Words from St. Teresa of Avila Growing Older Lord, you know better than I myself, that I am growing older and will someday be old. Keep me from the fatal habit of thinking I must say something on every subject and on every occasion. Release me from craving to straighten out everybody's affairs. Make me thoughtful but not moody; Helpful but not bossy. With my vast store of wisdom, It seems a pity not to use it all; But You know, Lord, That I want a few friends at the end. Keep my mind free from the recital of endless details; Give me wings to get to the point. Seal my lips on my aches and pains; They are increasing, and love of rehearsing them Is becoming sweeter as the years go by. I dare not ask for improved memory, But for a growing humility and a lessening cocksureness when my memory seems to clash with the memories of others. Teach me the glorious lesson that occasionally I may be mistaken. Keep me reasonably sweet, for a sour old person is one of the crowning works of the devil. Give me the ability to see good things in unexpected places and talents in unexpected people; And give, O Lord, the grace to tell them so Amen
