Testimonials from Young People who engage in youth activities in our Diocese.

I am a leader in the parish youth group and in the Faith Friends programme. I really enjoy being part of the Church in this way because I am able to understand and deepen my own faith.

It makes me feel part of the Community.

I would like to be a part of their Confirmation journey and beyond

I enjoy helping with the Confirmation kids, because I remember what it is like to make my Confirmation.

I hope that I can encourage the young people to take their faith seriously.

Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse

Friday February 20th 2026 (1st Friday of Lent 2026) - Our annual Holy Hour for Survivors of Abuse was held in the Cathedral Parish in Carlow. Thanks to all who attended and participated in the service.

Candle of Atonement Prayer

Lord, forgive us our many sins.

We grieve and repent with all our hearts for having offended you, for our great failings and neglect of the young and vulnerable.

We place all of those who have been hurt by the Church in any way into your loving hands and under the protection of Our Blessed Mother.

Lord, bring peace to their broken lives and show us all the way out of darkness and into the light of your Word.

May we as the people of God be more fully human, more fully Christ-like and more fully your people, that we may see the errors of the past and go forward with renewed hope and faith in Christ and in our Church.

Amen.

Message from Bishop Denis Nulty

Sunday, February 22, is Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday. It is the first Sunday of Lent and appropriately so, as we enter the Penitential Season and seek forgiveness for past failings. In his address at the January Consistory Pope Leo XIV reminded all that "abuse itself causes a deep wound, which may last a lifetime; but often the scandal in the Church is that the door was closed and victims were not welcomed or accompanied with the closeness of authentic pastors". This year we have intentionally linked the 'Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse' on Friday, February 20 with 'Safeguarding Sunday' two days later.

The National Child Safeguarding Policy for our Church is called 'A Safe and Welcoming Church' and that is what our diocese is and our parishes are, a safe and welcoming Church. The fact that 'Safeguarding Sunday' has become such a regular part of our Diocesan and Parish life, demonstrates how the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults has been so well embedded into every area of the life of our diocese, its 56 parishes and 117 faith communities.

Safeguarding Sunday is once again an opportunity to acknowledge and recognise the years of dedication and work by so many to ensure that Kildare & Leighlin Diocese is a safe place for children and all who work with them. It's an opportunity to thank all who today ensure safeguarding is so well embedded in our diocesan culture, Ailish Higgins, our Director of Safeguarding, currently on maternity leave, Michele Hughes, our Acting Designated Liaison Person, the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee, our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, our priests, our deacons and our people, particularly the many who volunteer at parish level, ensuring the life and vitality of their faith community.

As ever, on my parish visits, I encourage ministry with children and young people, this is an essential part of the mission of the Church. Where altar serving, youth choirs, Sunday School have returned I welcome them warmly; where they haven't for whatever reason, once again I encourage their early return. The life of a parish is often defined by the active engagement of young people in that parish. Safeguarding Sunday is a reassurance to all that being involved in the parish is governed by best practices in safeguarding.

Every blessing & thanks,

+Denis Nulty

Today's Readings

First Reading

A reading from the book of Exodus

The Lord said to Moses, 'Tell the sons of Israel this: '"You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans. '"If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him. '"If you take another's cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity."'

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Response: I love you, Lord, my strength.

Second Reading

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread – and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Open our heart, O Lord, to accept the words of your Son. Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: You must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

Reflection

A Jesuit colleague of mine was working in the inner-city years ago and was asked did he need help. He said something that remained with me – 'don't come into these good people if you feel angry or guilty. The city has enough angry people, and we don't need your guilt. Come among them only if you love them'.

Two loves, One Love

The gospel today centres the message of Jesus on love; on two loves united in each of us. Love God, love the neighbour – this is the only commandment of Jesus. Without this all we say we do for him, is really done for ourselves.

No law of the church can be above the law of love. No detail of religious observance is above this law of love. Jesus said this and lived it in his life. He never allowed the laws of religion overtake the need for love.

Human starvation took precedence over laws of not working on the Sabbath. Care for the sick takes precedence over Sunday worship. He was put to death because he put himself above the religious details of the people.

Love speaks to the deepest in us

We want this sort of religion. We admire the people who really give their lives fully to others: in their family, in the neighbourhood and in the wider world. We know love when we see it in action because it speaks to what is deepest in the human heart.

The message of Jesus is all-embracing and covers all our relationships, both the close relationships of marriage, family and friendship, as well as the call to love the wider world, particularly where the needs are great.

