There is a second collection this weekend October 17 & 18 for Propogation of the Faith.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Karol Wojtyla, the first Polish pope, was also the first pontiff to come to Ireland, in 1979. He visited 103 other countries, and nearly every parish in Rome. Pope John Paul survived an assassination attempt on 13 May 1981, the feast of Our Lady of Fatima, who he believed protected him. A powerful communicator, he suffered from Parkinsons Disease at the end of his life, and carried a visible cross when his voice failed. In weakness and in strength he served the Lord: St John Paul II, supreme pastor from 1978 to 2005, pray for us (feast day 22 October).

Point to Ponder:*
Humility is not thinking less of yourself –
it is thinking of yourself less.

18th October 2026 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time Vol. 5:7

Come to Leap this October

For the past four years, I've celebrated anointing services four times a year, on bank holidays. I've mainly held those services in Lisheen Church — because it's warm, compact, accessible and welcoming. But I've been reminded lately that I am the Co-PP of all five parishes, so maybe I should move the healing service around. And maybe people in each parish might move around with me!
Accordingly, the next service will be in Leap, on the October Bank Holiday (26 October). It will start at 11 am, which I hope will prove convenient. People with a day off might consider coming along, or bringing a neighbour or family member who might need a lift.
The format is a Mass with an anointing service as part of it. Priests will lay hands on each person seeking healing, as Jesus did. And when the oil of the sick is poured on people's foreheads and hands, it is Christ himself who anoints. We couldn't have a more powerful source.
Leap also hosts the Scarecrow Festival at the end of the month, from 19 October to 1 November. So come for the scarecrows, but stay for the healing!
See you there
