Thoughts on the Gospel

Matthew 14:13–21 – The Feeding of the Five Thousand

The miracle of the loaves and fishes begins with compassion. Before Jesus fed the crowd, He first recognised their suffering and their need. His heart was moved by those who were tired, hungry, and searching for hope.

In our own busy lives, God gently calls us to notice those around us who may be lonely, discouraged, forgotten, or struggling. A simple word of encouragement, a listening ear, or a small act of kindness may become someone else's miracle.

The disciples looked only at what they didn't have. Faced with thousands of hungry people, they saw only five loaves and two fish. Jesus, however, asked them to offer what they already possessed.

God rarely asks us for what we do not have. Instead, He asks us to place before Him our time, our talents, our compassion, and our willingness to serve. However small these gifts may seem, He is able to multiply them beyond anything we could imagine.

Before distributing the food, Jesus lifted everything to His Father in prayer. This reminds us that surrender is not a sign of weakness or defeat. Rather, it is an act of trust. We all carry burdens that feel too heavy or situations that seem impossible, yet when we place them into God's hands, what appears insufficient can become more than enough.

Finally, the twelve baskets of leftovers remind us of God's overwhelming generosity. His blessings are never intended to stop with us but to flow through us. When we forgive generously, encourage freely, and share what we have with others, God's grace continues to multiply in countless lives.

Prayer

Lord, fill our hearts with compassion. Use the little we have to accomplish great things for Your Kingdom. Teach us to trust You completely, to surrender our limitations into Your hands, and to share Your blessings generously with all whom we meet. Amen.

Pope's Prayer Intention for August

For Evangelisation in the City

Let us pray that in large cities, often marked by anonymity and loneliness, we may discover new ways of proclaiming the Gospel, finding creative paths to build genuine Christian communities.

Prayer for Vocations

We pray for men whom God is calling to the priesthood.

Like Jesus in today's Gospel, may they never turn away from the poor, the hungry, the vulnerable or those most in need, but always reflect the compassionate love of Christ as they nourish His people through the Word of God and the Eucharist.

READINGS FOR 20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME First Reading: Is 56:1, 6-7. This passage from Isaiah serves to introduce today's much-loved gospel passage. The time of writing was probably after 500 BC. The Lord will welcome those Gentiles who come to 'observe and who cling to my (Mosaic) Covenant.' God's house will become for all people a house of heartfelt prayer. Second Reading: Rom. 11:13-15, 29-32. It had been the definitive rejection of Christ by the Jews that had driven the Apostles out of Jerusalem to bring salvation to the Gentiles, i.e., people like the Romans and the Greeks. Yet Paul continues to long that God's mercy may somehow triumph in achieving the conversion of his countrymen. Their choice by God as the Chosen People was permanent and will never be revoked. Gospel: Mt. 15:21-28. Leaving the argumentative Pharisees and scribes behind, Jesus had moved to southern Lebanon. There he encounters a pagan woman who addresses him with an ardent plea. His initially harsh attitude towards her alters mid-stream. He uses the incident to show his disciples how the Lord will always listen to the pleas, made in humble faith, even of pagans JOB OPPORTUNITY (1) Waterside Parish: Administrative & Financial Officer (18 hours per week), Parochial House, 32 Chapel Road, Derry. Thoughts on the Gospel (Matthew 14:13-21)

The miracle of the loaves and fishes began with compassion. Jesus first noticed the crowd's pain before providing for their hunger. In our busy lives, God invites us to see those who are lonely, discouraged, or forgotten. Even small acts of kindness can become someone's miracle.

The disciples focused on what they lacked, yet Jesus asked them to offer what they did have. God rarely asks for what we do not possess. When we offer our time, talents, and resources — however small — He multiplies them in ways we cannot imagine.

Before the food was shared, Jesus surrendered everything to the Father. We too carry burdens that feel heavy, but surrender is not giving up; it is trusting God with our limitations. What seems insufficient to us becomes more than enough in His hands. The abundance left over reminds us that God's blessings are meant to flow through us. When we share generously, encourage others, and forgive freely, His grace continues to multiply.

Lord, fill us with compassion, use what little we offer, and multiply it for Your glory.
Teach us to trust You and to share Your blessings generously. Amen.

Monthly Mass in Honour of St Pio will be celebrated on Wednesday 5th August at 7.00 pm in Immaculate Conception Church, Strabane. We ask God's blessing on all through the intercession of St Pio. Everyone welcome.