Lord Jesus may your kingdom come and may all in our world know the grace of human and divine love.

Donal Neary SJ.

National Synodal Assembly

Saturday, 17 October, was a momentous and historic day in the life of the Irish Church in which over a dozen delegates from our diocese participated. Locally in our parishes there is much to receive from the prayer, listening and discernment of the past five years. The working document for the assembly is still a valuable document for parishes and a number of accounts and reports from the day can be viewed in the latest news section of www.synod.ie These are important to read alongside the raw figures on each proposal.

Our delegates will gather with Bishop Denis on 3 November to reflect on the assembly and where it is leads us now.

Testimonials from Young People who engage in youth activities in our Diocese.

I am a leader in the parish youth group and in the Faith Friends programme. I really enjoy being part of the Church in this way because I am able to understand and deepen my own faith.

It makes me feel part of the Community.

I would like to be a part of their Confirmation journey and beyond

I enjoy helping with the Confirmation kids, because I remember what it is like to make my Confirmation.

I hope that I can encourage the young people to take their faith seriously.

Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse

Friday February 20th 2026 (1st Friday of Lent 2026) - Our annual Holy Hour for Survivors of Abuse was held in the Cathedral Parish in Carlow. Thanks to all who attended and participated in the service.

Candle of Atonement Prayer

Lord, forgive us our many sins.

We grieve and repent with all our hearts for having offended you, for our great failings and neglect of the young and vulnerable.

We place all of those who have been hurt by the Church in any way into your loving hands and under the protection of Our Blessed Mother.

Lord, bring peace to their broken lives and show us all the way out of darkness and into the light of your Word.

May we as the people of God be more fully human, more fully Christ-like and more fully your people, that we may see the errors of the past and go forward with renewed hope and faith in Christ and in our Church.

Amen.

Message from Bishop Denis Nulty

Sunday, February 22, is Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday. It is the first Sunday of Lent and appropriately so, as we enter the Penitential Season and seek forgiveness for past failings. In his address at the January Consistory Pope Leo XIV reminded all that "abuse itself causes a deep wound, which may last a lifetime; but often the scandal in the Church is that the door was closed and victims were not welcomed or accompanied with the closeness of authentic pastors". This year we have intentionally linked the 'Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse' on Friday, February 20 with 'Safeguarding Sunday' two days later.

The National Child Safeguarding Policy for our Church is called 'A Safe and Welcoming Church' and that is what our diocese is and our parishes are, a safe and welcoming Church. The fact that 'Safeguarding Sunday' has become such a regular part of our Diocesan and Parish life, demonstrates how the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults has been so well embedded into every area of the life of our diocese, its 56 parishes and 117 faith communities.

Safeguarding Sunday is once again an opportunity to acknowledge and recognise the years of dedication and work by so many to ensure that Kildare & Leighlin Diocese is a safe place for children and all who work with them. It's an opportunity to thank all who today ensure safeguarding is so well embedded in our diocesan culture, Ailish Higgins, our Director of Safeguarding, currently on maternity leave, Michele Hughes, our Acting Designated Liaison Person, the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee, our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, our priests, our deacons and our people, particularly the many who volunteer at parish level, ensuring the life and vitality of their faith community.

As ever, on my parish visits, I encourage ministry with children and young people, this is an essential part of the mission of the Church. Where altar serving, youth choirs, Sunday School have returned I welcome them warmly; where they haven't for whatever reason, once again I encourage their early return. The life of a parish is often defined by the active engagement of young people in that parish. Safeguarding Sunday is a reassurance to all that being involved in the parish is governed by best practices in safeguarding.

Every blessing & thanks,

+Denis Nulty

PARISH NEWSLETTER

Twenty Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A - 18th October 2026

The question as to whether or not it was lawful to pay taxes to Caesar was a very serious one, and it really put Jesus in a spot. If he said it was lawful, he would be regarded as a traitor to the Jewish cause and the Jewish religion. If he said it was unlawful, he could be denounced as fomenting rebellion against Rome. Jesus replied: "Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God" (For Caesar we can substitute the Stte). This doesn't mean that there are some things that belong to Caesar and others that belong to God, as if reality were divisible into 'secular' and 'sacred'. It means that an obligation to Caesar stands under and is judged by a paramount obligation: to acknowledge the sovereignity of God.

Jesus was implying that there need not be conflict between the demands of the State and those of God. The State has a role, but its power is limited and does not supplant God. From this principle Christians deduced that they could accommodate loyalty to the State.

