Those who baked and bought tickets, those who sold raffle lines and secured sponsorship, those who helped in so many ways on the day itself – to say nothing of those who turned out in great numbers to give their support on the day. Our sincere thanks to the businesses and individuals who gave sponsorship and prizes – your generosity is noted and appreciated. Sincere thanks to Scoil Mhuire for the use of their facilities. A great “thank you” to all concerned and to those in the Parish Office and those who attended the meetings and who were in the eye of the storm. Hopefully, such a lovely experience and expression of who we are as a Parish can be repeated again in the years to come. Our crowds were smaller than in other years, but we hope that there is still good support for this initiative. We thank God too for the lovely weather we all enjoyed. Father Bradley READINGS FOR 22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 1st Reading: Jer 20: 7-9. The prophet Jeremiah lived through the siege of Jerusalem (600 BC), the destruction of the Temple and deportations to Babylon. His prophesying urged a shift from outward practices to a person-to-person, relational, heartfelt religion. For this he was ridiculed and imprisoned. ‘The prophet here foreshadows Christ on the eve of his passion: the living word of God had lit a similar consuming fire deep in Jeremiah’s heart.’ 2nd Reading: Rm 12:1-2. Merely external, outward practice is not acceptable. Our behaviour has to spring from a whole new mind, offering ourselves in all things like Jesus, ‘as a holy sacrifice pleasing to God.’ Gospel: Mt 16: 21-27. Back in 1994 at the Maynooth launch of the Catechism of the Catholic Church Cardinal Desmond Connell described and explained how Jesus will proudly wear the wounds of his Passion for all eternity. Christians should accept their cross just as Christ did SEASON OF CREATION 2026 The Season of Creation takes place from 1 September to 4 October, bringing Christians throughout the world together in prayer, reflection and action for the care of our common home. This year’s theme, Living Water, invites us to give thanks for the gift of water and renew our care for God’s creation. To mark the beginning of the season, the Three Patrons Parish Laudato Si’ group are inviting people to a short prayer service on Tues 1 Sept at 6:30pm in St Joseph’s Church, Galliagh. All are welcome CLIMB TO THE EUCHARISTIC CROSS, SCALP Sun 30 Aug meeting at the Water Tank at 1.30pm. The Rosary will be said on the way up. All Welcome. BLESSING AT THE FRONT DOOR FOR THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL Heavenly Father, as we close the door to our home to begin our journey, we ask you to bless (children’s name/s) on their first day back to / of school. We ask you to open the doors of new hope, new possibilities, new friendships and new learning for them. Bless their teachers, friends and all the staff of the school. Be with them in all they will do this year. Protect them and keep them safe until they return through this door to the home where they are cherished and loved. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord.
