October: The Month of the Holy Rosary

Rosary will be recited at the Grotto in Crookstown at 8pm every Tuesday night during the month of October. All are welcome

First Reading: Isaiah 45:1.4-6
The liberation of Jerusalem's exiles is a sovereign act of God through a human instrument. The prophet explicitly identifies Cyrus as the one to affect this liberation. Cyrus is called God's anointed even if the true God was to him an unknown God. Nevertheless, the Israelites saw the hand of God through Cyrus.

Second Reading: 1 Thess 1:1-15
For a young Church faced with persecution, the Thessalonians have given evidence of Christian living, which could be a model for every Christian Church: faith in action, expressed in charity, and enduring with hope. These fundamental virtues express the continuity of past-present-future in Christian life.

Gospel: Mt 22:15-21
Christian life is not divisible into the secular and the sacred, as if things we do for the State have nothing to do with God. Jesus is not thinking of God and Caesar as two powers, who can exact their rights from their subjects. Any system - political, economic, religious, social -as long as they are just reflect the values of the kingdom of God.

CUH Volunteer Opportunity

Become the Primary Handler (or second handler) for the Cork University Hospital Community Dog

CUH Volunteer Service is attempting to expand, and to offer our patients a visit from a community dog. To do this, we need volunteers to home the community dog, and if possible to volunteer in the hospital for a few hours 3-4 times weekly. Could you, or a person you know, provide a loving home for a specially trained community dog and help bring comfort to our patients? We are seeking expressions of interest from people who may be willing to:

- Provide a permanent home for a community dog trained by Irish Guide Dogs for the Blind. To become a primary handler for the community dog.
- Volunteer to accompany the dog into the hospital to visit patients for approx. 2 hours, 3–4 days per week
- Receive professional training from Irish Guide Dogs for the Blind on how to handle and work with the dog in a healthcare setting OR
- Volunteer as a second handler to accompany the dog into the hospital to visit patients for approx. 2 hours, 3–4 days per week. This person would not home the dog, but arrange to collect the dog, visit the designated wards in CUH and return the dog to the primary handler.
- Receive professional training from Irish Guide Dogs for the Blind on how to handle and work with the dog alongside the primary handler in a healthcare setting.

For more information or to express your interest, please contact:
Elaine Forde, Patient Advocacy Liaison Manager, CUH