Mass on Saturday 15th August at 8.30 am in Sacred Heart Church, Derry Road

Mass on Saturday 15th August at 10.00 am in St Patrick's Church, Murlog.

Masses at the usual times on the evening of Saturday 15th & Sunday 16th August.

Prayer at Time of Exam Results

Dear Lord, in this moment of uncertainty, I seek Your peace and guidance.
Help me to accept the results of my efforts with grace, whether they meet my hopes or not. Grant me the strength to learn and grow from this experience, trusting in Your plan for my life. May I find comfort in Your love and wisdom.
May Your peace fill my heart as I walk forward in faith. Amen.

Requiescant in Pace We offer our sympathy to the family and friends of Harry Mullen, Victoria Rd, Strabane; Bernie Greene, Tipperary.

40 HOURS ADORATION

Will take place in St Michael’s Church, Urris this weekend, Sat Aug 8 & Sun Aug 9 opening with 9:30am Mass on Saturday until 5pm. Continuing after 10am Mass on Sunday and closing with a holy hour from 6-7pm. We invite people to offer some time in adoration during the two days. There is a sheet on the table at the back of the church where volunteers can fill in their name on whatever day or time suits to spend some time in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. There should always be someone present in the Church while the Blessed Sacrament is exposed.

DAY OF PRAYER FOR MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE

Friday August 14 is our Day of Prayer for Marriage & Family Life. The theme is praying for all single people and highlighting their vocation. Every baptised person, from the youngest baby to the oldest woman and man, has an important vocation which comes from the wonderful gift of baptism that each of us has been called to. In August we can focus on how this applies to those who are single and maybe even living alone.

Assumption of Mary
August 15

Saturday August 15—The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

7:30pm Vigil Mass in St Mary’s Church on Fri Aug 14

10am Mass in St Michael’s Church, Urris on Sat Aug 15

11:30am Mass in St Mary’s Church on Sat Aug 15

The Feast of the Assumption is a day of joy. God has won. Love has won. It has won life. Love has shown that it is stronger than death, that God possesses the true strength in goodness and love. Mary was taken up body and soul into heaven. We have a Mother in heaven, the Mother of God, the Mother of the Son of God, is our Mother. He himself has said so. He made her our Mother when he said to the disciples and to all of us:

‘Behold, your Mother!’ We have a Mother in heaven.

Heaven is open, heaven has a heart. Mary spoke with God’s words, she thought with God’s words, her thoughts were God's thoughts, her words, God’s words. She was penetrated by divine light and this is why she was so resplendent, so good, so radiant with love and goodness. Being in God and with God, she is close to each one of us, knows our hearts, can hear our prayers, can help us with her motherly kindness and has been given to us, as the Lord said, precisely as a ‘mother’ to whom we can turn at any moment. She always listens to us, she is always close to us, and being Mother of the Son, participates in the power of the Son and in his goodness. We can always entrust the whole of our lives to this Mother, who is not far from any one of us.

Rosary at the holy well of St. Eigne in Mamore Gap at 3pm on Sat Aug 15
All welcome.

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary 15 August 2026

The Taj Mahal has been described as a 'love song in marble.' Completed in 1645, the magnificent marble mausoleum was built by Shah Jahan, India's Mogul emperor, in memory of his favorite wife, Mumtaz Mahal (= 'the chosen one of the palace').

Her maiden name was Princess Arjumand. Shah Jahan loved her deeply, calling her his 'Taj Mahal,' meaning 'The Pearl of the Palace.' But Princess Mumtaz Mahal died giving birth to their fourteenth child, and the emperor was inconsolable.

So, he summoned a great architect from Persia to build the Taj Mahal, telling him that it must be 'the one perfect memorial in the world.' Seventeen years were needed to build this enchanting edifice of gleaming white marble embroidered with flashing jewels. It is an enduring monument to love that still inspires tourists, artists, and writers from all over the world.

This beautiful love story gives us some idea of how much God must have loved Mary, the mother of Jesus. Today's feast of her Assumption into Heaven is proof of this.

By raising her from the dead and taking her into Heaven – body and soul – God demonstrated His undying love for Mary. Like Shah Jahan, God could not bear the death of His beloved. However, God could do what no Indian emperor could do – raise His beloved from the dead and restore her to life even more beautiful than before.

