Vocations Prayer: In our first reading this weekend we hear about the people of Samaria receiving the Holy Spirit. As we approach Pentecost, we pray for a fresh and powerful outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the Church, on the world, on our country, on our parish communities, and on each one of us. May the Spirit fill the hearts and minds of deacons, seminarians, and all those discerning a vocation to the diocesan priesthood, and may many more hear and follow the call to serve the Church as priests.

The Little Way Novena in St. Eugene's Cathedral – 9th – 17th May: The theme is 'My Peace Consists in Remaining Little'. The Novena begins at the 7.30pm Mass on Saturday 9th May with the Sacrament of the Sick. Devotions and talk on Sunday 10th May at 6.00pm. Monday to Friday (11th – 15th May) Novena Masses at 6.30am and 10.00am each morning and an evening service with a guest speaker at 7.30 pm. Saturday 16th May 10.00am Mass for those who have died. The Novena closes with blessing of the roses on Sunday 17th May at 3.00pm. Everyone is welcome at St. Eugene's Cathedral for this time of prayer and petition.

Knock Pilgrimage to Pray for Peace in the Holy Land: People from all over Ireland are invited to Knock Shrine on Saturday 16th May for a special pilgrimage to pray for peace in the Holy Land. Irish Bishops call for prayer and fasting for Gaza

- “We call on all Catholics to make 6 June, a day of prayer and fasting for Gaza” – Irish Bishops

Irish Bishops offered prayers for peace in the Holy Land, for Ukraine, Sudan and in other troubled parts of the world at their Standing Committee meeting in Maynooth on 26 May. In particular, bishops discussed the humanitarian catastrophe in Gaza, stating:

“From all over Ireland, parishioners are reporting their horror and helplessness on seeing images of death and communal destruction in Gaza. Exhausted mothers can no longer nourish their young, children are dying of malnutrition, while aid lorries full of supplies are being refused entry into the territory, or are not safely arriving at their destination.

“We in Ireland must pray for a change of heart. Throughout the month of June – the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus – we call on everyone to pray for an outpouring of the compassion of God on a heartless world.

“To see the relentless bombardment of civilian areas, the deliberate withholding of food from the starving, as well as the callous holding of hostages, it appears that humanity has lost its heart. In the face of these horrors, we invite everyone to turn to the heart of Jesus throughout the month of June by praying for the renewal of heart that our world so desperately needs. In particular, we call on all Catholics to make 6 June, a day of prayer and fasting in solidarity with our sisters and brothers who are suffering at this time in the Holy Land.

“We echo Pope Leo XIV’s recent appeal to allow into Gaza ‘the entry of dignified humanitarian aid and to put an end to the hostilities, whose heart-breaking price is paid by the children, elderly, and the sick.’”

DAY FOR LIFE On this year’s Day for Life, Sunday 21 st June, we reflect on the wonder of human life from the moment of conception. We remember how the LORD Jesus Christ Himself sanctified and experienced the beginning of life in the world as an unborn child, hidden in the womb of Mary. Mary knew that she was carrying the Son of God – God and man – as soon as He was conceived. John the Baptist leapt in his mother Elizabeth’s womb when Mary greeted her. Our Lady treasured Our Lord in her heart and womb until His birth. STAR OF THE SEA, DESERTEGNEY Masses streamed on www.youtube.com/@BuncranaParish Sunday 21 June - Mass at 9:45am	READINGS FOR 11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME First Reading: Ex 1 9:2-6. It been 3 months from when the Israelites had left Egypt to when they had reached Mount Sinai. Having delivered them in such a miraculous fashion from a cruel life of slavery, Yahweh’s next step was to invite them to become his very own people, chosen out of all the world. He would first make them holy, and through them the whole world. Second Reading: Rm 5:6-11. If one takes a moment to consider this reading one feels like repeating today’s psalm: ‘Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth...’ Why? Because with his customary insight Paul points out how incredibly reliable is God’s love: if he has sent his only Son to redeem the human race while we were still repugnant to Him, how much more caring of us must he now be, now that we have been reconciled to Him? It is indeed a cause for unbridled joy. Gospel: Mt 9:36 – 10:8. Today’s first reading told us of Yahweh’s intervention in world history to invite the Israelites to become his special people. Today’s gospel widens that invitation to all the world. The invite of course would not be universally accepted. Jesus understands our difficulty and promises to send us the Holy Spirit, through the ministry of his anointed ministers. So we must ask the Lord of the harvest.....’	MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT WEEKEND hosted by Marriage Encounter Ireland will take place at the Focolare Centre, Curryhills, Prosperous, Co. DERRY DIOCESAN PILGRIMAGE TO LOUGH DERG 2026: Friday 24 – Sunday 26 July. If you are hoping to do the three-day pilgrimage this year, why not join the diocesan pilgrimage.

