SAINT OF THE WEEK

One of the interesting things that happens in life is making friends with people from different cultures. We learn from other people, especially those different from us. Malachy did that.
This native of Armagh travelled through Europe, and became friends with St Bernard in Clairvaux. When travelling to Rome and back, he always stopped off in Bernard's monastery, and what a chat these two reforming saints must have had. It was in Clairvaux that Malachy fell ill and died, and there with Bernard he was buried.
St Malachy, patron of Armagh, and of friendship, pray for us (feast, Tuesday, 3 November)

(From 'Scandalous Saints and Spirited Sinners', Veritas Publications 2005, by Bernard Cotter)

Point to Ponder:
Faith requires tangible loving actions rather than just passive thoughts.

Does Purgatory exist?

Facebook occasionally presents me with an album of photos, tracing my years as a subscriber. It's a limited look back, but always interesting.
When I die, I expect to see a similar review of my life, from God's perspective — an album of memories. Some things I may have conveniently forgotten, and some of the good I did also. When I've made a review with God's loving eyes on me, I can see myself saying I'm not ready to enter heaven — because in that moment of judgement, there can be no lies, only Supreme Truth.
I'll need time to get my head around divine forgiveness, as I remember times I failed to mirror that. I hope my friends will pray for me, to keep my hope alive until I am ready to pass through to eternal Beauty — a destiny promised to all who are faithful.
The Church calls this a time of purification, which is what I've described above. As the Catechism puts it: "All who die in God's grace …. are assured of their eternal salvation, but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven."
What do you think?

Feast of All Saints

Today we remember all the saints who share the happiness of heaven. We are called to be saints by becoming children of God, by becoming more like our Father. This is our greatest possible fulfilment. It begins already, if we ourselves be moulded by the Beatitudes.

The Family of Parishes of: Ballincollig | Ballinora | Kilmurry | Ovens and Farran

Feast of All Saints

We celebrate today the Feast of All Saints, not just the canonized, but all those people who have been faithful witnesses to the love of God by living out the message of the Gospel during their life. We trust that our loved ones, relations and friends are among those who are now enjoying the glory and happiness of being face to face with God. The saints we celebrate were men and women like us. Perhaps we may sometimes think of our departed loved ones as being dead and gone. But our faith helps us to believe that they are alive now more than ever, because they are now fully alive in God. The life they now enjoy can no longer be touched by sickness, suffering, sin, or death. We thank God for all those whom he has already welcomed to heaven. During November we pray especially for those who are still being purified in Purgatory knowing that our prayers can help them. The Second Reading from the First Letter of St John, reminds us of the great love of God who already has chosen to call us His children. "What we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed, we will be like him, because we will see him as he is."

The Beatitudes in today's Gospel, propose to us a way of life, inviting us to be poor in spirit, that is relying on God to help us through life, to identify with the meek, those who mourn, and those who hunger and thirst after justice. They challenge us to be compassionate people, to be men and women who are pure in heart, and to become peacemakers in our dealings with one another, in our families and in society at large, even when this entails ridicule and persecution. We pray for faith and courage to walk this journey. The saints encourage us in our day-to-day struggles because like us they also endured struggles. Our Faith assures us that all who respond to the Lord's invitation to live the life of the Beatitudes will one day hear those welcoming and consoling words, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of your Lord"

The Beatitudes in today's Gospel are the teachings of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount Jesus teaches us that if we live according to the Beatitudes, we will live a happy Christian life. The Beatitudes fulfil God's promises made to Abraham and his descendants and describe the rewards that will be ours as loyal followers of Christ.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land.
Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
Blessed are the clean in heart, for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Prayer for Vocations

Loving God, at baptism you have gifted each of us with a call to serve you and all people in everything we do. Give us the strength to share your message of love, justice, hope and peace in every part of our Diocese of Cork and Ross.
We ask you Lord, for the gift of new vocations to priesthood in our Diocese. In your fatherly care, accompany those who are seeking to know your will for them. Inspire those you invite to serve as priests and fill them with the courage to answer that call. Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

