The Parish Office is closed until Monday November 2.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Poor Jude must be worn out in heaven. As the patron saint of hopeless cases, his help is sought by countless people. Why has Jude been given the care of difficult situations?
Some think it may be because of confusion between his name and that of Judas Iscariot, the traitor. As a result, people may have thought there was no point in praying to him: it was hopeless. All we know is that Jude was an apostle and martyr, honoured with St Simon each year on 28 October.

Point to Ponder:*
The Catholic faith is built on belonging to a shared family of faith rather than walking alone.

Update from Victoria

I had a text message recently from Fr Dean in Victoria, to tell me that he was exhausted. Apparently some initiatives in the cathedral parish (where I spent my sabbatical) succeeded beyond the staff's wildest dreams.
In September, they had a volunteers' fair, to get more helpers on board. Cards were left out one week, then the next Sunday's homily encouraged people to sign up. As a result, 75 people volunteered. These had to be vetted and steered to ministries that matched their talents. As a result, the cathedral now has five volunteer gardeners, extra flower arrangers, and numerous stewards and ushers. There's a lot of work in organising these.
Last Easter Vigil, 15 adults were baptised. But 21 have signed up for baptism in 2027, and 19 adults seek Confirmation. All 40 meet each week and learn about the Catholc faith. More work for Fr Dean: even reporting this sounds exhausting.
Fr Dean also reported that the youngest of his five sons has mental health issues that have brought him to hospital and caused Fr Dean and his wife Linda endless worry. If you have a spare prayer, please remember them, and their son, as will I.
Fr Bernard

Thirtieth Sunday In Ordinary Time

The Pharisees fault was not gratitude for doing good hut contempt for those less successful, a lack of humility before the grace of God. Paul too could 'boast' and give thanks that he had kept the faith, but he recognised that this had not been simply his own doing but because 'the Lord stood by me.' We too should thank God for any good we have been able to do. It is with his help that we do it, and it gives us no grounds for complacency or a sense of superiority.

The Family of Parishes of: Ballincollig | Ballinora | Kilmurry | Ovens and Farran

'Love One Another As I Have Loved You'

The Scripture Readings today challenge us to reflect on our response to God's commandment of love.
In the first Reading we hear of the loving relationship the people of Israel were expected to have towards the under privileged and vulnerable. Widows and orphans; people forced to leave their Countries due to circumstances such as wars, plagues or famines; as well as the poor who had to borrow to survive. The Israelite people had been treated compassionately by a God of love in their times of vulnerability and now were to treat others as they themselves were treated.

In the second reading, St Paul praises the Thessalonians for remaining faithful to the Gospel in spite of obstacles. The life that they lived by the power of the Holy Spirit enabled them to spread their loving faith in God to surrounding places; becoming a model for others by the witness of their lives. We too are called to do the same. May we witness to others the joy of the Gospel both in word and deed.

In the Gospel, the Pharisees put a question to Jesus asking 'which is the greatest commandment of the law'. In response, Jesus says 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment. And the second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself'. To love God with our whole being means having God as the centre of our life. If God is at the centre of our lives then loving our neighbour ought to flow from that. It sounds simple but it is very challenging! I'm sure we all face situations where we find it difficult to love our neighbour as ourselves - our neighbour may be someone we work with, live with - yet Jesus also created that person out of love and Jesus died for that person. The love we know God has for ourselves is also the love God has for the person beside me, for the people I may not particularly like, and the people who may not particularly like me. If we really think about God loving everyone as much as he loves us, we'd see everyone in a new way! Everyone is special to God.

Last weekend was a Phenomenal one for Ballincollig wining below Illustrated Treble of events

Ballincollig RFC J2 Team Won The Muskerry Cup

At the Communities in Bloom International Challenge Showcase Awards in Quebec, Canada, Ballincollig Tidy Towns won the Best International Town in its medium towns category, and we also won the Outstanding Achievement Award for International Plant and Floral Displays.

Formation in Faith for Young Adults

The Diocese of Cork and Ross, in collaboration with UCC Chaplaincy and the Presentation Brothers LEAF Project, is delighted to offer a Formation in Faith programme for young adults (18–35 years). The programme begins on Wednesday, 30 September 2026, and will run for 9 weeks, from 5.45–8.00pm in Mardyke House, Cork (T12 W8RP).
Participants can choose between two concurrent pathways:

a) Sycamore Formation Series: A video-based programme with guided group discussion on Catholic formation.
b) Foundations in Theology: A lecture-based introduction to Catholic theology.
c) Each session begins with food and refreshments, and provide participants with an opportunity to engage in meaningful discussion.

