Eucharistic Adoration
The famous writer Eugene O' Neill wrote this reflection:
"Man is born broken. He lives by mending. And the grace of God is the glue".
Grace is love which is Divine. It comes from God (Father Son and Holy Spirit). It is a love that changes us – the way we think about God, about life. According to St. Peter Eymard the strongest opposition to the growth of grace in us is, that as soon as we come to Adoration, we straight away speak to Him of ourselves – our faults and failings, our trials and tribulations. This tires the mind and saddens the heart. Therefore, our opening prayer/ conversation should be directed to God: 'O God, how happy and pleased I am to come into your presence, to spend this hour with you. How kind you are to have invited me. Thank you for loving me'. Love has then opened the door to the heart of Jesus. Heart speaks to heart. Go in, love and adore.
