THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sunday 25th October 2026

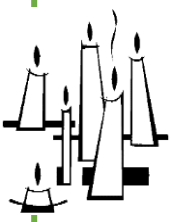

List of the Dead: envelopes and lists were distributed to the homes of the parish in September. As November approaches you are invited to prepare your list and return it at weekend Mass, to the Parochial House letterbox or to the box beside the ambo in Athboy Church. Masses on All Souls Day (2nd November) and on First Fridays during the year will be offered for the names on your List of the Dead

Halloween Parish Bingo: today 25th October, 3pm in Darley Lodge. All support welcome.

Next Sunday 1st November: is Feast of All Saints.

Remembrance Mass: for parishioners who have died in the past year and for the comfort of their families, will be offered Saturday 7th November, at 6.15pm. Our departed loved ones are always in our hearts and we welcome all parishioners to join in remembering and praying for your own deceased family members and friends during this time of prayer, music and reflection.

Irish Catholic: is available for sale in Athboy Church, please note the price has increased to €3.80.

We sincerely thank all who support our parish finance during the year. You can donate to our parish via online banking and setting up a weekly/monthly direct debit to: Bank of Ireland, Trim

If you would like to have the names of those belonging to you who have died included in this year's NOVEMBER LIST OF THE DEAD please take an Altar List of the Dead envelope and sheet (available from the back of the churches) and return them to the church sacristies after Mass or to the Parochial Houses. The names will be remembered in all Masses during November and in our First Friday Masses.

A LITANY OF REMEMBRANCE – WE REMEMBER THEM
In the rising of the sun and in its going down we remember them;
In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter we remember them;
In the opening of the buds and in the warmth of summer we remember them;
In the rustling of the leaves and the beauty of the autumn we remember them;
In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them;
When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them;
When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them.
So long as we live, they too shall live for they are now a part of us as we remember them. Jewish Reform Prayer Book 'Gate of Prayer'

The Commandments of Love.
In our Gospel this week when Jesus was asked which was the greatest commandment of the law of Moses, he answered, not with his own words or ideas, but with the words of God to Moses and with the words he himself, as a Jewish man, prayed twice each day. We hear them in the Gospel as God's word to us as Christians. If we are being called in our present world to do one thing – then it has to be the call to proclaim love and hope in a world increasingly hearing calls to hate and fear. All around us, in midterm elections, in riots in European cities, in wars ravaging whole regions of our world, in tariff wars, in soaring gas and diesel prices, in rising inflation and cost of living, leaders and politicians and those with vested interests in unrest and polarisation, sow seeds of hate and use fear as a weapon to divide people. Never before has this Gospel been more pertinent and relevant to our times. We live within a divided and fearful world, but we should not give our allegiance to a divided and fearful world. Our allegiance is to the Kingdom of God; the Kingdom won for us by Jesus; the Kingdom where death is conquered by resurrection, hate is conquered by love, and fear is conquered by hope; the Kingdom where we can "love the Lord our God with all our heart, and with all our soul, and with all our mind… and love our neighbour as ourselves."

ARDCATH G.A.A. MONSTER AUCTION takes place in Bennett's on Friday, 30 October. Enjoy a fantastic evening of community spirit, great value bargains and exciting auction lots while supporting the ongoing development of our club. Your generosity and support are greatly appreciated. Bring family and friends for what promises to be an enjoyable night.

MAY GOD BLESS YOU ABUNDANTLY! We extend our heartfelt gratitude to our wonderful benefactors for your generous donations of products for this year's Harvest Thanksgiving Mass. Your offerings have truly blessed our celebration and will bring comfort to those in need.

WELCOME TO OUR PARISH! You have arrived in a rural Catholic community living the Gospel through Eucharist, prayer, and charity. Rooted in faith and Irish heritage. Journeying together in Christ: spreading faith, nurturing communion, sharing God's blessings. May you feel as good as possible among us and benefit from this experience!

HARVEST THANKSGIVING: This Sunday our Harvest Thanksgiving Masses provide an opportunity to give thanks for the fruits of the earth, the dedication of our farming families, and God's blessings throughout the year. As a parish community, we come together in prayer and gratitude, celebrating our rural heritage, faith, and shared responsibility for caring for creation.

ANNUAL MASSES FOR THE BEREAVED: We warmly invite the families of parishioners who have died since last November to the Annual Masses for the Bereaved on the weekend of 7th-8th November. Together, we will remember our loved ones in prayer, give thanks for their lives, and find comfort, strength, and hope in our faith and parish community.

