They will speak of their work, mainly in Africa and South America, and their mission to bring Christ's healing love to those most in need. Our parish and our diocese have supported MMM generously in the past, both in finance and in prayer, and MMM wishes to express gratitude for that support and to emphasise that we here at home are the body of mission, and those who are sent to far away places are the hands and the feet.

The Annual Produce Swap is being held from 3pm to 4pm on Sunday 11 October 2026 in the Cranagh Hall. The produce swap is one of three events that have been taking place in the Cranagh Hall over the past few years. It starts with the seed swap in March where people can exchange fruit, vegetable, flower seeds etc. at the start of the growing season. Then the seedling swap in March when people can exchange plants etc. and then finally the produce swap in October where people can swap anything that they have grown or produced such as jams etc. Everyone is welcome.

Booking Masses, Baptisms and Weddings As parish office opening hours have been reduced slightly, we are returning to our previous practice of booking Masses, baptisms and weddings in person, in the sacristy after Masses.

Masses can be booked well in advance to ensure your preferred dates are available.

Baptisms can only be booked by the child's parent or legal guardian. At least one month's notice is required. To book a baptism parents must present the child's long birth certificate, complete the baptism request form, meet with one of our Baptism team and attend weekly Mass during the month prior to the date of the Baptism

Weddings can be booked by the couple themselves. Couples are required to give at least six months' notice of marriage to ensure the preferred date is available and that there is adequate time to complete all Civil and Church paperwork.

Prayer after Communion

Soul of Christ, sanctify me;

Body of Christ, save me;

Blood of Christ, fill me;

Water from the side of Christ, wash me;

Passion of Christ, strengthen me, O Good Jesus hear me

Within your wounds hide me; allow me not to be separated from you;

From the malicious enemy defend me;

At the hour of my death call me;

And bid me come to you, that with your saints I will praise you forever and ever.

Amen

27th SEPTEMBER 2026
26th SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

Priest: St Paul tells us to do nothing for selfish ambition but, in humility, regard others as better than ourselves. In this spirit we present our petitions before God..

For the Church: that all its agencies and institutions will distribute their resources in the service of the Gospel.

Let us pray to the Lord

For all in government, that they may protect the least among us, especially the most vulnerable and those who are marginalised

Let us pray to the Lord.

On this Day of Prayer for Migrants and Refugees, we pray for all who leave their homes in search of work, those fleeing conflict, war, and exploitation. May they contribute to the building of communities where everyone lives in peace and mutual respect.

Let us pray to the Lord

For all who have turned away from God or made choices they regret. May they know the loving mercy of God who 'guides the humble in the right path'.

Let us pray to the Lord

In this month dedicated to the Rosary, we pray for all who turn to Mary in times of joy, sorrow and need. Through Mary's intercession, may we learn to follow her example of trust, humility and love.

Let us pray to the Lord

For those who long for the healing touch of Christ. May they find hope and courage in times of suffering and despair.

Let us pray to the Lord

For those who have died:

Recently Deceased: Dr John O'Kane

1st Anniv: Brian Heffron

All those named in the bulletin.

may they share in the fullness of heavenly light.

Let us pray to the Lord

Priest: Heavenly Father, hear the prayers we bring before you. Give us the grace to turn from sin, follow your Son and live lives of humble service. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,
Each year the Season of Creation invites us to pause, reflect and renew our commitment to caring for God's creation, our common home. This year's theme, "Living Water", inspired by Ezekiel 47:1-12, offers us a powerful image of hope, healing and renewal. In the prophet's vision, water flows forth bringing life wherever it goes, transforming what is barren into places of abundance and growth.

In his Message for the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, Pope Leo XIV reminds us that "environmental justice can no longer be regarded as an abstract concept or a distant goal. It is an urgent need; it is a matter of justice, social, economic and human." This challenge invites us to see care for creation not as an optional concern but as an essential expression of our Christian faith and our love of neighbour.

As the Season of Creation began this year on the 1 of September, Pope Leo Offered another profound invitation. He encouraged us to place our daily lives into "silent mode" for a while, setting aside the constant noise and distractions that surround us, so that we might hear "the melodious voice of creation, through which God, the Author of all things, speaks to us."