Moreover, God didn't have to build a Taj Mahal to memorialize Mary. Her glorified body is itself a magnificent temple of the Holy Spirit. (Albert Cylwicki in His Word Resounds).

POINTS TO PONDER

We admire the mother or father who really fights for their child. They won't take no for an answer if their child is being bullied or treated unjustly in any way, they will fight for the best medical treatment for their sick child. The woman in the gospel is like that.

She has a sick child and really wants healing. Who would not want the same? She almost forces Jesus into curing her little daughter. Her persistence is an effect of her faith, and because of her faith Jesus cures her child.

'Dogs' was a name for the Gentiles – and in this story the woman plays on its meaning to get Jesus to feed the dogs and, in this way, care for her.

Maybe this is a 'change moment' for Jesus when he realises through this poor woman that he is sent not only to his own lost ones, but that his mission is for the whole world.

This is not the first biblical figure to argue with the Lord: Genesis and Exodus tell of times when Abraham and Moses gave out to God. This woman is different from the scribes who often tried to trap Jesus with arguments.

She is begging for her daughter. There is something teasing and humorous about Jesus' first reply to her. He enjoyed that Semitic style of thrust and counter.

His first response is what we often experience in prayer: no give. But a mother seeking health for her child is not easily deterred, and Jesus rewards her persistence – I imagine him smiling as he blesses her.

Thoughts on the Gospel

Matthew 14:13–21 – The Feeding of the Five Thousand

The miracle of the loaves and fishes begins with compassion. Before Jesus fed the crowd, He first recognised their suffering and their need. His heart was moved by those who were tired, hungry, and searching for hope.

In our own busy lives, God gently calls us to notice those around us who may be lonely, discouraged, forgotten, or struggling. A simple word of encouragement, a listening ear, or a small act of kindness may become someone else's miracle.

The disciples looked only at what they didn't have. Faced with thousands of hungry people, they saw only five loaves and two fish. Jesus, however, asked them to offer what they already possessed.

God rarely asks us for what we do not have. Instead, He asks us to place before Him our time, our talents, our compassion, and our willingness to serve. However small these gifts may seem, He is able to multiply them beyond anything we could imagine.

Before distributing the food, Jesus lifted everything to His Father in prayer. This reminds us that surrender is not a sign of weakness or defeat. Rather, it is an act of trust. We all carry burdens that feel too heavy or situations that seem impossible, yet when we place them into God's hands, what appears insufficient can become more than enough.

Finally, the twelve baskets of leftovers remind us of God's overwhelming generosity. His blessings are never intended to stop with us but to flow through us. When we forgive generously, encourage freely, and share what we have with others, God's grace continues to multiply in countless lives.

Prayer

Lord, fill our hearts with compassion. Use the little we have to accomplish great things for Your Kingdom. Teach us to trust You completely, to surrender our limitations into Your hands, and to share Your blessings generously with all whom we meet. Amen.

Pope's Prayer Intention for August

For Evangelisation in the City

Let us pray that in large cities, often marked by anonymity and loneliness, we may discover new ways of proclaiming the Gospel, finding creative paths to build genuine Christian communities.

Prayer for Vocations

We pray for men whom God is calling to the priesthood.

Like Jesus in today's Gospel, may they never turn away from the poor, the hungry, the vulnerable or those most in need, but always reflect the compassionate love of Christ as they nourish His people through the Word of God and the Eucharist.

REST A WHILE

In our day-to-day life's journey, oftentimes we are overwhelmed with our daily routines, individual tasks as well as duties and responsibilities. It seems that the 24 hours of the day are not enough because we are too busy with so many things. We do not have time to "stop and smell the roses." We do not have time to relax and to take time out of our busy schedules to appreciate and enjoy God's gift of the beauty of life. We need time to rest, to recognise our human limitations that we need essential respite to prevent us from being exhausted and to avoid the possible danger of breakdown. According to the mechanical engineers, even machines need cooling-off time to prevent overheating. When we approach our "hallowed space" like spending time praying in front of the Blessed Sacrament or lighting candles inside the church, we are refreshed and strengthened. We will be inspired to go on despite all the burdens, challenges, and obstacles in life. That is why after the tiresome and successful mission of the Apostles the Lord told them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Following Jesus' command, these first followers were spiritually and physically recharged to do the next job. We also badly need to have some "refreshment" of the Lord and to spend time with Him in silent prayer to find meaning in every life's situation. In this way, we are far from being "worn out" and preventing ourselves from "falling apart." And so, let us all find time to relax and rest for a while with Him.