JESUS STORY: My children, listen carefully. No one knows the day or the hour when I will come. So be ready, not with fear, but with love. Stay close to Me through prayer, kindness, and faithfulness. Let your hearts be awake and your hands ready to do good, so that whenever I come, I will find you living in My love.

8 DAYS OF LIGHT – WE REMEMBER THEM: From 1st to 8th November, our parish invites you to our Novena for All Souls. Add the names of your loved ones to the Garden of Remembrance and join us each mass in prayer. We conclude with our Annual Remembrance Mass on Sunday, 8th November. A special welcome to all who have been bereaved during the past year.

HABITS OF THE HEART: Jesus teaches us to be ready, watchful, and faithful every day. Develop the habit of being prepared by living with prayer, kindness, and trust in God. A prepared heart welcomes every opportunity to love, serve, and do good. Readiness is not fearfully waiting for tomorrow, but faithfully living for Christ today.

NOVENA FOR ALL SOULS: Join us for our Novena for All Souls as we prayerfully remember the faithful departed. On 2 November, Candle Mass in Curragha at 7:30pm followed by a candle procession to the cemetery. Throughout the week: rosaries, family prayer, school Masses, adoration, and on 7-8 November our Annual Masses for the Bereaved. Together, the Pilgrim Church prays for the Suffering Church.

ABC OF FAITH: Befriending means welcoming others with kindness, respect, and care. Jesus called His disciples friends and showed them the power of faithful friendship. A good friend listens, encourages, forgives, and helps others grow. By befriending those around us, we share Christ's love and make our communities warmer, stronger, and happier.

NEW NUNCIO TO IRELAND: Holy Father Pope Leo XIV has appointed Archbishop Jan Romeo Pawłowski, formerly Apostolic Nuncio to Greece, as the new Apostolic Nuncio to Ireland. Welcoming the appointment, Archbishop Eamon Martin, President of the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference, expressed great joy and assured Archbishop Pawłowski of prayers and best wishes as he begins his ministry among the people of Ireland.

INCENTIVE SUPER-RESPONSE TENDENCY: We are often motivated by rewards, praise, or recognition. Jesus teaches us to do good not only for what we gain, but because it is right and loving. True disciples serve with generous hearts, seeking God's approval above all. Love grows strongest when goodness becomes its own reward.

NOON BELLS: Every day at noon, church bells ring across Europe, recalling a historic victory and a living faith. Introduced by Pope Callixtus III in 1456 after Iancu de Hunedoara's triumph at Belgrade, they call Christians to prayer, gratitude, and remembrance. Their sound continues to echo courage, unity, and trust in God's providence.

NOVEMBER LIST OF THE DEAD: As November, the Month of the Holy Souls, approaches, parishioners are invited to submit their List of the Dead for remembrance at all November Masses and First Fridays. Envelopes are available in church. Through prayer and remembrance, we honour our loved ones and entrust them to God's eternal mercy and peace.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCILS formation pending in both Curragha and Ardcath/Clonalvy, with the new councils in place by December. The Bishop asks all councils to priorities welcoming and involving young people returning to parish life. Ardcath also seeks a new Finance Committee member with entry-level accounting experience to support ongoing stewardship and planning.

CHRIST THE KING YOUTH FESTIVAL invites secondary school students to a joyful day of faith, friendship and inspiration on Sunday, 22 November 2026, in Mullingar. With Mass, talks, testimonies, games, prayer and Adoration, the theme is "Take courage! I have overcome the world" (John 16:33). Free buses available. Register via Eventbrite today.

List of the Dead: The practice of compiling a list of relatives and benefactors who have gone before us and are remembered each month on the First Friday is an old and valued tradition in the Church. If you would like those who have gone before you remembered at these Masses then please complete a List of the Dead envelope and leave in the Parish Office in St. Mary's or the Sacristy in Holy Family Church before the1st November.

REMEMBRANCE MASSES: We have two special commemorative Masses in November for those who have died in the last year, from November 2025 - November 2026.
Holy Family Church - Mass on Saturday 7th November at 7.30pm (music by Lourdes Brass Band)
St. Mary's Church - Mass on Friday 27th November at 7pm.
Letters of Invitation will be sent out to all families in the coming weeks. These masses are also for family members who have died elsewhere. If you would like to have your loved one remembered in these special masses, please contact St. Mary's Parish Office or Mary McNally in Holy Family Sacristy. A candle with their name will be lit during the mass and you may take this candle home with you after the mass and perhaps light it for your loved one at Christmas time or on a family occasion.