As Christians we have dual citizenship. We are citizens of the country in which we happen to be living or in which we were born. To it we owe many benefits. To its forces of law and order we owe the fact that we are able to live in peace and security. To its public services we owe transport, water, light, etc. To its social provisions we have access to education, medical care, and so on.

But as Christians we are also citizens of the kingdom of God. To it we owe certain priviledges, and to it we also have obligations. In most cases the two responsibilities do not clash. But at times they may. And when they do, Christians will spontaneously know which comes first.

As Christians our first and deepest loyalty is to God. To God alone we render worship. In order things we gladly acknowledge and serve the secular powers, praying that they will rule wisely and justly.

Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse

Friday February 20th 2026 (1st Friday of Lent 2026) - Our annual Holy Hour for Survivors of Abuse was held in the Cathedral Parish in Carlow. Thanks to all who attended and participated in the service.

Candle of Atonement Prayer

Lord, forgive us our many sins.

We grieve and repent with all our hearts for having offended you, for our great failings and neglect of the young and vulnerable.

We place all of those who have been hurt by the Church in any way into your loving hands and under the protection of Our Blessed Mother.

Lord, bring peace to their broken lives and show us all the way out of darkness and into the light of your Word.

May we as the people of God be more fully human, more fully Christ-like and more fully your people, that we may see the errors of the past and go forward with renewed hope and faith in Christ and in our Church.

Amen.

Message from Bishop Denis Nulty

Sunday, February 22, is Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday. It is the first Sunday of Lent and appropriately so, as we enter the Penitential Season and seek forgiveness for past failings. In his address at the January Consistory Pope Leo XIV reminded all that "abuse itself causes a deep wound, which may last a lifetime; but often the scandal in the Church is that the door was closed and victims were not welcomed or accompanied with the closeness of authentic pastors". This year we have intentionally linked the 'Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse' on Friday, February 20 with 'Safeguarding Sunday' two days later.

The National Child Safeguarding Policy for our Church is called 'A Safe and Welcoming Church' and that is what our diocese is and our parishes are, a safe and welcoming Church. The fact that 'Safeguarding Sunday' has become such a regular part of our Diocesan and Parish life, demonstrates how the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults has been so well embedded into every area of the life of our diocese, its 56 parishes and 117 faith communities.

Safeguarding Sunday is once again an opportunity to acknowledge and recognise the years of dedication and work by so many to ensure that Kildare & Leighlin Diocese is a safe place for children and all who work with them. It's an opportunity to thank all who today ensure safeguarding is so well embedded in our diocesan culture, Ailish Higgins, our Director of Safeguarding, currently on maternity leave, Michele Hughes, our Acting Designated Liaison Person, the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee, our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, our priests, our deacons and our people, particularly the many who volunteer at parish level, ensuring the life and vitality of their faith community.

As ever, on my parish visits, I encourage ministry with children and young people, this is an essential part of the mission of the Church. Where altar serving, youth choirs, Sunday School have returned I welcome them warmly; where they haven't for whatever reason, once again I encourage their early return. The life of a parish is often defined by the active engagement of young people in that parish. Safeguarding Sunday is a reassurance to all that being involved in the parish is governed by best practices in safeguarding.

Every blessing & thanks,

+Denis Nulty

National Board for Safeguarding Children in the Catholic Church in Ireland – Biannual conference

The NBSCCCI held their biannual conference from 3rd – 5th September 2025 titled: Towards a Restorative and Transitional Justice model of engaging with victims and survivors in the Catholic Church in Ireland.

The event aimed to enhance the understanding we all have of how we must engage in a just and restorative way with those who have suffered harm in the Catholic Church in Ireland.

Our diocesan director of safeguarding and DLP attended the event and shared valuable feedback with our diocesan safeguarding committee. The learning from the conference will help guide our practice going forward.

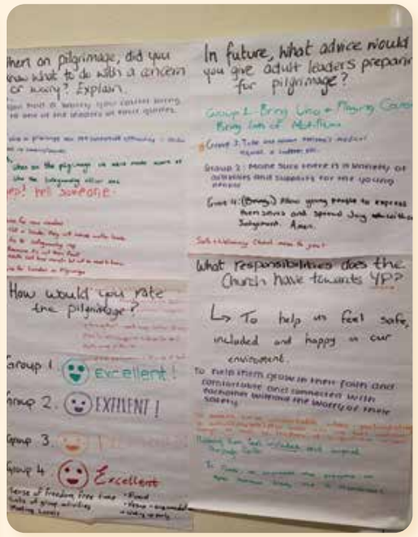

Special thanks to the National Board for organising and hosting the event.

