Pope Leo's Prayer Intention Oct 2026

This month, Pope Leo XIV invites us to pray "that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice and human fraternity." At a time marked by conflicts, the Holy Father recalls that religions must be "bridges and prophecy," and not "weapons or walls."

World Mission Sunday – Pray for Missionaries

The 100th World Mission Sunday message by Pope Leo XIV. reflecting on a century of global evangelization since the Day of Remembrance' was established by Pope Pius XI, in 1926

The Pope emphasizes that every baptized Christian shares a universal missionary call rooted in spiritual unity and love rather than isolated efforts. He urges all parishes to actively participate through prayer and financial support for today's collection. Christians who experience the joy of the Gospel are asked to share it with poorer struggling Churches in different parts of the world. This can be done firstly, by praying for the missionaries who go out from a local church to bring the message of the Gospel to others – and secondly, by financially supporting the work of mission in these places. Contributions are used to build simple mission churches, to educate and nurture future leaders of the Church. The Mission Sunday gift is also used for building health facilities for children and adults as well as for providing emergency aid in times of war or natural disaster or to assist missionaries in their efforts to care for refugees.

On Mission Sunday, in a special way, we celebrate the work of about thirteen hundred Irish born missionaries and all missionaries throughout the world. We thank God for them; and for all who support them in our own country.

Mission Sunday Collection this Weekend - 17th & 18th October

This weekend we will have a special collection at all Masses for World Mission Sunday, also known as Propagation of the Faith. This collection goes to Pope Leo in Rome and is used for the development of local Churches in the poorest places in the world. We plead with parishioners to be generous to this collection taken up after Holy Communion.

Building Fund Collection (Next Weekend) - 24th & 25th of October

The monthly Building Fund collection will take place at all Masses next weekend, 24th & 25th of October. The debt for the renovation is still ongoing and we thank you for your generosity each month to help us to repair our beautiful church.

November Mass of Remembrance for our Dead

The November Novena Envelope for the dead will also be distributed to homes over the next week. This will contain a Mass Intentions sheet for you to write the names of your dead on. This envelope along with your contributions can be returned to the Church. Masses each day from 2nd to 10th November (Novena) will be celebrated for all names listed before the Altar. Of course, the greatest gift you can give your dead is to be present while these Masses are celebrated.

'Day of Remembrance' for our Dead – 7th November @ 5.30pm

Mass for all parishioners who died over the past year will take place on Saturday, 7th November at 5.30pm. This special Mass will bring together families who have lost someone dear to them since November 2025. During the Mass a Candle will be brought by two persons representing each family who have lost a loved one. These Candles will be provided by the Church: After Mass they can be collected from the Altar and brought home.

NorthsideParishes.ie - A new website for our family of parishes

We are delighted to announce the launch of a new website for our family of parishes here on the north-side of Cork City. It provides essential information such as the times of Masses and other devotions, contact details for our parishes offices and the priests of our family of parishes, and information on how to book baptisms and weddings. People can also easily access resources or connect to the live stream of Mass from Ascension Church in Gurranabraher.

Annual Blessing of Graves

The Annual Blessing of Graves is as follows:

- St Mary's Cemetery – Curraghkippane: Sunday 1st November 2026 at 1.30 pm.
- St Catherine's Cemetery – Kilcully: Sunday 8th November 2026 at 3.00 pm.

(More dates of other Cemetries will follow when available)

Sunday Bingo at Gurranabraher Credit Union/Parochial Hall Arena

Looking for a great night out with friends and family on Sundays? Join us every week at Parochial Hall for a brilliant evening of fun and a chance to win cash prizes! Doors open at 8pm, with a single book costing €7 and a double book €10. With a friendly crowd and proceeds helping to keep this vital facility running, it is the perfect way to support your local community while having fun. See you there!

Mass Cards available for all occasions

Mass Cards are available at the Parish Office for all occasion, RIP, Exams, Get Well, Birthdays, Anniversaries, etc. – the intentions are included in Nine Masses (Novena) celebrated each month in the parish. Each card cost €3.

Gurranabraher Meals on Wheels

Gurranabraher Meals on Wheels has been providing nutritious meals to members of the parish for many decades. Should you know of someone (or yourself) who would benefit from this service, contact Eliz/Brid on (021) 430 1037.

If we do not worship God – we worship ourselves

In the scriptures the heavy thread of fidelity versus idolatry runs through it like blood in the veins - from the Fall to the Golden Calf, from Solomon's slide to Daniel's stand, from Peter's denial to Peter's restoration… "The history of Israel shows us the temptation of unbelief to which the people yielded more than once," wrote Pope Francis in Lumen Fidei, his encyclical on faith. "Here the opposite of faith is shown to be idolatry." And fidelity (fidelitas) is faithful devotion. Fidelity, it can be said, is the living out of faith in a spirit of worship and self-gift, demonstrated by inward disposition and outward moral uprightness.