To sign-up or for more information, email Sheila at youthministry@corkandross.org

The Irish Cancer Society

The society is seeking compassionate volunteer drivers to join our pool of drivers. As a volunteer driver you would be bringing patients undergoing chemotherapy to the hospital and back home for their treatment. Gifting your time means that cancer patients will have comfortable (one on one) transport to attend appointments for their lifesaving treatment. If you can spare 2 days per month, have a valid driving licence, and a safe, reliable vehicle, you are the perfect candidate to make a significant difference. The Irish Cancer Society will provide you with training before you start as a driver for us. Your generosity not only eases the journey for many during a challenging time but also offers comfort and support when it's needed most. For more information and to become a volunteer driver, please contact Monica or Emily at volunteer@irishcancer.ie

Bus from Togher Church, to book contact John Joe on 087 1302763.

First Reading: Exodus 22:20-28
God calls for sensitivity for the needs of others. A social morality is demanded. It singles out those for whom God has a special love, as should God's chosen people; a love for the stranger, widow, orphan, poor. Often these do not enjoy full civil rights and are victims of oppression and exploitation. Members of a truly just society must be compassionate and provide for its weakest members.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:5-10
Paul is fulsome in his praise for the Christian community of the Thessalonians. He had come to them with the Good News. With the power of the Spirit and in spite of much suffering they received his teaching with open minds and generous hearts. Their way of life radically changed. They were now an example of the life of love to other Christian communities.

Gospel: Matthew 22:34-40
Trying to trick Jesus into saying something contrary to Moses, the Pharisees asked Jesus which was the greatest commandment. Jesus responded by saying that we are to love God with all our heart, our soul, and mind. Secondly, we are to love our neighbour as our self.

TRÓCAIRE

Annual Trócaire Remembrance Mass

November is the Month of the Holy Souls and a precious time to remember those no longer with us. It is always a deeply poignant time of year, but especially this year as millions of people around the world cope with the devastating impact of conflict, climate change and hunger.

Each November, Trócaire holds a Remembrance Mass in Maynooth and in Belfast for our deceased supporters and friends. It is an opportunity to remember those who are part of the Trócaire family, and who are no longer with us today.

We invite you to join us in person or online:

Belfast:

1pm, Wednesday 11th November

Ballincollig & Carrigrohane Castles

Who built these castles? What was it like to live in them? What were Ballincollig and Carrigrohane like in medieval times? These and other questions will be answered by Paul MacCotter in his illustrated lecture on Ballincollig and Carrigrohane Castles, organised by Muskerry Local History Society. The lecture will be held in Ballincollig Rugby Club P31 DA38 on Mon, 2nd Nov. at 7.00 pm.

Reflection for Parents

Our children see us live out this gospel message in the every-day things we do for other people. How often do they quietly notice us help an elderly relative, take food to a sick neighbour, or visit someone in a nursing home. We don't really have to preach this gospel message to our children, but sometimes just inviting them along is witness enough to shape their lives.

Mary O'H submits.....

As we gather and pray in our Cemeteries

This Saturday October 24th as we gather for prayers in two of the cemeteries of our parish, we reflect on the following:-

Lord, we come here today-to revere the memory of those whom you have called from this life, we come to the place where their remains were returned to the earth
in the way of all flesh;
earth to earth and dust to dust.

Here is where they were entrusted-into your hands, into your love.
Here is where they were given the final farewell, and prayers for a safe journey into your keeping.

Here is where we especially ask you-to bestow on them the joy of your peace, so that together with you
in your eternal home,
where this world of dust and ashes
and the fragility of this life
no longer hold sway,
they will find eternal rest. Amen.
(Christy Kenneally)

Everyone is most welcome and we even have a cuppa and chat afterwards as well!

'Real generosity is doing something nice for someone who will never find out.'

How do you describe a generous person? One explanation is someone who is warm-hearted and who delights in ensuring the happiness and welfare of others. In Irish there is one single word that sums it all up and it's to be flaithiúlacht. There are many examples where God is generous or flaithiúlacht. In the wedding of Cana, Jesus asks that the jars be filled with water but goes a step further by saying, 'fill them to the brim.' In another story a vast number of fish are caught by disciples who had given up on catching any. The fish are so many that the nets begin to tear, and extra boats are called to help. God is lavish, generous and flaithiúlacht. When we think we least deserve God's generosity is the moment when God is most generous.

