Annual Remembrance Weekend

Gospel Reflection
There's a Time to Remember…

Today is a time for us, as a parish community, to remember the many loved ones from our families, among our neighbours and friends, who have been called home to God. As Liam Lawton's hymn reminds us, it is "a time to remember, a time to recall…"

We recall the lives we shared with them and the memories that carry us forward each day. In our memories, our loved ones continue to live on with us. As Christians, we believe that in death, life is changed, not ended. Death is a homecoming—a return to the One who made us for himself.

For those of us who remain, grief is painful. Yet this is also a time to renew our faith in the resurrection and in the promise that we will be reunited one day. That promise sustains us now and through the days of mourning. We mourn because we have known love—love given and received. Without love, there would be no grief, nor the blessings promised in today's Gospel.

So let us find comfort in knowing that our loved ones are at rest with the Lord, and in the support, prayers and care of those around us. Let us give thanks for the love we have shared, and treasure the memories we carry in our hearts.

Annual Remembrance Masses 2026

This weekend, the churches of our Family of Parishes will gather for our Annual Remembrance Masses. We will remember with love all those who have died during the past year and hold their families and friends in our prayers. All are warmly welcome to join us as we come together in prayer, thanksgiving and remembrance.

A Litany of Remembrance

In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.

In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joys, we yearn to share, we remember them.

together we say;

So long as we live, they too shall live,
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

Funeral Ministry Team

We thank our Funeral Ministry Team for their generous gift of time and compassionate support for those who are grieving. We warmly welcome new members to join the team from across our family of parishes. If you would like to be involved, please contact Father Charlie or any of the clergy.