Following the 2024 launch of the Church's Child Safeguarding Policy, Ailish Higgins, our Diocesan Director of Safeguarding met with young people from the diocese to ask them "What does a Safe & Welcoming Church mean to you?"

Thanks to all the children and young people who took part in these sessions and were open and honest about their experience of parish life. Thanks too to their parents, the group leaders and parish priests who supported the facilitation of these groups.

Kindness

It was only a sunny smile
And a little it cost for the giving
But it scattered the night
Like the morning light
It was but a kindly word
A word that was lightly spoken
Yet not in vain, for it chilled the pain
Of a heart that was nearly broken
It was only a helping hand
And it seemed of little availing
But its clasp was warm

One it saved from harm
Brother whose strength was failing

Beyond Life's Struggle Now
How the seasons change,
How certain it is that Summer
Gives way to Autumn,
And the falling of the leaves
And the passing of so many things,
And the tears of ones who grieves.
Yet Winter gives way to spring,
New hope and life after suffering.
Lord, so it is, and as certain too
The promise of new life In you
After life's woes and pains.
For our loves ones gone
No more strains and sufferings now,
Beyond life's struggles there awaits
The joy of your embrace.
Thank you, Lord. Amen.

Testimonials from Young People who engage in youth activities in our Diocese.

I am a leader in the parish youth group and in the Faith Friends programme. I really enjoy being part of the Church in this way because I am able to understand and deepen my own faith.

It makes me feel part of the Community.

I would like to be a part of their Confirmation journey and beyond

I enjoy helping with the Confirmation kids, because I remember what it is like to make my Confirmation.

I hope that I can encourage the young people to take their faith seriously.

Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse

Friday February 20th 2026 (1st Friday of Lent 2026) - Our annual Holy Hour for Survivors of Abuse was held in the Cathedral Parish in Carlow. Thanks to all who attended and participated in the service.

Candle of Atonement Prayer

Lord, forgive us our many sins.

We grieve and repent with all our hearts for having offended you, for our great failings and neglect of the young and vulnerable.

We place all of those who have been hurt by the Church in any way into your loving hands and under the protection of Our Blessed Mother.

Lord, bring peace to their broken lives and show us all the way out of darkness and into the light of your Word.

May we as the people of God be more fully human, more fully Christ-like and more fully your people, that we may see the errors of the past and go forward with renewed hope and faith in Christ and in our Church.

Amen.

Message from Bishop Denis Nulty

Sunday, February 22, is Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday. It is the first Sunday of Lent and appropriately so, as we enter the Penitential Season and seek forgiveness for past failings. In his address at the January Consistory Pope Leo XIV reminded all that "abuse itself causes a deep wound, which may last a lifetime; but often the scandal in the Church is that the door was closed and victims were not welcomed or accompanied with the closeness of authentic pastors". This year we have intentionally linked the 'Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse' on Friday, February 20 with 'Safeguarding Sunday' two days later.

The National Child Safeguarding Policy for our Church is called 'A Safe and Welcoming Church' and that is what our diocese is and our parishes are, a safe and welcoming Church. The fact that 'Safeguarding Sunday' has become such a regular part of our Diocesan and Parish life, demonstrates how the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults has been so well embedded into every area of the life of our diocese, its 56 parishes and 117 faith communities.

Safeguarding Sunday is once again an opportunity to acknowledge and recognise the years of dedication and work by so many to ensure that Kildare & Leighlin Diocese is a safe place for children and all who work with them. It's an opportunity to thank all who today ensure safeguarding is so well embedded in our diocesan culture, Ailish Higgins, our Director of Safeguarding, currently on maternity leave, Michele Hughes, our Acting Designated Liaison Person, the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee, our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, our priests, our deacons and our people, particularly the many who volunteer at parish level, ensuring the life and vitality of their faith community.

As ever, on my parish visits, I encourage ministry with children and young people, this is an essential part of the mission of the Church. Where altar serving, youth choirs, Sunday School have returned I welcome them warmly; where they haven't for whatever reason, once again I encourage their early return. The life of a parish is often defined by the active engagement of young people in that parish. Safeguarding Sunday is a reassurance to all that being involved in the parish is governed by best practices in safeguarding.

