Sunday 11am Mass
For all our primary school children
Hello children! Today we hear how some people tried to trick Jesus but he was too clever for them. Through the story, Jesus is reminding us that we have two main responsibilities. One is to love God and to try to live our lives the way God wants us to. The other responsibility is to care for each other and to make sure that everyone gets their fair share of the good things that God has given us. Let's try this week to show that you love God through being kind and caring to others.
Loving God, be with us as we try to care for one another, help one another, share with one another and work together to make the world a fairer place for everyone to live. Amen.
Worksheets and the Kids Bulletin to support this week's Gospel are available in both churches. Pick up copies for your children/grandchildren.

ADDRESS……..

……

For World Mission Day 2026, which marks the centenary of a celebration established by Pius XI that is very dear to the Church, I have chosen the theme 'One in Christ, united in mission'. Following the Jubilee Year, I wish to encourage the whole Church to continue its missionary journey with joy and zeal in the Holy Spirit. This requires hearts united in Christ, reconciled communities and, in everyone, a willingness to cooperate with generosity and trust.

One in Christ – Missionary disciples united in him and with our brothers and sisters

The mystery of union with Christ lies at the heart of mission. Before his Passion, Jesus prayed to the Father, 'that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us' (John 17:21). These words reveal Jesus' deepest desire, as well as the identity of the Church as a community of his disciples. That is, a communion that flows from the Trinity, and continues to be sustained by the Trinity. A communion at the service of fraternity among all human beings and harmony with all creation. Being a Christian is not primarily about practices or ideas; it is a life in union with Christ, in which we share in his filial relationship with the Father in the Holy Spirit. It means abiding in Christ, like branches on the vine (cf. John 15:4), immersed in the life of the Trinity. This union gives rise to mutual communion among believers and is the source of all missionary fruitfulness. Indeed, just as Saint John Paul II taught, 'communion represents both the source and the fruit of mission' (Apostolic Exhortation Christifideles Laici, 32).

Being 'one in Christ' calls us to keep our gaze fixed on the Lord, so that he may truly be at the centre of our lives and communities, the centre of every word, action and interpersonal relationship, leading us to say with amazement: 'It is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me'

Holy Father, make us one in Christ, rooted in his love that unites and renews. May all members of the Church be united in mission, docile to the Holy Spirit, courageous in bearing witness to the Gospel, proclaiming and daily embodying your faithful love for all creatures. Bless all missionary men and women, support them in their efforts, and watch over them in hope!

Mary, Queen of Missions, accompany our work of evangelisation in every corner of the earth: make us instruments of peace, and grant that the whole world may recognise in Christ the light that saves. Amen.

Pope Leo XIV

All over the world
the spirit is moving,
All over the world,
As the prophets said it would be.
All over the world
there's a mighty revelation
Of the Glory of the Lord,
As the waters
cover the sea.

All over the Land
The Spirit is moving…

Preparation of the Gifts

All that I am, All that I do,
All that I'll every have,
I offer now to you.
Take and sanctify these gifts
for your honour, Lord.
Knowing that I love
and serve you
is enough reward.
All that I am, all that I do,
All that I'll ever have
I offer now to you.

All that I dream,
all that I pray,
All that I'll ever make
I give to you today.
Take and sanctify these gifts
for your honour, Lord.
Knowing that I love
and serve you
is enough reward.
All that I am, all that I do,
All that I'll ever have
I offer now to you.

Recessional Hymn

Praise to the Holiest
in the height,
and in the depth
be praise,
in all his words
most wonderful,
most sure in all his ways.

O loving wisdom
of our God!
When all was
sin and shame,
a second Adam
to the fight
and to the rescue came.

O wisest love!
that flesh and blood,
which did in Adam fail,
should strive afresh
against the foe,
should strive
and should prevail.

A place for everything!

My mother used always say - put things where they belong. Newspapers, food, the bicycle not in the hall, and other such homely advice. Jesus says the same here - give what belongs to where it belongs and to whom.

So Jesus is being asked about taxes and politics. He knows he is being trapped about money. He moves on to higher questions. Something about the answer of Jesus asks us — where do we belong?

