Thoughts on the Gospel

Matthew 14:13–21 – The Feeding of the Five Thousand

The miracle of the loaves and fishes begins with compassion. Before Jesus fed the crowd, He first recognised their suffering and their need. His heart was moved by those who were tired, hungry, and searching for hope.

In our own busy lives, God gently calls us to notice those around us who may be lonely, discouraged, forgotten, or struggling. A simple word of encouragement, a listening ear, or a small act of kindness may become someone else's miracle.

The disciples looked only at what they didn't have. Faced with thousands of hungry people, they saw only five loaves and two fish. Jesus, however, asked them to offer what they already possessed.

God rarely asks us for what we do not have. Instead, He asks us to place before Him our time, our talents, our compassion, and our willingness to serve. However small these gifts may seem, He is able to multiply them beyond anything we could imagine.

Before distributing the food, Jesus lifted everything to His Father in prayer. This reminds us that surrender is not a sign of weakness or defeat. Rather, it is an act of trust. We all carry burdens that feel too heavy or situations that seem impossible, yet when we place them into God's hands, what appears insufficient can become more than enough.

Finally, the twelve baskets of leftovers remind us of God's overwhelming generosity. His blessings are never intended to stop with us but to flow through us. When we forgive generously, encourage freely, and share what we have with others, God's grace continues to multiply in countless lives.

Prayer

Lord, fill our hearts with compassion. Use the little we have to accomplish great things for Your Kingdom. Teach us to trust You completely, to surrender our limitations into Your hands, and to share Your blessings generously with all whom we meet. Amen.

Pope's Prayer Intention for August

For Evangelisation in the City

Let us pray that in large cities, often marked by anonymity and loneliness, we may discover new ways of proclaiming the Gospel, finding creative paths to build genuine Christian communities.

Prayer for Vocations

We pray for men whom God is calling to the priesthood.

Like Jesus in today's Gospel, may they never turn away from the poor, the hungry, the vulnerable or those most in need, but always reflect the compassionate love of Christ as they nourish His people through the Word of God and the Eucharist.

KNOCKNAGIN HALL COMMITTEE AGM

The Committee warmly invites all members of the local community to attend the Annual General Meeting, Monday 17th August at 7.30pm Knocknagin Hall. The Hall has been at the heart of the local community since the early 1950s, and current committee members have served since 2011. It is important that a new generation of volunteers comes forward with a wide range of skills, experience and fresh ideas to help secure the future of the hall. Whatever your experience, whether you can give a little time or a lot your involvement would be greatly valued. With your support, it can continue to be a welcoming, and sustainable community hub and continue to thrive for future generations for many years to come. We look forward to welcoming you to the AGM on Monday 17th August at 7.30 pm in Knocknagin Hall. Your attendance and support would be greatly appreciated.

Social Tea Dance - Friday 14th August, at 9pm music by Chris Dillit, Admission £7, which includes refreshments.

Sarsfield's Accordion Band. Unfortunately, due to a lack of members available to attend, the Band will not be taking part in the Feast of the Assumption Celebration in Keady, on Sunday, 16th August. Band practice has now stopped for the summer and will recommence on Thursday, 10th September at 7.30pm. We look forward to welcoming all members back and encourage anyone interested in joining the band to come along. Congratulations to Vicky McKinley, Magherafelt, Ticket No. 151, winner of the August Monthly Draw.

Thoughts on the Gospel (Matthew 14:13-21)

The miracle of the loaves and fishes began with compassion. Jesus first noticed the crowd's pain before providing for their hunger. In our busy lives, God invites us to see those who are lonely, discouraged, or forgotten. Even small acts of kindness can become someone's miracle.

The disciples focused on what they lacked, yet Jesus asked them to offer what they did have. God rarely asks for what we do not possess. When we offer our time, talents, and resources — however small — He multiplies them in ways we cannot imagine.

Before the food was shared, Jesus surrendered everything to the Father. We too carry burdens that feel heavy, but surrender is not giving up; it is trusting God with our limitations. What seems insufficient to us becomes more than enough in His hands. The abundance left over reminds us that God's blessings are meant to flow through us. When we share generously, encourage others, and forgive freely, His grace continues to multiply.