EVEN A CRUMB OF MERCY IS ENOUGH

Matthew 15:21–28 tells of the Canaanite woman who begs Jesus to heal her daughter. At first, Jesus seems silent and distant. Even the disciples want her sent away. Yet she refuses to leave. Her prayer is simple and urgent: “Lord, help me.”

When Jesus speaks about the children’s bread not being thrown to the house-dogs, she answers with remarkable humility and trust: “Even house-dogs can eat the scraps that fall from their master’s table.” She does not insist that she deserves anything. She simply believes that even the smallest crumb of God’s mercy is enough to transform her daughter’s life.

Jesus responds: “Woman, you have great faith. Let your wish be granted.” This Gospel teaches us that God’s silence is not necessarily God’s absence. Sometimes prayer appears unanswered, but faith continues to call upon him. The woman moves through silence, apparent rejection and humiliation without surrendering her trust.

She also crosses every boundary: she is a woman, a foreigner and an outsider. Yet Jesus reveals that faith—not race, status or belonging—opens the heart to God’s saving mercy.

A prayer for the week

“Lord, help me. Even a crumb of your mercy is enough.”

SYMPATHY We offer our sympathy to the family of Jim McGarigle, Donal Casey Court who died during the week. May he rest in peace

Mercy to every person “Lord”, the woman said, “help me.” Human life is too big and too complex for any of us to live it on our own. We have all kinds of people and relationships to help us to wholeness. The most important one of all has to be the presence of Christ with us. The intimate relationships of marriage and family life, for example, change so often and so deeply that we cannot manage them on our own. Christ is with us to help us see the opportunities for ever greater loving and to give us the strength to grow in our love. Relationships within the faith community are also so complex that we cannot possibly build our unity with one another except through the power of Christ. When we depend on our own efforts, we set very low limits and settle for mediocrity. When we call on the power of Christ, and live by his power, we are set free to reach for the stars.

We look forward to welcoming the parishioners from the Three Patrons, Derry, to our church this Tuesday evening. The Three Patrons are undertaking a Marian pilgrimage, visiting the parishes of Ardmore, Feeny, Dungiven, Maghera, and Lavey.

The Famine Bell

We have recently acquired, through the good auspices of the Late Father Liam Donnelly, a very old church bell. This bell was cast during the famine years.

It is hoped to place the bell in the old cemetery near the old church ruin in memory of the victims of the Great Famine, many of whom are buried here. It is also a memorial to all victims of conflict in the years since the building of the Church in 1803.

The bell also reminds us that the law of the land forbade Church bells when the old church was built. This was one of the Penal Laws.

Going further back, it also links us to the Great St. Patrick's Bell, which was for many years concealed in Mayogall for safety.

Prayer for Vocations

That the men called to priesthood will "...have a care for justice [and] act with integrity.." as they preach the message of God's salvation for everyone, the Good News that the Church is "...a house of prayer for all the peoples."

Thoughts on the Gospel (Matthew 14:13-21)

The miracle of the loaves and fishes began with compassion. Jesus first noticed the crowd's pain before providing for their hunger. In our busy lives, God invites us to see those who are lonely, discouraged, or forgotten. Even small acts of kindness can become someone's miracle.

The disciples focused on what they lacked, yet Jesus asked them to offer what they did have. God rarely asks for what we do not possess. When we offer our time, talents, and resources — however small — He multiplies them in ways we cannot imagine.

Before the food was shared, Jesus surrendered everything to the Father. We too carry burdens that feel heavy, but surrender is not giving up; it is trusting God with our limitations. What seems insufficient to us becomes more than enough in His hands. The abundance left over reminds us that God's blessings are meant to flow through us. When we share generously, encourage others, and forgive freely, His grace continues to multiply.

Lord, fill us with compassion, use what little we offer, and multiply it for Your glory.
Teach us to trust You and to share Your blessings generously. Amen.

Monthly Mass in Honour of St Pio will be celebrated on Wednesday 5th August at 7.00 pm in Immaculate Conception Church, Strabane. We ask God's blessing on all through the intercession of St Pio. Everyone welcome.

Due to the Current Holiday Period, we wish to notify parishioners that there will be no newsletter until 22nd/23rd August. Apologies for any inconvenience. The office will be open as follows for the following two weeks: 10 am - 2 pm, Monday - Friday. Normal hours will resume on Monday 17th August.

