Thought for the Day: Jesus does not pluck his summary teaching from the air, he quotes from the Shema Yisrael, the great daily prayer of Judaism found in Deuteronomy 6. The second part about the love of neighbour is taken from Leviticus 18. This mission statement stands as a resounding appeal to us today. We are asked not just to believe that there is a God, but to love God. We are asked not just to respect our neighbour, but to love our neighbour. Love is not only the truth about human beings but also the truth about God, who is love itself. Prayer: Great and loving God, your love for us is beyond what we can grasp with our minds and hearts. Let such great love for all awaken in us a true love of you and lead to authentic service of our neighbour. (www.tarsus.ie)

Pope Leo XVI on X: I would like to thank all those who have prayed for me in recent days. I wish to express my particular gratitude to the doctors, nurses and all the staff of the Gemelli Hospital. This experience has made me feel particularly close to all those who are living with illness or infirmity. Now that I have overcome this delicate phase, I will gradually resume my activities, always with God's help and your prayers.

Mass for those who died in University Hospital Kerry during the year will be celebrated on Monday 2nd November at 7.00pm in St. Johns Church, Tralee, live streamed on www.churchservices.tv/tralee

Love God, love your neighbour.

We don't love in order to get to heaven; we love because heaven is already ours in Christ. We don't love in order to win God's favour; we love because we already have God's favour in Christ. We don't love so that God will love us; we love because God has loved us in Christ with the greatest love we will ever know, the crucified love of Jesus. Jesus came to make us more loving. What form this loving take is not important, but what is important is that it does take place. ~ Fr Gerard.

Month of Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood

Untying the Rope: The Courage to Begin ...

Throughout October, our Diocese is dedicating a month to prayer for vocations to the Diocesan Priesthood in Kerry. Each week invites us to reflect on a different aspect of the journey. This week, our theme is "Setting Sail" — a special invitation to those who may be discerning God's call to the priesthood.

Our thoughts turn naturally to St Brendan the Navigator, our great Kerry saint, who reminds us that every journey begins with a willingness to leave the familiar behind. Brendan did not remain on the shore, waiting until every uncertainty had been resolved. He untied the rope, set sail and entrusted himself to God.

There is something deeply meaningful in that image for anyone discerning a vocation. It can be tempting to wait until we have all the answers, until the whole journey is mapped out, or until we feel completely ready. Yet God rarely reveals the entire voyage at once. He invites us to trust Him enough to take the next faithful step.

Is God Calling You?

An invitation to men in our parish and throughout South Kerry

If you have ever wondered whether God might be calling you to the Diocesan Priesthood, please do not be afraid to take that first step. Reach out to Fr Sean or your local priest. You will be met with understanding, encouragement and every support as you explore what God may be asking of you. There is no need to have everything figured out before beginning the conversation. Discerning is a journey, and you do not have to make it alone.

You may be surprised by where that first conversation leads. All that is asked at the beginning is a willing heart and the courage to listen.

Congratulations to All 'Birdies for Buddy'

A sincere word of congratulations and appreciation to everyone involved in the recent 'Birdies for Buddy' Fundraiser, held at Waterville Golf Links on Saturday last. The day was truly blessed with beautiful sunshine, making it a wonderful occasion filled with goodwill, generosity and community spirit. It was heartening to see so many people come together in support of this very worthy cause, raising funds for Buddy and his pals at St Francis Special School in Beaufort.

A special word of thanks and appreciation to Michael, Miriam and all the team at Waterville Golf Links for their generosity in making this wonderful event possible. Their continued support for our community, and their kindness towards those in need, is greatly appreciated and is a wonderful example of the difference we can make when we come together for others.

To everyone who organised, participated in, sponsored and supported the fundraiser in any way, thank you. Your generosity will make a real difference to Buddy and his friends, and your support is a testament to the kindness and compassion that exists within our community.

Synodal Evaluation Assemble 2027: Why are we holding an Assembly? Pope Leo has asked every diocese to hold a pastoral assembly during the first half of 2027. Each diocese is invited to review how it has progressed in becoming a more synodal Church – a Church in which all the baptised share responsibility for its life and mission. The Diocese of Kerry will hold its Evaluation Assembly on Sat 10th April 2027. The Assembly will review our experience since the publication of the Synod's Final Document in 2025. It will recognise where Synodal ways of working are already developing, identify what may be hindering progress, and agree the next steps needed to strengthen the mission of the diocese.