Lord, fill us with compassion, use what little we offer, and multiply it for Your glory.
Teach us to trust You and to share Your blessings generously. Amen.

Monthly Mass in Honour of St Pio will be celebrated on Wednesday 5th August at 7.00 pm in Immaculate Conception Church, Strabane. We ask God's blessing on all through the intercession of St Pio. Everyone welcome.

Mass on Saturday 15th August at 8.30 am in Sacred Heart Church, Derry Road

Mass on Saturday 15th August at 10.00 am in St Patrick's Church, Murlog.

Masses at the usual times on the evening of Saturday 15th & Sunday 16th August.

Prayer at Time of Exam Results

Dear Lord, in this moment of uncertainty, I seek Your peace and guidance.
Help me to accept the results of my efforts with grace, whether they meet my hopes or not. Grant me the strength to learn and grow from this experience, trusting in Your plan for my life. May I find comfort in Your love and wisdom.
May Your peace fill my heart as I walk forward in faith. Amen.

Requiescant in Pace We offer our sympathy to the family and friends of Harry Mullen, Victoria Rd, Strabane; Bernie Greene, Tipperary.

Thoughts on the Gospel (Matthew 14:13-21)

The miracle of the loaves and fishes began with compassion. Jesus first noticed the crowd's pain before providing for their hunger. In our busy lives, God invites us to see those who are lonely, discouraged, or forgotten. Even small acts of kindness can become someone's miracle.

The disciples focused on what they lacked, yet Jesus asked them to offer what they did have. God rarely asks for what we do not possess. When we offer our time, talents, and resources — however small — He multiplies them in ways we cannot imagine.

Before the food was shared, Jesus surrendered everything to the Father. We too carry burdens that feel heavy, but surrender is not giving up; it is trusting God with our limitations. What seems insufficient to us becomes more than enough in His hands. The abundance left over reminds us that God's blessings are meant to flow through us. When we share generously, encourage others, and forgive freely, His grace continues to multiply.

Lord, fill us with compassion, use what little we offer, and multiply it for Your glory. Teach us to trust You and to share Your blessings generously. Amen.

Monthly Mass in Honour of St Pio will be celebrated on Wednesday 5th August at 7.00 pm in Immaculate Conception Church, Strabane. We ask God's blessing on all through the intercession of St Pio. Everyone welcome.

Due to the Current Holiday Period, we wish to notify parishioners that there will be no newsletter until 22nd/23rd August. Apologies for any inconvenience. The office will be open as follows for the following two weeks: 10 am – 2 pm, Monday – Friday. Normal hours will resume on Monday 17th August.

Prayer at Time of Exam Results

Dear Lord, in this moment of uncertainty, I seek Your peace and guidance.

Help me to accept the results of my efforts with grace, whether they meet my hopes or not. Grant me the strength to learn and grow from this experience, trusting in Your plan for my life. May I find comfort in Your love and wisdom.

May Your peace fill my heart as I walk forward in faith. Amen.

Requiescant in Pace We offer our sympathy to the family and friends of Harry Mullen, Victoria Rd, Strabane; Bernie Greene, Tipperary.

Anniversaries Tony Boggs, Joseph Colhoun, Willie Curran, May Doherty, Johnny Forbes, Charlie Gallagher, Johnny Gallagher, Kevin Gallagher, Mary Gallagher, Nellie Gallagher, David Kennedy, Susan Lafferty, Anne Maguire, Bernard McDermott, Laurence McDermott, Emmett McGhee, Thomas McGranaghan, James O'Neill, Martin Stevenson, Vincent Sweeney, James McDermott (60th anniversary), Margaret McCay, Anna Morgan. 40 HOURS ADORATION

Will take place in St Michael’s Church, Urris this weekend, Sat Aug 8 & Sun Aug 9 opening with 9:30am Mass on Saturday until 5pm. Continuing after 10am Mass on Sunday and closing with a holy hour from 6-7pm. We invite people to offer some time in adoration during the two days. There is a sheet on the table at the back of the church where volunteers can fill in their name on whatever day or time suits to spend some time in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. There should always be someone present in the Church while the Blessed Sacrament is exposed.