DISCOVERY A faith study as part of the Cork and Ross Diocese faith development

The Irish Cancer Society

The society is seeking compassionate volunteer drivers to join our pool of drivers. As a volunteer driver you would be bringing patients undergoing chemotherapy to the hospital and back home for their treatment. Gifting your time means that cancer patients will have comfortable (one on one) transport to attend appointments for their lifesaving treatment. If you can spare 2 days per month, have a valid driving licence, and a safe, reliable vehicle, you are the perfect candidate to make a significant difference. The Irish Cancer Society will provide you with training before you start as a driver for us. Your generosity not only eases the journey for many during a challenging time but also offers comfort and support when it's needed most. For more information and to become a volunteer driver, please contact Monica or Emily at volunteer@irishcancer.ie

Reflection

I pray Lord, for the needy of our world: come among us as one who will help, and call us all to help the hungry and sick, the uneducated and homeless, those who are victims of violence and war, the lonely and depressed. May your coming this Christmas be for them a time of peace and love; may we bring to them, in what way we can the joy of your coming.

THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Apoc. 7:2-4, 9-14
In commemorating all the saints in heaven, we give thanks to God for the inspiration which their witness continues to give us. Though not known to us by name, these are the women and men who showed perseverance and trust in their pilgrim journey of faith. Far from fleeing in the face of challenge, they faced difficulty with confidence and hope and now rejoice in God's presence forever.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-3
John reminds us of our identity as children of a God who is lavish with his gifts. We are asked to hold fast to the hope contained in God's promise to us. As we journey together towards our heavenly home, we are strengthened in the knowledge that he is with us guiding us, perfecting us, preparing us for a destiny which is beyond our wildest imaginings.

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12
The first three words in today's Gospel passage provide us with the key to understanding why Jesus climbed the hill and began to teach: seeing the crowds ...' In the Scriptures, the image of sight is often used to describe not just the physical act of looking at and recognizing someone or something but also — and at a more profound level — 'seeing' describes spiritual insight. When Jesus looks at us, he sees as God sees. He recognizes our need. He speaks words of life to us. He enlivens our hearts with hope and he helps us to see that the poor, humble, little ones of the earth are those who will inherit the kingdom of heaven.

Ballincollig & Carrigrohane Castles

Who built these castles? What was it like to live in them? What were Ballincollig and Carrigrohane like in medieval times? These and other questions will be answered by Paul MacCotter in his illustrated lecture on Ballincollig and Carrigrohane Castles, organised by Muskerry Local History Society. The lecture will be held in Ballincollig Rugby Club P31 DA38 on Mon, 2nd Nov. at 7.00 pm.

Thought for Today

The Beatitudes show us that God knows about all the suffering and pain in the world. They also show us how God wants us to respond to it: with mercy, with peacemaking, with a hunger and thirst for holiness (right living and justice). The Beatitudes give us a hint of what we pray for when we pray "Your kingdom come." The Beatitudes are not just for the saints of long ago. They are for us today.

Mary O'H writes.....

Remembrance and Thanksgiving for our Loved Ones

Many people find November a difficult month, those who have been recently bereaved and those who carry the scars from a past painful bereavement.

Most of November we concentrate on remembering our deceased loved ones:- The Holy Souls Novena, the visits to the graveyard, while these are spiritually good for us they make it impossible for people to avoid being revisited by the pain and loss of a loved one.

We hold dear the memory of those who have been a truly significant part of each of us. The gift of memory and its place within our hearts brings us consolation. Our hearts are warmed by the comfort of others and slowly over time we begin to heal and embrace life once again as our loved ones would wish us to live.

We ask God to heal our pain and sadness as the month of November is a time of Remembrance and Thanksgiving for the lives of our loved ones, no matter how long or short that earthly life was.

Reflection:-

Holy Souls

Holy souls are special people
Whom from us God did call
We are left here broken hearted
For we love them one and all.
All we have left is just our memories
Of the times when they were near
Longing for those precious moments
Wishing they were here.
But death is not the end for us
It is just an open door where some day we will be with them
With more happiness that before.

Once again with all our loved ones
All our sorrow it will end
In God's home we'll be re united
Parents, family and friends.
So in this special holy month
Remember them and pray
Those holy souls our own
dear loved ones to God
are on their way.

The sky is still as blue, the grass is still as green, the birds sing as sweetly, the flowers have not lost their fragrance, it may not seem so at the moment but slowly it will.

Blessing of Graves

The Annual Prayers & Blessing of the Graves in the parish graveyards will take place as follows:

Sunday November 1st:- Goggins Hill after 11.30am Mass

Sunday 01-November-2026

Feast of All Saints

Today we remember all the saints who share the happiness of heaven. We are called to be saints by becoming children of God, by becoming more like our Father. This is our greatest possible fulfilment. It begins already, if we ourselves be moulded by the Beatitudes.

