On Mission Sunday - Catholics throughout the world renew our commitment to share the joy of the Gospel. Mission is not reserved for a few people serving far from home. By baptism, each of us is sent to make Christ known - in our homes, parish, workplaces, schools and neighbourhoods.

We remember especially missionaries and Christian communities who witness with courage amid poverty, conflict, isolation and persecution. Our prayer and generosity help sustain local churches, form catechists and seminarians, support schools and clinics, and bring practical care to people in need.