Families

- Ninety children from four schools enrolled for the Sacraments of First Confession and First Holy Communion last weekend. There was a great attendance at the Vigil Mass for this and we look forward to the other Do This in Memory Masses both before and after Christmas in preparation for the Sacraments. The beauty of this is that ninety families were also in attendance as well as many grandparents. This brings life to our parish for which we are all grateful. The enrolment ceremony for the Confirmation candidates has been arranged for Saturday 21st November at 6pm Mass. Again, we look forward to all their families attending as well. There will be at least one more Mass for the Confirmation candidates in the new year to ensure that preparation is part of parish life along with their families and schools. May God bless all the children, young people, their families, schools and our parish. - Fr. Michael

A brief introduction on Sunday's readings

• First Reading (Exodus 22:20–26):
God commands the Israelites not to wrong or oppress aliens, widows, orphans, or the poor. He warns that He hears their cries and will act with compassion and justice toward the helpless. Explore further study resources via Catholic Productions.
• Second Reading (1 Thessalonians 1:5c–10):
St. Paul praises the Thessalonians for turning away from idols to serve the living God and for living out the faith with joy through the Holy Spirit, becoming an example to believers everywhere.
• Gospel (Matthew 22:34–40):
When tested by a Pharisee about the greatest commandment, Jesus summarizes the entire Law and Prophets into two inseparable pillars: love God with all your heart, soul, and mind, and love your neighbor as yourself.

Reflections

1. You may feel some sympathy with the Jews struggling to cope with 613 laws and wondering which were the important ones. But have you ever felt overwhelmed by the rules and regulations of your own tradition? And have you ever been blessed by meeting someone, or reading something, that was able to cut through all the layers and point out to you what is essential in life? Who was that person? What did s/he say or do? Is there some phrase or text that encapsulates such wisdom for you?
2. If you were asked what is most im- portant in life, what would your answer be? Recall the experiences and relationships you have had. Which are the ones that you treasure most? What has particularly enriched your life? How would you encourage another person who asked you how s/he could live a full life?

PRAYER
Your love, O God is boundless. We who were strangers have been made your children. We who were defenceless have been brought into your household. Keep us mindful of your deeds of mercy, that we may love you with all our heart and love our neighbour as ourselves.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

Unfolding the Word: What Mark's Gospel says about discipleship.
An Invitation to our family of Parishes
Why not join us on Thursdays 5th 12th 19th and 26th November in the Parish room in Holy Cross Church, Mahon from 7.30 pm to 9.00 pm.
An opportunity to come together and spend some time reading and discussing the Scriptures, followed by prayer.
Everyone is most welcome and we even have a cuppa and chat afterwards as well!

October Choirs' Concert: Raised €7130.00. Thank you! A special thank you to all the choirs who participated. We thank friend PJ Coogan (96FM) who acted as MC on the night. We thank Msgr Gearoid Dullea and the Parish Council for allowing us to have our concert in Our Lady of Lourdes' Church, Ballinlough and to Ruth and Helen for organising it.

FIRST FRIDAY EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT
Rosary and Benediction will commence at 4pm. each First Friday. There are time sheets on the tables in the Church where Parishioners can indicate the times most suitable for them to attend. We would like, if possible, if there could be 2 people present for each period. If there are vacant periods we would appreciate volunteers to fill these times by putting their names on the list. THANK YOU FOR YOUR CO-OPERATION.

Mass Cards are available in the sacristy after every mass both at weekend and weekdays.

Sunday Cuppa continues in the Parish Centre after 11 am mass on 1st November for tea, bikkies and more chat!
Cheaper than the village - it's free!
Everyone welcome - Ah go on!

Thought for the day

Jesus does not pluck his summary teaching from the air— he quotes from the Shema Yisrael, the great daily prayer of Judaism found in Deuteronomy 6. The second part about the love of neighbour is taken from Leviticus 18. This mission statement stands as a resounding appeal to us today. We are asked not just to believe that there is a God, but to love God. We are asked not just to respect our neighbour, but to love our neighbour. Love is not only the truth about human beings but also the truth about God, who is love itself.