The Family of Parishes of: Ballincollig | Ballinora | Kilmurry | Ovens and Farran

Feast of All Saints

We celebrate today the Feast of All Saints, not just the canonized, but all those people who have been faithful witnesses to the love of God by living out the message of the Gospel during their life. We trust that our loved ones, relations and friends are among those who are now enjoying the glory and happiness of being face to face with God. The saints we celebrate were men and women like us. Perhaps we may sometimes think of our departed loved ones as being dead and gone. But our faith helps us to believe that they are alive now more than ever, because they are now fully alive in God. The life they now enjoy can no longer be touched by sickness, suffering, sin, or death. We thank God for all those whom he has already welcomed to heaven. During November we pray especially for those who are still being purified in Purgatory knowing that our prayers can help them. The Second Reading from the First Letter of St John, reminds us of the great love of God who already has chosen to call us His children. "What we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed, we will be like him, because we will see him as he is."

The Beatitudes in today's Gospel, propose to us a way of life, inviting us to be poor in spirit, that is relying on God to help us through life, to identify with the meek, those who mourn, and those who hunger and thirst after justice. They challenge us to be compassionate people, to be men and women who are pure in heart, and to become peacemakers in our dealings with one another, in our families and in society at large, even when this entails ridicule and persecution. We pray for faith and courage to walk this journey. The saints encourage us in our day-to-day struggles because like us they also endured struggles. Our Faith assures us that all who respond to the Lord's invitation to live the life of the Beatitudes will one day hear those welcoming and consoling words, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of your Lord"

The Beatitudes in today's Gospel are the teachings of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount Jesus teaches us that if we live according to the Beatitudes, we will live a happy Christian life. The Beatitudes fulfil God's promises made to Abraham and his descendants and describe the rewards that will be ours as loyal followers of Christ.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land.
Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
Blessed are the clean in heart, for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Prayer for Vocations

Loving God, at baptism you have gifted each of us with a call to serve you and all people in everything we do. Give us the strength to share your message of love, justice, hope and peace in every part of our Diocese of Cork and Ross.
We ask you Lord, for the gift of new vocations to priesthood in our Diocese. In your fatherly care, accompany those who are seeking to know your will for them. Inspire those you invite to serve as priests and fill them with the courage to answer that call. Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

DISCOVERY A faith study as part of the Cork and Ross Diocese faith development

Through Discovery you can deepen your daily life with God and learn a new awareness of just who you are, and how you can live. As the Evangelist John says in 10;10 'have life and have it all in its fullness'. 1 hour per week for 6 weeks. 2 small groups of 6 participants each. Wednesday (Men) Thursdays (Women)

The Irish Cancer Society

The society is seeking compassionate volunteer drivers to join our pool of drivers. As a volunteer driver you would be bringing patients undergoing chemotherapy to the hospital and back home for their treatment. Gifting your time means that cancer patients will have comfortable (one on one) transport to attend appointments for their lifesaving treatment. If you can spare 2 days per month, have a valid driving licence, and a safe, reliable vehicle, you are the perfect candidate to make a significant difference. The Irish Cancer Society will provide you with training before you start as a driver for us. Your generosity not only eases the journey for many during a challenging time but also offers comfort and support when it's needed most. For more information and to become a volunteer driver, please contact Monica or Emily at volunteer@irishcancer.ie

Reflection

I pray Lord, for the needy of our world: come among us as one who will help, and call us all to help the hungry and sick, the uneducated and homeless, those who are victims of violence and war, the lonely and depressed. May your coming this Christmas be for them a time of peace and love; may we bring to them, in what way we can the joy of your coming.

THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Apoc. 7:2-4, 9-14
In commemorating all the saints in heaven, we give thanks to God for the inspiration which their witness continues to give us. Though not known to us by name, these are the women and men who showed perseverance and trust in their pilgrim journey of faith. Far from fleeing in the face of challenge, they faced difficulty with confidence and hope and now rejoice in God's presence forever.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-3
John reminds us of our identity as children of a God who is lavish with his gifts. We are asked to hold fast to the hope contained in God's promise to us. As we journey together towards our heavenly home, we are strengthened in the knowledge that he is with us guiding us, perfecting us, preparing us for a destiny which is beyond our wildest imaginings.