In today's Gospel, Jesus encourages us to pray for vocations because there is a great need for workers in the abundant harvest of the Church and the world. We pray that those being called to do this work will respond generously.

We pray especially today for Stephen Baxter who will be ordained as a priest of the Diocese of Derry, in St Columb's Church, Waterside, Derry, this afternoon at 3.00pm, Sunday 14 June. May the Lord of the harvest bless Stephen in his ministry among us.

St John Vianney, pray for us.

June - Month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus: Throughout the month of June, the Church honours the Sacred Heart of Jesus, a reminder of Christ's great love for each one of us. Families are invited to pray often the simple aspiration, "Most Sacred Heart of Jesus I place all my trust in Thee" during this month. In particular, parents are encouraged to pray this short prayer with their children - perhaps before leaving in the morning, in the car, at tea time or before going to bed. May devotion to the Sacred Heart draw the families of our parishes ever closer to the loving Heart of Jesus.

As St Teresa of Avila reminds us.
Christ has no hands... He has only our hands to do His work today.
Christ has no feet... He has only our feet to guide men along His path.
Christ has no lips... He has only our lips to announce Him to the people of today.
Christ has no means... He has only our help to lead people to Himself.
We are the only Bible that people still read.
We are the last message of God
Written in words and in deeds

ANNUAL SERVICE OF INTERCESSION FOR THE DEAD

Takes place in the City Cemetery today, Sunday 7 June at 3pm.

Please be in position at 2.30pm. Families are asked to bring their own holy water to the Cemetery for the blessing of the graves. At the appropriate time

Bishop McKeown will ask a representative of each family to sprinkle their family grave (and neighbouring grave if there is no-one present). There will be no holy water in the Cemetery. 150 car parking spaces will be made available for Blue Badge holders within the Cemetery. The places will be allocated on a first come first served basis to current Blue Badge holders and can be booked at www.derrystrabane.com/cemeterysunday.

We would greatly appreciate cooperation with staff to ensure everyone can have safe and easy access to this time of prayer. The Service will also be live streamed and available to view at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zvtk3PsOheU>.

Day for life 2026

On this year’s Day for Life, Sunday 21st June, we reflect on the wonder of human life from the moment of conception.
We remember how the LORD Jesus Christ Himself sanctified and experienced the beginning of life in the world as an unborn child, hidden in the womb of Mary.
Mary knew that she was carrying the Son of God – God and man – as soon as He was conceived. John the Baptist leapt in his mother Elizabeth’s womb when Mary greeted her. Our Lady treasured Our Lord in her heart and womb until His birth. To read the full bishops’ message visit www.councilforlife.ie

Limited tickets remaining for Owen Mac Gospel by

Set to be a wonderful evening, don’t miss out!
Tickets can be purchased in the Sacristy, Parish Office or the Laurel Hill Spar.

We Pray

In today's gospel Jesus encourages us to pray for vocations because there is a great need for workers in the abundant harvest of the Church and the world. We pray that those being called to do this work will respond generously.
Here in the diocese of Derry we pray especially for Stephen Baxter who will be ordained as a priest for service in the diocese, in St Columb's Church, Waterside, at 3pm today, Sunday 14 June. May the Lord of the harvest bless Stephen in his ministry among us.

