

HOLY CHILD NATIVITY PARISHES

Beaumont | Larkhill | Whitehall | Santry

The Vineyard and the Hidden Oratory by Deacon Damian Murray

Today's readings invite us to see the world through God's eyes. Isaiah sings of the vineyard lovingly planted and tended by God. Jesus tells us of the vineyard entrusted to tenants. Both readings remind us that creation itself is a gift, entrusted to our care so that it may bear good fruit.

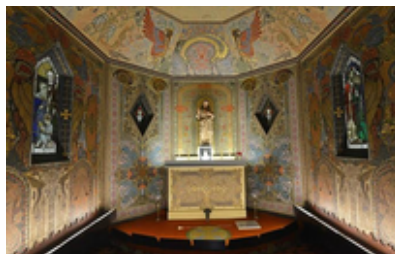

Last week, some of our parishioners visited the Oratory of the Sacred Heart in Dún Laoghaire, a small yet remarkable place of prayer and reflection. Built as a memorial to peace after the devastation of war, it is easy to pass by without noticing. Yet once inside, one encounters a world transformed by beauty and faith. The walls are adorned with richly coloured Celtic Revival artwork painted by Sister Concepta Lynch, whose work draws the eye towards God through images of creation, saints and sacred symbolism.

Standing in that little oratory, one is reminded of a truth that the Celtic spiritual tradition understood deeply: the whole of creation is charged with the presence of God. Nothing is merely ordinary. Everything speaks of the Creator.

As we gathered there, we prayed: "Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord" (Canticle of Daniel 3: 52-90). We called upon the sun and moon, the stars of heaven, the seas and rivers, the birds of the air and all peoples of the earth to join in praise. It teaches us that creation is not simply a backdrop to our lives but a great choir proclaiming God's glory. Perhaps that is a fitting thought on this day when the feast of St Francis of Assisi quietly yields to the Sunday liturgy.

That insight sheds light on today's Gospel. The tragedy of the tenants is that they forgot they were caretakers. They ceased to receive the vineyard as a gift and began to treat it as a possession.

Saint Paul urges us to dwell on whatever is true, noble and good. When we see the world with grateful eyes, we bear the fruits God desires: compassion, justice, peace and love. Amen.

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS (Part 17)

The Dismissal: "Go Forth, the Mass Is Ended"

What is Happening

The word Mass itself comes from the Latin Missa — derived from the dismissal formula "Ite, missa est" — meaning roughly "Go, you are sent." The entire celebration takes its name from its final moment. This is not accidental. The Church is telling us something: the point of everything we have just done is what happens next. The priest may choose from several dismissal forms, including the beautiful: "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord" or "Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life." Each is a commission, not a conclusion.

How We Should Respond

"Thanks be to God" — our final response — should carry the weight of everything that has occurred. We have heard God's Word, offered our gifts, received Christ himself, and been sent. Gratitude is the only adequate reply. Resist treating the final hymn as background noise for gathering coats. The procession out mirrors the procession in — the Mass began with intention and deserves to end the same way.

Living This at Mass

As you leave the church this Sunday, ask yourself one question: where is God sending me this week, and to whom? The doors opening before you are not an exit — they are a beginning. ✦

ST VINCENT DE PAUL OUTDOOR COLLECTION

The monthly outdoor collection will take place this weekend, 3rd & 4th October 2026

Reflection: True obedience isn't spoken but lived—God calls us to humble action, not empty promises, transforming words into faith.

We ask the Lord's blessings on all his creatures, great and small, in this month of October when we celebrate the Feast of St Francis of Assisi. Parishioners are invited to bring their pets to the grounds of the Church of the Nativity of Our Lord in Beaumont for the annual blessing of pets this Sunday, 4th of October, at 14.30pm

FIRST READING

Isaiah 5:1-7 Against the Lord's vineyard

Let me sing to my friend the song of his love for his vineyard.
My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside. He dug the soil, cleared it of stones and planted choice vines in it. In the middle he built a tower, he dug a press there too. He expected it to yield grapes, but sour grapes were all that it gave. And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, I ask you to judge between my vineyard and me. What could I have done for my vineyard that I have not done? I expected it to yield grapes. Why did it yield sour grapes instead? Very well, I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard: I will take away its hedge for it to be grazed on, and knock down its wall for it to be trampled on. I will lay it waste, unpruned, undug; overgrown by the briar and the thorn. I will command the clouds to rain no rain on it. Yes, the vineyard of the Lord of Hosts is the House of Israel, and the men of Judah that chosen plant. He expected justice, but found bloodshed, integrity, but only a cry of distress.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 24(25):4-9

R: The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

You brought a vine out of Egypt; to plant it you drove out the nations.
It stretched out its branches to the sea, to the Great

River it stretched out its shoots. R

Then why have you broken down its walls? It is plucked by all who pass by. It is ravaged by the boar of the forest, devoured by the beasts of the field. R

God of hosts, turn again, we implore, look down from heaven and see.

Visit this vine and protect it, the vine your right hand has planted. R

And we shall never forsake you again; give us life that we may call upon your name.
God of hosts, bring us back; let your face shine on us and we shall be saved. R

SECOND READING

Philippians 4:6-9

If there is anything you need, pray for it.

There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, fill your minds with everything that is true, everything that is noble, everything that is good and pure, everything that we love and honour, and everything that can be thought virtuous or worthy of praise. Keep doing all the things that you learnt from me and have been taught by me and have heard or seen that I do. Then the God of peace will be with you.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Matthew 21:33-43

This is the landlord's heir: come, let us kill him

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a winepress in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad. When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third. Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them. "They will respect my son" he said. But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance." So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They answered, 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives.' Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures:

It was the stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone. This was the Lord's doing and it is wonderful to see?' 'I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

PROFESSION OF FAITH

The Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Let us pray:

Grant us, almighty God, that we may be refreshed and nourished by the Sacrament which we have received, so as to be transformed into what we consume. Through Christ our Lord. Amen
