As a volunteer driver you would be bringing patients undergoing chemotherapy to the hospital and back home for their treatment. If you can spare 2 days per month, have a valid driving licence, and a safe, reliable vehicle, you are the perfect candidate to make a significant difference. The Irish Cancer Society will provide you with training before you start as a driver for us. Your generosity not only eases the journey for many during a challenging time but also offers comfort and support when it's needed most. 🌎 Synodality - A Missionary Resource:
Synodality is not an end in itself. It exists so that the Church may proclaim the Gospel more effectively and serve the men and women of our time more faithfully.
We live in a world marked by profound transformations. Wars and violence continue to wound entire peoples. Social inequalities are increasing. Migration is reshaping the face of our societies. New technologies are changing the way we communicate, learn and even understand ourselves. Many people are searching for meaning, hope and authentic relationships. Many look to the church for a credible witness to the Gospel.
Faced with these challenges, synodality appears ever more clearly as a missionary resource. It helps the church to listen more attentively to the questions of humanity, to recognize the signs of the times, to value the gifts of all and to discern together the steps to be taken. In this way, the implementation phase becomes a new stage in the reception of the Second Vatican Council and in the missionary renewal of the Church within the concrete realities of ecclesial life.
This is the responsibility that the Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, encourages us to embrace together: not merely to preserve an inheritance we have received, but to make it bear fruit in the life of the churches and in the mission entrusted to the church in our time. (Cardinal Mario Grech, Secretary General of the Synod of Bishops, at the extraordinary consistory of bishops, convened at the Vatican 26-27 June 2026).

🙏 Thought for the Day: Our Mission, Send me, Lord, out into the world that begins at my front door. May my every word flow from your heart and my actions be of love and peace that everything I do or say reflects your great mercy to all. Help me witness to your truth no less in my silence than in my words and show me, Lord, the way I should go. Help me to see that my solemn duty to spread your Gospel to everyone in the world is second only to their right to hear and respond to it. Open my eyes to your presence in others and my ears to recognise your voice especially in the poor and oppressed. Amen.