St. John's Summer Fair

St John’s annual summer fair is taking place on Wednesday 17th June at 6-8pm. Entry is £2, it promises to be a wonderful evening for the community. Top raffle prize - $450 Roe Valley Resort voucher. Tickets £5 each, available from the school office.

A DAY OF REFLECTION

June 21st is a day which is set aside each year to acknowledge the deep hurt and pain caused by the conflict in Northern Ireland. On this day we remember every single death arising directly from the terrible conflict. Causeway Churches Forum will mark the Day of Reflection with a special service in Coleraine Methodist Church on Sunday 21st June between 3pm and 6pm. The names of all who lost their lives will be reverently read aloud from the Lost Lives book and all are invited to participate in the reading of the names. Feel free to drop into the Church anytime between 3pm and 6pm for private reflection.

DIOCESE OF DERRY LOUGH DERG PILGRIMAGE 2026:

The Diocese of Derry Three-Day Pilgrimage to Lough Derg will take place from Friday 24 July to Sunday 26 July 2026. Lough Derg continues to welcome people seeking prayer, peace, reflection and renewal in the midst of busy lives. A bus will travel from St Eugene's Cathedral, via Strabane and Lifford. Cost: £95 / €110 including bus transport. You are welcome, of course, to use your own means of transport. Booking form and full details available at:
derrydiocese/lough-derg

St Johns end of year Mass

A special end of school year Mass will be held on Thursday 18th June at 1pm. At this time, we would like to bid a fond farewell to St Johns Principal Mrs Helen McDonnell as she takes up a new post as Principal of St Patricks & St Brigid’s School in Ballycastle. We all wish her every success in her new appointment.

Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes 2026:

DERRY DIOCESAN PILGRIMAGE TO LOUGH DERG 2026: Friday 24 – Sunday 26 July. If you are hoping to do the three-day pilgrimage this year, why not join the diocesan pilgrimage.

In today's Gospel, Jesus encourages us to pray for vocations because there is a great need for workers in the abundant harvest of the Church and the world. We pray that those being called to do this work will respond generously.

We pray especially today for Stephen Baxter who will be ordained as a priest of the Diocese of Derry, in St Columb's Church, Waterside, Derry, this afternoon at 3.00pm, Sunday 14 June. May the Lord of the harvest bless Stephen in his ministry among us.

St John Vianney, pray for us.

June - Month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus: Throughout the month of June, the Church honours the Sacred Heart of Jesus, a reminder of Christ's great love for each one of us. Families are invited to pray often the simple aspiration, "Most Sacred Heart of Jesus I place all my trust in Thee" during this month. In particular, parents are encouraged to pray this short prayer with their children - perhaps before leaving in the morning, in the car, at tea time or before going to bed. May devotion to the Sacred Heart draw the families of our parishes ever closer to the loving Heart of Jesus.

Commissioned by Christ to Reach Out

A young mother was taking a course in sociology. The class was assigned to go out and smile at three people and document their reaction. The next day she and her family were in a McDonald's on a cold, clear morning. She writes, "We were standing in line, waiting to be served, when suddenly everyone around us began to back away, and then even my husband did. I did not move an inch. As I turned around, I smelled a horrible 'dirty body' smell, and there standing behind me were two poor, homeless men. One of them smiled up at me, looking for acceptance. The second man fumbled with his hands, obviously mentally deficient and totally dependent on his friend. They had a handful of coins and bought only coffee because that was all they could afford. They had to buy something in order to sit down where it was warm. Acting on impulse, I bought two extra breakfasts and took them to the table where the men sat. I put the tray on the table and laid my hand on the blue-eyed gentleman's cold hand. He looked up at me with tears in his eyes and said, 'Thank you.' I leaned over, began to pat his hand and said, 'I did not do this for you; God is here working through me to give you hope.'"

Here is a Christian lady commissioned by Christ to reach out "the sheep without shepherds" as Jesus sent his apostles to the shepherdless sheep with teaching and healing authority as described in today's Gospel.

In light of the recent protests and disturbances in Belfast, the neighbourhood Sergeant for Omagh has been in touch to offer reassurance to foreign national families living in the parish. If anyone requires assistance or support, they are encouraged to contact him on 0758167194.

