Bulletin Reflection 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time – 12th & 13th Sept. 2026

All politics is local, it is said. The Church is local in the community of Holy Cross parish. The message of Jesus come down to us personally answering His Word today before we ask how other people or places are doing.

The Word of God is struggling to be heard amid the noise of war and destruction in so many places. There is more of 'an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth' as in the Old Testament. Instead listen to Jesus today speaking to us and to all people:

"If a person nurses anger against another, can they then demand compassion from the Lord?" [1st Reading at Mass today] The answer must be NO.

"The life and death of each of us has its influence on others."
[2nd Reading at Mass today] We are Influencers whether we know it or not. It is God who wants us to influence for good in a World of evil.

"Lord, how often must I forgive another if they wrong me?"
[Gospel at Mass today] Peter resorted to mathematics in his question to Jesus with his 'how often'. He needed to be reminded of the astonishing promise of Jesus, "Whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in Heaven," The Sacrament of Reconciliation [Confession] puts this within reach of each of us.

Our Eternal Destiny is decided on how I: 1) Forgive others. 2) Work for deep reconciliation with others and 3) Render humble and living service to others.

We have a lot to do, let us get started and take once more to heart the Word of God.

This is the only hope for our World and it is our own personal Key to Heaven.