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12
The first three words in today's Gospel passage provide us with the key to understanding why Jesus climbed the hill and began to teach: seeing the crowds ...' In the Scriptures, the image of sight is often used to describe not just the physical act of looking at and recognizing someone or something but also — and at a more profound level — 'seeing' describes spiritual insight. When Jesus looks at us, he sees as God sees. He recognizes our need. He speaks words of life to us. He enlivens our hearts with hope and he helps us to see that the poor, humble, little ones of the earth are those who will inherit the kingdom of heaven.

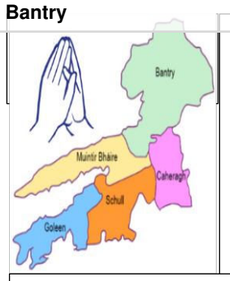

Muskerry Local History Society

Ballincollig & Carrigrohane Castles

Who built these castles? What was it like to live in them? What were Ballincollig and Carrigrohane like in medieval times? These and other questions will be answered by Paul MacCotter in his illustrated lecture on Ballincollig and Carrigrohane Castles, organised by Muskerry Local History Society. The lecture will be held in Ballincollig Rugby Club P31 DA38 on Mon, 2nd Nov. at 7.00 pm.

Thought for Today

The Beatitudes show us that God knows about all the suffering and pain in the world. They also show us how God wants us to respond to it: with mercy, with peacemaking, with a hunger and thirst for holiness (right living and justice). The Beatitudes give us a hint of what we pray for when we pray "Your kingdom come." The Beatitudes are not just for the saints of long ago. They are for us today.

Remembering –

As we move into the month of November, we will lovingly remember our loved ones who have died. 107 funeral Masses have been celebrated across St. Michael's and Holy Cross Churches since this time last year. 70 funeral Masses have been celebrated in St. Michael's and 37 in Holy Cross Church since the start of November last year. These details give us a sense of the strength of both parishes to prayerfully support one another at the most difficult of times. At each of these Masses, there is a deep sense of the consoling presence of God and trust in the ultimate power of the Risen Jesus who 'defeats death forever'. This sense runs very deep and is much more than just sharing our sympathies. It's our prayer to accompany those who have died into the eternal presence of God and back into arms of their own deceased family members and loved ones. So, when we gather during this coming week for the Remembrance Mass, we will be praying, consoling and strengthening the heartbroken. While this is a sad time, it's also a beautiful time and that is how we approach November, in hope and new life. May all those who have died now rest in the peace of the Lord and may we remember them lovingly. May they rest in peace. - Fr. Michael

A brief introduction on Sunday's readings

• First Reading (Revelation 7:2–4, 9–14)
John sees a vast, uncountable multitude from every nation, race, and tongue, robed in white and standing before the throne and the Lamb. These are the ones who have passed through trials and washed their robes clean in the blood of Christ.
• Second Reading (1 John 3:1–3)
St. John reminds believers of their present identity as children of God, noting that while what we shall be has not yet been fully revealed, we will be like Him when we see Him as He is.
• Gospel (Matthew 5:1–12a)
The Beatitudes from the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus proclaims true blessing not in worldly power, but in spiritual poverty, meekness, mourning, hunger for righteousness, mercy, purity of heart, peacemaking, and endurance of persecution.

Annual Remembrance Mass - for all those who have died from our parish over the last year will be celebrated on Monday 2nd November @ 7pm.
They have gone no further than to God and God is very near.

Reflections

The blessings in the Beatitudes are primarily future blessings, but there can be an anticipation of the blessings in the present. At first reading some Beatitudes may seem to describe circumstances that you would like to avoid at all costs.
Read them slowly. Stay with each one for a while. Let yourself get a sense of the paradox involved in each one. Perhaps you have had an experience of a deeper and more authentic life, a blessing, when…

1. You were poor - you knew your need of God
2. You mourned – could feel for others
3. You were meek – not emotionally out of control
4. You hungered and thirsted for some cause
5. You were merciful rather than vengeful
6. You you were pure in heart – a person of integrity, whose actions and intentions correspond
7. You were a peacemaker
8. You were persecuted because you stood for something

PRAYER
All-holy God, you call your people to holiness. As we keep the festival of your saints, give us their meekness and poverty of spirit, a thirst for righteousness, and purity of heart.
May we share with them the richness of your kingdom and be clothed in the glory you bestow.