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Saturday 15th August is the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary and is a holy day of obligation. On this feast, we recall Mary's role in the life of Jesus and in salvation. Mass times for the holy day are as follows:

Mass on Saturday 15th August at 8.30 am in Sacred Heart Church, Derry Road

Mass on Saturday 15th August at 10.00 am in St Patrick's Church, Murlog.

Masses at the usual times on the evening of Saturday 15th & Sunday 16th August.

Prayer at Time of Exam Results

Dear Lord, in this moment of uncertainty, I seek Your peace and guidance.
Help me to accept the results of my efforts with grace, whether they meet
my hopes or not. Grant me the strength to learn and grow from this experience, trusting in Your plan for my life. May I find comfort in Your love and wisdom.
May Your peace fill my heart as I walk forward in faith. Amen.

The Soil of Our Lives

This Sunday Jesus tells us the parable of the sower. It is one of the most familiar stories in the Gospels. A farmer scatters seed. Some falls on the path, some on rocky ground, some among thorns, and some on rich soil. Only the rich soil produces a harvest.

Anyone who has ever grown anything in soil knows that you can have the best seed in the world, but if the ground isn't ready, nothing will come of it. The work is in the preparation. The digging, the clearing, the weeding. It is slow and unspectacular, and nobody sees it. But it makes all the difference.

Isaiah reminds us this weekend that God's Word never returns to Him empty. Like the rain and the snow that water the earth, His word always accomplishes what it was sent to do. The seed is never the problem. God is endlessly generous. He scatters His grace everywhere, on all of us, without measure and without favourites. The question the parable puts to each of us is a simple one: what kind of ground is He landing on?

Every one of us has been planted with gifts. Gifts of faith, of kindness, of patience, of prayer. Some of them are lying dormant because the soil of our lives has become hardened, or crowded, or shallow. The worries of the week, the busyness, the old hurts we haven't let go of — these are the thorns and the stones. They don't destroy the seed. They just stop it growing.

The good news is that soil can always be worked: A little time in prayer each day. An honest look at what is choking the Word in us. A return to the Sacraments. Small, quiet acts of clearing the ground! When we do that, our roots go down deeper into God, and we find a steadiness that the heat of life cannot wither.

St Paul tells us the whole of creation is groaning, waiting to be set free. That freedom begins in small plots of ground, that is in hearts like yours and mine that let the Word take root and grow.

So this week, ask the Lord: what needs clearing in me? Then let Him in with the spade! The harvest He promises is thirty, sixty, a hundredfold.

CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK AHEAD

Sunday 16th There is a great mystery in the will of God that all will be saved. He knows the minds and hearts of all and does not judge in a human way. We hold to that belief in the need of membership for salvation, but we do so in the light of the universality of salvation. Like the Canaanite woman we must persevere with a determined faith in seeking the truth in love, until all nations learn of God's salvation and all peoples praise his name.

Monday 17th Our Lady of Knock. Our Lady is believed to have appeared at the south gable of Knock Parish Church on 21 August 1879 in the company of St Joseph and St John the Evangelist. There were fifteen witnesses, young and old, to the apparition. Knock is an internationally recognised Marian shrine and was visited by Pope St. John Paul II as part of his 1979 pilgrimage to Ireland, and by Pope Francis when he visited Ireland for the World Meeting of Families in 2018.

Wednesday 19th St John Eudes (1601-1680), from Normandy, spent a fruitful twenty years with the French Oratory. He founded a congregation to improve the standards of the clergy through seminaries. He also founded the Sisters of Our Lady of Charity and Refuge. A powerful preacher, he was among the first to promote devotion to the Sacred Heart.

Thursday 20th St Bernard (1090-1153), abbot and doctor of the Church. Became a Cistercian monk at Citeaux in 1113 and became abbot of Clairvaux in 1115. A figure of great influence in his day, and even later through his writings.

Friday 21st St Pius X (1835-1914) became Pope in 1903. He encouraged pastoral liturgy and sacramental practice, especially of frequent communion to which he admitted young children.

Saturday 22nd The Queenship of Mary. During the Middle Ages, Mary was venerated as queen of the angels and saints. Pope Pius XII prescribed the memorial for the universal church in 1955, at the close of the Marian Year. Its place on this date to stress the connection of Mary's queenship with the Assumption.

