SYMPATHY

It was with sadness that we lost three of our more senior members of the Parish. John Duffy, Aughatubrid, Gleneely passed away in Oakleaves Nursing Home. Our deepest sympathy to his wife Claire; his sons Noel, Alan & Declan; his daughters, Beatrice, Geraldine, Martina & Dolores; his grandchildren, Zoe, Orla, Emer, Oisin, Cara, Aoife, Lara, Ciara, Erin and Fiadh; brother Pat and sisters, Bridie, Peggy and Sadie and the wider family circle. John's funeral Mass was in Steelstown and burial in Bocan Cemetery.

We also bade farewell to Donal and Patrick McLaughlin, Falmore, Gleneely. They were two of life's gentlemen. They lived a quite, simple life, filled with hard work, and the speed of their passing, shocked his close friends and neighbours. Their devotion to their Faith guided their lives. We offer our deepest sympathy to Michelle, Oliver and Michaela who looked after them devotedly.
Donal and Patrick's funeral Mass and burial was in Ballinacrea. May God receive them home to their eternal rev

What do I (we) tell Him?

We pray to answer God who has spoken to us first.

We thank you Lord for your word. Today you let me see that just like those people that approached You, sometimes I also come to you to ask you for my petty things and to try to make you an accomplice of my pettiness.
I beg for your help, so that I may be able to change and improve all the time, come closer to you through my prayers and so that I may always approach you to give you praise and worship you.
Lord, I am now aware of my reflection in the mirror of your word, where I can see my own life…that many times I put my eyes and my heart in mundane things.
I am aware of the fact that I carry my life as a reflection of your own image, because I was created in your image and likeness Lord.
I want to ask for your forgiveness for all the times that I have given my time and my things to worldly things and allowed to be confused by the lies of the world.
I want to rebuild my life and my dedication to You God.
Today, I recognize that you are the only God and that only to You I owe obedience, submission and adoration.

18 October 2026 • World Mission Sunday
From the question posed to him by the Pharisees, Jesus draws a more radical and vital question for each of us, a question we can ask ourselves: to whom do I belong? To family, to the city, to friends, to work, to politics, to the State? Yes, of course. But first and foremost – Jesus reminds us – you belong to God. This is the fundamental belonging. It is He who has given you all that you are and have. And therefore, day by day, we can and must live our life in recognition of this fundamental belonging and in heartfelt gratitude toward our Father, who creates each one of us individually, unrepeatable, but always according to the image of his beloved Son, Jesus. It is a wondrous mystery.

Christians are called to commit themselves concretely in the human and social spheres without comparing 'God' and 'Caesar;' comparing God and Caesar would be a fundamentalist approach. Christians are called to commit themselves concretely in earthly realities but illuminating them with the light that comes from God.
The primary entrustment to God and hope in him do not imply an escape from reality, but rather the diligent rendering to God that which belongs to him. This is why a believer looks to the future reality, that of God, so as to live earthly life to the fullest, and to meet its challenges with courage.

May the Virgin Mary help us to always live in conformity with the image of God that we bear within us, inside, also offering our contribution to the building of the earthly city.
Pope Francis