Belonging can sound heavy - as if we are being control ed, or our money belongs to us and we can do what we like with it. But for Jesus it's the belonging of love, not of power and control.

Much is not in our control. We are born and die at God's time. This reminds us that we are not the masters of our lives, we come from God and go to God. This belonging is the centre of our human family and community. God doesn't want to control us but to love us.

But there's an addition: belonging to God means belonging to each other. We have rights and duties of love.

To give to others what belongs to others; give to the poor what belongs to the poor. Everyone has a right to the food of the earth and the food of the mind, and shelter for the body.

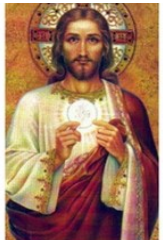

It's not charity when people are given food, education, a home, freedom of religion, freedom of speech - it is justice. To give to God what belongs to God is to share the goods of the earth!

Liturgical 'Sign of Peace' The Sign of Peace remains an integral part of the celebration of the Eucharist and has been reintroduced as a normal practice across the Diocese. The customary expression of the Sign of Peace in Ireland is a handshake. However, other non-contact forms of the sign of peace such as a nod, a bow or a smile are also legitimate expressions of the Sign of Peace. No offence should be taken if someone prefers to express a non-contact Sign of Peace. The Diocese encourages all to continue to exercise good hygienic practices, and if you exhibit flu-like symptoms, you are encouraged to remain at home.

Today is World Mission Sunday. The Opening Prayer of the Mass today which is taken from the Mass for the Evangelisation of Peoples states "O God you have willed that your Church be the sacrament of salvation for all nations…" The Church exists for mission, just as a fire exists for burning. Today's Gospel (Matthew 22:15-21)) Jesus calls us to "to give back to God what belongs to God" (Matthew 22:21). What belongs to God? He created all things -everything belongs to Him. What carries God's face as the coin carried Caesar's face? What does God expect us to give? Not merely endless prayers - even though that is good! But what God wants us to give is a well-organised human life for all. As long as there are starving children and refugees, poor people who have no means to be educated, where there is war, famine, and indifference to the plight of our planet - then our tax to God has not yet been paid. Paul's first letter to the people of Thessalonica (1:1-5) is today's second reading. This letter is among the earliest of all Christian writings and the two letters that Paul wrote to these new Christians give us an invaluable insight into the young and joyful faith of this emerging Christian community. Thessalonica, which is modern day Salonika in Greece, was part of Macedonia, the land of Alexander the Great who conquered the known world in his time. This town was the main link between Rome and the East, and the coming of Christianity to Thessalonica was crucial in making Christianity a world religion. We are told of Paul's visit to that town in Acts 17:1-10. We know that he preached in their synagogue on three weekends and was hustled out of the town by some who disagreed with his teaching about Jesus. However Paul, who now was in Corinth, was worried about his new converts and sent his fellow worker Timothy back to them to see how they were getting on. Timothy returned to tell Paul that all was well with his new fledging Christian converts. Paul was delighted with the news that their faith in Jesus not only survived but was flourishing in his absence. He wrote them this letter. In the first reading from Isaiah 45:4-6 we hear how God called Cyrus, King of Persia (559-530 BC) who conquered Babylon to allow his people to go back home from exile to Jerusalem and rebuild the temple. God's power is at work even in the unbeliever. Today the task of spreading the Good News about Jesus is still the Church's calling. We are called to bring people to the awareness of all that God is doing for them in His Son, Jesus Christ. Collections are taking place today in every single parish across Europe to help support this work. The needs of the Church in mission dioceses, of which there are over 1,100 continues to grow. These dioceses are often in remote areas devastated by war and natural disasters. Our offerings help their men, women and children survive and ultimately flourish through the action and work of missionaries. This is our moment of universal solidarity, when each member of our Church family, regardless of location or background can play their part in supporting each other. This collection is a lifeline, not only to missionaries, but also the future of the Church. There are envelopes at the back of the church that can be used to place your contribution for the support of the oversea missions. We are all conscious that we are all living in financially stringent times. In the light of that reality your generosity is remarkable. Thank you.

Father Charles Cross C.P.
