A Student's Prayer at the Beginning of the New School Year: O God, we thank you for everything that is new and beautiful, for everything which holds promise and brings us joy. Bless all students & pupils as they start this new school year with their friends, teachers and school community. Help them to make the most of every chance they have to start afresh. May the new beginning of this school year remind them that you give us chances to start over again and again. Help them to be considerate of others and to learn and to work together. As students and pupils we thank you for our friends. Help us to be good friends this year. Help us to be patient with ourselves and with others. Bless our school and keep us safe. Be with us as we travel each day. Help us to be aware of your love shown to us in the people around us. Bless all those who care for us in school and at home. Help us show our care for them and to say sorry when we need to. May our Mother Mary, Réalt na Mara protect us and help us to live as well as we can, giving thanks and glory to God as she did. Amen.

ST. EUNAN'S CATHEDRAL LETTERKENNY NEWSLETTER

Sunday 30th August 2026

Twenty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

A PRAYER FOR OUR EARTH

(Tuesday 1st September ~ World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation)

All-powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures.

You embrace with your tenderness all that exists.

Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect life and beauty.

Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one.

O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, so precious in your eyes.

Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction.

Touch the hearts of those who look only for gain at the expense of the poor and the earth.

Teach us to discover the worth of each thing, to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognise that we are profoundly united with every creature as we journey towards your infinite light.

We thank you for being with us each day.

Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace.

Pope Francis, Laudato Si', 246

PRAYER FOR A NEW SCHOOL YEAR

Blessed are you, Lord God, Creator of body and mind and heart; you have sent the Spirit of wisdom and knowledge to guide your people in all their ways.

At the beginning of this new school year, we implore your mercy:

bless students, teachers and staff, that together we may grow in faith, hope, and love as we learn from you and each other how to follow your Son Jesus.

Expand the horizons of our minds, that we may grow in wisdom, understanding, and knowledge; deepen our commitment to seek the truth of your ways; and enliven our faith to reach out to those in need.

Glory and praise to you, Lord God, in the Church and in Christ Jesus forever and ever. Amen

Best wishes to the Organisers and Participants for today's DONEGAL HALF MARATHON (Sunday 30th August). Traffic management will be in place between the hours of 8.30 am and 12.00 pm around the Town Centre and Newmills/Conwal so please plan for some delays.

Collection

Last weeks' Offertory Collection came to €1468. Thank you for your gift to God and His Church.

It is a crunch question in our time for each of us. Who do I say Jesus is for me? More basically, who is Jesus for me? How I see Jesus is a basic ingredient in how I see myself and others. Do I see myself as a child of God, a sibling of Jesus, and see others as siblings too?

It is fine to admire Peter's faith, but admiration on its own is barren. It must be imitated and replicated. It is unlikely that Peter blurted out the very exact theological answer that is attributed to him in this Gospel reading, but it is clear that he had a memory of the Transfiguration and glimpsed the truth about Jesus' relationship with the Father and had the courage to acknowledge that publicly, at least in the company of friends. Of course, Jesus had nourished that seedling of faith during their time together and this moment was a critical climax in the work of Jesus.

Peter's insight into who Jesus really was, was a pure gift from the Father, a gift that Peter responded to with customary enthusiasm, embracing all its implications including martyrdom.

By God's choice, a similar gift is offered to many of us. Our responses vary. Some settle for a traditional style of life, inspired by Christian values and supported by religious practice and live worthwhile and fulfilled lives without ever knowing Jesus. So far so good, but there is more on offer. This is what inspired and challenged Peter. He accepted the invitation to climb the mountain with Jesus, to walk the road of life with him, to listen to him and live accordingly, to wince at the horror of the Passion, to run searching for Jesus after his Resurrection, to wait for and accept the fullest coming of the Holy Spirit and so to experience the deeper friendship of Jesus, Son of God.