Today in the Gospel of Matthew Jesus sums up the ten Commandments into two great Commandments for us.' the first you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind, and the second is like it. You shall love your neighbour as yourself'. ' The Commandments are a set of moral laws given to us by God to live good and just lives because he cares for us. Jesus is telling us what kind of relationship we are to have with God and with our fellow human beings if we are to live happy and fulfilled lives and live in a just and fair community. We are to have a personal relationship with Him putting Him first in our lives, giving Him his rightful place as our Lord and Creator who holds all things in being. With so many distractions in this world it is very easy for us not to put God first but if we do, all other things fall into place. We can have that relationship with Jesus Christ our Redeemer who wants us to put our faith and hope in Him because He loves so much and died on the cross to bring us eternal life. St. John's tells us God is love and all love comes from God; we are also called to love one another even our enemies, to forgive one another and to treat others as we would want to be treated. Our Christian faith enables us to walk on a journey with Christ who purifies us and sanctifies us along the way enabling us to love Him and our neighbour and so become transformed to His image and likeness and be ready to obtain eternal life with him. We must ask ourselves, "Do I love God and those around me as much as Jesus loves me? This is the standard of love we must uphold. To love as Jesus loved means to be willing to lay down our life for God and our neighbour.

Love – A Way of Life

The Pharisees were looking to test Jesus by asking him about the greatest commandment. In response, Jesus not only provided them with a clear answer but also encapsulated the essence of the entire Christian faith. The Lord declared, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbour as yourself'".

This profound teaching is foundational. It is a reminder that the Christian life revolves around love—love directed upward toward God and outward toward our fellow human beings. Love is not just a feeling; it is an action, a commitment, a way of life.

Please Note All those on November Lists will be remembered at all Masses during November Thought for the Week: Love God, love your neighbour.

We don't love in order to get to heaven; we love because heaven is already ours in Christ. We don't love in order to win God's favour; we love because we already have God's favour in Christ. We don't love so that God will love us; we love because God has loved us in Christ with the greatest love we will ever know, the crucified love of Jesus. Jesus came to make us more loving. What form this loving takes is not important, but what is important is that it does take place.

Seanfhocail: Folaíonn grá gráin.

Love is blind.

Thought for the day: Jesus does not pluck his summary teaching from the air, he quotes from the Shema Yisrael, the great daily prayer of Judaism found in Deuteronomy 6. The second part about the love of neighbour is taken from Leviticus 18. This mission statement stands as a resounding appeal to us today. We are asked not just to believe that there is a God, but to love God. We are asked not just to respect our neighbour, but to love our neighbour. Love is not only the truth about human beings but also the truth about God, who is love itself. Prayer: Great and loving God, your love for us is beyond what we can grasp with our minds and hearts. Let such great love for all awaken in us a true love of you and lead to authentic service of our neighbour. (www.tarsus.ie)

Pope Leo XVI on X: I would like to thank all those who have prayed for me in recent days. I wish to express my particular gratitude to the doctors, nurses and all the staff of the Gemelli Hospital. This experience has made me feel particularly close to all those who are living with illness or infirmity. Now that I have overcome this delicate phase I will gradually resume my activities, always with God's help and your prayers.

Month of Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood

This week, our theme is "Setting Sail" — a special invitation to those who may be discerning God's call to the priesthood.
Our thoughts turn naturally to St Brendan the Navigator, our great Kerry Saint, who reminds us that every journey begins with a willingness to leave the familiar behind. Brendan did not remain on the shore, waiting until every uncertainty had been resolved. He untied the rope, set sail and entrusted himself to God.
There is something deeply meaningful in that image for anyone discerning a vocation. It can be tempting to wait until we have all the answers, until the whole journey is mapped out, or until we feel completely ready. Yet God rarely reveals the entire voyage at once. He invites us to trust Him enough to take the next faithful step.

An invitation to men in our parish and throughout South Kerry
If you have ever wondered whether God might be calling you to the Diocesan Priesthood, please do not be afraid to take that first step. Reach out to Fr Sean or your local priest. You will be met with understanding, encouragement and every support as you explore what God may be asking of you.