Family of Parishes Meeting – Blackrock Parish was well represented at this on last Wednesday 28th October in the Parish Centre. All four parishes in our Family of Parishes were represented. The theme of the meeting was to celebrate various initiatives across the four parishes. The meeting was guided by Lorraine Buckley from the Diocese and Mr. Jim Deeds from Belfast who resources Christian leadership courses throughout Ireland and beyond.

Christian Meditation Group – A group of people from our Family of Parishes continue to meet on each Friday morning at 10.15am in the Parish Centre. After a short introduction there is 20 minutes of silent prayer/meditation concluding with the Our Father. We welcome you to join us. Contact 087 6477841 for details.

Unfolding the Word: What Mark's Gospel says about discipleship.

An opportunity to come together and spend some time reading and discussing the Scriptures, followed by prayer.
Everyone is most welcome and we even have a cuppa and chat afterwards as well!

Mass Cards are available in the sacristy after every mass both at weekend and weekdays.

Sunday Cuppa continues in the Parish Centre after 11 am mass on 1st November for tea, bikkies and more chat!
Cheaper than the village - it's free!
Everyone welcome - Ah go on!

Thought for the day

Today we celebrate the community of faith, being in communion with all the saints, a day of both thanksgiving and vision. Thanksgiving because of the example and inspiration of the saints, who have come to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ. (Eph 4:13). Vision because our Gospel today describes the path we must take to make the same journey home to God. If we wish to join the saints both now and into eternity, we must make our own the "mission statement" of Jesus, which is the Sermon on the Mount and especially the opening invitation to true happiness.
Prayer
Jesus you are our teacher within and today we ask your help. Just as you have brought our brothers and sisters to full maturity in you, so also guide us and be with us as we walk your Way. By your grace, may we too be counted among saints in the present moment and in the life to come.
Kieran O'Mahony OSA

ENTRANCE –
Amazing Grace
Amazing grace how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now I'm found
Was blind but now I see

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed

Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come
This grace that brought me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home

RECESSIONAL –
Christ be beside me
Christ be beside me, Christ be before me,
Christ be behind me, King of my heart.
Christ be within me, Christ be below me,
Christ be above me, never to part.

Christ on my right hand, Christ on my left hand,
Christ all around me, shield in the strife.
Christ in my sleeping, Christ in my sitting,
Christ in my rising, light of my heart.

Christ be in all hearts thinking about me,
Christ be on all tongues telling of me.
Christ be the vision in eyes that see me,
In ears that hear me Christ ever be

Cleaning our Church

Our church like any building, needs regular cleaning and it has been the tradition in this Parish that volunteers clean the church weekly. We are grateful to all those who, over many years have generously given of their time to meet this ministry. We appeal each year for volunteers, (Male and female) but it is a challenge to find parishioners eager to serve this ministry. The church cleaning task takes one hour on a Saturday morning. We currently have 2 teams which means each team does one hour every 2 weeks. If you can help, please contact the parish office. Thank you.

Reflection:

Lord, Your Love is Eternal
You are Lord of all,
Lord of the living and the dead,
Lord of death, for you died for us;
Lord of Life, for you rose to glory.
You are the hope of all the world,
That death is not the end,
And that in the power of your spirit,
We too shall rise with you again.

You are always true to us,
And true to your word
that your love does not end with death,
Nor your compassion with the grave.
Yes, Lord, your love for us is eternal, a love that seeks to save.
For this I thank you. Amen.

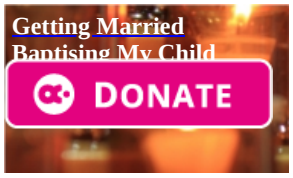

Confessions on Saturday at 4:30pm or by appointment.

Feast of All Saints

Today we remember all the saints who share the happiness of heaven. We are called to be saints by becoming children of God, by becoming more like our Father. This is our greatest possible fulfilment. It begins already, if we ourselves be moulded by the Beatitudes.