Am I open to accept such a gift and to live accordingly? Maybe God will surprise me in this Eucharist and in the days ahead. Come, Lord Jesus, come.

Prayers of the Angel

"My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You! I ask pardon of You for all those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You!"

"Most Holy Trinity: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."

Reflection

Becoming disciples of Jesus means learning to think the way God thinks, rather than the way we usually think. And that will be for us, as it was for Peter and his disciples, a life-long process of ups and downs, successes and failures. There may be times when we will feel a bit like Jeremiah in our first reading today. Chosen by God to be his 'prophet to the nations' (Jer 1:5), fidelity to his calling 'made him a daily laughing-stock, the butt of everyone's jokes, and brought him 'insult and derision, all day long' (Jer 20:7-8). Though tempted to stop being a spokesman for the Lord, he could not give up because, as he states, 'there seemed to be a fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones' (Jer 20:9). Jeremiah had been, as he states, 'seduced' by God, and he had let himself 'be seduced' (cf. Jer 20: 7). In other words, he had fallen in love with God so that nothing could stop him from doing God's will, no matter where this might lead him. The example of Jeremiah prompts us to ask ourselves the question: Have we let ourselves be seduced by Christ so that we persevere in following and serving him, regardless of the consequences?

Thoughts on the Readings for the 19th Sunday August 16th 2026

Today in the Gospel, we have a continuation of last week's story about the feeding of thousands of people by Jesus in the desert. Immediately after the event, we are told that Jesus: ...made the disciples get into a boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. Was there reluctance on their part to go? Certainly there is the implication that the disciples were not too willing to leave the scene. They were enjoying the reflected glory of being part of Jesus' 'miracle' and the enthusiasm of the crowds for Jesus, 'their' Jesus. They were basking in the reputation of being partners with Jesus. Yet, it won't be very long before they will be hiding, even denying under oath, ever having had connection with him. Jesus himself, after having dismissed the crowds: ...went up the mountain by himself to pray. In John's version of this story he tells us that the people, after being fed by Jesus, actually wanted to make him their king. They, like the disciples, have totally missed the meaning of what has happened. Here indeed was a real source of temptation. Jesus could easily have convinced himself that here was a golden opportunity to get control of the crowds and 'save' them. They were so ready to follow him—it seemed. The world was at his feet. There is an echo here of one of the temptations in the desert after his baptism: ...the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory, and he said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me."

AN CHÉAD LÉACHT

Sliocht as leabhar Isáia fáidh.

56:1, 6-7.

Seo mar a deir an Tiarna: Coinnigí an ceart, cleachtaigí an fhíréanacht, óir tá mó shlánú ar tí teacht agus m'fhíréantacht ar tí a léiriú.

Na stráinséirí a chloigh leis an Tiarna chun freastal dó, chun grá a thabhairt d'ainm an Tiarna agus chun a bheith ina seirbhísigh aige, iad sin uilig a choinníonn an tSabóid agus a chloíonn le mo chonradh, déanfaidh mé iad a chomóradh go dtí mo shliabh naofa. Bhéarfaidh mé aoibhneas daofa i mo theach urnaí. Glacfar ar m'altóir lena dtabhartais agus lena n-íobairtí, óir bhéarfai ar mo theachsa teach urnaí na gciníocha go léir.

Briathar an Tiarna. FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

FREAGRA AN tSAILM

Go mola na ciníocha thú, a Dhia;
go mola na ciníocha go léir thú.

AN DARA LÉACHT

Sliocht as litir Naomh Pól chuig na Rómhánaigh.

11:13-15, 29-32.