DAY FOR LIFE On this year's Day for Life, Sunday 21st June, we reflect on the wonder of human life from the moment of conception. We remember how the LORD Jesus Christ Himself sanctified and experienced the beginning of life in the world as an unborn child, hidden in the womb of Mary. Mary knew that she was carrying the Son of God – God and man – as soon as He was conceived. John the Baptist leapt in his mother Elizabeth's womb when Mary greeted her. Our Lady treasured Our Lord in her heart and womb until His birth. To read the full bishops' message visit www.councilforlife.ie who died recently and for her family and friends saddened by their loss.

ANNUAL BLESSING OF GRAVES

St Mura's Parish Church, Sunday 14th June at 11.30am.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

In today's gospel Jesus encourages us to pray for vocations because there is a great need for workers in the abundant harvest of the Church and the world. We pray that those being called to do this work will respond generously. Here in the diocese of Derry we pray especially for Stephen Baxter who will be ordained as a priest for service in the diocese, in St Columb's Church, Waterside, at 3pm today, Sunday 14 June. May the Lord of the harvest bless Stephen in his ministry among us.

It is hoped that Fr Stephen Baxter will celebrate Mass in this parish on Friday 19 June at 7pm in Cockhill and offer his first blessing afterwards. All are welcome to this Mass.

BAPTISMS

We welcome into God's family the following children who were baptised:

Charlie Doherty Moness, Burt

May God guide and protect our children always

ADORATION IN ST MURA'S PARISH CHURCH will take place Friday after the 10am Mass.

All welcome

Granaghan Parish retreat a blessed time for all by Rosemary O'Kane, Photographs by Seamus Lagan.

THE Granaghan Parish was greatly blessed by the presence of Sr Perpetua McNulty, Fr Paschal McDonnell and Geraldine Brolly, from Thornhill Ministries, who had been asked by the parish priest, Fr Charles Keaney, to lead a retreat from Sunday, February 24 until Wednesday, February 27.

It was made clear from the start that this was to be a retreat not a Mission, in the old sense of the word, so parishioners were a bit unsure what to expect at the beginning. The theme of the retreat was 'Threads of Healing and Hope' and this was developed into threads of belonging, meaning, forgiveness and serenity.

Morning Mass was followed by a short period of prayer and on the Tuesday there was the Morning Prayer of the Church, with participation from various parishioners. There was also an opportunity one morning for the Sacrament of Reconciliation with Fr Paschal.

On the first night, a centrepiece was created by parishioners using symbols representing some of the threads binding them together as a faith community and this remained in place throughout the retreat.

Forgiveness and acceptance were the themes for the second night and on the Tuesday there was a special prayer vigil of healing.

At the start of the retreat, parishioners were encouraged to write their mothers' and fathers' surnames on an altar cloth. During the liturgy of healing, these names were read out and then the cloth was carried to the front and used to dress the altar before Mass at 10 pm. It was a very beautiful and moving experience listening to the names of those who came before – the names were threads connecting parishioners to their community, their family members and members of Granaghan faith community through the ages.

The final session of the retreat was based around serenity and trust, and holding on to the threads which connect our parish to the Lord.

Throughout the retreat, there was a palpable sense of faith and holiness, and a willingness to participate, from the children in the school who were joined by Sr Perpetua and Geraldine to explore expressing their faith through music, stories and meditation, to the congregation in the church, and it was obvious that the Holy Spirit was at work.

Heartfelt thanks were extended to the team from Thornhill Ministries for leading us in this very special time of prayer, and everyone got a chance to express their appreciation and chat about the experience over a cuppa in the local primary school at the close of the retreat.

Granaghan Parish reaping the rewards as...

Re-energised Fr Keaney reflects on priesthood and importance of sabbatical DELIGHTED at the success of the Thornhill Ministries led retreat in Granaghan, parish priest, Fr Charlie Keaney described it as "a time of healing and nourishment". Saying that there was time for Adoration, Anointing, Confession, and Contemplation, as well as the celebration of the Eucharist and Prayer of the Church at the start and end of each day, Fr Keaney added: "It truly was a gift of the spirit time and, hopefully, we all now have more vision of each other and will have more involvement in day-to-day parish life. We have been restored!"