Prayer
Great and loving God, your love for us is beyond what we can grasp with our minds and hearts. Let such great love for all awaken in us a true love of you and lead to authentic service of our neighbour.
Kieran O'Mahony OSA

ENTRANCE –
Hail Queen of Heaven

Hail, Queen of heav'n, the ocean Star:
Guide of the wand'rer here below,
Thrown on life's surge, we claim thy care;
Save us from peril and from woe.
Mother of Christ, Star of the Sea,
Pray for the wand'rer, pray for me.

O gentle, chaste, and spotless Maid,
We sinners make our prayers through thee;
Remind thy Son that He has paid
The price of our iniquity.
Virgin most pure, Star of the sea,
Pray for the sinner, pray for me.

RECESSIONAL -
How Great Thou Art

Oh Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the worlds Thy hands have made
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder, thy power throughout the universe displayed.

CHORUS: Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee:
How great Thou art, how great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee:
How great Thou art, how great Thou art.

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart;
Then I shall bow, in humble adoration,
And then proclaim, my God, how great Thou art.

🌍 Synodal Pathway: Conversation in the Spirit: The synod has been an authentic spiritual experience - indeed, it would be more accurate to describe it as an experience "in the Spirit". The category of an experience in the Spirit now invites us to adopt it as a key for interpreting the ecclesial processes presently underway. One of the most significant features accompanying the synodal experience of these years has been the choice of "conversation in the Spirit" as its method. The effort required of everyone - indeed, of everyone - to arrive at a new awareness capable of grasping the substantial difference between spiritual conversation (as a thematic exercise) and conversation in the Spirit(that is, entering into the self-giving and self - communication of the Risen Lord among us through the work of the Spirit) has itself become a testimony to the cry of faith dwelling in "Ecclesiae in Synodo perficienda" ("the Church finding its fulfillment in the synod"). We desire to encounter the Risen Lord; we desire to experience and live concretely our identity as disciples.
Beyond the method itself, what struck so many participants was the discovery that ecclesial discernment consists not primarily in the exchange of opinions or confrontation of ideas, but in a shared search for what the Spirit is saying to the churches today. (Cardinal Mario Grech, Secretary General of the Synod of Bishops, at the extraordinary consistory of bishops, convened at the Vatican 26-27 June 2026).

📅 Date for your Diary: Alpha for Adults and Youth Alpha will take place in Blackrock Parish Centre commencing on 6th January 2027 - more details available soon.

📖 Unfolding the Word: What Mark's Gospel says about Discipleship: Join us on Thursdays 5th, 12th, 19th and 26th November in the Parish room in Holy Cross Church, Mahon from 7:30pm - 9:00 pm. An opportunity to come together and spend some time reading and discussing the Scriptures, followed by prayer. Everyone is most welcome and we even have a cuppa and chat afterwards as well! This would also be a great formation for all Readers in the Family of parishes!

Crosshaven Parish

As we enter the last week of October we begin our preparations to remember the Holy Souls during the month of November. We celebrate All Saint's Day on Nov. 1st. On Nov. 2nd we commemorate all the faithful departed and commence an indulgence for them.
There are many traditions and practices associated with November and the Holy Souls.
Here in Crosshaven we will have our Remembrance Tree and the names of our departed loved ones can be written on a tag and placed on the tree.
We will have our traditional nine-day Novena of Masses and envelopes are available for names to be placed on the altar so that they are remembered during parish Masses.
On Saturday Nov. 7th a special Remembrance Mass will be celebrated in St. Brigid's Church at 6pm to pray for all those whose funeral Mass took place here during the past year. Family and friends are most welcome to attend.
Visiting local cemeteries is also a lovely way to pray for our dead and especially to pray for those who may have nobody to visit their grave.

Mass times for Novena of Masses:
Mon. to Fri. 10.00am / Sat. 6.00pm / Sun. 10.00am.
Novena finishes on Nov. 10th.

Bereavement /Remembrance Mass

The Bereavement Mass will be celebrated on Monday November 2nd at 7:30 pm, All Souls Day. This Mass is for all those who have died in the past year and an opportunity for their families to remember them with the parish community. There will be a candle with the name of each person who has died at the back of the church on the evening of the Mass and also some extra candles for anyone who wishes to remember a loved one during this bereavement service.

Novena for The Holy Souls will take place from the 2nd – 10th November at 10:00am Mass

November Novena Envelopes are available in the Church.