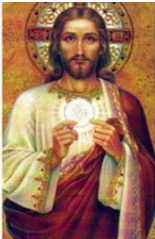

We need moments of stillness in which we can rediscover our place within God creation, hear the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor, and recognise Once more the beauty and harmony that God has entrusted to our care. Pope Leo reminds us that such contemplation is the beginning of an authentic ecological conversion, one that transforms the way we relate to the world around us.

I am particularly struck by the theme of "Hope from Faith and Action" contained within the Season of Creation resources - At a time when many people feel overwhelmed by environmental concerns, we are reminded that Christian hope is rooted in faith expressed through action. As the Season of Creation materials beautifully express it, "Every act to care for creation becomes part of a global stream of hope."

May this Season of Creation deepen our gratitude for the gift of creation, strengthen our commitment to environmental justice, and inspire us to become faithful stewards of the earth entrusted to our care.

With every blessing,
*Alan McGuckian SJ

Parish Draw 2026-27 (Week 21)

Winner £50 Maureen Elwood (Ballinderry upper)

Winner £100 Vernon Barr (Crumlin)

Congratulations to our winners!

Following Christ is a 7-week journey in growing in love of God and one another. When Jesus was calling his first Disciples, he said, 'come and follow me'. We receive this calling ourselves today. God comes toward us calling us to himself to be Disciples of Christ. It takes an effort on our part to respond to that call. Will you strive to live the Christian life that Jesus calls you to and make the effort to attend the Following Christ course? It is a course that will help you to understand what it means to be a Disciple of Christ offering practical ways in which to live out your Catholic faith through learning to pray, read scripture, engage in the sacraments and more. The course runs each Monday until 19 October, 7 – 9pm in Mater Dei Pastoral centre. The topics covered are; Personal Prayer, Hearing God in Scripture, The Power of the Sacraments, Forgiving One Another, The Spirit-Empowered Life, The Heart of a Disciple and Going on with the Lord. www.christlife.org

OUR LADY'S ROSARY FESTIVAL will take place from 12-18 October 26. Join us for a week of events to honour Our Blessed Lady, ending with the annual Belfast Rosary Procession. The procession will leave St Malachy's Church, Belfast City Centre, at 2.30pm on Sunday 18 October, and finish at St Peter's Cathedral. A full list of events can be found on the poster at the back of the Church and online at belfastrosaryfestival.com

Liturgical 'Sign of Peace' The Sign of Peace remains an integral part of the celebration of the Eucharist and has been reintroduced as a normal practice across the Diocese. The customary expression of the Sign of Peace in Ireland is a handshake. However, other non-contact forms of the sign of peace such as a nod, a bow or a smile are also legitimate expressions of the Sign of Peace. No offence should be taken if someone prefers to express a non-contact Sign of Peace. The Diocese encourages all to continue to exercise good hygienic practices, and if you exhibit flu-like symptoms, you are encouraged to remain at home.

Church Webcam The church webcam for live stream of Masses can be accessed via the Parish Website www.glenavyandkilleadparish.com Go to the top line and click on webcams and pick either Mater Dei or Glenavy. It can also be accessed at www.churchmedia.tv. Select Antrim & search for St Joseph's, Glenavy or Mater Dei, Crumlin and the churches will appear. Click on the play button to view live stream. The webcams enable us to attend Mass, however they do not allow us to receive the Eucharist, The Body of Christ. When possible, we should attend Mass in the Church whenever our circumstances permit in order to receive Holy Communion.

Making your offering to the church Parishioners are encouraged to make donations to the parish either by using the parish envelopes or by means of bank transfer. It is of great benefit to the parish when we can record donations so that gift aid can be claimed, if applicable. If you would like to donate using envelopes and don't already do so, please contact the parish office. Alternatively, if you are able, you are encouraged to make a monthly offering to the Church by means of a Bank Transfer to: Parish of Glenavy and Killead Sort Code 98 04 60, Account 10654677. The relevant forms are available at the back of the Churches. Both forms need to be completed with one sent to your Bank and the other to the parish office. If you have any queries, please contact the Parish Support Officer in confidence. Please note that there is a separate account number for the Parish Draw and this should not be used when making a weekly donation.

