† FEAST OF ALL SAINTS

Remembering the Saints, Praying for the Faithful Departed

🕊️ FEAST OF ALL SAINTS — SUNDAY 1ST NOVEMBER

Today, 1st November, is the Feast of All Saints.

On this day, the Church celebrates all the saints: canonised or beatified, and the multitude of those who are in heaven enjoying the beatific vision that are only known to God.

Prayer for All Saints

God our Father, source of all holiness, the work of your hands is manifest in your saints, the beauty of your truth is reflected in their faith.

May we who aspire to have part in their joy be filled with the Spirit that blessed their lives, that having shared their faith on earth we may also know their peace in your kingdom.

Grant this through Christ, our Lord.

🕯️ FEAST OF ALL SOULS — MONDAY 2ND NOVEMBER

Tomorrow, Monday, on the Feast of All Souls, we are encouraged to remember and pray for the faithful departed, those members of our families and dearly beloved who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith.

Indulgences for the Holy Souls

1. Visiting a Church or Oratory

From 12 noon on 1st November until midnight on 2nd November, all who have confessed, received Holy Communion, and prayed for the Pope's intentions (one Our Father and Hail Mary, or any other prayer of one's choice) can gain one plenary indulgence by visiting a church or oratory, and there reciting one Our Father and the Apostles' Creed.

This indulgence is applicable only to the souls of the departed.

- Confession may be made at any time within the week preceding or the week following 1st November.
- Holy Communion may be received on any day from 1st to 8th November.

2. Visiting a Cemetery

The faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a plenary indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls on the usual conditions, once per day from 1st to 8th November.

The conditions mentioned above apply also for this.

🙏 Prayer for All the Deceased

God our Father,

Your power brings us to birth, Your providence guides our lives, and by Your command we return to dust.

Lord, those who die still live in Your presence, their lives change but do not end.

I pray in hope for my family, relatives and friends, and for all the dead known to You alone.

In company with Christ, who died and now lives, may they rejoice in Your kingdom, where all our tears are wiped away.

Unite us together again in one family to sing Your praise forever and ever.

ALL SAINTS DAY AND ALL SOULS DAY – Everyone is invited to be a saint. The Beatitudes Gospel of All Saints Day (1st November) is a portrait of Christ but also a portrait of a saint. The saints are those who are in heaven, already enjoying the Beatific Vision. Those who have died and are on their way to heaven but have not yet entered it are the Holy Souls, whose Feast is the following day (2nd November).

ANNUAL MASS FOR THE DEAD – Thursday 5th November, 7.30pm. During this Mass the names of those buried in the parish in the last twelve months will be read out. One relative of each will be invited to carry forward a candle in honour of the deceased loved one. Please nominate a family member and spread the word about the Mass for the dead.

ALL SOULS – OUR DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Holy Souls and Saints: The Catechism (CCC) teaches that immediately after death comes the Particular Judgement (CCC 1021). The soul has three possible paths: (i) immediate entrance to Heaven (ii) immediate entrance to Purgatory to prepare for Heaven (iii) immediate condemnation to Hell (CCC 1022). Those who are in Purgatory are on their way to Heaven, but they are not ready. These are the Holy Souls. They are perpetual friends of God because they died in the state of grace, but they must spend time in Purgatory to achieve the holiness needed for heaven (CCC 1030). For this purification from sin to take place, the Holy Souls need the prayers of the living (CCC 1032). Prayer, especially the Mass, hastens their entry to heaven. We are making Saints, by getting deceased people across the finish line, so to speak. This is our prayer intention for November. It's our love for the dead.

Indulgences: We can name a specific soul and ask God to grant the person a shortening (partial indulgence) or a complete remission of punishment for sin (plenary indulgence). For the indulgence prayers and conditions, see the leaflets at the church door and on FB.

PARISH DRAW – This Wednesday, 28th October. Please make your subscriptions.

VOCATIONS – For our seminarians, for the men discerning their vocation, and for the future priests of the diocese that, like St Paul in the Second Reading, they can say, 'I have fought the good fight; I have run the race to the end; I have kept the faith.'

THE CHURCH – "Pray more and complain less" (Miranda Scroggins).