A phágánaigh! Lig domh seo a insint daoibh: Sa mhéid gurb aspal na bpágánach mé, is é mo dhulgias éad a chur ar mo chine féin agus iad a spreagadh chun iomaíochta libhse agus ar an dóigh sin cuid acu a shlánú. Mar, má tugadh an domhan chun athmhuintearais le Dia trína gcaitheamh amach, cad a thiocfaidh dá nglacadh ar ais iad ach mar a bheadh aiséirí ó mhairbh ann? Ní cúis aithreachas ar bith do Dhia a choíche a thíolaicí ná an rogha a bhíonn déanta aige. Ionann is mar bhí sibhse easumhal do Dhia san am a chuaigh thart agus go ndearnadh trócaire oraibh siocar easumhlaíochta na nGiúdaich, is mar a gcéanna acu siúd é; tá siadsan easumhal anois nuair atá trócaire déanta oraibhse, ach déanfar trócaire orthu féin ar deireadh thiar thall. Mar chuir Dia an uile dhuine i ngéibheann san easumhlaíocht d'fhonn trócaire a dhéanamh orthu uilig.

Briathar an Tiarna. FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

ALLELUIA

Alleluia, alleluia!

Is fírinne do bhriathar, a Thiarna.

Déan sinn a naomhú san fhírinne.

Alleluia!

AN SOISCÉAL

Sliocht as an Soiscéal naofa de réir Naomh Maitiú.

15:21-28.

San am sin chuaigh Íosa go dtí ceantar Tuíre agus Síodón. Tháinig bean as Canán amach as na críocha

We invite all the guests and their families and all the helpers who travelled with us over the years to our Mass to celebrate the work of the Donegal Group over these forty years.

NET MINISTRIES My name is Thomas O'Donoghue, from Inver Parish. I will be starting a mission year in Ireland in August 2026 with a young Catholic organisation called NET Ministries. NET's mission is to encourage and support young people to encounter Jesus and embrace the life of the Church. They do this through road teams and through parish teams, organising different clubs and retreats. I'm looking for support in the mission by people financially contributing to it, as we solely rely on the generosity of others for the mission. You can donate on, <https://netireland.org/missionary/thomas-o-donoghue> or contact me on 087 708 0884 or NET Ministries directly at College Court, Main Street, Ballybofey, Co. Donegal, F93 HYE0.

We are grateful to Fr. David Crean OSA, New Ross, Co. Wexford, for the translation.

In memory of Reverend William Drummond who was Parish Priest of Killybegs and Killaghtee for 30 years.
Died 1863, September 13. Age 61.
Buried in this church which,
for the greater glory of God, was built by him.
Stand, Christian reader. Stand. You seek a monument.
Look around you. And with your Christian charity, pray for the soul of him.

Also, in memory of
The Most Illustrious and Most Reverend Donald Mac Gonigle, bishop of Raphoe, one of the group of Irish bishops who were at various sessions of the most holy Council of Trent, Pius IV was pope.
They buried (him). He died in 1585
In Killybegs, September 29.
In blessing will be the memory of him.

Erected by The Parishioners, 1866.

Two thoughts from Dag Hammarskjöld
*'For all that has been - thanks.
To all that will be - yes.'*

*'Do not seek death. Death will find you.
But seek the road which makes death a fulfilment.'*

Forester's Community Hall are exploring the idea of setting up a new social group, bringing back the old-school tradition of sitting down together, having the chats, enjoying a bit of banter and playing some good old-fashioned board games. A relaxed space to meet people, make new friends, have a cuppa and enjoy some fun each week. Drop us a message - we'd love to hear your thoughts.

Entrance Hymn: God's Spirit is in My Heart
God's spirit is in my heart,
He has called me and set me apart,
This is what I have to do, what I have to do.