Congratulations to All 'Birdies for Buddy'

A sincere word of congratulations and appreciation to everyone involved in the recent 'Birdies for Buddy' Fundraiser, held at Waterville Golf Links on Saturday last. The day was truly blessed with beautiful sunshine, making it a wonderful occasion filled with goodwill, generosity and community spirit. It was heartening to see so many people come together in support of this very worthy cause, raising funds for Buddy and his pals at St Francis Special School in Beaufort. A special word of thanks and appreciation to Michael, Miriam and all the team at Waterville Golf Links for their generosity in making this wonderful event possible. Their continued support for our community, and their kindness towards those in need, is greatly appreciated and is a wonderful example of the difference we can make when we come together for others.
To everyone who organised, participated in, sponsored and supported the fundraiser in any way, thank you. Your generosity will make a real difference to Buddy and his friends, and your support is a testament to the kindness and compassion that exists within our community.

IN NOVEMBER WE REMEMBER

As we welcome the month of November, the Church invites us to turn our hearts in a special way towards the Holy Souls and to remember with love and gratitude all those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith.
November is a month of quiet reflection, heartfelt prayer and Christian hope. We remember our parents, grandparents, relatives, friends, parishioners and all those whose lives have touched our own. Though they are no longer with us in this earthly life, the bonds of love remain, and we continue to entrust them to the mercy and goodness of God.
The Church reminds us that death does not have the final word. Through the death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ, we are given the promise of eternal life. As we pray for the faithful departed, we are united with them in the communion of saints, trusting that God's love is greater than death itself.
"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen."

Mass of Remembrance for Our Deceased 25/26

Friday 13th November: St Finian's @ 7.30pm

One of the most cherished moments in our parish calendar is our annual Mass of Remembrance for those who have died during the past year. We will gather in prayer for all our parishioners and loved ones who have died during 2025 and 2026, remembering their lives, giving thanks for the gifts they shared with us, and entrusting them to the loving mercy of God. This Mass will be an opportunity for families and friends to come together in faith, to find comfort in the Eucharist, and to remember those whose absence is still deeply felt.
Please contact the Parish Office to include names of those who died outside of the Parish that you would like included in our Mass.

November Lists of the Dead

During November, Holy Masses and prayers will be offered for all those remembered on our November Lists of the Dead, as we commend our departed loved ones to the loving mercy of God. Parishioners are invited to place their lists in the offertory during Mass or return them to the Parish Office throughout the month. We are deeply grateful for your prayerful remembrance and offering.

About Today
There's a reminder of the two great commandments in today's celebration: we are called to love God and our neighbour: friend, visitor and stranger alike.
Penitential Rite
Let us call to mind times we have failed to show love, remembering that God never fails to love and forgive us
I confess…
Prayer
Your love, O God, is boundless.
We who were strangers
have been made your children.
We who were defenceless
have been brought into your household.
Keep us mindful of your deeds of mercy,
that we may love you with our whole heart
and love our neighbour as ourselves.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.
Introduction to the Scripture Readings
1St Reading The people of Israel are reminded that in bad times they depended on the kindness of strangers. They should therefore treat the weak and helpless with compassion.
2nd. Reading Paul praises the people of Salonika for their good Christian living, which they had learned from him.
The Gospel Jesus discloses the greatest commandment — love of God and neighbour.
Seeing Your Life Though The Lens Of The Gospel Mt 22: 34-40
1. You may feel some sympathy with the Jews struggling to cope with 613 laws and wondering which were the important ones. Have you ever felt overwhelmed by the rules and regulations of your own tradition? And have you ever been blessed by meeting someone, or reading something, that was able to cut through all the layers and point out to you what is essential in life? Who was that person? What did s/he say or do? Is there some phrase or text that encapsulates such wisdom for you?
2. If you were asked what is most important in life, what would your answer be? Recall the experiences and relationships you have had. Which are the ones that you treasure most? What has particularly enriched your life? How would you encourage another person who asked you how s/he could live a full life?
3. In the unusual circumstances of recent years social life was disrupted by Covid. We had to find unusual and creative ways of showing love to our neighbours. What ways of reaching out to others did you find were most appreciated?

A NOTE FROM FR. JIM.....