STATUE FOR YOUR HOME – Can you take the pilgrim statue of Our Lady into your home for a week? Say the Rosary in your home each day of that week. To request the statue, write your name and a contact detail on the page at the Oratory or contact the Parish Office. The Legion of Mary will arrange to bring the statue to you, or you can collect it after 7:30 Mass on Thursday evenings at the Oratory. As a result, you and your home will receive abundant graces from heaven!

CATECHISM – SEVEN DEADLY SINS – Pride, avarice, envy, wrath (anger), lust, gluttony and sloth (lack of interest in the spiritual). Also called "capital" sins because they generate other sins/vices (CCC 1866). CCC = Catechism of the Catholic Church.

TEMPTATIONS AND HOLINESS – Many people feel that they are terrible sinners because they are tempted, when in fact it in is in these temptations that they exercise heroic virtue and practise real sanctity. Jesus was tempted without consenting (Matthew 4:1-11; Mark 1:12-13; Luke 4:1-13).

BIBLE -- It appears as one book but contains 73 books (46 OT and 27 NT). All its books together reveal God's plan of salvation. The Bible was written over many centuries by many different human authors, inspired by the Holy Spirit.

THROWING OPEN THE DOORS TO CHRIST NOVENA
Our Annual Novena continues this Sunday 1st November at 7pm in St Mary's Church, Cockhill. The ceremony will comprise of the Rosary, a talk given by an invited speaker, the Novena prayer and petitions (which can be placed in a box at the door of the church), a Eucharistic Healing Ceremony and finishing with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Once again, the theme of this year's Novena is "Throwing Open the Doors to Christ" – taken from the homily of Pope St John Paul II at the Opening Mass of his Pontificate on 22 October 1978. The guest speaker will be Chief Superintendent Goretti Sheridan. All are very welcome. Please come along, bring your families and make the most of this opportunity for prayer as we approach the season of Christ's birth.

"NOVEMBER REMEMBER" PASTORAL INITIATIVE
With the grim statistic of there having been 150 people killed on the country's roads so far this year (12 more than the same period last year) – 45 of these people aged under 25 and 30 aged over 65 (of the 29 pedestrians killed, 10 were over 65) – we need to redouble our efforts as road users to do what we can to make our roads safer, especially as we enter the darker and colder months.
To this end, while November is a time when we remember our dead, this year, in an attempt to acknowledge that the life and death of each of us has its influence on others, we would like as many people as possible to take on a pledge to use the roads with care in November. The details of that pledge are to be found on posters and our social media pages. Also, this weekend, people are asked to collect a prayer card for their car to be recited each day during the month and a bottle of holy water to be sprinkled on their car and kept there.
Chief Superintendent Goretti Sheridan will address the Cockhill Novena this Sunday 1 November and launch this initiative. There will be signage placed on the roads entering our two parishes to remind us of this. Please do your best to participate in this and support it.

GUIDED HOLY HOUR

READINGS FOR ALL SAINTS
1st Reading: Apoc 7:2-4, 9-14. The 'Apocalypse' 'The Revelation to John' tells of things hidden in the future. Composed before 90 AD 'the book is an epic of Christian hope, the victory song of the persecuted Church,' an image of the souls already in Heaven. It speaks 'of those who (will) have been through the great persecution, and have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.'
2nd Reading: 1 Jn 3:1-3. To be able to stand before God with confidence and joy, 'to be like him and to see him as he really is', this is what Jesus's coming has enabled us to do. He "lets us be called God's children…" And "Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify themselves, as he is pure."
Gospel: Mt 5:1-12. On a hillside near Capernaum Jesus paints a picture of what being a follower of his will look like. Note: 'the poor in spirit' of the 1st beatitude, 'the anawim', are those who submit to the will of God. God's kingdom is the answer to the prayers of those who long for a better way than that of the world. Having been through "the great persecution", mentioned in the first reading, their "reward will be great in heaven."

All Saints' Day

Today (1st Nov) is the Feast of All Saints. On this day, the Church celebrates all the saints: canonised or beatified, and the multitude of those who are in heaven enjoying the beatific vision that are only known to God.

God our Father, source of all holiness, the work of your hands is manifest in your saints, the beauty of your truth is reflected in their faith. May we who aspire to have part in their joy be filled with the Spirit that blessed their lives, that having shared their faith on earth we may also know their peace in your kingdom. Grant this through Christ, our Lord.