27TH SEPTEMBER 2026

Readings: A (II) Psalter: Week II

Living Water
Season of Creation 2026

Immersion in Living Water
EZEKIEL 47:9, 12

“Through the greatness and the beauty of creatures one comes to know by analogy their maker (Wis 13:5); indeed, ‘his eternal power and divinity have been made known through his works since the creation of the world’ (Rom 1:20). For this reason, Saint Francis asked that part of the friary garden always be left untouched, so that wild flow-ers and herbs could grow there....Rather than a problem to be solved, the world is a joyful mystery to be contemplated with gladness and praise.”

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE:

We have excellent and dedicated volunteers in the parish who ensure the parish functions as it does.

There is a wealth of talent interests and abilities within the parishes of Kilmore and Killyleagh. Would you be able and willing to share them with us?

Why not come forward and volunteer, offer suggestions, lead...?

The Parishes would welcome younger members to get more involved in parish life/How about it? You can make a difference!!

Children in Crossfire:

Will be speaking at Masses over the weekend of Saturday 10th October and Sunday 11th October 2026. This year, Children in Crossfire are celebrating their 30th anniversary of providing education, healthcare, nutrition and safe, clean water to some of the world's most vulnerable children. FEAST OF THE GUARDIAN ANGELS

Each year on 2nd October, the Church celebrates the Feast of the Guardian Angels, a reminder of God's tender care for His children. The Feast of the Guardian Angels is an invitation to gratitude. God's love is so particular, so personal, that He assigns an angel to walk with each of us through life's trials and joys. In this we see His fatherly care: we are never abandoned, even when we feel isolated or weak.

"Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here, ever this day be at my side, to light and guard, to rule and guide. Amen."

From the head to the heart - a journey through Luke's Gospel

How well do you know the stories of Jesus? This autumn, the Parish of Ardkeen is offering a unique 8-week introduction to the Gospel of Luke. Together, we will trace the narrative backwards—from the joy of the empty tomb, through the life and ministry of Jesus, to the stable in Bethlehem as Advent begins. This course will give you the historical context to understand the text, insights to love the stories, and the spiritual tools to turn scripture reading into deep personal prayer. No prior Bible study experience needed! The course begins on Sunday, 11th October, 7.45-8.45 pm (after the 7 pm Solemn Rosary) in the Nunsquarter Room, St Mary Star of the Sea.

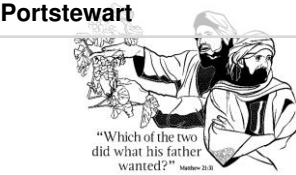

Notices for the parish bulletin need to be with the parish office by Wednesday 12noon.

Anniversary notices can be left in the anniversary boxes in either church, (Boxes beside the candle shrines), sent by email, or rang into the office.

Our Lady's Rosary Festival will take place from 12th to 18th October 2026. Join us for a week of events to honour Our Blessed Lady, ending with the annual Belfast Rosary Procession. The Medical Missionaries of Mary will be with us here at St Brigid's Parish on the weekend of 3rd and 4th October 2026. They will speak of their work, mainly in Africa and South America, and their mission to bring Christ's healing love to those most in need. Our parish and our diocese have supported MMM generously in the past, both in finance and in prayer, and MMM wishes to express gratitude for that support and to emphasise that we here at home are the body of mission, and those who are sent to far away places are the hands and the feet.

Dear Parishioners

Whilst reluctant to make new changes in my first year as Parish Priest, it has been suggested that in order to accommodate the possibility of Saturday morning funerals as well as accommodating weddings prior to 1.30/2.00pm that we should move the 12noon Mass on Saturday to 9.30am. (Cemetery's in the city close at 11.00am.) This would also provide the opportunity to have Baptism celebrated on a Saturday as well as a Sunday.

Baptisms on the 1st Sunday of the month at 1.30pm and the 3rd Saturday of the month at 11.00am.

This would entail moving Saturday morning confessions to 10.00am.

I would welcome hearing your views.

Fr Michael

- Select one day and turn off all non- essential lights

Start the conversation with family and friends – what can we do to care for our common home? Involve young people in our conversations – their voice matters - they will inherit the planet that we create.

Sunday Message

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE WORD

Year A • 27 September 2026 • Colour: Green • Psalter Week 2

HUMBLE OF HEART

PHIL 2:1-11

In today's second reading, St Paul offers advice to the church in Philippi on the importance of humility. It would make him completely happy, he tells them, if there were no competition or conceit among them, if they put others' interests before their own. They must be united in love, with a common purpose and a common mind.

To illustrate his point, Paul then includes a poem or hymn about the humility of Jesus: how he emptied himself to become human and humbled himself further still by accepting death on a cross. But God had raised Jesus up and given him a name above all other names.

Jesus is our model of humility. The only ambition the Christian must have is to love and serve others. ■

DO

Holiness is reacting with meekness and humility, Pope Francis said. Do you think people see you as humble?

SAY

"Lord, open my eyes and heart to see and serve you in my sisters and brothers. Amen."

PRAY

This is World Day of Migrants and Refugees. Pray for migrants and refugees, that they will be treated with respect as children of God.

LEARN

The proof of our faith is in our living of it

The Christian is called to a life of love and service

It's never too late to say "yes" to God

REFLECT

The 17-year-old was working with a gang building a road in the Texas hill country in the 1920s. The road was being built by hand, and the tall, gangly teenager was pushing a scoop, a plough-like instrument with a sharpened front edge, that was pulled by four mules. It was back-breaking work, difficult even for older, stronger men. At lunch break each day, as they sat eating, the teenager would talk big to the older men. "He wanted to do something big with his life," one of his workmates recalled. "And he was quite specific about what he wanted to do: 'I'm going to be president of the United States one day,'" he boasted.

They laughed at him, this poor boy from nowhere. It's the sort of idle claim many people make, except this youth was deadly serious. And he began to work towards realising that dream - first as a school teacher, then a congressional aide, then a congressman, then a senator, then U.S. vice-president, and finally, on 22 November 1963, president. Lyndon B. Johnson's lifelong ambition was fulfilled, albeit in the most tragic of circumstances. His life is a study in ambition: how to set a goal, a target, and never let go until it comes true.

Ambition takes many forms. It can be political, like LBJ. Or to be rich or famous, or to succeed in business or sport.

But what does ambition mean for the follower of Jesus? Christian ambition is the opposite of worldly ambition. It turns our usual understanding of ambition on its head. It is about being least, being last, being a servant, being little, being humble.

Jesus was big into humility. He chose the sick over the healthy, the weak over the powerful, the poor over the rich. He didn't select scholars and big shots as his apostles but fishermen and ordinary types. He practised humility. He washed feet, mixed with outcasts and died with criminals. "I have given you an example," he said, "that you also must follow."

What does it mean for us to be humble?

First, to be humble is to be self-aware. It is to know we are not perfect, that we are pilgrims on the journey. No matter how hard we try, we come up short. Despite our best efforts, we sin all the time. It's the one thing we all have in common. Humility is being aware of our unworthiness, our shadow side. It means being without ego or conceit. How can we look down on another when we know we're not perfect ourselves?

We acknowledge our humility before Holy Communion when we say, "Lord, I am not worthy that you should come under my roof..." I don't deserve you.

Second, to be humble is to be selfless. It demands that we set aside our selfish obsessions, ambitions, and desires and give ourselves to the other. Humility washes feet and loves without exception. Think of the last judgment scene in Matthew 25. On what basis will God separate the saved from the lost? I was hungry, and you gave me food; thirsty, and you gave me drink; a stranger, and you made me welcome, naked, and you clothed me; sick or in prison, and you came to see me. Humility is selflessness writ large.

Third, to be humble is to be prayerful. Archbishop Fulton Sheen said that "Only the humble can pray, for prayer presumes we need someone and something." Prayer presumes humility. When we ask God for something, or thank God for something, we are admitting our need for God, that on our own we can do nothing. And so we turn to God in our need, our gratitude, our joy, our heartbreak. We place ourselves before the God who gives us life. That's what we do every time we pray. Humility is at the heart of the Christian life. ■

The Lord is immolated in an unbloody way in the Sacrifice of the Mass and he re-presents the sacrifice of the Cross and applies its salvific power at the moment when he becomes sacramentally present – through the words of consecration – as the spiritual food of the faithful, under the appearances of bread and wine.