Having taken a much-needed sabbatical in 2016, after over 40 years in the priesthood – 13 of which were spent as parish priest of Dunboe, Macosquin and Aghadowey – Fr Keaney returned from that "restored" and able to bring a new energy to his role since as parish priest of Granaghan.

Reflecting on his path to the priesthood, the only child of the late Charles and Kathleen Keaney, Coleraine, recalled growing up in a home where faith and prayer were important. In addition, he was taught in St John's Primary School which was run by the Loreto nuns at the time, so faith was a big part of school life.

"I was an altar server from the age of nine in my parish church, and I loved it," said Fr Keaney, who went on to attend St Columb's College in Derry as a boarder.

"St Columb's," he pointed out, "was known then as the minor seminary and prayer was a big part of life there. We had daily Mass and visits to the Blessed Sacrament, and night prayer.

"So, I grew up surrounded by prayer. Religion was a very strong part of my life and when I was considering the priesthood, it occurred to me that perhaps I should be a missionary priest, but I was told that the Diocese needed priests. I wasn't sure, however, I decided to give it a go and it worked out."

Fr Keaney was ordained on June 1, 1975, in St John's Church, Coleraine, and went on to minister in: St Eugene's; Our Lady of Lourdes, Steelstown; Sacred Heart, Omagh; St Finlough's, Ballykelly; Buncrana; St John's, Coleraine; and now St John the Baptist, Granaghan (Swatragh).

Commenting on his sabbatical in 2016, when he retired as parish priest of Coleraine, Fr Keaney said: "It wasn't that I was living at some distance from my vocation, as I was busy, engaged and attentive, but somehow I was running on automatic; I was running on empty."

"I was doing what St Charles Borromeo had warned his priests against – I was so involved in the needs of others that I was neglecting my own well-being, spiritually and otherwise. So, I knew I was long overdue a sabbatical. Diocesan priests are very bad at taking time out because of the nature of the ministry and the decreasing number of priests, but it actually improves their ministry by giving time to reflect."

Fr Keaney booked a sabbatical programme by the Oblates of Mary Immaculate in San Antonio, Texas, that had been recommended to him and it turned out to be one of the best experiences of his life to date.

Advertised as a programme for the seasoned pastor, Fr Keaney said that it focused on the four key aspects of the biblical Sabbath – ceasing, resting, embracing and feasting!

"I knew the programme was going to be good," he recalled, "when I looked at the schedule and the lecturers, but it far exceeded my expectations. There was a generosity of time and space to refocus, to achieve more balance and integration in life.

"I returned from my sabbatical with a new attitude, strong trust, a gentle confidence and a fresh approach."

The programme included an eight-day guided retreat, a day of recollection every few weeks, and a faith sharing group once a week. They celebrated Mass as a group three times a week and joined the rest of the community on the campus for the Eucharist at other times.

"At weekends, we went around the parishes to attend Mass," recalled Fr Keaney, "and with Mexican, African and American Masses amongst those to choose from, it was great to experience the various liturgies."

Amongst the group of missionary and diocesan priests and religious on the programme with him were about five Irish people, including Fr Paddy O'Kane, PP Holy Family, Ballymagroarty, and others from Australia, Vietnam, Sri Lanka, South Africa, Canada and America.

The classes covered such areas as theology, spirituality, the environment, health and well being, and scripture, and Fr Keaney was delighted that Fr Ron Rolheiser OMI, the president of the Oblate School of Theology there, was one of the lecturers on the programme.

Highly recommending the very balanced programme and the taking of a sabbatical, the 69-year-old described his five months in Texas as one of the highlights of his life: "It is good to meet new people and discover new ideas, and become energised, renewed and refreshed."

He remarked: "St Paul says always be happy in the Lord. We are redeemed and we should look redeemed."

Looking back on his priesthood, Fr Keaney said: "It has been challenging at times but it is worthwhile. I am glad that I made that decision all those years ago. I love the pastoral work, meeting people, visiting the sick, preaching and visiting the schools. I just live an ordinary life and I feel very blessed with my vocation and my family and friends."