Technology and modernity have not done away with idols; they may, in fact, have spawned countless new variations on the ancient themes. Idolatry "remains a constant temptation to faith" (CCC 2113), precisely because we are made to worship - that is, to declare, profess, and proclaim that God alone is worthy of our praise and adoration - and we will either worship God or something else. If there is no God, then you are a 'god' with your own law, your own rules, and, essentially, your own religion. And what do these numerous, autonomous little gods do? They use, they abuse, they lie, they indulge, they corrupt, and they destroy.

This deviant dynamic is captured well in Lumen Fidei: "Once man has lost the fundamental orientation which unifies his existence, he breaks down into the multiplicity of his desires; in refusing to await the time of promise, his life-story disintegrates into a myriad of unconnected instants. Idolatry, then, is always polytheism, an aimless passing from one lord to another." (par 13).

Church Cleaning Rota New rota is now available in the sacristy.

Second Collection today is for Mission Sunday. There are hundreds of Irish born missionaries working throughout the world. They continue to spread the Gospel through their work, their deep commitment to the people they serve and their Faith. In essence, they lead by example and have helped to change, for the better, millions of lives all over the globe. Mission belongs to the entire Church. Every baptized person is called to share God's love through prayer, generosity, and witness. Inspired by the dedication of missionaries around the world, we continue working together so that the message of Christ may reach every community, especially those most in need.

Young at Heart meet every Thursday at 2.30pm in the hall. The aim of the club is to arrange social events, educational options and activities which help members to remain active within their community. New members are always welcome.

Kilbrittain GAA News Lotto Draw 11/10/26 – Numbers drawn: 6, 17, 27, 28 – No winner. €30 spot prizes: Klaire Moloney for Michelle Carroll; Michael, Ciara & Sean Fehilly; Martin McCarthy; Teresa O'Driscoll; Clodagh Ahern. Next draw live on Facebook this weekend – Jackpot €7,100.

Bandon Family of Parishes OCIA program will shortly begin. The programme prepares adults wishing to become Catholic and those who have not received one or all of the Sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion, and Confirmation. A group of trained parishioners journey with candidates in preparation for the Sacraments. If you or someone you know would like to learn more please contact Esther on (087)1497094.

The Community Lip Sync group are holding a car wash and a coffee morning in the hall this Sunday morning 18 October at 1100 in aid of Oisin's Gym. We would appreciate your support. Everyone welcome.

Every November, we take time to remember specially our loved ones who have gone before us. During the month of the Holy Souls, we pause in reflection and remembrance of family and friends who are no longer with us and pray especially that they are at peace in their eternal rest in Heaven.

A Novena of Masses for the Holy Souls will take place from Monday 2nd to Tuesday, 10th November, with Masses each morning and evening for the duration. On Friday, 6th, we remember in a very special way those deceased since our last Novena, along with their families and friends. This year, we will pray for the following deceased (from our records) - if anyone would like to include a loved one in this list, please contact Fr Pontianus or the Parish Assembly: John Ahern, Sean Larkin. Sean Desmond, Dermot O'Connor, Sr. Mary Dineen, Fionnuala Quinlan Bennett, Jeremiah Hurley, Chrissie Ryan, Helen Lehane, Barry O'Mahony, Sr. Marie Therese O'Brien, Joseph Banedzem, Victoria Ihomon, Julia Vera Peek, Ena Domoney, Mary McCarthy, Danny McCarthy, Tommy Kiernan, John Joe Hurley.

Website Our new website is up and running! See www.kilbrittainparish.ie for up-to-date information about Mass times, readings, notices and the bulletin, as well as much more. You can subscribe to receive the bulletin directly to your email on kilbrittainparish.ie/subscribe. We're also working on adding a Donate facility – keep an eye on the website for updates. The website is still a work-in-progress, and we'd love to hear what you think, and what you'd like to see there. Use the Contact tab or let us know by email on assembly@kilbrittainparish.ie.

Notices for bulletin can be emailed to assembly@kilbrittainparish.ie, submitted through the website, or passed to the sacristy by Thursday, 6pm

Twenty Ninth Sunday of Ordinary Time
18th October 2026

World Mission Sunday – 18th October 2026

World Mission Sunday, which is celebrated on the 2nd last Sunday of October each year, is the one Sunday of the year when the entire global Church comes together in support of mission. It is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. Mission Sunday collections will take place in every single parish where the Church is present. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church family, regardless of location or background, plays their part in supporting each other.

All offerings and donations made on World Mission Sunday become part of the Holy Father's Universal Solidarity Fund. This fund is a lifeline for struggling missionaries and the communities they serve across Africa, Asia and Latin America, where over 1,100 mission dioceses are found. These dioceses are often in remote areas devastated by war and natural disasters or where suppressed communities are just opening up to the life-saving message of Jesus Christ. As these dioceses form and grow, so do their needs. The Mission Sunday collection offers young dioceses the financial and spiritual assistance they need to help their men, women and children survive and thrive.