St Oliver Plunkett Parish Mission

Monday 12th October - Sunday 18th October

Each day there will be prayer events planned to conclude with a Mission Mass at 7pm with an invited Guest Speaker. Our plan is to Celebrate Morning Prayer of the Church before the 10am Mass and after, to pray the Rosary.

Each afternoon we will celebrate Adoration between 2-4pm with the first hour guided by NET. At 3pm in the parish hall a Prayer Session will be led by the NET team.

At 6:30pm each night, before the 7pm mission mass we will celebrate Evening Prayer of the Church with a different speaker each evening.

One of the challenges we have is that the team from NET Ministries would need some 'Host Homes'. Basically, we would need some families to provide space for the missionaries to sleep. They will bring their own sleeping bags/air beds and only need a floor to crash on. They need to stay in pairs and can only share rooms with other members of their team. Their meals will be provided for by the parish and served in the parish.

If you can host, we would be very grateful. Please let me know as soon as possible. Thank you.

Pope Leo's Intention for September For the care of water. Let us pray for a just and sustainable management of water, a vital resource, so that everyone may have equal access to it

This Sunday's Gospel teaches us that saying the right things is not enough. What really counts is doing what is right.

In one Gospel reading, Jesus tells a story of two sons. One says no to his father but later does the work. The other says yes but does nothing. Jesus shows that doing God's will matters more than just saying yes.

In another year, we hear about rich people who ignore the poor. God warns that those who live only for themselves will lose everything. These readings ask us to care for others and not just live in comfort. They remind us that God notices how we treat people in need.

The Gospel also calls for change. Even those who once turned away from God can still come back. God is patient and wants us to live with love and justice. What we do each day shows where our heart really is. This Sunday helps us look at our choices. Are we doing what we say we believe? Do our actions match our faith? Do we care for others or just talk about it? These readings call each of us to change if needed. No one is too far from God. It is never too late to start doing what is right.

TWENTY SIXTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

The Two Sons

The parable of the two sons was addressed to the chief priests and elders of the people. Its purpose was to defend Jesus' invitation of sinners and outcasts to the Kingdom, in the face of the sneers of the religious establishment. The parable outraged the religious people.

The first son represents sinners. Like him they originally chose to go their own way but then repented and took God's way, and so gained entry into the Kingdom. The second son represents the chief priests and elders. Like him they promised to work for God but failed to do so, and so have excluded themselves from the Kingdom. The theme of sin and repentance is also dealt with in the First Reading. The parable also echoes a favourite theme of Matthew: the split in the religious person between saying and doing. Hence, its relevance for 'religious people' in every age.

READINGS: First Reading (Ezek 18:25-28). Each of us is responsible for his or her own conduct, and will be judged accordingly. Second Reading (Phil 2:1-5). Self-seeking and rivalry have no place in the Christian community. We must imitate the humility of Christ. Gospel (Mt 2:28-32). Actions speak louder than words.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

PRAYER TO ST THERESE

*O little St. Therese of the Child Jesus, please pick for me a rose from the heavenly gardens and send it to me as a message of love.
O little flower of Jesus,
ask God today to grant the favours
I now place with confidence in your hands.
[mention your request here]
St. Therese, help me to always believe as you did, in God's great love for me, so that I might imitate your "Little Way"
each day.
Amen.*

27 September 2026, Twenty Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time, Year A .

Sunday Gospel Discipleship is about action, the action of prayer or the action of charity. People convince themselves that they are disciples of Jesus, even though they don't have that action of faith in their lives. Faith is challenging, sometimes we have to recognise that we are being called to stillness and peace, other times we are called to serve others by the work that we do. The response we are called to make is to say yes, not to our own wills or wants, but to the will of the Father who always wants and desires what is good for us and for others. We pray today for the wisdom to know when we should be still and to know when we should act. (Fr S Crumpton).