Feast of All Souls Tomorrow (Mon), on the Feast of All Souls, we are encouraged to remember and pray for the faithful departed, those members of our families and dearly beloved who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith.

Masses for All Souls' Day (Monday 2nd November) will be as follows:
Sacred Heart Church, Derry Road: 7.45 am
Immaculate Conception Church, Strabane: 10.00 am
St Patrick's Church, Murlog; 10.00 am
St Mary's Church, Cloughor: 7.00 pm

Indulgences For The Holy Souls 1) From 12 noon on 1st Nov until midnight on 2nd Nov, all who have confessed, received Holy Communion, and prayed for the Pope's intentions (one Our Father and Hail Mary, or any other prayer of one's choice) can gain one plenary indulgence by visiting a church or oratory, and there reciting one Our Father and the Apostles' Creed. This indulgence is applicable only to the souls of the departed. Confession may be made at any time within the week preceding or the week following 1st Nov. Holy Communion may be received on any day from 1st to 8th Nov. 2) faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a plenary indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls on the usual conditions once per day from 1st to 8th November. The conditions mentioned above apply also for this.

Prayer for All the Deceased God our Father, Your power brings us to birth, Your providence guides our lives, and by Your command we return to dust. Lord, those who die still live in Your presence, their lives change but do not end. I pray in hope for my family, relatives and friends, and for all the dead known to You alone. In company with Christ, who died and now lives, may they rejoice in Your kingdom, where all our tears are wiped away. Unite us together again in one family to sing Your praise forever and ever.

Today, the Church rejoices as we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. We honour the countless men and women who now share in the glory of heaven. The saints are living witnesses to the saving grace of our God. Today, we are reminded that the saints inspire and urge us to seek their company in the heavenly kingdom. Through their example, they show us that holiness is possible at every age and in all circumstances. Therefore, we are called to strive towards the blessedness that God has promised to all of us who love Him faithfully. This day reminds us that holiness is not reserved for a few extraordinary individuals; instead, it is a possibility for every soul called to live a life reflecting Christ's love. The feast invites us to meditate on the virtues of the saints and to seek their intercession, strengthening our own journey towards spiritual perfection. The Church sees this day as an affirmation of the communion of saints, a mystical bond that unites all believers across time and space. In celebrating this feast, we remember that our lives are intertwined with the legacy of faith, grace, and moral courage instilled by those who have gone before us.

Steps to Obtain a Plenary Indulgence for Souls in Purgatory – November 1 - 8

1. Pray at a cemetery - It doesn't matter which cemetery, as long as you pray at one. Some suggested prayers are the Prayer of St. Gertrude or the Eternal Rest prayer.
2. Devoutly visit a church or an oratory and recite an Our Father and the Creed."
3. Go to Confession
4. Receive Holy Communion
5. Pray for the Pope

The Church suggests praying one "Our Father" and one "Hail Mary" for the Holy Father.
Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and let the perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR THE DEAD

Lord, be with us in these November days of darkness. In our anxiety and fear help us to remember that death is the dawning of eternal life.
Give to those who have died freedom from pain and bring them to the peace of heaven. In moments of sadness may we experience the closeness of your friendship and may we always know the strength of your presence.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

A Litany of Remembrance

At the rising of the sun and at its going down	We remember them.
At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter	We remember them
At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring	We remember them
At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer	We remember them
At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn	We remember them.
At the beginning of the year and when it ends	We remember them.
When we are weary and in need of strength	We remember them.
When we are lost and sick at heart	We remember them.
When we have joy, we crave to share	We remember them.
When we have decisions that are difficult to make	We remember them.
When we have achievements that are based on theirs,	We remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us
As we remember them

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION ENROLMENT EVENING

Parents/Guardians who would like their child to receive the Sacraments must register with the parish. There will be an Enrolment Evening for First Holy Communion on Tuesday 10th November at 7pm in Sacred Heart Church.
It is essential that parents/guardians attend, along with their child.
Registration Forms must be brought to the Church on the Enrolment Evening.

