his merciful love to rescue their souls from death, To keep them alive in famine.

Mission Sunday 18th October 2026

This weekend—Friday 16th & Sunday 18th of October -we will be remembering all those whose names are listed together on the world map at Kilkee Church front porch together with the many people who have over the years worked on the Mission fields.

Kilkee Church Repairs

Last Sumer we embarked on a major project at the front of our church attending to the damaged concrete and steel at the high elevation and pillars for the large stained glass window, painting of the front of the building and installing new lighting in the front car park.

We now have to turn our attention to repairing the concrete at the high elevation of the back of the church. This work will commence over the coming weeks.

We are grateful for your donations towards this work though your donations to the repair collection. Thank you for your assistance in maintaining the fabric of our Church building.

Kilkee Parish Donations

We thank you for your continued support of our parish collections. You can donate to the parish using the following methods:

- Placing your donation into the buckets at the entrance to Kilkee Church during Mass Times.
- Using the special secure boxes on the inside walls of Lisdeen and Kilkee churches at any time.
- Using the special Donate button on the parish website to make a contribution from your bank card.

If you prefer to use "cashless" methods for your donation to the parish using your bank card or mobile phone payment facility, you can use the "Tap 2 Donate" system near the TV screen at the entrance to Kilkee Church or the following QR Code will bring you to the portal for donations to the parish.

Prayer for Peace in our World

Loving God, We pray for the people of Ukraine, those caught up in the Middle East conflict, and for all those affected in any way by war in our world that you will be close to them and protect them. We pray for world leaders, for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices.

We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need.

May we walk in your ways so that peace and justice become a reality for the people who are suffering and for all the world. Amen.

Survey for Columbarium Wall

The parish pastoral council, along with the parish finance and the graveyard committees are exploring whether there is sufficient interest in installing columbarium walls in Burrane Graveyard and Knockerra Graveyard.
A columbarium wall is a permanent, freestanding structure. Each wall contains recessed compartments called niches (instead of a plot), designed to respectfully hold 2+ cremation urns. Many parishes install them to provide families with a dignified, long-term resting place for loved ones who choose cremation and as an alternative to burial.
Survey can be accessed by below link or QR code. It will be available on Facebook page and social media as well as paper copies will be available at the back of the churches from this weekend.

Mission Sunday

This week, you are invited to partner with Catholic Mission & the church in Malawi as we support families rebuilding after devastating floods & help children access education close to home. Through projects like St. Peter's Nyamikuta Primary School, the church is creating a place where children can learn, be nourished, and grow with dignity, regardless of their background or beliefs. As we celebrate 100 years of World Mission Day, we are reminded by Pope Leo XIV that we are 'One in Christ, United in Mission'. Join with us in celebration & action by supporting this work by using your Mission envelope.

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mission Sunday

This year marks the 100th World Mission Day, with Pope Leo XIV choosing the theme "One in Christ, United in Mission." He encourages Christians to renew their missionary spirit and share God's love with everyone.

Our Christian life begins with a deep friendship with Jesus. By remaining united with Christ, we become united with one another, creating families and parish communities built on love, forgiveness and peace. Our actions should reflect the Gospel and proclaim Jesus Christ rather than ourselves.

Unity is an essential part of our mission. When Christians support, forgive and care for one another, they become witnesses to God's love. Every baptized person is called to be a missionary, not necessarily by travelling abroad, but through everyday life at home, work, in the parish and within the wider community.

Love is at the heart of mission. Inspired by Saint Francis of Assisi and Saint Thérèse, we are called to love Jesus and help others discover his love. Through prayer, kindness, generosity and care for those in need, we can make Christ known and loved throughout the world.

The annual Mission Collection is being taken up today.

Annual Mass of Remembrance

Kilmaley church on Sat 31st Oct at 7.30pm

We hope this will be a special occasion for family and friends who have lost loved ones during the past year. During the mass each one will be remembered by name and a candle placed at the altar in their memory. Contact Fr John to add any people who died outside the parish.

THE COMMUNITY CAFE will be open on Friday the 23rd of October from 10.30am to 12pm at the day centre come along for a cuppa and a chat.