Sunday 23rd 11.30am Mass will be celebrated in Ballinacrae.
 First Anniversary for John Ward at 10am in St Pius X.

Mass this week in St Pius X: Monday to Friday 10am. Saturday 6.30pm; Sunday 10am.

Confessions in St. Pius X Church: Saturday 5.45pm to 6.15pm.

The Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet will be recited in St. Pius X Church, Moville, at 7.30pm every day, from Sunday – Friday. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Monday, 2-9pm; Wednesday, 6-9pm.

We offer our sympathy to the families and friends of Kathleen Morris, Taobh na Cille, who died recently. May she rest in peace.

Thank you for your generous financial support to the parish in the past week, which amounted to €3020 and for the following donation – €2000 and £100.

If you'd like to receive a copy of the parish newsletter by email, please send an email to: movillebulletin@gmail.com The newsletter will be sent out securely, giving no one else access to your email address, in accordance with GDPR.

Prayer for Vocations: That the men called to priesthood will "...have a care for justice [and] act with integrity..." as they preach the message of God's salvation for everyone, the Good News that the Church is "...a house of prayer for all the peoples." We pray to the Lord.

"It is to the glory of my Father that you should bear much fruit and then you will be my disciples." Are you being called to love the Lord and His people as a priest, sister or brother? Anyone interested in serving the Church as a priest of the diocese of Derry should contact the diocesan Vocations Director, Fr Pat O'Hagan, PP Bellaghy and Greenlough, at 0487938 6259 or at pgoh2111@gmail.com

Music continues on Thursday evenings at 8pm in Moville Men's Shed. Love Music? Just Show Up! Singers, players, and socialisers alike are all welcome for a relaxing evening at one of the few Shed activities open to both men and women.

A Feast of Folk with Patsy Cavanagh and friends in The Cairn, at 8pm every Tuesday during July and August. Ballads and Folk songs from Ireland and further afield as seating is limited, please call 9381104.

Serenity House (9382945) serenityhouse@eircom.net Coffee Morning on Friday 21 August, from 10 am-2 pm. Hosted by Anne Mullan, in aid of the Letterkenny Oncology Department.

The Soil of Our Lives

This Sunday Jesus tells us the parable of the sower. It is one of the most familiar stories in the Gospels. A farmer scatters seed. Some falls on the path, some on rocky ground, some among thorns, and some on rich soil. Only the rich soil produces a harvest.

Anyone who has ever grown anything in soil knows that you can have the best seed in the world, but if the ground isn't ready, nothing will come of it. The work is in the preparation. The digging, the clearing, the weeding. It is slow and unspectacular, and nobody sees it. But it makes all the difference.

Isaiah reminds us this weekend that God's Word never returns to Him empty. Like the rain and the snow that water the earth, His word always accomplishes what it was sent to do. The seed is never the problem. God is endlessly generous. He scatters His grace everywhere, on all of us, without measure and without favourites. The question the parable puts to each of us is a simple one: what kind of ground is He landing on?

Every one of us has been planted with gifts. Gifts of faith, of kindness, of patience, of prayer. Some of them are lying dormant because the soil of our lives has become hardened, or crowded, or shallow. The worries of the week, the busyness, the old hurts we haven't let go of — these are the thorns and the stones. They don't destroy the seed. They just stop it growing.

The good news is that soil can always be worked: A little time in prayer each day. An honest look at what is choking the Word in us. A return to the Sacraments. Small, quiet acts of clearing the ground! When we do that, our roots go down deeper into God, and we find a steadiness that the heat of life cannot wither.

St Paul tells us the whole of creation is groaning, waiting to be set free. That freedom begins in small plots of ground, that is in hearts like yours and mine that let the Word take root and grow.

So this week, ask the Lord: what needs clearing in me? Then let Him in with the spade! The harvest He promises is thirty, sixty, a hundredfold.

A short reflection on today's Gospel Matthew 15:21-28

Today's Gospel contains an exchange between Jesus and a Canaanite woman in which Jesus appears to exercise racism and elitism to a degree which shocks us to the core. But is this what is really taking place! Is Jesus a victim of inherited prejudice and an unquestioning acceptance of Jewish supremacy? Or is he demonstrating effectively what happens when we fail to reach out in love to all mankind: when we fail to realise that it is God's will and the will of Jesus, His beloved Son, for us to grow in universal love and care as opposed to self-love, racism and the false notion of selected supremacy! What happens is that a child remains suffering in torment while a loving mother is forced to watch on in helpless anguish. Jesus always sees into the truth which lives in the heart. He sees into the heart of the Canaanite woman. He sees her love for her tormented child. He sees her willingness to suffer insult for the sake of her child. And he sees her unflinching faith in him as her child's only hope.