On the 15th November at 2pm in St Anne's Cathedral, Belfast we will be hosting one of our Saying Goodbye Services and as this is the most local service to you this year we wanted to share this information with you.
So, who is the service for?
Anyone who has either personally lost a baby at any stage of pregnancy, at birth, or in early years, or who has been affected by family members' or friends' loss. Whether the loss was recent or 80 years ago, everyone is welcome to attend. We have also extended the services, and gladly welcome anyone who is grieving the fact that they haven't had children. This may be due to circumstance, infertility, or for other reasons - but all are welcome. Babies and children are also invited to come with their families, as the Saying Goodbye service is truly a family event for all. We know that as 1 in 4 women suffer miscarriage and baby loss, you will have contact with a significant number of people who have either personally suffered baby loss, or who have a partner or family member that has, so we wanted to ask if you would help us in promoting the service.
To read more on the charity, please see the Saying Goodbye website, which you can find at: www.sayinggoodbye.org

His good humour and generosity of time have brought many blessings to many people serving our parish communities. As he begins a new phase of his life as Parish Priest in the West Tyrone Pastoral Area. He and Kobe (the pet dog) will take up residence in Castlederg Parochial House this weekend.

A Warm Welcome to Fr James Devine. We are delighted to extend a very warm welcome to Fr James Devine, who has been appointed to serve in Kilrea & Desertohill, Errigal and Granaghan.

Note from Fr. James - Thank you all for welcoming me to the parishes this weekend. My name is Fr James Devine, and I grew up in the Waterside area of Derry. I was ordained to the priesthood on the 8th December 2013, in St Columba's Church, Long Tower, Derry. I have four siblings: three older brothers and one younger sister.

As a priest, I have served in the parishes of Limavady and Holy Family, Ballymagroarty, with a three-year stint in the USA with the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception between these two appointments. My most recent appointment has been in the parish of Greencastle, Co. Tyrone, where I had three very happy and fruitful years.

I look forward to joining you all in the parishes of Granaghan, Kilrea and Desertoghill, and Errigal, and pray that I can be a faithful priest for you, along with Fr Crowley.

We wish Fr James every blessing as he begins his ministry among us. Let us keep him in our prayers and give him our wholehearted support, not only through our words of welcome, but through our presence, our encouragement and our active participation in the life and mission of the parishes in this area in which he will serve. (2 Mac:12-46), she offers her suffrages for them. These consist, primarily, in

Also, please indicate in the Anniversary book that the Mass is booked for the stated intention - we would appreciate an acknowledgment of the booking by email if possible. In the case of a booked Anniversary Mass please inquire of the sacristan before the Mass begins that the Mass is offered for the intention you request. Names to be added to the weekend anniversary list need to be added to the anniversary book by informing the sacristan - this can be done in advance of the date requested.

Parish Readers/Eucharistic Ministers: If you are unable to attend the schedule allocated to you, it would be much appreciated if you can get a replacement to step in for you. (It may be possible to exchange a rotation with another group member - there is also the opportunity to seek cover via the Whatsapp messaging facility if available to your group). I also ask Readers please to conclude the readings with - 'The Word of the Lord' as directed in the Missalette, and not 'This is the Word of the Lord' as stated in the Lectionary. We have previously discussed this at our reader meetings.

Providing compassionate care at the end of life - To address the sensitive issue of compassionate care at the end of life, and in response to the need to inform the faithful of Catholic teaching on this important life issue that affects so many families, the Bishops of Ireland have published the pastoral letter: Freedom to Live Fully, Until Death Comes. You are invited to read this letter and view the accompanying video Through the Valley, which offers personal testimonies by carers and people with terminal illness. The key message of both letter and video asserts that every person possesses inherent, infinite dignity that remains intact regardless of their circumstances. In this context, bishops strongly oppose the Oireachtas Committee's proposal to Government to legislate for assisted suicide and call on support for healthcare workers who uphold the sanctity of life. To read Freedom to Live Fully, Until Death Comes and to watch Through the Valley, visit the following link: https://www.catholicbishops.ie/2024/06/24/bishops-statement-on-end-of-life-care freedom-to-live-fully-until-death-comes/

With the grim statistic of there having been 150 people killed on the country's roads so far this year (12 more than the same period last year) – 45 of these people aged under 25 and 30 aged over 65 (of the 29 pedestrians killed, 10 were over 65) – we need to redouble our efforts as road users to do what we can to make our roads safer, especially as we enter the darker and colder months.