Every blessing & thanks,

+Denis Nulty

Hay & Oats Collection

(Annual collection for Priest of the Parish)

We have come to that time of year again for our Hay and Oats collection. First of all, I would like to thank you sincerely for your continued and generous support of our parish. As you may know we have two accounts in our Parish: 1. Parish account; 2. Clergy Account. Thanks to your continued support our Parish account is in relatively good standing. Our Clergy account has understandably bottomed out and we have had to borrow money from our Parish account to keep the Clergy account solvent. All the contributions that come in from the Hay and Oats will be lodged into the Clergy Account. Representatives in your area will drop in an envelope into your house over the next week or two. It would be greatly appreciated if you could place your donation into the envelope and drop it back to your representative or, into the Parish office, or into mass at the weekend. We would be grateful if you could put your correct address and Eircode on the front of the envelope. Once again, a sincere "Thank You" for your continued support. We also appreciate the hard work of our Parish Representatives who voluntarily give of their time to distribute the envelopes and collect them. Stay safe everyone. God bless and thank you. Fr. John O'Brien.

MISSION MONTH

October is Mission Month.

Love – Lord, I want to be your missionary to all the world. May I be a sign of your love for all people and may I show forth the living presence of God.

Sharing – Lord, help me be a missionary wherever I am, make me a better person, more honest with myself, sympathetic to those who suffer and more willing to share with those who are hungry for bread and for God.

Members of the Guild of St. Philip Neri, Portlaoise, visit prisoners in both Portlaoise and Midlands prisons as befrienders/listeners. The Guild is a conference of St. Vincent de Paul Society. To mark "Prisons Week" the guild is now accepting applications from anyone interested in this work. Please contact 086-046245 for further information.

29th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The relationship between religious faith and public life is perplexing. In some societies, even today, there is virtually no difference between the two. In other more secular societies, any expression of religious conviction is unacceptable in public. It is true of course that there is an appropriate distinction and even separation to be made, as indeed Jesus does make today in the Gospel. But on at least two issues, there is bound to be some crossover. Religious faith informs our values and in society today policies and laws must be grounded, not in a particular faith certainly, but in values nevertheless.

God's people strive for justice, peace and salvation. Their only true happiness will be in God; apart from him, all is nothing!

Entrance Antiphon: To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words. Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.

Responsorial Psalm: Give the Lord glory and power.

True love is always shown in deeds, not words!

25TH OCTOBER 2026

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Tear of Hope.

Come as you are, That's how I want you.
Come as you are, Feel quite at home.
Close to my heart, Loved and forgiven.
Come as you are, Why stand alone?
No need to fear, Love sets no limits.
No need to fear, Love never ends.
Don't run away, Shamed and disheartened.
Rest in my love, Trust me again.
I came to calm sinners, Not just the virtuous.
I came to bring peace, Not to condemn.
Each time you fail, to live by my promise.
Why do you think, I'd love you the less?
Come as you are, that's how I love you;
Come as you are, Trust me again.
Nothing can change, The love that I bear you.
All will be well, Just come as you are.

Irish Synodal Pathway www.synod.ie

The Word of God

Our readings this weekend remind us of God's love and compassion. We are asked to live this out each day in our relations with God and with others. In the First Reading God tells Moses to teach the Israelites the kind of care they are to show each other as children of God. In the Gospel Jesus answers the question, 'Which is the greatest commandment?' The answer is, of course, to love God – with our whole being. Love of our neighbour is inextricable from this. This week we might strive to imitate Christ's love for us in the smallest details of our motives and actions with regard to others.

Congratulations - On the last Sunday of October 2025 Deacon Sebastian was ordained for service in our Diocese and our Parish. Today we congratulate him, his wife and family on the 1st anniversary of that special day and thank him for his ministry among us over the last 12 months.

Synodality Synod News Synodality Synod News Synodality Synod News Synodality Synod News

Last Saturday (17th) was a momentous and historic day in the life of the Irish Church in which over a dozen delegates from our diocese participated. Locally in our parishes there is much to receive from the prayer, listening and discernment of the past five years. The working document for the assembly is still a valuable document for parishes and a number of accounts and reports from the day can be viewed in the latest news section of www.synod.ie that are important to read alongside the raw figures on each proposal. Our delegates will gather with Bishop Nulty on 3rd November to reflect on the assembly and where it leads us now.