The Family of Parishes of: Ballincollig | Ballinora | Kilmurry | Ovens and Farran

Feast of All Saints

We celebrate today the Feast of All Saints, not just the canonized, but all those people who have been faithful witnesses to the love of God by living out the message of the Gospel during their life. We trust that our loved ones, relations and friends are among those who are now enjoying the glory and happiness of being face to face with God. The saints we celebrate were men and women like us. Perhaps we may sometimes think of our departed loved ones as being dead and gone. But our faith helps us to believe that they are alive now more than ever, because they are now fully alive in God. The life they now enjoy can no longer be touched by sickness, suffering, sin, or death. We thank God for all those whom he has already welcomed to heaven. During November we pray especially for those who are still being purified in Purgatory knowing that our prayers can help them. The Second Reading from the First Letter of St John, reminds us of the great love of God who already has chosen to call us His children. "What we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed, we will be like him, because we will see him as he is."

The Beatitudes in today's Gospel, propose to us a way of life, inviting us to be poor in spirit, that is relying on God to help us through life, to identify with the meek, those who mourn, and those who hunger and thirst after justice. They challenge us to be compassionate people, to be men and women who are pure in heart, and to become peacemakers in our dealings with one another, in our families and in society at large, even when this entails ridicule and persecution. We pray for faith and courage to walk this journey. The saints encourage us in our day-to-day struggles because like us they also endured struggles. Our Faith assures us that all who respond to the Lord's invitation to live the life of the Beatitudes will one day hear those welcoming and consoling words, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of your Lord"

The Beatitudes in today's Gospel are the teachings of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount Jesus teaches us that if we live according to the Beatitudes, we will live a happy Christian life. The Beatitudes fulfil God's promises made to Abraham and his descendants and describe the rewards that will be ours as loyal followers of Christ.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land.
Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
Blessed are the clean in heart, for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Prayer for Vocations

Loving God, at baptism you have gifted each of us with a call to serve you and all people in everything we do. Give us the strength to share your message of love, justice, hope and peace in every part of our Diocese of Cork and Ross.
We ask you Lord, for the gift of new vocations to priesthood in our Diocese. In your fatherly care, accompany those who are seeking to know your will for them. Inspire those you invite to serve as priests and fill them with the courage to answer that call. Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

DISCOVERY A faith study as part of the Cork and Ross Diocese faith development

Through Discovery you can deepen your daily life with God and learn a new awareness of just who you are, and how you can live. As the Evangelist John says in 10;10 'have life and have it all in its fullness'. 1 hour per week for 6 weeks. 2 small groups of 6 participants each. Wednesday (Men) Thursdays (Women)

The Irish Cancer Society

The society is seeking compassionate volunteer drivers to join our pool of drivers. As a volunteer driver you would be bringing patients undergoing chemotherapy to the hospital and back home for their treatment. Gifting your time means that cancer patients will have comfortable (one on one) transport to attend appointments for their lifesaving treatment. If you can spare 2 days per month, have a valid driving licence, and a safe, reliable vehicle, you are the perfect candidate to make a significant difference. The Irish Cancer Society will provide you with training before you start as a driver for us. Your generosity not only eases the journey for many during a challenging time but also offers comfort and support when it's needed most. For more information and to become a volunteer driver, please contact Monica or Emily at volunteer@irishcancer.ie

Reflection

I pray Lord, for the needy of our world: come among us as one who will help, and call us all to help the hungry and sick, the uneducated and homeless, those who are victims of violence and war, the lonely and depressed. May your coming this Christmas be for them a time of peace and love; may we bring to them, in what way we can the joy of your coming.

THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Apoc. 7:2-4, 9-14
In commemorating all the saints in heaven, we give thanks to God for the inspiration which their witness continues to give us. Though not known to us by name, these are the women and men who showed perseverance and trust in their pilgrim journey of faith. Far from fleeing in the face of challenge, they faced difficulty with confidence and hope and now rejoice in God's presence forever.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-3
John reminds us of our identity as children of a God who is lavish with his gifts. We are asked to hold fast to the hope contained in God's promise to us. As we journey together towards our heavenly home, we are strengthened in the knowledge that he is with us guiding us, perfecting us, preparing us for a destiny which is beyond our wildest imaginings.

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12
The first three words in today's Gospel passage provide us with the key to understanding why Jesus climbed the hill and began to teach: seeing the crowds ...' In the Scriptures, the image of sight is often used to describe not just the physical act of looking at and recognizing someone or something but also — and at a more profound level — 'seeing' describes spiritual insight. When Jesus looks at us, he sees as God sees. He recognizes our need. He speaks words of life to us. He enlivens our hearts with hope and he helps us to see that the poor, humble, little ones of the earth are those who will inherit the kingdom of heaven.

