Children's Liturgy 11am Mass
Hello children! In today's liturgy, Jesus tells us a story about how it is important to be ready and prepared for whatever will happen. Jesus also asks us to be ready and prepared to be kind and loving to others whenever we have the chance. Let's try our best to be prepared in this coming week to be loving, kind and generous. Let's do our best to be ready to help others at home, at school, in the local community and around the world.

God of all, help us to be ready to share what we have, to treat others as we would wish to be treated and to try to make the world a fairer place. Amen

Worksheets and the Kids Bulletin to support this week's Gospel are available in both churches. Pick up copies for your children/grandchildren.

The Bridegroom in today's Gospel, is the Lord, and the time of waiting for his arrival is the time he gives to us, to all of us, before his Final Coming with mercy and patience; it is a time of watchfulness; a time in which we must keep alight the lamps of faith, hope and charity, a time in which to keep our heart open to goodness, beauty and truth. It is a time to live in accordance with God, because we do not know either the day or the hour of Christ's return. What he asks of us is to be ready for the encounter — ready for an encounter, for a beautiful encounter, the encounter with Jesus, which means being able to see the signs of his presence, keeping our faith alive with prayer, with the sacraments, and taking care not to fall asleep so as to not forget about God. The life of slumbering Christians is a sad life, it is not a happy life. Christians must be happy, with the joy of Jesus. Let us not fall asleep!

PRAYER TO ST MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL
Holy Michael the Archangel, defend us in the hour of battle.
Be thou our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God restrain him, we humbly pray,
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host,
by the power of God, thrust down to Hell, Satan and with him all the evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Preparation of the Gifts

I am the bread of life.
You who come to me
shall not hunger;
and who believe in me
shall not thirst.
No on can come to me
unless the Father beckons.

And I will raise you up,
And I will raise you up,
And I will raise you up,
on the last day.

The bread that I will give
Is my flesh for the life of the world,
and if you eat of this bread,
you shall live for ever,
you shall live for ever.

And I will raise you up….

I am the resurrection,
I am the life.
If you believe in me,
even though you die,
you shall live for ever.

And I will raise you up….

Recessional Hymn

You shall cross the barren desert,
But you shall not die of thirst.
You shall wander far in safety
Though you do not know the way.
You shall speak your words in foreign lands and they will understand
You shall see the face of God and live.

Be not afraid,
I Go before you always.
Come follow me, and I will give you rest.

If you pass through raging waters in the Sea, you shall not drown.
If you walk amid
the burning flames,
you shall not be harmed.
If you stand before the pow'r of hell and
Death is at your side,
Know that I am with you through it all.

Be not afraid ……..

Gospel Reflections For Sundays Year A

Jesus always new

The lamp is the light of love and hope, and at its centre is the light of Christ. The light is given to us in many ways in our lives - it shines within as an eternal joy, and outwards to many others. Jesus often advises, 'keep your lamps burning' and 'Let you lights shine.

Like when the bulb goes out when the electricity fails, the lamp can go out without oil. The people of the gospel felt foolish that they had not brought oil with them to light their way. The oil is prayer an our relationship with Jesus. This is the essence of the Christian life. Our Christian life is following a real, loving person.

It is an invitation to get to know Jesus, and to find ourselves drawn from our hearts to follow him. Without this living relationship with Christ, words sound empty. We sometimes hear someone speaking of their Christian faith and cannot help wondering if it comes from the inside or is just a list of things to be believed and read.

Ignatius of Loyola's famous prayer is the prayer of the follower of Jesus; 'Lord, teach me to know you more, love you more and serve you more faithfully in my life.' (Spiritual Exercises). The more indicates that this is never a finished product: like love and friendship it grows in our lives. It is exciting that Jesus is never gone from us.: risen from the dead he is always alive, always new. Our reading of the gospel, our sharing at Mass and the sacraments and our personal prayer keep this relationship always alive, always new.

Thinking of a bright lamp, or imagining one, ask for an ever-brightening light of Christ in your life.
Lord, teach me to know, love and serve you more faithfully every day

As followers we should always be ready to hear Christ's call and to the light of faith shining in our daily life

Today is the 32 Sunday in Ordinary Time: We are coming to the end of the liturgical year, the 29 November marks the beginning of Advent. The readings at Mass for the next few weeks will concentrate on the end of time and on the theme of watchfulness. The Gospel today (Matthew 25:1-13) speaks of being prepared for the second coming of Jesus. When we recite the Creed at Mass we pray: "He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead." We do not know when Jesus will return again. Matthew 24:36 states "Of that day and hour (when Jesus will return) no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only" Today we read of the ten bridesmaids waiting for the bridegroom to arrive for the feast. Five were wise and five were foolish. There is a delay in the bridegroom arriving for his feast. None are watching when the bridegroom arrives. All are asleep! They get their lamps ready. The foolish ones have no oil for the lamps and they beg for some of the oil from the wise ones who have only oil for their own lamps. Are the wise bridesmaids being terribly selfish in not sharing some of their oil with them? However we all know that there are just some things in life that are not transferable to others. The oil stands for faith and good works and we just cannot pass them on to others. You can't borrow the oil of faith. You can't borrow another's good works. You must respond to God's call yourself. St. Augustine and other ancient writers saw the oil as a symbol of love: a love which we cannot buy but receive as a gift, which we keep in our hearts and practise in good works. When we reawaken for the final judgement, we will be assessed on the basis of the love we have shown during our earthly lives. St. Matthew, in today's Gospel, is calling his community, and is calling us also, to responsible discipleship in the face of the delay in the return of Jesus as Judge. Discipleship is not passive waiting till the end of time – what is needed is oil – which is good deeds. It is about active engagement in the present which will determine the shape of our future. This is a tragic parable because the foolish bridesmaids failed to make adequate preparations to pursue their intentions of sharing in the wedding feast. When they got back to the entrance to the feast they found the door closed to them. All ten bridesmaids were waiting. They all had the same opportunity and same oil lamps. They all could have gathered the oils in on time. They all were preparing and waiting for the same wedding. They all had the same bridegroom coming to them… but only five of them were taking the long-term view and came fully prepared… The final words of today's Gospel – Be Watchful, Be Prepared, Be Vigilant. Fr. Charles CP