Jesus, may we grow and mature daily in universal love and care, away from 'self-love and elitism' in the knowledge that it is your will that we do so.

Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood: That the men called to priesthood will "... have a care for justice (and) act with integrity..." as they preach the message of God's salvation for everyone, the Good News that the Church is "a house of prayer for all the peoples".

"Bishop Daly - A Man for all Seasons" 2026 Exhibition celebrates the life, influence, work and legacy of Bishop Edward Daly opened on Saturday 8th August at 11.00am. Exhibition times are 11.00am to 4.00pm in the Conference Room above the Sacristy in Saint Eugene's Cathedral, Creggan Street, Derry, BT48 9AP. The Exhibition will run until 18th August and everyone is welcome.

The National Novena to Our Lady of Knock takes place at Knock Shrine from Thursday 13th to Friday 21st August 2026. Novena ceremonies will be celebrated daily at 3.00pm and 8.00pm, with workshops and guided prayer sessions also taking place throughout the nine days. This year's theme is "Sheltered in God's Love." See the full program at www.knockshrine.ie.

The St Dymphna Mass with Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated at St Eugene's Cathedral on Tuesday 18 August at 7.30pm. This Mass is to give thanks to God for positive mental health and to pray for those who are struggling with mental health issues and those who care for them.

Prayer to Our Lady of Mental Peace

Mother of tranquillity, Mother of Hope, Our Lady of Mental Peace. We reach out to you for what is needful in our weakness. Teach a searching heart that God's love is unchanging, that human love begins and grows by touching God's love.

Let your gentle peace – which the world cannot give – be always with me. And help me to bring this same peace into the lives of others.

Our Lady of Mental Peace – pray for me.

Thoughts on the Gospel

Matthew 14:13–21 – The Feeding of the Five Thousand

The miracle of the loaves and fishes begins with compassion. Before Jesus fed the crowd, He first recognised their suffering and their need. His heart was moved by those who were tired, hungry, and searching for hope.

In our own busy lives, God gently calls us to notice those around us who may be lonely, discouraged, forgotten, or struggling. A simple word of encouragement, a listening ear, or a small act of kindness may become someone else's miracle.

The disciples looked only at what they didn't have. Faced with thousands of hungry people, they saw only five loaves and two fish. Jesus, however, asked them to offer what they already possessed.

God rarely asks us for what we do not have. Instead, He asks us to place before Him our time, our talents, our compassion, and our willingness to serve. However small these gifts may seem, He is able to multiply them beyond anything we could imagine.

Before distributing the food, Jesus lifted everything to His Father in prayer. This reminds us that surrender is not a sign of weakness or defeat. Rather, it is an act of trust. We all carry burdens that feel too heavy or situations that seem impossible, yet when we place them into God's hands, what appears insufficient can become more than enough.

Finally, the twelve baskets of leftovers remind us of God's overwhelming generosity. His blessings are never intended to stop with us but to flow through us. When we forgive generously, encourage freely, and share what we have with others, God's grace continues to multiply in countless lives.

Prayer

Lord, fill our hearts with compassion. Use the little we have to accomplish great things for Your Kingdom. Teach us to trust You completely, to surrender our limitations into Your hands, and to share Your blessings generously with all whom we meet. Amen.

Pope's Prayer Intention for August

For Evangelisation in the City

Let us pray that in large cities, often marked by anonymity and loneliness, we may discover new ways of proclaiming the Gospel, finding creative paths to build genuine Christian communities.

Prayer for Vocations

We pray for men whom God is calling to the priesthood.

Like Jesus in today's Gospel, may they never turn away from the poor, the hungry, the vulnerable or those most in need, but always reflect the compassionate love of Christ as they nourish His people through the Word of God and the Eucharist.

Sunday 16th August 2026 – Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

The Gospel for this Sunday recounts Jesus' encounter with a Canaanite woman whose daughter is tormented by a demon (Matthew 15:21-28). Initially, Jesus appears dismissive, stating that He was sent only to the lost sheep of Israel and even comparing her to a dog unworthy of the children's bread. Yet, the woman persists, humbly acknowledging her need and demonstrating remarkable faith. Her courage and persistence lead Jesus to commend her faith and heal her daughter.

