Parish Bulletin
Feast of St Francis of Assisi
4 October 2026

This Sunday's Gospel is a warning to us. When we read the Gospel, we might consider the Kingdom of Heaven is on lease to us, that we have access to the Kingdom only on a temporary basis and that we must nurture that Kingdom, lest it be taken away from us and given to another.

We are asked, specifically, to love the Lord our God with all our hearts, and to announce the kingdom in all we do and are. If we fail to do this, then our life's work is left incomplete.

In each of us there is a God-given gift or seed of sanctity. We are called to help this seed grow and flourish. It must be nurtured and tended on a daily basis. Following the example of the vineyard growers, we must prepare the soil to assist the growth of our hearts and souls, and cut back the growth of negative influences to the point that it hurts. If we fail to give sufficient time and effort to this nurturing of our God-given gift, then the wonderful gift that God has given us to enter his dwelling place may not come to maturity, and we could be cast out from that Kingdom.

There is nothing worse than being without the presence of God. So let us work as hard as we can to develop the kingdom of God in our hearts, to prune back the ego and our hindering sense of self-importance, and to nurture the love of God which has as its heart true humility and peace.

Feast of Saint Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, Grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood, as to understand;

To be loved, as to love;

For it is in giving that we receive, It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
And it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.
Amen.

Carlo Acutis Novena

O God our Father,
we thank you for giving us Carlo, a model of life for young people, and a message of love for all. You made him fall in love with your son Jesus, making the Eucharist his “highway to heaven.” You gave him Mary as a beloved mother, and you made him, through the Rosary, a cantor of her tenderness.
Receive his prayer for us. Look above all upon the poor, whom he loved and assisted.
Grant me too, through his intercession, the grace that I need (mention your intention).
And make our joy full, raising Carlo among the saints of your Church, so that his smile shines again for us to the glory of your name.