To this end, while November is a time when we remember our dead, this year, in an attempt to acknowledge that the life and death of each of us has its influence on others, we would like as many people as possible to take on a pledge to use the roads with care in November. The details of that pledge are to be found on posters and our social media pages. Also, this weekend, people are asked to collect a prayer card for their car to be recited each day during the month and a bottle of holy water to be sprinkled on their car and kept there.

Chief Superintendent Goretti Sheridan will address the Cockhill Novena on Sunday 1 November and launch this initiative. There will be signage placed on the roads entering our two parishes to remind us of this. Please do your best to participate in this and support it.

NOVEMBER – A COMMUNION OF LOVE AND HOPE

As November begins, the Church celebrates All Saints and All Souls, reminding us that our relationship with Christ and one another is stronger than death.

On All Saints' Day, we celebrate not only the great saints whose names we know, but countless ordinary people who allowed God's grace to transform their lives. Holiness is not about being perfect or self-sufficient, but about trusting Christ and allowing His love to work through our weakness.

On All Souls' Day, we remember our deceased relatives, friends and parishioners. We pray for them because we believe in the Communion of Saints. Those who die in God's friendship but still require purification are prepared for the fullness of heaven. Our prayers, especially the Holy Mass, express our continuing love for them.

From 1–8 November, the Church offers a plenary indulgence for the Holy Souls in Purgatory. This is the remission of temporal punishment remaining after sins have been forgiven, through the merits of Christ.

To obtain this indulgence, we are invited to:

1. Visit a cemetery and pray for the deceased.
2. Receive the Sacrament of Confession.
3. Receive Holy Communion.
4. Pray for the Pope's intentions.
5. Be sincerely detached from all sin, even venial sin.

The usual conditions also apply to a plenary indulgence available through visiting a church on All Souls' Day and praying the Our Father and Creed.

An indulgence is not something we earn, but a gift of Christ's mercy. It reminds us that we belong to one another in Him.

His endearing personality enabled him to get to know many people in a short period of time. His good humour and generosity of time have brought many blessings to many people serving our parish communities. As he begins a new phase of his life as Parish Priest in the West Tyrone Pastoral Area. He and Kobe (the pet dog) will take up residence in Castlederg Parochial House this weekend.

Fr. Chris brings many gifts to his ministry and, in giving generously of himself to serving the people entrusted to his care, I know that you have enjoyed his support and encouragement of you all. We wish Fr. Chris every blessing and good wishes as he begins his new ministry in West Tyrone - near to his family home in Leckpatrick.

A Warm Welcome to Fr James Devine. We are delighted to extend a very warm welcome to Fr James Devine, who has been appointed to serve in Kilrea & Desertohill, Errigal and Granaghan.

Note from Fr. James - Thank you all for welcoming me to the parishes this weekend. My name is Fr James Devine, and I grew up in the Waterside area of Derry. I was ordained to the priesthood on the 8th December 2013, in St Columba's Church, Long Tower, Derry. I have four siblings: three older brothers and one younger sister.

As a priest, I have served in the parishes of Limavady and Holy Family, Ballymagroarty, with a three-year stint in the USA with the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception between these two appointments. My most recent appointment has been in the parish of Greencastle, Co. Tyrone, where I had three very happy and fruitful years.

I look forward to joining you all in the parishes of Granaghan, Kilrea and Desertoghill, and Errigal, and pray that I can be a faithful priest for you, along with Fr Crowley.

We wish Fr James every blessing as he begins his ministry among us. Let us keep him in our prayers and give him our wholehearted support, not only through our words of welcome, but through our presence, our encouragement and our active participation in the life and mission of the parishes in this area in which he will serve. Fr. Crowley.

'Death is the Gateway to Eternal Life' Death is just another step along life's changing way. No more than just a gateway to a new and better day. And parting from our loved ones is much easier to bear. When we know that they are waiting, for us to join them there. So, death is just a natural thing, like the closing of a door. As we start upon a journey, to a new and distant shore. And none need make this journey, undirected or alone. For God promised us safe passage, to this vast and great unknown. So let your grief be softened and yield not to despair. You, have only placed your loved one, in the loving Father's care.