This passage challenges us to reflect on faith and humility. True faith is not about pretending to be strong; it is about admitting our need for God and asking for help, even when answers seem delayed or social barriers make it difficult. The woman's example teaches that persistence in prayer and trust in God's mercy can overcome obstacles and bring about transformation, both for ourselves and others.

PILGRIMAGE TO CYPRUS

The parish is considering a 7-night pilgrimage to Cyprus from 16-23 May 2027, following in the footsteps of St Paul and St Barnabas. The pilgrimage would include visits to many of Cyprus's most important Christian and historical sites, with the opportunity to celebrate Mass in places closely associated with the early Church.

The package includes direct flights from Belfast, full-board accommodation in a four-star seafront hotel, and a guided programme of pilgrimage visits throughout the week. The estimated cost is £1,675 per person. At this stage, we are simply seeking expressions of interest. If you think you may wish to join the pilgrimage, please contact the parish office. Registering your interest is not a commitment to travel.

VOCATIONS

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Woman, you have great faith”

The Canaanite woman in the Gospel appears almost to be the opposite of Peter from last week whom Jesus accused of having little faith. As an outsider, she comes to him with a mother’s urgent prayer: “Lord, help me.” At first her plea seems to meet silence and resistance. Yet she does not walk away: she remains humble, courageous, and persistent, trusting that even the smallest share in God’s mercy is enough to bring healing.

Her faith it is not loud in a demanding entitled way. She displays a strong faith in the sense of refusing to give up on Jesus. She, an outsider, recognises him as Lord and places before him the suffering of someone she loves. Many of us will know something of that prayer: the prayer made beside a hospital bed, for a family member in difficulty, for a child who has lost their way, or for a burden that we carry that seems slow to lift.

Jesus’ final words to her are full of hope: “Woman, you have great faith.” The Gospel reminds us that God’s mercy is wider than our boundaries. The first reading speaks of God’s house as “a house of prayer for all peoples,” and the Gospel shows that promise beginning to unfold in the life of Christ. No one who turns to the Lord with faith is beyond his compassion.

This Gospel is both comforting and challenging. It comforts us by teaching us to persevere in prayer, even when answers seem delayed. It challenges us to become a community where those who feel distant, overlooked, or outside the usual circle can still encounter welcome, dignity, and mercy. This week, let us pray with the Canaanite woman’s simple words: “Lord, help me.” And let us ask for the grace to see others with the generous heart of Christ.

We pray for Maureen McCauley of Camelia Court and David Phillips of Chapel Road both of whom were buried following Requiem Masses on Saturday

Anniversaries – We are asked to remember in prayer: Celine Friel, Jim Quigley, Ethna McGrath, John Minahan, Tommy McNaught, Helen Cairns, Terry Doherty.

Vocations – We pray for the men called to priesthood. That the men called to priesthood will "...have a care for justice [and] act with integrity..." as they preach the message of God's salvation for everyone, the Good News that the Church is "...a house of prayer for all the peoples." For those interested or even wish to enquire about a call to diocesan priesthood, please contact Fr. Pat O'Hagan, Vocations Director for the Diocese of Derry at pgoh2111@gmail.com

Vocations Society of St Joseph (Waterside Parish) We continue to pray for priests, vocations to priesthood and religious life and support seminarians. The Rosary on Thursday mornings at 9.30am offered for this intention and everyone welcome.

Lectio Divina – Join us on Thursday evenings at 8:00pm in St Columb's Church for our weekly praying of the Sacred Scriptures.

Offertory Collections: Glendermott: £4,080.00 Strathfoyle: £660.00

Thank you for your generosity to the parish collections.

Are you interested in volunteering to help children and adults in our parish to prepare to receive the Sacraments? If you have a basic knowledge of Catholic teaching and some teaching experience (not essential), please contact the Parish Office Tel. 02871 342303. You will join a small parish team and be supported in preparing and delivering sessions. The time commitment would be around 2 hours per week from end of September to May. Safeguarding checks will be carried out.

"He who sings, prays twice."* (St Augustine) – St Columb's church choir is on its summer break for the months of July & August and will resume in September. We are constantly looking for new singers, maybe you would consider joining, just come along and give it a try or talk to Marcus or any choir members.