Ballincollig & Carrigrohane Castles

Who built these castles? What was it like to live in them? What were Ballincollig and Carrigrohane like in medieval times? These and other questions will be answered by Paul MacCotter in his illustrated lecture on Ballincollig and Carrigrohane Castles, organised by Muskerry Local History Society. The lecture will be held in Ballincollig Rugby Club P31 DA38 on Mon, 2nd Nov. at 7.00 pm.

Thought for Today

The Beatitudes show us that God knows about all the suffering and pain in the world. They also show us how God wants us to respond to it: with mercy, with peacemaking, with a hunger and thirst for holiness (right living and justice). The Beatitudes give us a hint of what we pray for when we pray "Your kingdom come." The Beatitudes are not just for the saints of long ago. They are for us today.

NOVEMBER

The Value of Remembering our Dead

November is the time of year when we remember our dead - visiting the graveyard where our loved ones are buried or the place where their ashes are scattered, writing their names on the altar list of the dead, praying for them at the Novena of Masses and reflecting on the story of their lives. We call this the 'Communion of Saints' - the ninth article of faith in the Apostles' Creed. A spiritual union exists among the saints in Heaven, the holy souls in Purgatory and the people of God living on Earth. The Second Vatican Council described our loved ones who have died as 'our outstanding benefactors'. They can pray for us and inspire us.

On Sunday 1st November we celebrate 'All Saints' Day'. It is the feast of all the holy women and men of every time and place, praising God in Heaven. On Monday 2nd November we celebrate 'All Souls' Day'. We remember all the faithful departed.

Remembering our dead these days reminds me that we usually only see death from one side, pain, loss, tears, grief, a difficult and sad time. Yet there is another side which tells us that death is a friend that takes us to the 'Father's house' where all 'tears are wiped away'. The darkness of death is no more. Remembering our dead and reflecting on the story of their lives can help us look at our values and what really matters at the end.

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK

Candlelight Liturgy of Remembrance
Wednesday 4th @ 7 pm

On Wednesday next (November 4th at 7 pm) we will remember and pray for all those whose funerals have taken place here in St. Patrick's over the last year in a gentle liturgy of light & Remembrance.

This Remembrance liturgy is open to all parishioners who would like to attend, and light a special votive candle in memory of their loved ones.

DIOCESAN SHARE APPEAL
November 7th / 8th

This year's Share Appeal takes place on the weekend of November 7th/8th. Share is the Archdiocese's development fund, supporting parishes through financial assistance and practical services such as pastoral development, safeguarding, health and safety, and sustainability. It helps ensure that no parish is left behind and that communities can continue their mission effectively.

On this Share Appeal Sunday, we are invited to support this vital work through our generosity and ongoing commitment.

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Revelation 7:2-4,9-14 & Matthew 5:1-12a.

The Solemnity of All Saints invites us to lift our eyes beyond the struggles of daily life and remember the countless men and women who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith.

In the vision of the Book of Revelation, John beholds a vast multitude from every nation, race and language standing before the throne of God. They are ordinary people who remained faithful through trials and now share in the fullness of God's glory.

In the Gospel, Jesus presents the Beatitudes, a portrait of true holiness. The saints are not remembered because they were powerful, wealthy or successful by worldly standards. Rather, they were poor in spirit, merciful, peacemakers, and people who hungered for righteousness. They allowed God's grace to shape their lives.

This feast reminds us that holiness is not reserved for a select few. It is the calling of every Christian. As we honour the saints, we are encouraged to follow their example, trusting that God continues to lead us along the path that ends in the joy of heaven.

Murragh and Templemartin Parish – part of a Family of Parishes

Murragh and Templemartin is now part of a Family of Parishes which also includes Bandon, Enniskeane & Desertserges, Innishannon/Knockavilla and Kilbrittain
Murragh & Templemartin does not have a resident parish priest. The pastoral needs of the parish are covered by the other priests in our Family of Parishes. Entrance Hymn: Holy God, we praise thy name

Holy God, we praise thy name;

Lord of all, we bow before thee.

All on earth thy sceptre own,

all in heav'n above adore thee.

Infinite thy vast domain,

everlasting is thy reign.