THE BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST
SUNDAY 7 JUNE 2026

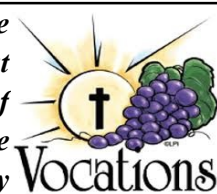

Amen!

Today we celebrate Corpus Christi - the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. We Catholics take Jesus at His word at the Last Supper when He took bread and wine and blessed them. Then, as He gave them to His disciples He said they were His Body and Blood. He didn't use the word "like." He didn't say they were symbols. He said, "This is My Body... This is My Blood."

When we receive Holy Communion the priest or Eucharistic Minister holds the sacred host in front of us and says, (This is the) "Body of Christ." Our response is "Amen" which means "It is true." It's our way of expressing our belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

Sadly, many people say nothing at all or mutter their "Amen". The same is sometimes true with the responses to the prayers of the Mass. Perhaps as we celebrate Corpus Christi this weekend we can pledge ourselves to being more fervent in expressing our Catholic faith.

We pray for the men who will serve the Church as priests of our diocese, that their faith in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist will be strengthened as they share the Body and Blood of Christ with their brothers and sisters.

The Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, which falls this year on Friday 12 June, is World Day of Prayer for Priests. We pray for Fr Pat and all priests through the intercession of St John Vianney, Patron of Priests, and St Catherine of Siena who held in very high regard the souls of priests because of the ministry entrusted to them.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Harvest is Rich Matthew 9:36–10:8

As Jesus looked upon the crowds, He was moved with compassion, seeing people who were “harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.” He then told His disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few,” urging them to pray for workers to be sent into God's harvest.

In a striking turn, those who prayed became the very labourers Jesus sent out. He gave them authority to proclaim the good news of God's kingdom and to minister to those in need, reminding them, “Freely you have received; freely give.”

This Gospel challenges us to see others through the compassionate eyes of Christ, to pray for the growth of God's kingdom, and to be willing to serve when He calls. Having received God's love and grace so freely, we are invited to share them generously with those around us SYMPATHY We offer our sympathy to the family of Paddy Logue Farland Way who died recently. May he rest in peace.

Tuesday 30th June at 7.30pm Drumagarner.

Members of Viatores Christi will speak at Masses in this parish during the Saturday Vigil and the Sunday Masses on the Weekend of 27th/28th June, 2026.

What is Viatores Christi?

Viatores Christi (VC), is an association of Catholic lay missionary/development workers, founded in 1960 VC brings about positive change by improving access to healthcare, education and livelihood opportunities in the marginalised communities in which we work.

Why are they talking at The Masses

- To raise awareness about the missionary work of the Church and the role of lay missionaries, both at home and overseas.
- To thank the people of the Derry Diocese for your work over the years
- To offer an opportunity and preparation to anyone who feels called to volunteer.
- To appeal for ongoing help both financially and above all through prayer.

There will be an exit collection in aid of the work of VC.

11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“The harvest is great but the labourers are few.” When we look at the world, we live in we mainly see problems. When Jesus looks at the same world, he sees possibilities. When we think of labourers we think mainly of priests/religious. When Jesus thinks of labourers, he thinks of people who live by love. And there are potentially very many of those kinds of people among us. There are wonderful people in every community who give themselves quietly in the service of others week in week out. There are many parents who work hard at handing on the gift of faith to their children. Are you among those? There are married couples who treasure their marriage as a vocation and work hard at developing their marriage as a light for the world. How do you see your vocation? What are you willing to put into it?

Father Johnny Doherty, C.Ss.R.

A short reflection on today's Gospel Matthew 9:36-10:8

In today's Gospel, Jesus looks upon the crowds with compassion because they are "harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd." He sees their struggles, fears, and needs, and His heart is moved with love for them. This image reminds us that God never looks upon us with indifference. He knows our burdens and continually reaches out to guide, strengthen, and care for us.

Jesus first tells His disciples to pray for labourers for the harvest, teaching us that every vocation and every mission in the Church begins with prayer. We are invited to pray that more people will respond generously to God's call to serve Him in priesthood, religious life, and lay ministry.