Jesus said to his disciples and to the crowd: "How happy are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven." The Beatitudes are given to us as the way of life for all Christians and for anyone who wants to live life to the full. To be poor in spirit does not mean that we think that we are no good. At times this is how it is passed on to us. It does mean to be in touch with the wonders of who we are, how good we are, but to know that all of that is gift, not possession. We have so much and yet we either take it for granted or we are only aware of what we don't have. This week is a call to be in touch with our richness and be filled with gratitude and gladness. How important this is for every married couple if they are to live their marriage fully. It is also very important for families to rejoice in each other. And our faith community is so full of the goodness of people and the richness of Christ. To be a saint is to be a person of gratitude.

Father Johnny Doherty, C.Ss.R.

All Saints' Day

Today (1st Nov) is the Feast of All Saints. On this day, the Church celebrates all the saints: canonised or beatified, and the multitude of those who are in heaven enjoying the beatific vision that are only known to God.

God our Father, source of all holiness, the work of your hands is manifest in your saints, the beauty of your truth is reflected in their faith. May we who aspire to have part in their joy be filled with the Spirit that blessed their lives, that having shared their faith on earth we may also know their peace in your kingdom. Grant this through Christ, our Lord.

Feast of All Souls Tomorrow (Mon), on the Feast of All Souls, we are encouraged to remember and pray for the faithful departed, those members of our families and dearly beloved who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith.

Masses for All Souls' Day (Monday 2nd November) will be as follows:
Sacred Heart Church, Derry Road: 7.45 am
Immaculate Conception Church, Strabane: 10.00 am
St Patrick's Church, Murlog; 10.00 am
St Mary's Church, Cloughor: 7.00 pm

Indulgences For The Holy Souls 1) From 12 noon on 1st Nov until midnight on 2nd Nov, all who have confessed, received Holy Communion, and prayed for the Pope's intentions (one Our Father and Hail Mary, or any other prayer of one's choice) can gain one plenary indulgence by visiting a church or oratory, and there reciting one Our Father and the Apostles' Creed. This indulgence is applicable only to the souls of the departed. Confession may be made at any time within the week preceding or the week following 1st Nov. Holy Communion may be received on any day from 1st to 8th Nov. 2) faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a plenary indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls on the usual conditions once per day from 1st to 8th November. The conditions mentioned above apply also for this.

Prayer for All the Deceased God our Father, Your power brings us to birth, Your providence guides our lives, and by Your command we return to dust. Lord, those who die still live in Your presence, their lives change but do not end. I pray in hope for my family, relatives and friends, and for all the dead known to You alone. In company with Christ, who died and now lives, may they rejoice in Your kingdom, where all our tears are wiped away. Unite us together again in one family to sing Your praise forever and ever.

A short reflection on today's Gospel Matthew 5: 1-12

On the Solemnity of All Saints, we hear Jesus proclaim the Beatitudes, showing us the path to true happiness and holiness. In a world that often values success, wealth and recognition, Jesus reminds us that God blesses the humble, the merciful, the peacemakers and those who hunger for justice.

Today, we celebrate not only the great saints whose names we know, but also the countless ordinary people whose quiet lives of faith, love and service reflect the goodness of God. They remind us that holiness is not reserved for a few; it is a calling for every one of us.

The Beatitudes invite us to live our faith in everyday life: to forgive, to care for those in need, to bring peace where there is division, and to remain faithful through difficult times.

As we celebrate All Saints, may their example inspire us to follow Christ more closely, trusting that even our smallest acts of love can lead us along the path to holiness.

Lord Jesus, through the prayers of all the saints, help us to live the Beatitudes each day and become signs of your love in our families, our parish and our community. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood: For the future priests of our diocese, the men who will preach the Good News of the Beatitudes (today's Gospel) - the happiness that comes from persevering in faith, and trusting in the goodness and mercy of Almighty God through the ups and downs of life.

A PRAYER FOR THE DEAD

Lord, be with us in these November days of darkness. In our anxiety and fear help us to remember that death is the dawning of eternal life.
Give to those who have died freedom from pain and bring them to the peace of heaven. In moments of sadness may we experience the closeness of your friendship and may we always know the strength of your presence.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen
