Feast Days this Week

Thursday 3rd September: St. Gregory the Great, also known as Pope Gregory I, was born in 540 AD into a noble Roman family. Gifted with intelligence and deep faith, he first pursued a successful career in government, becoming Prefect of Rome, yet he longed for a life of prayer and simplicity. He converted his family's villa into a monastery and lived as a monk, dedicating himself to study, service and contemplation. In 590, during a time of famine and plague, Gregory was chosen as Pope. He became one of the most influential leaders in Church history. He reformed Church administration, organized relief for the poor, promoted missionary activity and restructured the liturgy, giving rise to the singing style we now call 'Gregorian Chant'. Known for his humility, pastoral care and tireless work for both the spiritual and material welfare of his flock, Gregory earned the title 'The Great'. He died in 604 and was declared a Doctor (Teacher) of the Church.

Saturday 5th September: St. Teresa of Calcutta (1910 – 1997) Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu was born into an Albanian family on 26th August 1910 at Skopje in Macedonia. She left home at the age of 18 to join the Sisters of Loreto in Ireland, where she received the name Sister Mary Teresa, after St. Thérèse of Lisieux. In 1931 she was assigned to the order's Calcutta house in Indi and taught at their school there, where she eventually became headmistress. She later received a new vocation to help the poor and destitute, and in 1948, obeying this call, she left the convent and took up a new life caring for them wherever they might be, lying sick in the street or even dying in dustbins. Mother Teresa radiated light for those in need. Some of her former pupils joined her, one by one, and the new congregation of the Missionaries of Charity was established in the Diocese of Calcutta in 1950, spreading across India and eventually onto every continent. Mother Teresa of Calcutta died on 5th September 1997. She was beatified by Pope John Paul II on 19th October 2003 and canonized St. Teresa of Calcutta by Pope Francis on 4th September 2016.
