Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the story of two sons. One says "no" to his father but later changes his mind and goes to work; the other says "yes" but does not follow through.

The message is simple but challenging: God looks not only at what we say, but at how we live. We can sometimes make promises, say the right things, or appear faithful, yet fail to put our faith into action. At other times, we may have made mistakes or wandered from God, but then have the humility to turn back and do what is right.

God does not ask for perfection. He asks for a willing heart that is ready to change. Every day gives us another opportunity to say "yes" to God—not merely with our words, but through kindness, forgiveness, service and love.

May our "yes" to God be seen in the way we live.

The death of Fr Jim on 1st September came as a shock to the entire parish of Clones and beyond. We extend our deepest condolences to Fr Jim's family and his many, many friends.

Fr Jim came to us on 1st September 2020 taking over as Parish Priest from Fr Dick (RIP). During these years he suffered poor health but continued working, ministering to his parishioners and restoring and enriching the parish after COVID. Despite his ill health, he always told us how happy he was in Clones Parish. His team, the parishioners and his beloved Killylack, were a great source of pride and comfort to him.

Apart from the sacramental work in the parish, he supported all the various events being organized and took great delight in seeing these come to fruition. Not a fan of tik-tok, or doing the promo work, he took great delight in asking how many 'likes' or 'shares' our posts had on social media!

His sense of humour and straight talking led to many interesting conversations but he was always on hand to offer us advice and support. We will miss him greatly.

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

World Day of Migrants and Refugees

God gives us the gift of repentance. In the parable of the two sons, Jesus holds up the example of the public sinners in his time being converted while the establishment figures refuse to listen to his message. World Day of Migrants and Refugees – 27th September

It is surprising that even though migration is a phenomenon as old as time, both globally and locally we remain so divided in relation to it. Perhaps the different ways to define someone that moved from home makes it easier to alienate and discriminate against migrants, but if yes then we as a society have a responsibility to remember that we are all people and we are all trying our best to live life as best we can. The way in which this is possible is different for everyone, and everyone deserves to have their human rights respected regardless of where they come from and where they end up on this planet.

The Pope's Intention for October - For mental health ministry Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illness.

Points to Ponder

In today's Gospel we find the two sons, each doing the opposite to what they declare; while Jesus tells us that tax collectors and prostitutes paid attention to John the Baptist and they changed too. There is plenty of common ground between those bible figures and our own fickle behaviour.

One day we can be full of fervour and keen to profess our Christian faith, come what may. The next we can't pray. We ask where is the God of yesterday? Is all our time wasted? Those who reject belief, faith, Church, religion and moral responsibility continue life as contented, apparently, as everyone else. Many of them were our classmates with whom we received our First Holy Communion and Confirmation. They don't darken the door of the Church anymore. They changed their minds!

Of all the gifts given to us by God, the freedom of choice is perhaps the greatest. We're not pre-determined beings; our choices are sacred and are literally our making, our doing and undoing. When we respond positively to God's grace as also reflected in the best and noblest inspirations and aspirations of our environment, we're shaping ourselves more firmly in the image and likeness of God our Creator.

Part of the challenge of our day is to ignore the choices made by others and content ourselves with our own good choices which uplift, and determine a better tomorrow for ourselves and society.

Let us pray for those who have changed their minds or way of life and turned away from God. May they experience afresh the fervour of their early faith and experience anew God's gifts of peace and joy. Fr Maurice Henry SMA

“We scientists don’t know how to do that” “I used to think the top environmental problems were biodiversity loss, ecosystem collapse and climate change. I thought that with 30 years of good science we could address those problems. But I was wrong. The top environmental problems are selfishness, greed and apathy.... and to deal with those we need a spiritual and cultural transformation - and we scientists don’t know how to do that” Gus Speth.

Church re- opening Fr Martin & Fr. Michael welcomes back our parishioners to the weekday & Sunday Masses. It's great having a live congregation back in the church after the long lockdown. All those attending are reminded that face covering are a necessary part of life still if we are to ensure the safety and health of each other while in the church and in the grounds. It is most important that people who are vulnerable or unwell, and especially those with any symptoms that might suggest Covid-19 infection, should stay at home and, if possible, participate, via webcam. The same applies to those who have been in recent contact with someone who has the virus, in accordance with public health advice. We look forward to welcoming you back.

Anniversary Masses

People are encouraged to have these Masses on a Friday evening as well as the Sunday Mass. This will ensure that there is no overcrowding in the church during any Mass Meeting of Ushers. After the Wednesday evening Mass there will be a short meeting to organise ushers over the next few months. Present ushers and new members are invited to attend.

Church cleaning Thanks to all those that have helped in keeping the inside of the church and the grounds clean and tidy. The work of both groups is greatly appreciated.

WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY is celebrated throughout the Catholic Church. The theme this year is "Come and See" (Jn 1:46). Communicating by Encountering People Where and as They Are. Pope Francis tells us that 'the Gospel comes alive in our own day, whenever we accept the compelling witness of people whose lives have been changed by their encounter with Jesus... The challenge that awaits us today, is to communicate by encountering people, where they are and as they are.'

Wednesday 30 September 2026, is Nonspeaking Awareness Day. You are asked to consider offering a special prayer, for Nonspeaking and Nonverbal children, teenagers and adults on this Wednesday. This would be a simple opportunity to pause, pray and recognise people who communicate in many different ways — Nonspeaking does not mean without a voice, feelings, thoughts, faith, intelligence or worth. Our message is simple:

All voices matter.

All lives matter.

Every person deserves to be seen, valued and included.

Reflection: Can We Still Think Better of It?

There are things about ourselves that other people sometimes see before we do: a way we react, a resentment we carry, a tendency to control. Someone may even try to tell us. Sometimes we listen. Sometimes we become defensive. In today's Gospel, the first son refuses his father's request but later "thinks better of it" and changes direction. The religious leaders can see that he eventually did what was right. What they find harder is to recognise that they too might need to think again. That is a difficulty all of us can have. The danger is not simply that we might be wrong, but that we become unable to see that we might be wrong. Sometimes, however, the difficulty lies with another person who will not change. We cannot make another person see. So the Gospel leaves us with two questions: What might I need to see differently? And what do I now need to entrust to God?

Church of the Immaculate Conception 200th Anniversary: We will mark this significant milestone with a Celebration Mass on Sunday 4th October at 11.00am. We would appreciate if you had any old photos, memories or recollections to share. Photographs can be scanned and returned to the owner or copies can be forwarded to tempo@clogherparishes.ie

We would ask that the gallery be reserved for the Choir, musicians and St Mary's Silver band on the day. Parishioners are requested to bring along Rosary beads and any other religious items they would like blessed.

Tea/Coffee and Refreshments will be available in St Mary's Community Centre after Mass.
