A Christian as a dual Citizen

Every Christian has a dual citizenship. We are citizens of our various countries and yet at the same time citizen of God's kingdom. This comes with privileges and obligations for each one and therein lies the challenge. There should be no conflict between being faithful Christian and being a good citizen of our countries. When however, there is a sinful or unjust policy in any society, Christians are called to take up the posture of conscientious objection. We should at that moment, uphold the dignity of our conscience. Jesus's answer to them, admonishes his adversaries and us to worry less about what is due to Ceasar, to pay attention to God and worship that is due him. The tax we must pay to God, if we are to belong to him Kingdom, is to offer our heart, our spirit, soul, family and the society God, in a purposeful, meaningful, God-fearing manner. Again, the gospel text today, teaches us that, all exercise of authority and power must be evaluated in the light of God's will and plan. If Ceasar is subservient to God, then his laws and policies will be in accord with God's will.

Prayer During the World Mission Sunday

We pray to the Lord. Our Father, ignite our hearts with the fire of Your love. As we strive to answer our call to mission, guide our steps and empower us to be true witnesses of Your love in every corner of the world. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. AMEN.

Pope Leo's Message for Mission Sunday 2026

If unity is the condition of mission, love is its essence. The Good News that we are sent to proclaim to the world is not an abstract ideal; it is the Gospel of God's faithful love, which became flesh in the face and life of Jesus Christ.

The mission of the disciples and the Church as a whole is to continue the mission of Christ in the Holy Spirit: a mission born of love, lived in love, and leading to love. In fact, the Lord himself, in his great prayer to the Father before his Passion, after invoking unity among his disciples, concludes: "so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them" (Jn 17:26). Impelled by the love of Christ, the Apostles then went out to evangelize for Christ (cf. 2 Cor 5:14). In the same way, throughout the centuries, multitudes of Christians - martyrs, confessors and missionaries - have given their lives to make this divine love known to the world. Thus, guided by the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of love, the Church's evangelizing mission will continue until the end of time.

29th Sunday of the Year
MISSION SUNDAY

"You will shine in the world like bright stars"

Today we join with over one billion of our Catholic brothers and sisters around the world who are observing Mission Sunday. It is a day when our attention is drawn to the Baptismal Font, the place where our faith journey began. On that day we were called to be sharers in the mission of the Church.

Mission is at the heart of our Church because our Founder, Christ was the first missionary. If you take all references to mission out of the Bible, you will have nothing left except the covers!

Consequently, the true greatness of our Church lies not in how many seats it fills but in how many it sends-out! The Church must send or the Church will end! We are sent then, as our ancestors down the ages were sent to make His voice heard and His face seen. All we need to be successful in our missionary task is embedded in the gifts, talents, capabilities, dreams and visions we possess.

We just need to use them!

Words from St. Teresa of Avila Growing Older Lord, you know better than I myself, that I am growing older and will someday be old. Keep me from the fatal habit of thinking I must say something on every subject and on every occasion. Release me from craving to straighten out everybody's affairs. Make me thoughtful but not moody; Helpful but not bossy. With my vast store of wisdom, It seems a pity not to use it all; But You know, Lord, That I want a few friends at the end. Keep my mind free from the recital of endless details; Give me wings to get to the point. Seal my lips on my aches and pains; They are increasing, and love of rehearsing them Is becoming sweeter as the years go by. I dare not ask for improved memory, But for a growing humility and a lessening cocksureness when my memory seems to clash with the memories of others. Teach me the glorious lesson that occasionally I may be mistaken. Keep me reasonably sweet, for a sour old person is one of the crowning works of the devil. Give me the ability to see good things in unexpected places and talents in unexpected people; And give, O Lord, the grace to tell them so Amen

THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH, OUR COLLECTIVE RESPONSIBILITY

Today, we celebrate World Mission Sunday. We set aside this day every year to think, talk and reflect about the mission which Jesus entrusted to his disciples and to us in Mathew's Gospel.

Pope Francis once reflected that "today, every land is a 'mission land' and every dimension of human life is mission territory". This marks a major shift in how the Church views its role in the modern world. Historically, "the missions" meant sending missionaries from stablished Christian nations to far-off countries. Today, the Pope emphasises that the global landscape has completely transformed. Several factors must have caused this; the collapse of Christendom, geographical and human boundaries.

On the other hand, Pope Leo chose the official theme for the centenary celebration of World Mission Sunday: "One in Christ, United in Mission". Pope Leo emphasized that through baptism; every single person becomes a member of the Body of Christ and holds a unique responsibility to cooperate as one family to spread the Gospel. He noted that evangelisation is fundamentally "always a work of love"

There are two ways to be a missionary: we can give to mission by going and we can go to mission by giving.

Dear brothers and sisters let us be activ

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 22: 15-21

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of an nothing to you. Tell us your opinion, then. Is or not?