In this Sunday's Gospel (Matthew 22:34–40), Jesus gives us the two greatest commandments: love God with all your heart, soul and mind, and love your neighbour as yourself. Jesus brings together two commandments from different parts of the Old Testament and makes them inseparable. But notice the order. Love of God comes first. Why is that so important? St Pope John Paul II lived through the horrors of Nazism and Communism. He witnessed what happens when human beings are stripped of their dignity and treated as objects rather than persons. In his encyclical Evangelium Vitae, he warned that when we lose our sense of God, we risk losing our sense of the human person. When we forget that every human being is created in God's image and likeness, we begin to measure people by their usefulness or convenience rather than their inherent dignity. I heard something recently that really struck me: "There was a time when we used things and loved people. Today, unfortunately, we seem to love things and use people." This is a real danger in our increasingly secular society, where the unborn, the elderly and the vulnerable can be regarded as burdens rather than precious human beings. Human dignity is not bestowed by the State or earned through achievement. It comes from God. This is why Jesus places love of God first. When we recognise God as our Father, we begin to recognise every human being as our brother or sister. When we forget God, we risk forgetting what it means to be human. May we as a nation realise the consequences of removing God from our lives. We just simply don't remove God but we remove the innate dignity of every human person.

♫ Entrance Hymn – Holy God - Canaimís 79 ♫

Holy God, we praise thy name
Lord of all, we bow before thee.
All on Earth thy sceptre own,
All in Heaven above adore thee.
Endless is thy vast domain,
Everlasting is thy reign.

Hark, with loud and pealing hymn thee the Angel choirs above are praising;
Cherubim and seraphim,
One unceasing chorus raising,
ever sing with sweet accord,
Holy, holy, holy, Lord.

♫ Offertory Hymn – In Bread We Bring You Lord– Canaimís 87 ♫

♫ Recessional Hymn – Hail Queen of Heaven – Canaimís 74♫

Hail, Queen of heaven, the ocean star,
Guide of the wanderer here below,
Thrown on life's surge, we claim thy care,
Save us from peril and from woe.
Mother of Christ, O Star of the sea
Pray for the wanderer, pray for me.

O gentle, chaste, and spotless Maid,
We sinners make our prayers through thee;
Remind thy Son that He has paid
The price of our iniquity.
Virgin most pure, O star of the sea,
Pray for the sinner, pray for me.

The Rosary is prayed every night at 7pm in Holy Cross Church. Everyone is welcome to join Prayer for Community: Heavily Father, You grace each of us with equal measure in your love. Let us learn to love our neighbours more deeply, so that we can create peaceful and just communities. Inspire us to use our creative energies to build the structures we need to overcome the obstacles of intolerance and indifference. May Jesus provide us the example needed and send the Spirit to warm our hearts for the journey. Amen.

A Message from Fr Timothy:

My Dear Parishioners & Friends, it is my hope that you are all fine and doing well.

After the short illness and sad loss of my mother, I want to send a message of thanks to you all. Although I have been far away from Milltown & Listry during these past weeks, the parish team have been keeping me updated and telling me about the many people who have been praying for me and my family, asking after us, and passing on their good wishes. I know so many of you have remembered my mother, Teresia, in your prayers and Mass intentions and for that I am deeply grateful. Hearing all this while being thousands of miles away has been a great comfort to me and my family during this difficult time.

I will remain in Kenya until after my mother's Month's Mind Mass and will return on the evening of Thursday, 12th November*. While it is important for me to spend this time with my family, I very much miss parish life and look forward to being back with you all again soon.*

As we approach the month of November, I ask you to remember my mother, Teresia, and especially all our deceased parishioners in your prayers. November is a time when we remember with love and gratitude those who have gone before us and entrust them to God's mercy. Be assured that I am remembering you all and your families in my prayers each day here in Kenya.

Thank you again for your kindness, friendship, and support. I look forward to seeing you all when I return.

Every blessing,
Fr. Timothy

Prayer for Families

Jesus, Lord and Saviour, you have shown us your love
in your care for all, especially those in need.
We ask you to show this love for our family,
those sick and well, at home and away.
May we live in your heart, young and old in our family,
as we make your home in the heart of each of us.
Make strong our faith in you and in each other.
Enliven our hope and make us joyful in love.
Protect us all and welcome home
those who have gone before us.
We pray this, in gratitude for our family life,
and with the prayers of Mary, our Mother. AMEN.

Synodal Evaluation Assemble 2027: Why are we holding an Assembly? Pope Leo has asked every diocese to hold a pastoral assembly during the first half of 2027. Each diocese is invited to review how it has progressed in becoming a more synodal Church – a Church in which all the baptised share responsibility for its life and mission. The Diocese of Kerry will hold its Evaluation Assembly on Sat 10th April 2027. The Assembly will review our experience since the publication of the Synod's Final Document in 2025. It will recognise where Synodal ways of working are already developing, identify what may be hindering progress, and agree the next steps needed to strengthen the mission of the diocese.
