Gospel Reflection (Matthew 22:15-21)

In today's gospel, religious leaders try to trap Jesus with a question about paying taxes to Caesar. Pointing to the coin's image and inscription, He teaches us to fulfil our earthly responsibilities while giving our deepest allegiance to God. Jesus reminds us that not every question deserves a fight. What matters is whether our choices reflect goodness, truth, and love, drawing us closer to God, strengthening our character, and blessing others. A life well lived is measured not by arguments won, but by faithfulness to God's will.
The coin carried Caesar's image, reminding us to respect legitimate laws, perform our duties honestly, support our families, and contribute positively to society. Faith does not excuse us from responsible citizenship; it inspires us to fulfil our duties with sincerity and fairness. The coin bore Caesar's image, but our lives are called to reflect God's goodness. Though we cannot do so perfectly every day, we can choose to grow: let our words encourage, our hands help, and our hearts forgive.
We may give money to the world, time to our responsibilities, and attention to our ambitions, but we must give God what belongs to Him: our love, worship, gratitude, trust, and obedience. Our relationship with God remains the foundation of a meaningful life.
We may carry coins in our pockets, but we carry God's calling in our hearts. Give the world your honest service, others your genuine love, and God your whole heart. That is how an ordinary life becomes a beautiful offering to Him.

Today is World Mission Sunday October has been the month of universal mission since 1926. Mission Sunday invites Catholics to unite with missionaries worldwide and recommit to the Church's missionary activity through prayer, sacrifice and financial support. Funds help young churches and missionaries serve communities in need, both spiritually and materially. Contributions build mission churches, educate seminarians, form catechists and lay leaders, fund children's health clinics, provide emergency aid in war or disaster, and help missionaries care for refugees. This year's theme is 'One in Christ, united in mission'. Today we celebrate our c. 1,500 Irish-born missionaries and all missionaries worldwide, thanking God for them, for those who support them at home, and for our growing communion with them and the communities they serve. Morning Reflection Prayer for Self Confidence Heavenly Father, Thank You for the gift of a new day.

As I begin this morning, help me to remember that my worth is found in You and not in the opinions of others or in my own doubts. Fill my heart with confidence, not pride, but the quiet assurance that I am created with purpose and loved without condition. Help me to recognise the gifts You have placed within me and give me the courage to use them wisely. When fear or insecurity tries to take hold, remind me that I do not walk alone.
Strengthen my mind, guide my words, and help me face each challenge with faith rather than worry.
Teach me to believe in the person You are shaping me to become.
May I carry myself with kindness, speak with confidence, and trust that Your plans for me are good.
Today, let me walk with peace, knowing that I am enough because I am Yours. Amen.

Working Document for the Irish National Synodal Assembly

17th October 2026 / Gormanston, Co Meath / "Is not this what God asks of you?" (Micah 6:8)

The Working Document for the Irish National Synodal Assembly, brings together the fruits of five years of prayer, listening and discernment and will guide delegates as they consider and vote on suggested actions to be presented to the bishops of Ireland.

The Synodal Pathway is now moving towards a new phase of implementation. Everyone is invited to read, pray with, and reflect on the Working Document and the question: "What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?" Scan the QR code to access the Working Document.

Bishop Michael Router and seven delegates will represent the Diocese of Derry. Please remember Bishop Michael, our diocesan delegates and everyone taking part in your prayers. Find out more at www.derrydiocese.org/national-synodal-assembly.