Short Film – Lives of Mission, Lives of Hope

The Embassy of Ireland to the Holy See is proud to share a short film entitled 'Lives of Mission, Lives of Hope' (30 mins). The film was made by Colm Flynn and specially commissioned by the Embassy with the support of the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade. Through the voices of Sr. Collette Keane O.P., Sr. Julie Buckley SMR, Sr. Pat Murray CJ and Sr. Mary Barron OLA, we hear first-hand about their lives and work – from the early years in Ireland to their vocations to the religious life, and their work both in Ireland and overseas. These women have been, and continue to be, outstanding advocates for Ireland's values in the world - truly global citizens in some of the world's most difficult places. Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

No: 2067 Mt 22:34-40

"I'm not religious, but I pray Pope Leo lives for many more years."

So wrote former BBC Foreign Correspondent, Fergal Keane, in a recent piece in the Sunday Independent. Speaking of Pope Leo he wrote:

"Witness his condemnation of leaders who twist the truth and disregard the law. In his address at Unesco in Paris last month, he said:

> "Instead of respecting the law, those in power invoke it when it serves their interests and disregard it when it restrains them, treating even justice itself as though it were a commodity to be bought and sold."

Because he defends migrants and speaks out against wars of aggression, Leo has attracted the disapproval of such moral luminaries as America's vice-president, JD Vance, a Catholic of a very different colour.
How badly we need a voice like Leo's, a man unafraid of autocrats precisely because he has lived by the principles of justice: as a missionary in Peru he bore witness alongside the poor in years of terrible repression and revolutionary violence.
You don't need to be religious to respect such a man, or to pray that he lives for many more years."

We continue to keep Pope Leo in our prayers that God will grant him the strength to lead our Church and be a messenger of Gospel peace and hope for many years to come.

We were glad to learn last Wednesday that he needs no further treatment.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time Deacon: Rev. Liam Dunne

Matthew 22:34-40 The lens of love

The religious elite continue their attempts to discredit Jesus as he teaches in the Temple; they try to trick him by asking which of the laws of Judaism are the most important. Jesus responds by quoting Deuteronomy 6:5 and Leviticus 19:18: 'love the Lord your God … love your neighbour as yourself'. All other laws 'hang' on these two; they are the lens through which all else is to be interpreted. This Wisdom saying can sometimes be dismissed as sentimentality, but here Jesus is speaking a deep truth. Both commandments are interconnected, 'like' one another, and their foundation is to love God with our entire being, 'heart … soul and … mind'. That means sitting with the truth that God is love and dwells within each person; this is our true self (1Cor 3:16). This brings the question, can we cope with this? Are we able to open our hearts in awareness to this love, to tap into this divine indwelling? Then we can truly love our neighbour as ourselves – not as much as ourselves, but as a complete continuation of our very being. Thomas Keating once said, 'We're all like localised vibrations of the infinite goodness of God's presence. So love is our very nature. Love is our first, middle, and last name.' In Matthew chapter 18, we read what this love of neighbour involves: bringing restoration to the community, solving disputes, forgiving one another … serving others. This is a lifelong task, and we cannot do it alone. Cultivating a deep awareness of the Source of this love that dwells within, in turn allows this love to flow outward. This love invites us to open our hearts fully to the Divine, to reject individualism and embrace a radical solidarity with our fellow human beings and with all creation. The religious leaders dare not ask Jesus any more questions (22:46); they have been 'amazed' (v. 22), 'astounded' (v. 33) and 'silenced' (v. 34).

"How do we put on the mind of Christ? How do we see through his eyes? How do we feel through his heart? How do we learn to respond to the world with that same wholeness and healing heart? That's what Christian orthodoxy is all about. It's not about right belief; it's about right practice. - Cynthia Bourgeault

There are only two commandments:
Love God and love your neighbour.

Hasn't Jesus made it a bit too simple?
Loving God – what a question!
Loving who or what?
Loving what I cannot see,
the cause of all that moves,
the source of all life.

That would be remote, frightening, distant.

Isn't it simpler to say:
what you love in another, you love in God.
When you love another, you love God.

There are only two commandments:
love God and love your neighbour.

Loving your child is loving God;
loving your husband or wife is loving God;
loving a pupil, a friend,
loving one you cannot stand,
this is loving God.

And in the evening of our lives,
we'll remember back
to whom we loved and tried to love,
we will dance with joy for those we loved,
and ask forgiveness of someone,
of God, of others, of life,
for those we hurt.