*He sent me to bring the good news to the poor,
Tell prisoners that they are prisoners no more,
Tell blind people that they can see,
And set the downtrodden free.
And go tell everyone
The news that the kingdom of God has come,
And go tell everyone
The news that God's kingdom has come.*

Just as the Father sent me,
So I'm sending you out to be,
My witnesses throughout the world,
The whole of the world. (Chorus)

Parish Choir Practice Monday 7.15pm

Final Hymn: Faithful is the Lord our King
*Faithful is the Lord, our King.
Let us all in glory sing,
Ever praise in song and word:
Holy, Holy, Holy Lord!*

Holy Father, God of might,
Throned amid the hosts of light;
Take our life, our strength, our love;
King of earth and heav'n above. (Chorus)

Christ, be near at either hand,
Christ, behind, before me stand;
Christ, with me where e'er I go;
Christ, around, above, below. (Chorus)

The Greatness of Eucharistic Adoration

"Those who stand before the Lord in Eucharistic Adoration are fulfilling an eminent service. They are presenting to Christ all those who do not know him or are far from him; they keep watch in his presence on their behalf,"
Pope St. John Paul II

The above quotation from Pope John Paul II speaks of the service we render to others by presenting them to the Lord during our time of Eucharistic Adoration. The Holy Father intended by these words to remind people of the immense good their prayers before the Blessed Sacrament could do for those who right now have little or no knowledge of or time for God and the things of God. In other words, we can and do win graces for others who have need of them; graces of conversion, graces that will set them and confirm them upon their path to God.

During our Holy Hour we sit or kneel in the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ truly present in the Most Holy Eucharist. We gaze upon that little white host and by faith we declare that behind the appearance of bread we encounter the face of the Lord of life. And we bring to him ourselves and those we hold dear – living and deceased.

Only in heaven will we understand the value of our Holy Hour and the good it does our souls and the souls of so many others. And so, we would encourage you to try some time of Eucharistic Adoration for yourself. From the middle of September, across our 2 Parishes and 3 Churches we will have Adoration 3 days a week (Wednesday in Newtown 11am to 8pm; Thursday in St. Johnston 1pm to 6pm; & Friday in Killea 2pm to 6pm). There is, therefore, ample opportunity to find time to be with Jesus' face to face in the Blessed Sacrament. However, these hours are contingent on there being at least 2 people covering each hour. If you have already taken an hour but would like to change your hour, or if you would like to be assigned a particular hour then please fill out and return the leaflets you will find in the porch by next weekend. All hours are available to be taken but we have particular need of adorers from 3pm to 6pm in St. Johnston, and from 7pm – 8pm in Newtown. New adorers would also be needed for the Killea hours on Friday afternoon. Entire family groups might consider taking a particular hour – and then at least two of the group would be present for the hour they have signed up for.

Eucharistic Adoration – St. Patrick's

Following on from the recent meeting of those involved in Eucharistic Adoration, it was agreed to change the hours of adoration in St. Patrick's, from Thursday 10th September. The hours of adoration in St. Patrick's will take place between 2:00 pm and 8:00pm each week.

St. John Paul II said of adoration that, 'Jesus himself is calling you...'

All of us are encouraged to take part in Eucharistic Adoration to help us grow and strengthen our relationship and our closeness to God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It's not a time that's wasted, but a time that nourishes us in our faith and a place where we gain a better awareness of the presence of God with us and his love for us. Spending time with God in adoration connects us with God, but also with one another, as we pray not only for our own needs but for others as well. It can also benefit us personally as it offers us peace, clarity and strength to help us through all we deal with each day in our lives. These are just some of the many blessings and gifts given through adoration. So please consider giving some time to Jesus in the Eucharist. "Deepen your prayer life as well. Spend time praying before the Eucharist in Eucharistic adoration... These practises help you to hear God's voice clearly."