BANK HOLIDAY MONDAY 26TH OCTOBER - MASS AT 11AM

OCTOBER is the Month dedicated to the Holy Rosary and also to the Mission of the Church. Despite everything, we know how blessed we are to live in this part of the world. So let us count our blessings and pray for those who live in parts of the world crippled with great distress. 'We fly to Thy protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our petitions in our necessities, but deliver us always from all dangers, O Glorious and Blessed Virgin'. Pope Leo has asked us to dedicate the daily Rosary for peace in our world.

PARISH LIST OF THE DEAD As we approach November, we compile our own individual list of our beloved dead and add them to the Parish List of the Dead 2026. The Parish List of the Dead envelopes are available in the Churches, in your box of Parish Envelopes or simply write on a plain envelope Parish List of the Dead and enclose your name, address, offering and list of beloved dead. Please return to the Parochial House / Office or put into the collection bags at weekend masses. On Friday 6th November at 7:30pm in St. Colmcille's Church a special Mass of Memory will be offered, at which we will think especially of the parishioners whom we have buried since this time last year. We invite their families to join us for this Memorial, as we recognise their grief and support them with our prayers. We also invite other parishioners who may have lost loved ones and celebrated their funerals elsewhere. Please come and join with us as we pray for the gentle repose of their souls in the eternal love and mercy of God.

We will have a Mass of Remembrance for those who have died in the past year on Saturday 14th Nov. at 7.30pm. There will be candles available at the church entrance for families who were bereaved in the past year, to bring a candle to the table in front of the Altar for their deceased loved one as their name is read out during Mass. Please decide before Mass which family member will carry the candle to the table.

The death of someone you love is always traumatic. Their passing leaves a void in your life and home. We turn to family and friends to console us in our grieving. We also turn to God and his Word for consolation. We read in the Gospel Jesus' great promise, "Trust in God still and trust in me. There are many rooms in my Father's house." As a community, we will gather to support each other and turn to God in prayer for our deceased loved ones at our Remembrance Mass.

Heavenly Father, we entrust Pope Leo to Your loving care. Grant him strength, comfort, and complete healing as he faces this illness. Guide his doctors and bless those caring for him. Through the intercession of Mary, Help of Christians, may he recover soon and continue serving Your Church faithfully. Amen.

"Hunger cannot be considered a statistical anomaly, for it is caused mainly by a lack of political will and collective charity. Nor are food shortages geographically unavoidable. Indeed, in an era of greater technological advancement than ever before, it is intolerable that bread should be considered a privilege and water a contested commodity. Regular access to safe, adequate and sufficient food, in keeping with the dignity of every person, is a basic human right. Guaranteeing this right is an obligation of justice that binds both individual States and the international community. And yet, while innovations accelerate production, distribution is being neglected. Grain markets are being optimized on stock exchanges, while the actual seeds that germinate in the soil fall into the hands of monopolies that suffocate small-scale farming. ….. The myth that growth can be endless when resources are limited has reached breaking point. Today, innovation requires adopting an intergenerational sense of responsibility that looks beyond annual budgets. Innovation means reconciling technology with wisdom, including ancestral wisdom, while maintaining a vision for the future. It is not a matter of rejecting technological advances, but rather of integrating them with the wisdom of farmers who have deepened their understanding of the soil and the climate through centuries of conscientious observation. This likewise involves protecting water as an inalienable common good." Pope Leo's message for the 2026 World Food Day

November is the month we pray especially for our family, parents and friends who have died. We pray that the Lord will welcome them into the happiness of heaven. "Death is the passage to the fullness of true life. The Church, subverting the logic of this world, calls the Christian's day of death his dies natalis, the day of his heavenly birth, where "there will be no more death, and no more mourning or sadness [for] the world of the past has gone" (Aps 21, 4). Death is the prolongation, in a new way, of life as the Liturgy says: "For your faithful, O Lord, life has changed not ended; while our earthly dwelling is destroyed, a new and eternal dwelling is prepared for us in Heaven.

The List of the Dead envelope is in the packet of Parish envelopes you received earlier this year, or you can write out your list and place them in an envelope marked List of The Dead. Masses are said for all those on the Parish List of the Dead on the Feast of All Souls and on the First Friday of each month throughout the year.