But Jesus was aware of their malice and repl 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for tax with.'

They handed him a denarius and he said, 'W

'Caesar's' they replied.

He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God.'

POPE'S INTENTION FOR OCTOBER - For mental health ministry

Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

THANK YOU - The following is an extract from the letter of thanks received from Br. Brian Johnson, OSF, for our parish contribution which totalled €7,413:

"We are most grateful to you for your tremendous kindness and generosity towards our mission. The brothers in Kenya and Uganda and the people among whom we work, will be thrilled to know of your great concern for them and of your wonderful generosity. It will be a huge boost to them in these hard times of drought, food shortage and the cutbacks in USAID and Aid from other countries. We will be good guardians of the huge trust you have placed in us. We will use the resources you have given us wisely and efficiently. Every cent of your contribution will go directly to our missions.

I have little to offer in return for your tremendous kindness and generosity, except to let you know that you are remembered in the daily prayers of the brothers. You and your families will be remembered with a climb of Croagh Patrick, and a small fast."

Pope Leo dedicates his October prayer intention to mental health ministry, calling on the Church to listen without judging and accompany those who suffer without excluding them. "We bring before you O Lord, our brothers and sisters who struggle with challenges to their mental health, who suffer in solitude with anxiety, depression, or any other mental illness," he prays. Pope Leo asks forgiveness for the times when Christians have looked the other way, contributing to stigma and discrimination against people with mental illnesses. He prays that the Church may become "a safe space where everyone has a place - a community that accompanies and never excludes, that listens without judging and draws near without fear." The Pope also remembers those who provide care, including professionals, family members and volunteers, asking God to give them strength and compassion. "Send your Spirit upon us, that we may learn to welcome and integrate care for mental health into the life and ministry of our communities and of the whole Church," he concludes, "and thus become a living sign of your mercy, which never abandons and always restores."

October Prayer to Our Lady

Sweet Mother, do not part from me.
Turn not your eyes away from me.
Walk with me at every moment and never leave me alone.
You who always protect me
as a true Mother,
obtain for me the blessing of the Father,
Son and Holy Spirit.

Simple explanation of Jesus' message today

1) it is the duty of Christians to pay for the services and the privileges that the state provides -- like Hospitals, paved roads, police and fire departments, schools, and Social welfare amongst other necessities.

2) We must respect the laws of our country in order to live in peace.

3) When the state oversteps the mark and puts itself in the place of God, Christians are, as a last resort, absolved from obedience. "We must give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and To God the things that are God's." If there is a clash between God's law and man's we as 'Christians must put Him first.

2) We need to "give to God what is God's": How? Since everything is God's, we must give ourselves to Him 100%, not just 10% on Sundays. We should be generous in fulfilling our Sunday obligations, and we should find time every day for prayer and worship in the family, for the reading of the Bible, and for the proper training of our children in Faith and morals. St. Augustine teaches that when we truly succeed in "giving to God what is God's," we are "doing justice to God." This requires that we return to God, with dividends, that which God has entrusted to us, remembering that we are mere managers or stewards of God's gifts.

The common theme of today's readings is the nature of our obligations to God and to our country. The readings show us how, with God's help, we can be ideal citizens of both earth and Heaven. In the Gospel, Jesus escapes from the trap in the question, "Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" by stating, "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." By this answer, Jesus reminds His questioners that if they are that concerned and careful about paying taxes to the state, they should be much more concerned and careful about their service to God and their obligations to Him as their Creator and Lord. In other words God requires worship from us. It is all we can give Him in the end. That's all I had to give Him when lying on my back in Hospital and not allowed to turn left or right in case of doing damage to the healing process.

Invitation to the Wedding Feast

Imagine that you live in a great kingdom with a king and queen and many other great people. You hear that the king's son is going to get married and there will be a great wedding feast. All the lords and ladies and rich land owners are invited. On the day of the wedding the servants go out to call the guests to the wedding, but all those important people refuse to go! They say they are too busy with other things, and can't be bothered to go!

Now imagine that you are one of the children in a poor family that lives down a back street. Suddenly you hear people calling out that the king has invited your family to the feast! What excitement! Everybody puts on their best clothes and goes to the castle. In a little while the king comes in and you see him pointing to a man who isn't dressed neatly, and hasn't washed his face or brushed his hair. He sends the man out of the hall.

This is the story that Jesus told about the kingdom of Heaven. Many important people have been invited, but they have decided that they were too busy with other things. But the King has invited us too! We should rejoice and "dress" our souls by being the best we can be! Don't be a half-hearted Christian!

The king sent his servants to call all the people in the street to his son's wedding. Follow the road on the map from the castle's courtyard all the way to the farmland. The people in the houses next to the road you pass are invited to the wedding.

You can colour in the houses if you like.
Who was invited to the feast?