Alpha

The Alpha is a 10-week series of sessions exploring the basics of the Christian faith. Alpha provides a safe space for people of all ages to discuss life, meaning and faith in a friendly and informal environment. Each Alpha session starts with a bit of social time and a cup of tea or something to eat. There is then a video on some aspects of the faith which includes a discussion on the topic with a small group. This time is an opportunity for people to discuss aspects of faith in a very friendly and informative manner. Alpha is open to everyone who wants to explore the Christian faith, particularly those who know little or nothing about it at present and would want to find out more. If anyone is interested in finding out a bit more about Alpha or being part of the next course in the parish starting in September, please contact the Parish Office with your details or speak with Fr. James or any member of the Parish Council. For further information on Alpha, please visit: alphaireland.org/

Community Heritage Grant Scheme 2027

The Heritage Council has introduced a new two-stage application process for the Community Heritage Grant Scheme 2027. An initial Expression of Interest stage will open in September 2026, allowing groups to outline project ideas without the need for detailed budgets or supporting documents. Shortlisted applicants will then be invited to submit a full application by January 2027. Projects must align with one of five themes: Heritage at Risk, Biodiversity & Nature Restoration, Traditional Skills & Conservation, Digital Heritage, Access & Storytelling, or Diversity, Equity & Inclusion. Further details will be available from The Heritage Council in late August 2026.

Donegal Town Community Alert

Donegal Town Community Alert reps will be calling to homes in the area to inform people of how the scheme operates, and collect telephone numbers of those who wish to be included. Anyone wishing to be an Area Rep for the group can contact Rory O'Donnell at 087 2456 994.

SPEEDING THROUGH LETTERMACAWARD VILLAGE – A demonstration/ protest which is being organised by community groups will place on Wednesday 2nd September 2026 at 3pm along the main road on the cycle track/footpath from the Dirlaught crossroads to the Gweebarra Bridge. The speed limit through the village is 60km per hour and this is not been adhered to. Lettermacaward is not prepared to wait for a fatality before action is taken .You are asked to come out and support this demonstration.

MARKET HALL We are delighted to announce the first Market Hall event in Lettermacaward being held in St Bridget's Hall on Saturday 5th September from 1pm to 5pm to celebrate and promote local producers and artists. A huge range of locally produced products await you. There will be more than twenty stallholders all delighted to sell their goods and wares, everything from daily use items such as homebaking, jams and fresh vegetables to creative arts such as paintings and handcrafts. When you are all shopped out please stay a while with a cuppa and a wee treat. So, come along and bring your friends and family and help support our local community.
Parking is available next to the hall. Eircode is F94 TY81. Hope to see you all there!

COME & SEE: Have you heard about the Encounter School of Ministry Course but aren't sure what it's about or if it's for you?
We invite you to 'Come & see' what it's about before you make your decision. Class will take place on Thursdays from 6.30pm (first half hour is prayer and worship) to 9.00pm beginning on 3rd September at All Saints Church, Newtowncunningham.
Participants can attend up to 3 classes without committing to pay for the course. If a participant decides to enrol before the application deadline of October 1st, tuition fees will then be applied. If a participant decides not to continue, there is no obligation. More info or register here:
<https://encounterschool.org/donegal/> or email donegal@encounterschool.org for more information.

DONEGAL GROUP 173 RISE AND SHINE TRUST (formerly The Irish Handicapped Children's Pilgrimage Trust and The Irish Pilgrimage Trust) are celebrating forty years of taking young people with special needs to Lourdes each Easter.
We are celebrating with a special Mass on Saturday 26th September in the Church of the Irish Martyrs, Letterkenny at 12 noon. The Mass will be concelebrated by Bishop Niall Coll and Bishop Donal Mc Keowan, Bishop of Derry and many of the priests who travelled to Lourdes with us over the years.
We invite all the guests and their families and all the helpers who travelled with us over the years to our Mass to celebrate the work of the Donegal Group over these forty years.

CONGRATULATIONS to Mónica Giménez Cortés who accepted the sacrament of Confirmation last weekend in St. Crona's. Pictured with her sponsor Francisco.

A BIG WELCOME to Hughie & Aoife McCready (above) & Cora Christina Cleary (below) who joined the Christian community last week. Congratulations to Danny & Briana Mc Cready & Michael & Dearbháila Cleary & their families.