Parish Pastoral Planning:	The Parish Pastoral Team held their recent monthly meeting. Among the items discussed and planned were 1. Harvest Mass. 2. Preparations for the Masses of Remembrance and for deceased children in November. 3.There was feedback from the recent meeting of the parishes from the pastoral area. 4. The Parish Baptism Policy was again reaffirmed, with the members of the baptismal team thanked and acknowledged for their great work. It was noted that all baptism arrangements can only be made with The Baptismal Team at the monthly meeting in The Parish Centre, held on the first Thursday of every month, and not through The Parish Office. 5. The recent blessing of pets to mark the end of the season of creation was noteworthy. 6. A Mass of Remembrance for the members of the local deceased sporting clubs was agreed for November 21st at 6p.m.and the deceased religious and priests will have a special Mass on November 22nd at 12 noon. 7. Preparations were begun for the annual service in January to mark the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.
The Emmaus Pastoral Area:	The parishes of the Emmaus Pastoral Area held their autumn meeting last week. They shared ideas and suggestions on sacramental preparation in their parishes. There was a short discussion on youth development with offering The Samuel Group to young people and the upcoming Youth Day in Mullingar on November 22nd. They had presentations from The Bethany Team and a timely one on addiction from FASN. They have also agreed on an evening of retreat and recollection in the spring for our Pastoral Area.

From the National Synodal Assembly

In answer to the question, "What does God want of the Church at this time?", the proposals suggest at first glance what God might be asking us to do. But there is something else! They are also pointing to what God might be asking us to be. Or what God might be asking us to become. Actions can too easily be put in a corner and be seen as the responsibility of someone else. But becoming is something that belongs to us all. It's about our shared identity – not just about what we do, but who we are. It's about growth. It's about conversion. It's about becoming the People that God wants us to be. Actions can be decided, implemented, and completed. But growth, change, conversion, becoming – are a journey over time. A journey of becoming

- a Church that proclaims the Gospel
- a Church that is a community of belonging
- a Church that is a place of healing
- a Church that accompanies
- a Church that empowers for ministry and co-responsibility.

The proposals now find their place in a vision of the Church that we are seeking to become. And we can all find ourselves in this vision of the Church. The pathways offer a real alternative to the polarised and polarising discourse that characterises so much of the life of our Church and our world. They offer us a way of being together. And long after recommendations from today have been decided, implemented, evaluated, the pathways will continue to offer us ways of becoming, ways of finding our identity, and ways of walking the path together.

Next Sunday 11am Remembrance Mass

We look forward to welcoming the families of the 50 people who died in our parish over the past 12 months.

List of the Dead - please return

The pages are available to be completed. Please bring one home with you. We want to get the annual list completed as soon as possible in early November so that everyone can be remembered during the month for the dead.

Special collection next month for Meals on Wheels

There will be an opportunity for parishioners to contribute to the work of the Parish Meals on Wheels on the weekend of 7 – 8 November. Last year, there was a deficit of over €6,000 of expenditure over income. This follows a similar experience in 2024 when income was €67,423 but costs rose to €77,586. The parish relies on donations and fundraising to meet this shortfall. The parish finance committee decided that an exit collection will take place in two week's time for Meals on Wheels.

Teenagers – Meath diocesan youth day, Sunday 22 November

This event for teenagers will take place in Mullingar next month and it promises to be a really exciting day for secondary school students. For more information, call the parish office (046 94 31251) or email meathteens@gmail.com.

Children's Gospel Stories Returning again next month

Children aged 5 – 8 years will be welcome to join Sarah and Mark during the first part of Mass when the readings will be explained to them in a child-friendly way. This takes place in the family room beside the altar. Sarah and Mark have undertaken training for this role and they are delighted to welcome as many children as possible.

Catholics increase worldwide as number of priests edges upward

The number of Catholics worldwide rose by 16.69 million to 1.422 billion last year. Catholics accounted for 17.8 percent of a global population of almost 8 billion. For the first time in five years, there is an increase in the total number of priests in the world. The total reached 407,421, up 425 from the previous year. Africa was the only continent to register an increase in religious sisters. The number of seminarians fell by 2,891 to 103,604. Lay missionaries increased by 18,473 to 463,079. The Church also runs 75,448 kindergartens, 103,666 primary schools, and 51,810 secondary schools. Healthcare and charitable network include 101,110 facilities, 5,397 hospitals as well as 13,646 dispensaries.

Pope Leo XIV's doctors confirm 'no further treatment is necessary'

Pope Leo XIV's doctors confirm that the tumour removed earlier this month was a lung adenocarcinoma and that the disease was localised, noting that "no further treatment is necessary." We continue to keep the Holy Father in our prayers.
