TWENTY SIXTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

The Two Sons

The parable of the two sons was addressed to the chief priests and elders of the people. Its purpose was to defend Jesus' invitation of sinners and outcasts to the Kingdom, in the face of the sneers of the religious establishment. The parable outraged the religious people.

The first son represents sinners. Like him they originally chose to go their own way but then repented and took God's way, and so gained entry into the Kingdom. The second son represents the chief priests and elders. Like him they promised to work for God but failed to do so, and so have excluded themselves from the Kingdom. The theme of sin and repentance is also dealt with in the First Reading. The parable also echoes a favourite theme of Matthew: the split in the religious person between saying and doing. Hence, its relevance for 'religious people' in every age.

READINGS: First Reading (Ezek 18:25-28). Each of us is responsible for his or her own conduct, and will be judged accordingly. Second Reading (Phil 2:1-5). Self-seeking and rivalry have no place in the Christian community. We must imitate the humility of Christ. Gospel (Mt 2:28-32). Actions speak louder than words.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

PRAYER TO ST THERESE

*O little St. Therese of the Child Jesus, please pick for me a rose from the heavenly gardens and send it to me as a message of love.
O little flower of Jesus,
ask God today to grant the favours
I now place with confidence in your hands.
[mention your request here]
St. Therese, help me to always believe as you did, in God's great love for me,
so that I might imitate your "Little Way"
each day.
Amen.*