DAY OF PRAYER FOR MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE

Friday August 14 is our Day of Prayer for Marriage & Family Life. The theme is praying for all single people and highlighting their vocation. Every baptised person, from the youngest baby to the oldest woman and man, has an important vocation which comes from the wonderful gift of baptism that each of us has been called to. In August we can focus on how this applies to those who are single and maybe even living alone.

COLLECTION

Parish collection last weekend amounted to €2,405. Thank you for your continued generosity.

Assumption of Mary
August 15

Saturday August 15—The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

7:30pm Vigil Mass in St Mary’s Church on Fri Aug 14

10am Mass in St Michael’s Church, Urris on Sat Aug 15

11:30am Mass in St Mary’s Church on Sat Aug 15

The Feast of the Assumption is a day of joy. God has won. Love has won. It has won life. Love has shown that it is stronger than death, that God possesses the true strength in goodness and love. Mary was taken up body and soul into heaven. We have a Mother in heaven, the Mother of God, the Mother of the Son of God, is our Mother. He himself has said so. He made her our Mother when he said to the disciples and to all of us: ‘Behold, your Mother!’ We have a Mother in heaven.

Heaven is open, heaven has a heart. Mary spoke with God’s words, she thought with God’s words, her thoughts were God's thoughts, her words, God’s words. She was penetrated by divine light and this is why she was so resplendent, so good, so radiant with love and goodness. Being in God and with God, she is close to each one of us, knows our hearts, can hear our prayers, can help us with her motherly kindness and has been given to us, as the Lord said, precisely as a ‘mother’ to whom we can turn at any moment. She always listens to us, she is always close to us, and being Mother of the Son, participates in the power of the Son and in his goodness. We can always entrust the whole of our lives to this Mother, who is not far from any one of us.

Rosary at the holy well of St. Eigne in Mamore Gap at 3pm on Sat Aug 15

The Deep End: Eyes on the real mission

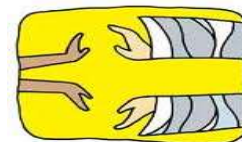

Jane Mellett

Jesus said: 'You asked to be out here. If you can't handle the wind and waves that's your problem!' And Peter drowned that night in the Sea of Galilee. No? Oh sorry, that's not how the story ends. Do the disciples not realise by now that if they leave the shore without Jesus in the boat, the waters become very choppy indeed? In fact, they had gone so far, that they didn't even recognise him when he did catch up to them.

Those of you sitting in the nave of a church and reading this may like to look up above you [notice to clergy: parishioners looking at the ceiling may not be listening]. The word nave comes from the Latin, navis, literally meaning ship and sometimes used to refer to the ship of St Peter, i.e. the Church. So perhaps bearing that in mind this story can take on an even deeper significance as we read of Peter's brief walk on the water.

It is important to remember one thing – at least he got out of the boat. The situation was very serious, the disciples as fishermen knew how quickly conditions could change and soon they'd be in, well...in over their heads!

There was no great surfing culture in Galilee at the time so one has to appreciate Peter's courage as he steps out onto the stormy water in a real leap of faith and cries 'Lord, save me'. The reply is not the bureaucratic response above, but 'Jesus immediately reached out his hand....'

INVITATION

Fr. John and Fr. Karl invite people who would be interested in becoming involved in an Altar Society for the Parish. Their main work will be the upkeep of our church and enhancing its beauty. For those who are interested there will be a short meeting on Monday 10 August at 8pm in the Bocan Parish Hall.

VOCATIONS: For our seminarians and the men considering priesthood that, in moments of doubt, they'll hear Jesus say what He says to the disciples in today's gospel, "Courage! It is I. Do not be afraid!"

Famous Quotes: "Yesterday is gone. Tomorrow has not yet come. We have only today. Let us begin." – Mother Teresa

POINTS TO PONDER

The storm at sea is Jesus' response to the problem of storms in our lives. First, Jesus shows that he is present even where we least expect him. When the disciples saw Jesus walking on the sea he identified himself with the words, It is I, ego eimi in Greek, the same words God used to identified himself to Moses on Mt Sinai.