The needs of overseas dioceses vary greatly. These needs can include the purchase of a motorbike so a priest can celebrate Mass in remote villages, or the building of a church so that people can gather and celebrate in safety.

In essence, Mission Sunday:

- provides Church-centred infrastructure by helping communities build churches, schools and clinics;
- prepares future leaders and carers of the Church by supporting the training of sisters, priests, religious brothers and catechists;
- supports missionary programmes that protect and care for children's well-being by offering safe shelter, healthcare, education and hope for the future.

MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTION

The Mission Sunday collection will be taken up at Masses this weekend (17th/18th October) and goes to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith to support the young churches throughout the world in the establishment of parishes, dioceses, training catechists, building of seminaries etc.

OBITUARY

Teresa Casserly, Catholic Walk, Kinsale.

The death took place in Riverstick Care Centre of Teresa Casserly on Friday 9th October 2026.

Teresa grew up in Newmarket-on-Fergus, Co. Clare. She was the eldest daughter in a family of seven. She went to school locally where her mother was a teacher. When she finished school, Teresa went to study general nursing in London. She met the love of her life, John Casserly, in Lahinch. They moved to Australia. In 1979 they came to live in Kinsale. John served as a Department of Agriculture vet for West Cork. Sadly he died in December 2019. Teresa had a close circle of friends. She was a good friend and neighbour, and always looked for the good in every person. She was involved in the bridge club and was an avid reader. Teresa was a woman of strong faith, attending Mass every Sunday.

The funeral Mass was celebrated by Fr. Robert, accompanied by Fr. Kevin Hanley and Fr. Dave Twohig O.Carm. There followed a service at the Island Crematorium.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Teresa's sons John, Brian and David, daughter Alison, daughters-in-law, son-in-law, grandchildren, neighbours, relatives and friends.

May she rest in peace.

Mission Sunday Collection

The collection for World Mission Sunday takes place this weekend.

Altar List for the Dead

If you wish to have the names of your loved ones inscribed on the list, there are sheets and envelopes at the back of the Church. These can be placed in the metal collection boxes or returned to the Parish Office.

Liturgy of Remembrance

On Wednesday November 4th at 7 pm we will remember and pray for all our deceased loved ones in a special Candlelit Liturgy of Remembrance. This special liturgy is also open to all parishioners who would like to attend, and light a special votive candle in memory of their loved ones.

St. Vincent de Paul Collection

The Monthly collection for our SVP Conference will take place next weekend.

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK

Thank You to Fr Kevin

When Fr Kevin announced in May that he had been appointed by Archbishop Farrell to a new ministry in Wicklow, our church was about to close for essential refurbishment works. As a result, there was little opportunity for parishioners to express their thanks for his seven and a half years of devoted service to our parish.

The Parish Pastoral Council recently discussed how we might show our appreciation for Fr Kevin and agreed to organise a parish collection towards a gift from the community he served so faithfully. Special envelopes are available at the back of the church and may be placed in the collection boxes or returned to the Parish Office.

We also hope to welcome Fr Kevin back to Monkstown in the coming weeks for a gathering of parishioners, giving us an opportunity to thank him personally and wish him every blessing in his new ministry.

A Sad Farewell to Bruno

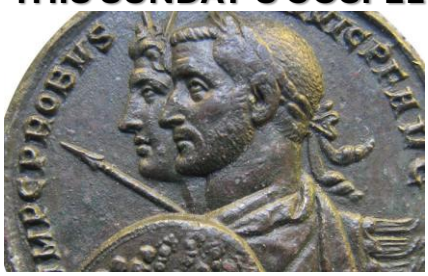

Many of you will remember Bruno, Fr Kevin's Bernese Mountain Dog, who was a familiar sight around the parish. After more than eleven and a half years as Fr Kevin's faithful companion, Bruno has sadly died.

Anyone who has loved and cared for a dog will understand how deep that bond can be. We know that Bruno's loss will be keenly felt and we remember Fr Kevin in our prayers at this sad time.

THIS SUNDAY'S GOSPEL

Giving to God What Belongs to God

Matthew 22:15-21

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus is confronted with a question designed to trap Him: should taxes be paid to Caesar? His response is both simple and profound: "Give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God."

Jesus acknowledges our responsibilities as citizens and members of society. We have duties towards the communities in which we live and work. Yet He reminds us that there is a deeper loyalty that comes before all others. While coins may bear the image of Caesar, each human person bears the image of God.

The Gospel challenges us to reflect on what belongs to God in our own lives. Our time, talents, relationships, compassion, and faith are gifts entrusted to us by the Lord. As we fulfil our earthly responsibilities, we are also called to offer ourselves wholeheartedly to God, allowing His values of justice, truth, mercy, and love to shape everything we do.

May we live as faithful citizens of the world, while never forgetting that we belong first to God.

Deacon Eric
