 what is good.
 Praise be to you.*

 they will be encouraged and appreciated for the gifts that they bring to the community*

Thought for the Week

*“The Lord set his love upon you and chose you. (Deut. 7:7)
 God is bound to us, he chose us, not so much because we are faithful, but because the Lord is faithful and endures
 our faithlessness, our indolence's, our lapses....
 We can experience and savour the tenderness of this love at every stage of life: in times of joy and sadness, in times of good health and of frailty and of sickness.”*

13th SEPTEMBER 2026
24th SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

Priest: In our first reading, Sirach teaches us that when we pray for others, our own sins will be forgiven. We offer our prayers, ever mindful of God's mercy for us and for all people.

With Pope Leo, we pray for a just and sustainable management of water, a vital resource, so that everyone may have equal access to it.

Let us pray to the Lord

For world leaders and all in authority, that they may choose paths of peace, dialogue, and mutual forgiveness over power, division and conflict.

Let us pray to the Lord.

For all those who struggle with 'resentment and anger'; may God give them the grace to forgive, the patience to understand one another, and the courage to let go of bitterness.

Let us pray to the Lord

That the gift of creation may be used with care and responsibility. May human beings be true stewards and act for the welfare of all creatures who share our world

Let us pray to the Lord

For the sick who carry a daily cross of pain or helplessness may be granted healing and fresh hope through the hands of those who care for them.

Let us pray to the Lord

For those who have died:

Recently Deceased: Keith Hagan

Month's Mind: John Hughes, Bernadette McManus

All those named in the bulletin.

that the Lord who 'is rich in mercy' may welcome them into the eternal joy of heaven.

Let us pray to the Lord

Priest: Merciful Father, hear our prayers. Help us to forgive as we have been forgiven, and guide us always in the way of love, reconciliation, and peace. We ask this through Christ our Lord Amen.

Could You Help Share the True Spirit of Christmas? Each year, volunteers in parishes across the north of Ireland set up a small stall after Masses to sell Trócaire's Gifts of Change — meaningful gifts that make a real difference to families living in poverty around the world. We provide everything you need including training and support. All we ask is a little time and a big heart. Last Christmas, 50 parishes took part — and we'd love to grow that number even more this year! If you would like to find out more about how you can help, please email Mark at mark.mcmahon@trocaire.org or call 028 9080 8030.