Next, the story teaches us a powerful prayer: 'Lord, save me.' St Peter's cry occurs only once in the whole bible, but it goes to the heart of our helplessness. True to his name, Peter 'the rock', he begins to sink like a stone. Peter cries out: 'Lord, save me.' At Mass we repeat the litany, 'Lord, have mercy.' In our private prayers we might say with the publican: 'Lord, be merciful to me a sinner.' But, Peter's short pray includes them all: 'Lord, save me.'

Finally, the story teaches how Jesus helps us. He brings us back to the boat. That's the climax of Matthew's story: Jesus saves by bringing us into the praying community. Separated from the boat, from the people of God, we are exposed to being overwhelmed by the wind and the waves. The Christian assembly gathered in church at the Eucharist is the boat that carries us safely to the other shore. To this day the long central part of our Church buildings, where the community gathers to pray, is called a nave, from the Latin word navis, which means a boat.

As successors of the first Christians, with grateful love and one voice, we proclaim our faith together saying, 'Jesus, truly, you are the Son of God.'

Thoughts on the Gospel

Matthew 14:13–21 – The Feeding of the Five Thousand

The miracle of the loaves and fishes begins with compassion. Before Jesus fed the crowd, He first recognised their suffering and their need. His heart was moved by those who were tired, hungry, and searching for hope.

In our own busy lives, God gently calls us to notice those around us who may be lonely, discouraged, forgotten, or struggling. A simple word of encouragement, a listening ear, or a small act of kindness may become someone else's miracle.

The disciples looked only at what they didn't have. Faced with thousands of hungry people, they saw only five loaves and two fish. Jesus, however, asked them to offer what they already possessed.

God rarely asks us for what we do not have. Instead, He asks us to place before Him our time, our talents, our compassion, and our willingness to serve. However small these gifts may seem, He is able to multiply them beyond anything we could imagine.

Before distributing the food, Jesus lifted everything to His Father in prayer. This reminds us that surrender is not a sign of weakness or defeat. Rather, it is an act of trust. We all carry burdens that feel too heavy or situations that seem impossible, yet when we place them into God's hands, what appears insufficient can become more than enough.

Finally, the twelve baskets of leftovers remind us of God's overwhelming generosity. His blessings are never intended to stop with us but to flow through us. When we forgive generously, encourage freely, and share what we have with others, God's grace continues to multiply in countless lives.

Prayer

Lord, fill our hearts with compassion. Use the little we have to accomplish great things for Your Kingdom. Teach us to trust You completely, to surrender our limitations into Your hands, and to share Your blessings generously with all whom we meet. Amen.

Pope's Prayer Intention for August

For Evangelisation in the City

Let us pray that in large cities, often marked by anonymity and loneliness, we may discover new ways of proclaiming the Gospel, finding creative paths to build genuine Christian communities.

Prayer for Vocations

We pray for men whom God is calling to the priesthood.

Like Jesus in today's Gospel, may they never turn away from the poor, the hungry, the vulnerable or those most in need, but always reflect the compassionate love of Christ as they nourish His people through the Word of God and the Eucharist.

REST A WHILE

In our day-to-day life's journey, oftentimes we are overwhelmed with our daily routines, individual tasks as well as duties and responsibilities. It seems that the 24 hours of the day are not enough because we are too busy with so many things. We do not have time to "stop and smell the roses." We do not have time to relax and to take time out of our busy schedules to appreciate and enjoy God's gift of the beauty of life. We need time to rest, to recognise our human limitations that we need essential respite to prevent us from being exhausted and to avoid the possible danger of breakdown. According to the mechanical engineers, even machines need cooling-off time to prevent overheating. When we approach our "hallowed space" like spending time praying in front of the Blessed Sacrament or lighting candles inside the church, we are refreshed and strengthened. We will be inspired to go on despite all the burdens, challenges, and obstacles in life. That is why after the tiresome and successful mission of the Apostles the Lord told them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Following Jesus' command, these first followers were spiritually and physically recharged to do the next job. We also badly need to have some "refreshment" of the Lord and to spend time with Him in silent prayer to find meaning in every life's situation. In this way, we are far from being "worn out" and preventing ourselves from "falling apart." And so, let us all find time to relax and rest for a while with Him.

Parish Newsletter: There will be no printed parish newsletter for the next few weeks. Parish notices will be available on the parish Facebook page and the website.

Parish Mission: Parishioners may have heard that the parish will hold a mission in September of this year. It will be delivered by the Dominican Order. As you know it has been some time since the last Mission in the parish. Whilst members of the Parish Pastoral Group continue to organise it, it would be helpful to have a few interested individuals from each end of the parish to help with the organisation. Time commitment should not be great - a few hours between now and September and some input during the week itself. This is a great opportunity to get involved in a significant event for the parish, and if you are interested, please contact Fr. Crowley.

Parish Mission - Sunday 27th September - Friday 2nd October.

Errigal: Through Our Eyes - Summer Youth Photography Project: Starting Monday 6th July, all young people under 18 are invited to join Errigal: Through Our Eyes, a summer photography project. The theme is "See what matters. See where God is." This will celebrate the beauty, faith, kindness, and everyday life of our parish.

Pick up an entry form, then send up to three photos taken within the parish boundaries and a short reflection to the parish email (with parent/guardian consent for under 16s). Entries close Sunday 9th August at 9pm. There are 1st, 2nd and 3rd place prizes in both Primary and Secondary categories, with certificates for everyone. Winners will be announced/celebrated on Saturday 15th August after Vigil Mass in Glenullin.

Parish Collections - Thank you. 184 boxes of envelopes in circulation.

Feasts during the Week: Monday - St. Lawrence: He died in 258, is seen as a cheerful giver since he was one of the seven deacons of the Roman Church in charge of the material needs of the faithful. Gifted with a sense of humour, he met his death cheerfully on a gridiron. He is patron saint of the poor. Tuesday - St. Clare: Born in Assisi in 1193, died in 1253. She followed St. Francis in his life of poverty and was founder and ruler of the Poor Clares. She led an austere life, abounding in works of piety and charity. Wednesday - St. Jane Frances de Chantal (1572 - 1641): At the age of twenty married Baron de Chantal but after nine years she was left a widow with four children. Her friendship with St. Francis de Sales led to the foundation of the Congregation of the Visitation. Thursday - St. Fachtna: Founder of the monastery of Ross Carbery (Ross Ailithir). He died around 600. His monastery became the principal monastery of west Cork and later had a famous Scripture school. Friday - St. Maximilian Kolbe: (1894 - 1941) A Conventual Franciscan who worked in the apostolate of the press in Poland and Japan and died in Auschwitz. Saturday - Solemnity of the Assumption: Honours the fullness that was her destiny, the glorification of her immaculate soul and virginal body that completely conformed her to the risen Christ. This is a celebration that offers to the Church and to all humanity an exemplar and a consoling message, teaching us the fulfilment of our highest hopes. Their own future glorification is happily in store for all those whom Christ has made his own brothers and sisters by taking on their flesh and blood. (Marialis Cultus) Patronal Day of France, India, Malta and Paraguay.

JESUS IS WITH US IN THE STORMS OF LIFE

Every Christian experiences storms. We naturally ask the Lord to remove our difficulties, yet the Gospel reveals that Jesus often offers something even greater: His presence. Rather than simply calming the storm around us, He seeks to deepen our trust in Him within it.

The greatest miracle in this Gospel is not that Jesus walked on water, nor even that Peter briefly did the same. The true miracle is that frightened, faltering disciples became worshippers who recognised Jesus as the Son of God.

Perhaps our prayer should be less, "Lord, make my life easier," and more, "Lord, whatever storm I must face, keep my eyes fixed on You." When we do stumble, as Peter did, we can be confident that Christ's saving hand is already reaching out to lift us up

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION Saturday is the Feast of the Assumption and is a holy day of obligation. Masses will be Vigil Mass on Friday at 7.15pm, Saturday 10am and 6.00pm Vigil Mass. Saturday Vigil Mass covers obligation for either Feast Day or Sunday but NOT both Jesus said to his disciples: “Courage! It is I. Do not be afraid.” Fear is identified in the Scriptures as the single greatest enemy of life and love. It affects everything we do and everything we hope for. Courage, on the other hand, is one of the qualities we most need to develop if we are to live and love and hope to the full. It takes courage for any woman and man to pledge their love for the rest of their lives in marriage. It takes even more courage to live that out any way fully. It takes courage for parents to have children and even more so to bring them up to be people of hope and confidence. And it takes courage to believe in Christ and to live out that belief in everyday life. This kind of courage, for the sake of all that is best in our lives, means making decisions that are in favour of what we hold dear. These decisions can often mean denying ourselves things for a greater good. They can also mean going against the norm that is around us.

Thoughts on the Gospel (Matthew 14:13-21)

The miracle of the loaves and fishes began with compassion. Jesus first noticed the crowd's pain before providing for their hunger. In our busy lives, God invites us to see those who are lonely, discouraged, or forgotten. Even small acts of kindness can become someone's miracle.

The disciples focused on what they lacked, yet Jesus asked them to offer what they did have. God rarely asks for what we do not possess. When we offer our time, talents, and resources — however small — He multiplies them in ways we cannot imagine.

Before the food was shared, Jesus surrendered everything to the Father. We too carry burdens that feel heavy, but surrender is not giving up; it is trusting God with our limitations. What seems insufficient to us becomes more than enough in His hands. The abundance left over reminds us that God's blessings are meant to flow through us. When we share generously, encourage others, and forgive freely, His grace continues to multiply.

Lord, fill us with compassion, use what little we offer, and multiply it for Your glory.
Teach us to trust You and to share Your blessings generously. Amen.

Monthly Mass in Honour of St Pio will be celebrated on Wednesday 5th August at 7.00 pm in Immaculate Conception Church, Strabane. We ask God's blessing on all through the intercession of St Pio. Everyone welcome.

Mass on Saturday 15th August at 10.00 am in St Patrick's Church, Murlog.

Masses at the usual times on the evening of Saturday 15th & Sunday 16th August.

Prayer at Time of Exam Results

Dear Lord, in this moment of uncertainty, I seek Your peace and guidance.
Help me to accept the results of my efforts with grace, whether they meet my hopes or not. Grant me the strength to learn and grow from this experience, trusting in Your plan for my life. May I find comfort in Your love and wisdom.
May Your peace fill my heart as I walk forward in faith. Amen.

Requiescant in Pace We offer our sympathy to the family and friends of Harry Mullen, Victoria Rd, Strabane; Bernie Greene, Tipperary.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A)

12 July 2026

The Soil of Our Lives

This Sunday Jesus tells us the parable of the sower. It is one of the most familiar stories in the Gospels. A farmer scatters seed. Some falls on the path, some on rocky ground, some among thorns, and some on rich soil. Only the rich soil produces a harvest.

Anyone who has ever grown anything in soil knows that you can have the best seed in the world, but if the ground isn't ready, nothing will come of it. The work is in the preparation. The digging, the clearing, the weeding. It is slow and unspectacular, and nobody sees it. But it makes all the difference.

Isaiah reminds us this weekend that God's Word never returns to Him empty. Like the rain and the snow that water the earth, His word always accomplishes what it was sent to do. The seed is never the problem. God is endlessly generous. He scatters His grace everywhere, on all of us, without measure and without favourites. The question the parable puts to each of us is a simple one: what kind of ground is He landing on?

Every one of us has been planted with gifts. Gifts of faith, of kindness, of patience, of prayer. Some of them are lying dormant because the soil of our lives has become hardened, or crowded, or shallow. The worries of the week, the busyness, the old hurts we haven't let go of — these are the thorns and the stones. They don't destroy the seed. They just stop it growing.

The good news is that soil can always be worked: A little time in prayer each day. An honest look at what is choking the Word in us. A return to the Sacraments. Small, quiet acts of clearing the ground! When we do that, our roots go down deeper into God, and we find a steadiness that the heat of life cannot wither.

St Paul tells us the whole of creation is groaning, waiting to be set free. That freedom begins in small plots of ground, that is in hearts like yours and mine that let the Word take root and grow.

So this week, ask the Lord: what needs clearing in me? Then let Him in with the spade! The harvest He promises is thirty, sixty, a hundredfold.

The Soil of Our Lives

This Sunday Jesus tells us the parable of the sower. It is one of the most familiar stories in the Gospels. A farmer scatters seed. Some falls on the path, some on rocky ground, some among thorns, and some on rich soil. Only the rich soil produces a harvest.

Anyone who has ever grown anything in soil knows that you can have the best seed in the world, but if the ground isn't ready, nothing will come of it. The work is in the preparation. The digging, the clearing, the weeding. It is slow and unspectacular, and nobody sees it. But it makes all the difference.

Isaiah reminds us this weekend that God's Word never returns to Him empty. Like the rain and the snow that water the earth, His word always accomplishes what it was sent to do. The seed is never the problem. God is endlessly generous. He scatters His grace everywhere, on all of us, without measure and without favourites. The question the parable puts to each of us is a simple one: what kind of ground is He landing on?

Every one of us has been planted with gifts. Gifts of faith, of kindness, of patience, of prayer. Some of them are lying dormant because the soil of our lives has become hardened, or crowded, or shallow. The worries of the week, the busyness, the old hurts we haven't let go of — these are the thorns and the stones. They don't destroy the seed. They just stop it growing.

The good news is that soil can always be worked: A little time in prayer each day. An honest look at what is choking the Word in us. A return to the Sacraments. Small, quiet acts of clearing the ground! When we do that, our roots go down deeper into God, and we find a steadiness that the heat of life cannot wither.

St Paul tells us the whole of creation is groaning, waiting to be set free. That freedom begins in small plots of ground, that is in hearts like yours and mine that let the Word take root and grow.

So this week, ask the Lord: what needs clearing in me? Then let Him in with the spade! The harvest He promises is thirty, sixty, a hundredfold.

A short reflection on today's Gospel Matthew 14:22-33

In today's Gospel, the disciples find themselves struggling against strong winds while Jesus comes to them, walking on the water. At first, they are filled with fear, but Jesus reassures them with the simple yet powerful words: "Take courage! It is I. Do not be afraid."

Like the disciples, we all encounter storms in our lives - times of uncertainty, anxiety, illness, or loss. Peter's experience reminds us that faith is not about never doubting, but about keeping our eyes fixed on Christ. When Peter focuses on Jesus, he walks on the water; when he focuses on the wind and waves, he begins to sink. Yet even then, Jesus immediately reaches out His hand to save him.

This Gospel is a beautiful reminder that the Lord is always present, even when He seems distant. He does not promise a life free from storms, but He does promise that we will never face them alone. As we gather around the Lord's table this Sunday, may we hear His reassuring voice, trust in His presence, and reach out to Him in faith, knowing that His hand is always extended towards us.

Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood: For our seminarians and the men considering priesthood that, in moments of doubt, they'll hear Jesus say what He says to the disciples in today's gospel, "Courage! It is I. Do not be afraid!"

On Saturday 15th August, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a Holy Day of Obligation. We gather to give thanks to God for the gift of Our Lady, who was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory, and to renew our hope in the promise of the Resurrection.

Mass times are as follows:

Friday 14th August – 6.15pm and 7.30pm

Saturday 15th August – 7.00am, 9.30am, 11.00am, and 12.30pm.

The Collection on the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary will be for Parish Youth Ministry. All parishioners are warmly encouraged to join us in celebrating this joyful feast.

“Bishop Daly - A Man for all Seasons” 2026 Exhibition celebrates the life, influence, work and legacy of Bishop Edward Daly opens on Saturday 8th August at 11.00am. Exhibition times are 11.00am to 4.00pm in the Conference Room above the Sacristy in Saint Eugene's Cathedral, Creggan Street, Derry, BT48 9AP. The Exhibition will run until 18th August and everyone is welcome.

On 14th August, the Church celebrates the Memorial of St Maximilian Kolbe, a Polish Franciscan priest and martyr of charity. Imprisoned in Auschwitz during the Second World War, he freely offered his life in place of a fellow prisoner who had been selected to die. His extraordinary act of self-sacrificing love reflects Christ's own words: "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" (John 15:13).

St Maximilian had a deep devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and dedicated his priesthood to spreading the Gospel through prayer, the media, and missionary work. His courage, faith, and love continue to inspire Christians throughout the world.