St Vincent DePaul Collection

The next St. Vincent DePaul collection will be held on the weekend of Saturday 31st October and Sunday 1st November. We thank you as always for your generosity.

Cleaning our Church

Our church like any building, needs regular cleaning and it has been the tradition in this Parish that volunteers clean the church weekly. We are grateful to all those who, over many years have generously given of their time to meet this ministry. We appeal each year for volunteers, (Male and female) but it is a challenge to find parishioners eager to serve this ministry. The church cleaning task takes one hour on a Saturday morning. We currently have 2 teams which means each team does one hour every 2 weeks. If you can help, please contact the parish office. Thank you.

Thursday Coffee Mornings after 10:00am Mass. All welcome.

Choir: As always, new members are very welcome. Practice is on Tuesday nights from 7:30 – 9:00pm.

October: Talks on Faith

The Best Kept Secrets of our Catholic Faith

Following on from the talks by Fr. Kevin OGorman SMA, the final talk will be on Thursday 29th October with Fr. Kevin on "Pope Leo XIV recent encyclical on Catholic Social Teaching, and our human dignity" The talks will start at 7.30pm in the parish meeting room. There will be time for a cup of tea and discussion after. All are welcome.

Ireland's 3rd National First Saturdays Conference

This year's conference will take place in Knock on Saturday November 28th. The day begins at 10am and finishes at 5pm. It includes Holy Mass, adoration, talks, and a healing service. Speakers include: Fr Patrick Cahill, Geraldine O'Donnell, Fr Leon Pereira OP, Nikki Kingsley, Fr Marius O'Reilly, Fr. Jaimie Twohig, Christine O'Hara, Fr. Mark Quinn, and Fr Philip Kemmy, Fr. John Keane will lead a Eucharistic Healing Service. More information and the list of buses going are available on www.firstsaturdays.ie. At Fatima Our Lady promised that if we did what she asked there would be peace in the world and that many souls would be saved. Bus from Togher Church, to book contact John Joe: 087 1302763.

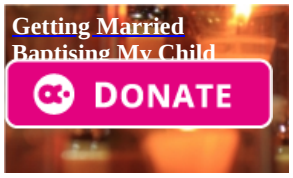

The Lough Flower and Garden Club October meeting is on Tuesday October 27th at 7.30pm in the SMA Parish Centre Wilton. William Grainger of Green Piece Nursery, will give a talk on 'Winter Gardens & 'Spring Bulbs'. Members €5, non-members €10. Light refreshments provided.

November Novena If you would like to include any names of people from outside the parish of Kilmichael or connected to the parish of Kilmichael that died in the last twelve months, please email details to: news@kilmichael.org on or before Wednesday 28th October. The Bereavement Mass is in Toames church on Friday, 30th October at 8 pm

During the month of November, we remember all those who have died. We remember the lessons we have learnt from them and the talents we have inherited from them. We remember how we loved them and how they loved us and made us what we are today. We remember their good deeds and determine to be more like them, and finally we pray for those who have died alone with no one to remember or pray for them.
We encourage everyone to make a special effort to come to dai ly Mass during the Novena for the Dead and maybe even keep up the effort for the month o f November.

Archdiocese of Dublin Employment Opportunities

The Archdiocese of Dublin is currently recruiting for three key roles. A Twin Pillar Strategy & Mission Lead will provide strategic leadership for a major renewal initiative centred on St Mary's Cathedral and St Andrew's, Westland Row, helping to foster outreach, welcome and engagement in the heart of the city. A Faith Development Co-ordinator for Youth and Young Adult Ministries (Northside) will support the growth of youth ministry, develop leadership programmes, and recruit and mentor new youth leaders. The role of Post Primary Diocesan Advisor involves supporting religious education in secondary schools and working closely with principals, teachers, chaplains and diocesan agencies. Further details are available on the diocesan website.

Thank You to Fr Kevin

With Fr Kevin's recent departure to his new appointment in Wicklow, we would like to offer parishioners an opportunity to express their gratitude for his seven and a half years of faithful service to our parish. Anyone wishing to contribute to a presentation for Fr Kevin can do so using the envelopes available at the back of the church. These may be placed in the collection boxes or returned to the Parish Office.

Altar List for the Dead

If you wish to have the names of your loved ones prayed for during November and on the First Friday of each month throughout the year, please write their names on the sheet provided on the table at the back of the church, and put in the envelope provided. You may wish to include a voluntary offering. These can be placed in the metal collection boxes or returned to the Parish Office.