TEAM HOPE CLARE CHRISTMAS SHOE BOX APPEAL

The Christmas Shoebox Appeal delivers your gifts straight into the hands of children affected by poverty. Often these shoebox gifts are the only gift that a child will receive at Christmas and the joy that they bring is incredible. Since 2010, with your help, we have delivered over 3 million Christmas shoeboxes to children affected by poverty across the world. Filled boxes can be dropped to "Reidy's Toymaster" Frances Street, Kilrush.

REFLECTION Life and Religion

Who can separate their faith from their actions,
Or their belief from their occupations?
Who can spread their hours before them, saying:
'This for God and this for myself;
This for my soul and this other for my body?'
Those who wear their morality but as their best garment were batter naked.
Your daily life is your temple and your religion.
Whenever you enter into it take with you your all.
Take the plough and the forge and the mallet and the lute,
The things you have fashioned in necessity or for delight.
And take you will all people.
And if you would know God… look about you and you will see him playing with your children.

SAFEGUARDING IS AN ESSENTIAL PART OF PARISH LIFE.
As a parish community within the Diocese of Killaloe, we are committed to creating an environment where everyone, especially children and young people, feels welcomed, respected, valued, and safe.
Week 3 – Speaking Up
Being attentive to the wellbeing and safety of children and young people is an important part of safeguarding. If you have a concern about the safety or welfare of a child or vulnerable person, please ensure that you know who to speak to and how to report your concern. Our Parish Safeguarding Representatives can provide information and guidance on safeguarding procedures.

THE WORKING DOCUMENT for the Irish National Synodal Assembly taking place in Gormanstown, Co Meath on 17th October, brings together the fruits of five years of prayer, listening and discernment and will guide delegates as they consider and vote on suggested actions to be presented to the bishops of Ireland. While the Assembly marks an important moment in the journey, the Synodal Pathway is now moving towards a new phase of implementation. Everyone is invited to read, pray with, and reflect on the Working Document and the question: "What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?" Please pray for all those taking part in the Assembly and for the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and scan the QR code to access the Working Document and find out more, and see www.synod.ie

MRS DOLORES MONTGOMERY recently retired from Coore N.S. after years of distinguished service in both Scropul and Coore National Schools. Mrs Montgomery always gave her wholehearted attention to the job in hand and a great love and interest in the children. Down through the years she prepared the children for First Confession and First Holy Communion and handed on the precious gift of faith to the next generation. We wish Mrs Montgomery well as she retires and we thank her for all the wonderful seeds she sowed with such love down through the years in our community. Mrs Montgomery, may you be abundantly blessed as you retire.

REFLECTION Life and Religion
Who can separate their faith from their actions,
Or their belief from their occupations?
Who can spread their hours before them, saying:
'This for God and this for myself;
This for my soul and this other for my body?'
Those who wear their morality but as their best garment were batter naked.
Your daily life is your temple and your religion.
Whenever you enter into it take with you your all.
Take the plough and the forge and the mallet and the lute,
The things you have fashioned in necessity or for delight.
And take you will all people.
And if you would know God… look about you and you will see him playing with your children.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY 2026

Dear brothers and sisters, on World Mission Sunday every year, the whole Church prays united, particularly for missionaries and the fruitfulness of their apostolic labors.

When I served as a missionary priest and then bishop in Peru, I saw first hand how the faith, the prayer, and the generosity shown on World Mission Sunday can transform entire communities.

I urge every Catholic parish in the world to take part in World Mission Sunday. Your prayers, your support will help spread the gospel, provide for pastoral and catechetical programs, help to build new churches, and care for the health and educational needs of our brothers and sisters in mission territories. This October [18th], as we reflect together on our baptismal call to be missionaries of hope among the peoples, let us commit ourselves anew to the sweet and joyful task of bringing Christ Jesus, our hope, to the ends of the earth. Thank you for everything you will do to help me help missionaries throughout the world. God bless you all.

Pope Leo XIV

Today's Gospel: A Reflection

This passage from Matthew highlights the astuteness of Jesus in navigating through the complexities of life. The authorities, who usually opposed each other, united in an attempt to trap Jesus. They sought to force Him into a dilemma, where whatever answer He gave could be used against Him.

The question about paying taxes was not merely a financial matter; it was a political and religious minefield. The denarius, with Caesar's image and inscription, symbolized Roman authority. However, Jesus' response transcended the political entanglements of the moment and delved into deeper spiritual truths.

"Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's" encapsulates a profound principle for Christian living. Jesus acknowledges the validity of societal responsibilities, such as paying taxes, respecting authorities, and participating in civic duties. However, He emphasizes that these are not ultimate; there is a higher allegiance owed to God.

As Catholics, this passage prompts us to reflect on the balance between our earthly responsibilities and our spiritual commitments. We live in the world, engaging with its systems and structures, yet our ultimate loyalty lies with God. Our Christian faith should permeate every aspect of our lives, influencing our choices, actions, and priorities.

In the face of societal pressures, Jesus encourages us not to compromise our core values. We are called to be discerning, navigating the complexities of the world with wisdom and integrity. Our lives should reflect a dual citizenship — being responsible members of society while recognizing our citizenship in the Kingdom of God.

This passage challenges us to examine what we "render" to the various aspects of our lives. Do we give to God what is rightfully His in our time, talents, and resources? Are we conscious of the tension between the demands of the world and the higher calling of our faith? In contemplating these questions, we find guidance for navigating the intricate intersection of faith and daily life, striving to honor both God and our earthly responsibilities.

Let's work together to be engaged and responsible as a community!

Prayer of Pope Leo XIV for the 100th World Mission Sunday 2026

Holy Father, make us one in Christ, rooted in his love that unites and renews.
May all members of the Church be united in mission, docile to the Holy Spirit, courageous in bearing witness to the Gospel, proclaiming and daily embodying your faithful love for all creatures.
Bless all missionary men and women, support them in their efforts, and watch over them in hope!
Mary, Queen of Missions, accompany our work of evangelization in every corner of the earth: make us instruments of peace, and grant that the whole world may recognize in Christ the light that saves.
Amen.

This Week We Offer A Special Prayer For ...Pope Leo XIV

We keep our Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, very much in our thoughts and prayers following the news of his illness.
We pray that his time in hospital will be one of healing, rest and recovery.
May the Lord grant him strength, comfort and peace in the days ahead.
We also remember the doctors, nurses and all those caring for him.
Lord Jesus, our Divine Healer, restore him to good health, and may the Holy Spirit fill him with strength, hope and peace.
Mary, Our Mother of Perpetual Help, intercede for him and pray for him, now and every day.
Amen.

- Safeguarding Month: Creating a Safe Parish--A safe parish is one where children and young people are cherished, listened to and protected. Our safeguarding policies, training and procedures help us to provide safe environments for everyone involved in parish activities. We are grateful to our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, clergy, staff and volunteers for their continued commitment to this important work.
- Mission Sunday: World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. It takes place on the weekend 17th / 18th October. The theme for this year is "One in Christ, United in Mission." World Mission Sunday collections take place in every single parish where the Church is present. This includes not only Ireland and Europe, but also in poorer parishes in developing countries. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church family, regardless of location or background, play their part in supporting each other.

National Synodal Assembly – Saturday 17th October 2026: The National Synodal Assembly for the Catholic Church in Ireland will take place on this Saturday, 17th October 2026 at the City North Hotel, Gormanston, Co. Meath. Delegates from every diocese across the country will gather to consider proposals, engage in communal discernment, and make practical recommendations for the Church in Ireland. This Assembly marks a key moment in the Irish Synodal Pathway, which began in 2021. The theme is The Living Out of Our Baptism, and discussions will focus on seven priorities: Belonging, Co-responsibility and Lay Ministry, Family, Formation and Catechesis, Healing, Women, and Youth. The Working Document, entitled "Is not this what God asks of you?", has been published and is available to read. Everyone is warmly invited to pray with it and reflect on the question that has guided the Synodal Pathway from the beginning: "What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?". We ask all parishioners to keep this important gathering in your prayers.

Mission Reflection

Pope Leo reminds us that mission is always a work of love—an overflow of the joy we find in God.
Mission starts in the quiet moments of our daily lives. It is found in:

- The way we listen to a neighbour who is lonely
- The patience we show within our own families
- The generosity we offer to those struggling in our communities
- The prayers we lift up for the global Church.

Today, as parishes across Ireland and the world unite, we are reminded that we belong to a single, global family. We are "One in Christ, United in Mission." Let us pray for the grace to have our hearts set on fire by the Gospel, so that our feet may be ready to move in service, kindness, and love for one another.
