Jesus said: (Forgive each other) "Not seven times, I tell you, but seventy-seven times." The old film Love Story had the famous statement in it: "love means never having to say sorry". The truth is just the opposite. Love means constantly having to say sorry because that is the nature of close relationships.

Forgiveness is a vital element in love because unforgiveness roots us in the past and in past events and experiences. Jesus' word to us this week is to exercise and develop this power, especially within the intimate relationships of marriage and family so that our homes may be filled with peace and joy. This takes time and effort on the part of everyone. This power also needs to be exercised within the faith community, which can so easily be divided by hurts or by rivalries or past histories. And at this time of scandals in the Church, forgiveness is needed if we are ever to move forward with hope.

Father Johnny Doherty, C.Ss.R.

Thoughts on the Gospel (Matthew 18:21-35) The gospel today tells of Peter asking Jesus how many times he should forgive someone who wrongs him. Jesus responds with a parable: a servant forgiven of an immense debt refuses to forgive a fellow servant of a small debt. The lesson is clear: those who receive mercy must extend mercy.

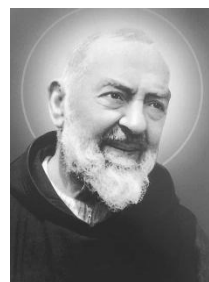

Forgiveness begins with humility, recognising our own frailty and the mercy we have received. It is not weakness, but strength rooted in grace. Humility opens our hearts to God's mercy and enables us to extend that same mercy to others.

Forgiveness also requires empathy. By seeing the humanity of those who hurt us, we can respond with compassion without excusing wrongdoing. In forgiving, we honour the forgiveness we ourselves have received and become stewards of grace. Ultimately, forgiveness reshapes our hearts, relationships, and communities, making us more like the One who forgives endlessly.

The parable of the unforgiving servant is not just a warning; it is an invitation. It calls us to live with a HEART shaped by humility, empathy, accountability, release, and transformation. Forgiveness is not easy, but it is essential. When we forgive, we reflect the very heart of God. And in doing so, we discover freedom, peace, and the joy of a life lived in mercy.

Lord, help us forgive with humble hearts and share your mercy with others. Amen.

A Time of Prayer in Honour of St Pio As we prepare to celebrate the feast day of St Pio on Wednesday 23rd September, we invite all to take part in a Novena of Prayer beginning on Monday 14th September. Prayer cards will be available in the coming days for people to offer prayers to St Pio. Prayer and reflection on the life of St Pio will be included in weekend Masses on 19th and 20th September. Please note that Mass will be celebrated in Sacred Heart Church, Derry Rd on Saturday 19th September at 9.00 am when we will include prayers for bishop-elect, Bishop Router and prayers in honour of St Pio. On Monday 21st, Tuesday 22nd and Wednesday 23rd September, all are welcome to join in a triduum of prayer at various times - more details in next weekend's newsletter. Bishop Router has kindly agreed to offer Mass at 7.00 pm on Wednesday 23rd September, the Feast of St Pio, at St Patrick's Church, Murlog. Further details to follow. People from all parishes in our pastoral area are warmly welcome to come along to this Mass.

Installation of Bishop Michael Router As the diocese prepares to celebrate the joyous occasion of the installation of Bishop Router as Bishop of Derry on Sunday 20th September, parishioners throughout the diocese are invited to participate in a Triduum of Masses, on Friday 18th, Saturday 19th & Sunday 20th September. This is an important occasion for all of us in the diocese and people are invited to pray as a community or at home as a family or individually. We invoke the intercession of the Holy Spirit and the words 'Come Holy Spirit'. So too, we pray for the presence of Our Lady and protection of St Michael the Archangel and of course the intercession of St John Vianney and St Pio.

For the pastoral area, Mass will be celebrated as follows:

Friday 18th September:

8.00 am: Sacred Heart Church, Derry Road