Candlelit Liturgy of Remembrance

On Wednesday November 4th at 7 pm we will remember and pray for all those whose funerals have taken place here in St. Patrick's over the last year in a special Candlelit Liturgy of Remembrance. This special Candlelit liturgy is also open to all parishioners who would like to attend, and light a special votive candle in memory of their loved ones.

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK

THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS

Exodus 22:20-26 & Matthew 22:34-40.

Living the Commandment of Love

This Sunday's readings bring us to the very heart of God's law. In the first reading from Exodus, God reminds His people that genuine faith is expressed not only in prayer and worship but also in the way we treat others, especially those who are vulnerable.

The Israelites are instructed not to oppress the stranger, exploit the poor, or neglect those in need. Having experienced hardship themselves, they are called to show compassion, justice and mercy to others.

In the Gospel, Jesus is asked which commandment is the greatest. His answer unites the whole of God's law into two inseparable commands: to love God with all our heart, soul and mind, and to love our neighbour as ourselves. Love of God and love of neighbour are not separate duties but two dimensions of the one Christian calling.

These readings challenge us to examine how our faith is lived in everyday life. It is easy to profess belief in God; it is often more demanding to show patience, kindness and understanding to those around us.

Jesus reminds us that the measure of our love for God is reflected in the care, respect and compassion we show to others. In loving our neighbour, we reveal the presence of God's love in our world.

Murragh and Templemartin Parish – part of a Family of Parishes

Murragh and Templemartin is now part of a Family of Parishes which also includes Bandon, Enniskeane & Desertserges, Innishannon/Knockavilla and Kilbrittain Murragh & Templemartin does not have a resident parish priest. The pastoral needs of the parish are covered by the other priests in our Family of Parishes. These priests reside outside of the parish of Murragh & Templemartin but minister across the whole family of parishes. Fr John Newman (Bandon) is the moderator.

St Joseph's Church & Holy Family Church

Gospel Reflection:
Be persistent… and patient…

Our Gospel today is about persistence… just as the widow in the story pesters the judge until he delivers a just decision we too are called to be persistent.

Persistence in prayer demonstrates that we are not afraid to show our dependence on God even though all around us society says we need be self-sufficient, to look after ourselves. To keep praying is equally looking after ourselves but also the needs of those around us and the needs of our world. The widow in the story is concerned about the delay in getting a response, however we must not only must persevere in prayer we must be patient, awaiting God's time for an answer and accepting the answer even though it may not be one we wanted! God will always give the right answer to our prayers, even if in the immediate moment it may not seem that way.

Take time to reflect on what have been the fruits of your own persistent prayer? When you have patiently waited for God's time and response…

Reflection
Gratitude opens the heart. Here at Emmaus Café, giving thanks for small joys—friendship, warmth, and shared meals—helps us see God's goodness everywhere, like the disciples on the road. "Give thanks in all circumstances." (1 Thessalonians 5:18)

Prayers of the Faithful

1. For the Church: that she may be a faithful witness to God's love through her words and actions, especially in the care for those most in need. Lord, hear us.
2. For our meetings in Families of Parishes: that the Holy Spirit may guide our conversations and help us work together to strengthen parish life. Lord, hear us.
3. For our parish community: that we may welcome strangers, care for those who have lost loved ones and stand up for those who are treated unfairly. Lord, hear us.
4. For families: that, during this Month of the Rosary, families may find opportunities to pray together and grow in faith and love. Lord, hear us.
5. For those travelling this bank holiday weekend: that they may have safe journeys and enjoy time with family and friends. Lord, hear us.
6. For peace: that hatred and division may give way to understanding, forgiveness and a renewed respect for every human life. Lord, hear us.

CHRIST THE KING PARISH, TURNER'S CROSS

14th June, 2026

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Fr Noel O'Sullivan Mobile: 087-2610276 email: ctkc1931@gmail.com

Entrance Hymn: Holy God, we praise thy name

Holy God, we praise thy name;

Lord of all, we bow before thee.

All on earth thy sceptre own,

all in heav'n above adore thee.

Infinite thy vast domain,

everlasting is thy reign.

Hark, the loud celestial hymn,

Angel choirs above are raising;

Cherubim and seraphim,

In unceasing chorus praising,

Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord,

Holy, holy, holy Lord.

