CAUSEWAY FAMILY OF PARISHES

8th November 2026
Thirty Second Sunday of Ordinary Time

THREE WARNINGS FROM JESUS

In the Gospel this Sunday, the Lord tells a parable about what sounds like a very strange wedding. In fact, this story is an accurate description of how marriages took place in the Holy Land at that time. But that's not why Jesus tells this tale. He wants us to give us three warnings we need to know if we're serious about going to heaven when we die.

Firstly, we do not know the day or the hour when Jesus will come for us. That's because God doesn't want us to be scared of the future but to focus on being the best people we can be right now. Secondly, when our time comes we will be held accountable. It will be too late to change then! Thirdly, there are some things that others can't supply for us - like our faith, love, or a good character. We are personally responsible for the way we live our lives, and one day we will be judged for it too.

November

The Month of the Holy Souls

November Dead Lists
Lists and envelopes are now available. Please take them home and write down the names of your deceased family and friends who you wish to pray for. Envelopes can be left back in the church at Mass times or posted through the door of the parochial house. The names are placed before the altar throughout the month of November and prayed for at all Masses and devotions. You may wish to include an offering in your envelope and these are very gratefully received.

Parish Annual Requiem Mass
A requiem Mass for all deceased parishioners and priests of Ballymoney and Derrykeighan takes place on Friday (13th) at 7pm. We will pray in a special way for those who have died in our parish in the last twelve months. Our November dead lists will also be blessed at the end of this Mass.

November Pledge
Why not go off alcohol (or another treat) this month as a penance for the Holy Souls? Think of it as a little Lent in November! You can make it a pledge by offering the Pioneer prayer:

I promise, in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and with the help of the Blessed Virgin Mary, to abstain from all intoxicating substances until the end of November.

Mass for Deceased Teachers
The annual Mass for the deceased teachers of Down and Connor will be celebrated on Monday (9th) at 7.30pm in All Saints' Church, Broughshane Road, Ballymena. Light refreshments will be served afterwards in All Saints' Parish Centre. The Mass will be available to watch online as well.

HYMNS FOR MASS

O Jesus Christ, remember,
When Thou shalt come again,
Upon the clouds of heaven
With all Thy shining train;
When ev'ry eye shall see Thee,
In Deity revealed,
Who now upon this altar
In silence art concealed.

Accept, divine Redeemer,
The homage of my praise,
Be Thou the light, and honour,
And glory of my days—
Be Thou my consolation
When death is drawing nigh;
Be Thou my only Treasure,
Through all eternity.

Abide with me;
fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens;
Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers
fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless,
oh, abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross
before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom
and point me to the skies;
Heav'n's morning breaks,
and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord,
abide with me.

St Comgall's Men's Friendship Group

We had a great response at the information meeting for the new Men's Group - 24 men attended plus 4 others are interested but couldn't be there due to various reasons.
The meeting was very positive. Going forward Wednesday mornings will be the preferred meeting day and we have agreed to meet again on the 18th of November. There is a very definite need for the Men's Friendship Group. It was heart-warming to see the level of very genuine interest in getting the group up and running.
So watch this space for more information!

Discussion Group

The next meeting of the Discussion Group is on Friday 13 November at 7.30pm in St Dympna's Room.
The topic for discussion is: *JESUS THE BRIDEGROOM.
If you would like to deepen your understanding of the Faith, why not come along for a friendly discussion.
All are welcome

PRAYERS AT HOLY COMMUNION

Spiritual Holy Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.
I love you above all things and
I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you have already come,
and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.
composed by Saint Alphonsus Liguori

ANIMA CHRISTI
Prayer to the Most Holy Redeemer

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, embolden me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds hide me.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
From the evil enemy defend me.
At the hour of my death call me
and bid me to come to you,
that with your Saints I may praise you
for age upon age. Amen

November Mass for our Deceased Family Members and Friends
Will take place on Monday 9th November in St Joseph's Church, Killough at 7.30pm. May their souls rest in God's Eternal Peace.

Why November is the month to recall the Four Last Things

"The month of November has always been a time of the year to reflect on the Four Last Things: death, judgement, Heaven, and Hell.

It may not be a topic we would want to meditate on, but it is a topic that the Church repeatedly brings to mind during this traditionally dark and gloomy month in the Northern Hemisphere. Many priests will begin to preach on this topic during the month of November, dedicating each Sunday to one of the Four Last Things.

Why did the Church choose November as a month to focus on such a theological theme? Here are a few reasons why the Catholic Church chose November for this topic.

1. In the Northern Hemisphere, November is a time of the year when many people watch as trees lose their leaves, and when many plants die due to the lack of sunlight. It is a time when the natural world "dies" and lays dormant until spring.

2. November begins with the feast of All Saints and the commemoration of All Souls, starting the month out with a very obvious reflection on death and our final destination. These celebrations often continue throughout the rest of the month with various "All Saints" day feasts for various religious orders.

3. An indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray for the departed in November. The indulgence is plenary each day from the 1st to the 8th of November; on other days of the year it is partial. Death is continually brought-up in the mind of Catholics.

4. The Roman Catholic liturgical year ends in November after the Solemnity of Christ the King. The year ends immediately before the beginning of Advent, which ushers in a new liturgical year.

For these reasons, November is a perfect time to recall the Four Last Things."