Jesus then sends His disciples out to proclaim the Good News, heal the sick, and bring hope to those in need. Having received God's gifts, they are called to share them freely with others. The same mission belongs to us today. Through our kindness, encouragement, generosity, and witness of faith, we can help bring Christ's presence into the lives of those around us.

This Gospel invites us to see others with the compassionate eyes of Christ. In a world where many people experience loneliness, anxiety, or uncertainty, even a simple act of care can make a real difference. The Lord continues to call ordinary people to be His instruments of mercy, peace, and hope. May we respond generously to Christ's call, trusting in His guidance and grace. As we have freely received God's love, may we freely share it with all whom we meet.

Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood: In today's gospel Jesus encourages us to pray for vocations because there is a great need for workers in the abundant harvest of the Church and the world. We pray that those being called to do this work will respond generously. Here in the diocese of Derry we pray especially for Stephen Baxter who will be ordained as a priest for service in the diocese, in St Columb's Church, Waterside, at 3pm today, Sunday 14th June. May the Lord of the harvest bless Stephen in his ministry among us.

The St Dymphna Mass with Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated at St Eugene's Cathedral on Tuesday 16th June at 7.30pm. This Mass is to give thanks to God for positive mental health and to pray for those who are struggling with mental health issues and those who care for them.

Prayer to Our Lady of Mental Peace

Mother of tranquility, Mother of Hope, Our Lady of Mental Peace. We reach out to you for what is needful in our weakness. Teach a searching heart that God's love is unchanging, that human love begins and grows by touching God's love.

Let your gentle peace- which the world cannot give – be always with me. And help me to bring this same peace into the lives of others.

Our Lady of Mental Peace – pray for me.

Resurrection

On wings of living light
At earliest dawn of day
Came down the angel bright
And rolled the stone away

Your voices raise
With one accord
To bless and praise
Your risen Lord

Ye children of the light
Arise with Him, arise
See how the Daystar bright
Is burning in the skies

Leave in the grave beneath
The old things passed away
Buried with Him in death
O live with Him today

We sing thee Lord Divine
With all our hearts and powers
For we are ever thine
And thou art ever ours.

Thank you. Keep it up!

During Lent it was most encouraging to see how many parishioners attended weekday Mass,

If you are free to do so, please come along to weekday Mass because by doing so you cannot imagine the number of graces and blessing that you bring upon yourself, your loved ones, the sick and all who stand in need of God's help, protection, comfort and healing.

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

PRAYING FOR ONE ANOTHER

Please prayer for the intentions of all those who live or work in the areas listed each day.

Jesus, help us to make you the centre of our lives. Through the power of your Holy Spirit, help us to repent of the wrongs we have done, that we may be refreshed in spirit and renewed in hope.

Through that same Spirit, help us to be good to one another and to be faithful to you, as we live out our vocations: married, single, priest, religious, so that our homes and our parish may be filled with your presence and be powerful sources of your peace. Amen.

LENT 2021: 40 DAYS TOGETHER WITH JESUS

Lent is an opportunity to pray, fast and give as a Parish community with other Christians throughout the world. You are invited to join the Parish Lenten programme each day.

It is an invitation to come together and closer to Jesus for these forty days.

Weekday Masses

Monday to Friday 7.45am, 10am, Saturday 10am.

Each day we will pray for the members of our Parish community in different streets. The list will be printed in the Newsletter, on the facebook page and on prayer cards at the back of the Church.

Evening Session

There will be prayer at 7pm for half an hour:

Monday Time of Adoration

Wednesday Scripture Reflection: Taking the time led by Thornhill ministries

Friday Stations of the Cross

Lenten Talks

Every Thursday Fr Columba will give a series of talks, Little by Little. He will focus on how we live our faith day by day and little by little. These talks can be accessed on our Facebook page every Thursday.

Bishop McKeown

On the Tuesdays of Lent at 7pm Bishop Donal is hosting a series of conversations with members of the wider community reflecting on Lent and our present reality.