Reflection on Today's Gospel: What does the term 'apostle' mean?

It is someone who is sent. Jesus himself was sent by the Father to reveal God to the world and to redeem humanity. Jesus chose twelve of his followers and they acted as his core group of collaborators. Their closeness to Jesus over the time of his public ministry was a preparation for their mission in life. Just as Jesus had been sent by the Father, Jesus in turn sent out his twelve disciples to make him known, initially to the Jews and eventually to the whole world. In today's gospel he tells them: 'And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand' (Matthew 10:7). Later in that gospel we read the Great Commission, i.e. Jesus' final sending out of his apostles:

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age (Mt 28:18-20)

This commission is now the responsibility of the whole Church, not just the successors of the apostles. Pope Francis proposed this extension of the apostolic mission to all Christians as synodality. Pope Leo has continued this emphasis on synodality from the beginning of his papacy.

What is Synodality?

The term ‘synodality’ owes its origin to two Greek words sun (with) and hé hodos (the road/journey): we journey on the one road together. The basis of synodality is the Incarnation: the Son of God became one of us and joined us on the journey of life with its joys and sorrows, until he met with a most brutal death. And he continues to journey with us: ‘And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age’ (Mt 28:20). We too need to journey together. Though we have different functions in the Church and different vocations, nonetheless, we are all travelling together. The term ‘synodality’ owes its origin to two Greek words sun (with) and hé hodos (the road/journey): we journey on the one road together. Who’s Who? The members of the funeral team are as follows: Fiacra Bracken, Bernadette Hegarty, Maeve Kennedy, and Christine O’Neill. They lead the prayers at the reposing in the funeral home the day prior to the funeral Mass. This is a sensitive ministry, and they need our prayers.

Mass at St. Michael's Cemetery, Blackrock

Wednesday 24th June, at 7.30 pm.

Weekend Mass Collection Last weekend the amount received was €1,035

Trocaire Collection raised €1,454 this year.

Recent Deaths The death has occurred of Ann Dore, Greenhills Court; Brother Germanus (Ger) Noonan, Maiville Presentation Community. May they rest in peace. Sincere sympathy to their families and community.

Recessional Hymn: Praise to the Lord

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation! O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation! Come, all who hear; now to his temple draw near, join me in glad adoration.	Praise to the Lord, let us offer our gifts at his altar: Let not our sins and transgressions now cause us to falter. Christ, the high priest, bids us all join in his feast, Victims with him on the altar.

Sunday 25th October 2026
30th Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ Year A

Gospel Reflection
The non-negotiables …

Have you noticed how often the term "non-negotiables" comes up in discussions lately? Each side seems to set out its non-negotiables before any conversation can begin.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is asked which commandment matters most. His answer offers two essentials for anyone who calls themselves Christian: love God and love your neighbour. These commandments belong together. They shape all that we give and receive—in our relationship with God and in our relationships with one another. Simply put, life begins and ends with love.

We see these two movements in the cross. Through Jesus, we reach upward towards God, offering our love. And with Jesus, we reach outward towards the people around us, loving them as he does. These are the foundations of our lives as his disciples.

Take a moment this week to reflect on these movements: How do you show your love for God? How do you show your love for others?

Sunday Gospel.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Cycle A).

Always pray to have eyes that see the best in people, a heart that forgives the worst, a mind that forgets the bad, and a soul that never loses faith in God.

It is only when we know that God has demonstrated his life giving love for us in his Son, that we will want to love God in return with all our heart, soul, and mind. The opening words of Jesus' was not a commandment, but a proclamation of the Good News – "the kingdom of God is at hand", "the reign of God's life giving, merciful love is at hand". Perhaps in the past, we were introduced to the commandments without first hearing the Gospel. The commandments alone won't bring us to the Gospel, but hearing the Gospel as Good News for me personally, will lead us to taking the commandments seriously.

Mission Sunday Collection.

THANK YOU for your generous support of our Mission Sunday appeal last week. What we collected last weekend during our Second Collection, amounted to €1,260 and will be forwarded as our parish contribution, together with money collected over the past few weeks from the sale of second hand books and private donations. That amount comes to €750.

Together with our Sunday collection, the total amount being forwarded to Missio Ireland in support of mission work throughout the world comes to €2,010.

We thank those people donating books to keep our spiritual reading going in the parish.