As we honour St Maximilian Kolbe, may we ask for his intercession, that we too may grow in faith, charity, and the courage to bear witness to Christ in our daily lives.

Thoughts on the Gospel

Matthew 14:13–21 – The Feeding of the Five Thousand

The miracle of the loaves and fishes begins with compassion. Before Jesus fed the crowd, He first recognised their suffering and their need. His heart was moved by those who were tired, hungry, and searching for hope.

In our own busy lives, God gently calls us to notice those around us who may be lonely, discouraged, forgotten, or struggling. A simple word of encouragement, a listening ear, or a small act of kindness may become someone else's miracle.

The disciples looked only at what they didn't have. Faced with thousands of hungry people, they saw only five loaves and two fish. Jesus, however, asked them to offer what they already possessed.

God rarely asks us for what we do not have. Instead, He asks us to place before Him our time, our talents, our compassion, and our willingness to serve. However small these gifts may seem, He is able to multiply them beyond anything we could imagine.

Before distributing the food, Jesus lifted everything to His Father in prayer. This reminds us that surrender is not a sign of weakness or defeat. Rather, it is an act of trust. We all carry burdens that feel too heavy or situations that seem impossible, yet when we place them into God's hands, what appears insufficient can become more than enough.

Finally, the twelve baskets of leftovers remind us of God's overwhelming generosity. His blessings are never intended to stop with us but to flow through us. When we forgive generously, encourage freely, and share what we have with others, God's grace continues to multiply in countless lives.

Prayer

Lord, fill our hearts with compassion. Use the little we have to accomplish great things for Your Kingdom. Teach us to trust You completely, to surrender our limitations into Your hands, and to share Your blessings generously with all whom we meet. Amen.

Pope's Prayer Intention for August

For Evangelisation in the City

Let us pray that in large cities, often marked by anonymity and loneliness, we may discover new ways of proclaiming the Gospel, finding creative paths to build genuine Christian communities.

Prayer for Vocations

We pray for men whom God is calling to the priesthood.

Like Jesus in today's Gospel, may they never turn away from the poor, the hungry, the vulnerable or those most in need, but always reflect the compassionate love of Christ as they nourish His people through the Word of God and the Eucharist.

Closing Prayer

May the Lord bless us with compassionate hearts, generous spirits, and unwavering trust in His providence. May we recognise Christ in those around us, offer Him the little we possess, and witness His abundant blessings multiplying in our families, our parish, and our community.

May Almighty God bless you, the Father, ✠ the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Being still for the presence of the Lord

The readings speak powerfully to anyone who has ever felt overwhelmed, afraid, or uncertain. Elijah, we hear stands on the mountain in search of God. He can hear wind, earthquake, and fire, but God is not found in the noise and drama. Instead, God comes in the sound of a gentle breeze. This is a reminder of the lonely place of last week's Gospel in that the Lord often speaks most clearly not when life is loud, but when we become still enough to listen.

In the Gospel, the disciples are caught in a storm on the lake. Jesus comes to them walking on the water, but fear prevents them from recognising him. Peter has enough faith to step out of the boat, yet when he notices the strength of the wind, he begins to sink. His cry, "Lord, save me," is short, honest, and full of need. Jesus immediately reaches out his hand. He does not wait for Peter to deserve help; he saves him in the very moment of weakness.

We are invited to trust that Christ is present even in the storms of life, the challenges and upsets we cannot control. Faith does not mean we never feel afraid. It means turning towards Jesus when fear rises. Like Elijah, we at times may need silence to hear God's gentle voice. Like Peter, at times we may need humility to admit we are sinking. The good news is that Jesus is never far away either in the lonely place or within the noise of everyday life. He comes across the troubled waters of our lives and telling us not to be afraid. May we learn to keep our eyes fixed on him, to listen in the quiet, and to reach for his hand whenever the storm feels stronger than our faith.

*Mass times for the Feast of the Assumption,
Saturday 15 August*

Friday Evening Vigil Masses:

St Oliver Plunkett, Strathfoyle – 6.00pm

St Columb's Church – 7.30pm

Saturday morning Masses:
