Family Mass

We plan to continue the Family Mass on the last Sunday of each month. A few of our younger readers and Eucharistic Ministers have now moved away to third-level education or to jobs elsewhere. So, we need new young volunteers to read or to do the Offertory procession etc. Anyone interested, please come and give your details to any PPC member or to the Parish Office.

Irish Catholic Newspaper

The price of the Irish Catholic will rise to £3.30 from October 2026.

Parish Away Day

The Parish Away Day to Downpatrick took place last Saturday. It was a fine day which everyone enjoyed. So many commented that they hadn't been to those places associated with St Patrick for many a year, indeed since childhood. I would like to thank the PPC for the initiative, to Antoinette for coordinating the trip, and to Elaine Kelly and Marina Purdy who acted as guides, sharing much of their personal story with us. A truly insightful and inspiring day!