Hark, the loud celestial hymn,

Angel choirs above are raising;

Cherubim and seraphim,

In unceasing chorus praising,

Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord,

Holy, holy, holy Lord.

Reflection on Today's Gospel: What does the term 'apostle' mean?

It is someone who is sent. Jesus himself was sent by the Father to reveal God to the world and to redeem humanity. Jesus chose twelve of his followers and they acted as his core group of collaborators. Their closeness to Jesus over the time of his public ministry was a preparation for their mission in life. Just as Jesus had been sent by the Father, Jesus in turn sent out his twelve disciples to make him known, initially to the Jews and eventually to the whole world. In today's gospel he tells them: 'And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand' (Matthew 10:7). Later in that gospel we read the Great Commission, i.e. Jesus' final sending out of his apostles:

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age (Mt 28:18-20)

This commission is now the responsibility of the whole Church, not just the successors of the apostles. Pope Francis proposed this extension of the apostolic mission to all Christians as synodality. Pope Leo has continued this emphasis on synodality from the beginning of his papacy.

What is Synodality?

The term ‘synodality’ owes its origin to two Greek words sun (with) and hé hodos (the road/journey): we journey on the one road together. The basis of synodality is the Incarnation: the Son of God became one of us and joined us on the journey of life with its joys and sorrows, until he met with a most brutal death. And he continues to journey with us: ‘And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age’ (Mt 28:20). We too need to journey together. Though we have different functions in the Church and different vocations, nonetheless, we are all travelling together. The term ‘synodality’ owes its origin to two Greek words sun (with) and hé hodos (the road/journey): we journey on the one road together. It is a constitutive dimension of the Church and always has been. Synodality is not a new pastoral experiment which gives a platform to the theologically articulate. Who’s Who? The members of the funeral team are as follows: Fiacra Bracken, Bernadette Hegarty, Maeve Kennedy, and Christine O’Neill. They lead the prayers at the reposing in the funeral home the day prior to the funeral Mass. This is a sensitive ministry, and they need our prayers.

Recessional Hymn: Praise to the Lord

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation! O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation! Come, all who hear; now to his temple draw near, join me in glad adoration.	Praise to the Lord, let us offer our gifts at his altar: Let not our sins and transgressions now cause us to falter. Christ, the high priest, bids us all join in his feast, Victims with him on the altar.

Feast of All Saints (Cycle A).

Today's feast of All Saints invites us to celebrate our own folk, to take pride in the saints who have preceded us and who grace our community. To celebrate with pride is not to be triumphalistic; we can admit the horror stories while still being proud of the numberless people who have remained stubbornly open to the Spirit.

We rejoice in the saints we have known and know: their names are legion. We bless the Lord for those who attend to the hungry, the orphans, the aged, the outcasts, the overlooked.

We thank God for those who have out smiled the jibes and taunts of oppressors, for those whose whispered prayers have enriched the holiness of us all. We express our gratitude for those who confront religious pretence, for those who keep on forgiving with an energy that is worthy of God.

For all those people, among us still, we give thanks. And if you feel thanked in the process, don't feel confused. You're lucky to be part of the same crowd.

A MEMORY OF DAYS GONE BY:

An SMA priest who spent many years with us here in Wilton was Fr. Tom Kearney. One of Fr. Tom's great contributions to the parish was to introduce us to aquaponics.

Scan the QR code and Fr. Tom will explain to us the story of the introduction of aquaponics to Wilton Parish. A very interesting story. You will enjoy it!!

Christmas Shoebox Appeal.

The response to our Christmas Shoebox appeal has been very encouraging. When a person has completed their Shoebox, they can return them to the parish. Returned Shoeboxes are sent to children affected by poverty in countries in Africa and Eastern Europe.

The closing date to ensure that boxes will reach their intended locations is Nov 10th so that children can enjoy their gifts for Christmas.

Scan the QR code to view a joyous video on how the Shoebox appeal is helping and bringing hope to children affected by poverty worldwide.

Sacred Space and The Living Faith.

Copies of Sacred Space 2026 for Advent and Christmas are on sale in the Mass Office. €8 a copy. And finally, copies of The Living Faith booklet have arrived. It is available in the Mass Office.

THINK ABOUT IT:

Getting older, growing wiser.

People you love will die. You will mourn them and miss them terribly. But you will not honour them by dying before your time. You are still connected with them in memory and spirit. Let this connection inspire and strengthen you for living.
