Entrance Hymn: Holy God, we praise thy name

Holy God, we praise thy name;

Lord of all, we bow before thee.

All on earth thy sceptre own,

all in heav'n above adore thee.

Infinite thy vast domain,

everlasting is thy reign.

Hark, the loud celestial hymn,

Angel choirs above are raising;

Cherubim and seraphim,

In unceasing chorus praising,

Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord,

Holy, holy, holy Lord.

Reflection on Today's Gospel: What does the term 'apostle' mean?

It is someone who is sent. Jesus himself was sent by the Father to reveal God to the world and to redeem humanity. Jesus chose twelve of his followers and they acted as his core group of collaborators. Their closeness to Jesus over the time of his public ministry was a preparation for their mission in life. Just as Jesus had been sent by the Father, Jesus in turn sent out his twelve disciples to make him known, initially to the Jews and eventually to the whole world. In today's gospel he tells them: 'And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand' (Matthew 10:7). Later in that gospel we read the Great Commission, i.e. Jesus' final sending out of his apostles:

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age (Mt 28:18-20)

This commission is now the responsibility of the whole Church, not just the successors of the apostles. Pope Francis proposed this extension of the apostolic mission to all Christians as synodality. Pope Leo has continued this emphasis on synodality from the beginning of his papacy.

What is Synodality?

The term ‘synodality’ owes its origin to two Greek words sun (with) and hé hodos (the road/journey): we journey on the one road together. The basis of synodality is the Incarnation: the Son of God became one of us and joined us on the journey of life with its joys and sorrows, until he met with a most brutal death. And he continues to journey with us: ‘And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age’ (Mt 28:20). We too need to journey together. Though we have different functions in the Church and different vocations, nonetheless, we are all travelling together. The term ‘synodality’ owes its origin to two Greek words sun (with) and hé hodos (the road/journey): we journey on the one road together. Who’s Who? The members of the funeral team are as follows: Fiacra Bracken, Bernadette Hegarty, Maeve Kennedy, and Christine O’Neill. They lead the prayers at the reposing in the funeral home the day prior to the funeral Mass. This is a sensitive ministry, and they need our prayers.

Recessional Hymn: Praise to the Lord

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation! O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation! Come, all who hear; now to his temple draw near, join me in glad adoration.	Praise to the Lord, let us offer our gifts at his altar: Let not our sins and transgressions now cause us to falter. Christ, the high priest, bids us all join in his feast, Victims with him on the altar.

World Mission Sunday

Sunday 18th October 2026

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ Year A

Gospel Reflection
In the image of God …

Today Jesus meets the Pharisees who question him, essentially to catch him out. However, Jesus rises to their challenge placing himself above the controversy they are creating. He acknowledges that taxes must be paid, by law. He then reminds them that each person carries another image with them, the image of God, in whose likeness they are made.

Each of us is called to abide by the laws of the state but also to put first in our minds that we owe our existence to God. This statement makes a clear distinction between the political and religious spheres of life.

So, on this Mission Sunday we are reminded in the Gospel of our own responsibility for the mission of Christ: to speak of God and to bear witness to Him to all whom we encounter. Every one of us, by Baptism, is called to be a living presence in society, inspiring it with the Gospel and with the lifeblood of the Holy Spirit. It is a question of committing ourselves with humility and courage, making our own contribution to the building of God's kingdom in our time and place. Are you ready to answer the call to mission in this community?

World Mission Sunday 1926-2026

World Mission Sunday is a powerful expression of our shared Catholic identity. Celebrated each year on the second-to-last Sunday of October, it unites Catholics around the world in supporting the Church where it faces the greatest challenges. Instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1926, this collection is unique: it directly supports 1,124 mission territories where the Church is young, vulnerable, or facing persecution.

On World Mission Sunday, Catholics everywhere are invited to support communities that cannot yet sustain themselves. Our prayers and donations help fund church construction, pastoral care, education, and healthcare. When your parish takes part, you join Catholics worldwide in supporting missionaries as they build churches, train seminarians, form catechists, and serve vulnerable communities. Together, we answer our baptismal call to share the Gospel and bring hope to all peoples as one Church.
